INTRODUCTION

The Danish Church Registers of Zion's Church, Tranquebar, were formerly in the custody of the Registrar of the Madras Diocese (see F. Penny "The Church in Madras," London, 1904, p. 256 and corrigenda). They are now in the Madras Record Office.

The following list of marriages extracted from the registers is intended as a supplement to H. Dodwell’s List of Marriages registered in the Presidency of Fort St. George 1680–1800. With a single exception, i.e., John Godelin, with Florencia de Costa (Dodwell, p. 25), no marriage registered in the Zion Church Register is found in Mr. Dodwell’s list, which refers merely to the Presidency of Fort St. George, but not to the Danish colony of Tranquebar. The Zion Church Registers cover the period from 1767 until 1845, when the colony was sold to the East Indian Company by Treaty dated Feb. 22, 1846. The registers contain Danish, Portuguese, French, Dutch, German and a great number of English and Scottish names (e.g., Aitken, Argiland, Brown, Bruce, Crompton, Macleod, Mackenzie, Norfor, Portbury, Wright, &c.), and marriages between Britishers and Danes have been frequent both in times of war and of peace. A number of Anglo-Indian families in South India descend from these Brio–Danish marriages. “The great irregularities in the spelling of names”, complained of by Mr. Dodwell is equally common in the Danish Registers (e.g., Mackinzie or Mackentzie). In the list here given the usual spelling of well-known family names has been adhered to (e.g., Mühldorff instead of Mühldorff). In some cases the Christian names, either omitted in the Marriage register or illegible because of the bad condition of the register, have been supplemented from the other registers (baptismal or funeral). In the case of widows re-marrying, their maiden-names, if known, have been entered.

Re-marriage was very common in Tranquebar. We find, for example, that Ellen Christine Panck during the short period of less than six years married three times. On December 11, 1770 she married the Pastor of Zion Church, the Reverend Peder Mandrup Tuxen. He died on May 17, 1772, and on September 7, 1772 she married his successor the Reverend Caspar Const. Moller, and after his death on May 27, 1776 she married as her third husband, on November 13, 1776, “Under-Bogholder ” Ivar Lyche.

The great majority of the marriages were solemnized in private residences, very few in the Church itself. Under the British occupation of Tranquebar 1808–1815 it looks as if wedding celebrations in the Church itself became more common, and on April 24, 1809 the English chaplain solemnized in Zion Church the marriage of A. H. Kelso, Esq., the English Commissioner, with Miss Maria Rosalia Colbjørnsen, not yet 16 years old, the daughter of Jacob Edward Colbjørnsen, Chief Justice and Member of Council in the Danish service. This marriage was probably performed in the Lutheran Church in accordance with the Anglican rite. The entry in the register is signed by “M. A. Keating, Chaplain” who was Anglican Chaplain, Trichinopoly, 1807–10, and in this connection it may also be mentioned that by a Government Order, dated Tranquebar April 9, 1839, the Rev. Hans Kaudsen, Pastor of Zion Church obtains permission for the Missionary, Mr. Kolthoff, to baptize in the Jerusalem Church (the church of the Mission) a child of the Englishman, Mr. Pohle, “a resident in this place” in accordance with “the English rite”—“because that which is asked for has been repeatedly done, and especially as it—as seen in the Church Register—has been done twice in the year 1837, and also because it by law is allowed in the Danish West-Indian islands.” The Government permit such marriages, “provided that the (Zion) Church and its servants do not suffer loss in their income thereby.”

In the list the names with the prefix ‘van’ (Dutch) are tabulated under ‘V’ the names with the prefix ‘von’ under the initial of the name itself (von Rehling under Rehling) and all names beginning with ‘de’ (French) or ‘da’ (Portuguese) under ‘D.’
