

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-003281

POLITICS AND PERSONALITIES

BY THE SAME AUTHOR
PORTRAITS OF THE SEVENTIES

SECOND IMPRESSION

Illustrated. Cloth, 15s. net

Reminiscences and character studies of people noted in politics, in the Church, in literature and in society as they appeared in the 'seventies and 'eighties. Mr. Gladstone, Lord Beaconsfield, Lord Acton, Mr. Bright, Dr. Liddon, Lord and Lady Salisbury, Archbishop Tait, Lord Randolph Churchill, Lord and Lady Mount Temple, the Duke and Duchess of Westminster, the Duke and Duchess of Sutherland, Lord and Lady Spencer, Archbishop Magee, Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Parnell, and Mr. Bradlaugh are among the many of whom Mr. Russell gives "appreciations."

"A truly gracious book is Mr. G. W. E. Russell's . . . There are many diarists of the period which he knows so well, but none other has just the same well-balanced outlook on things as they were, and few have had the same opportunities. . . . There can be no doubt that a hundred years hence people will be reading Russell in preference to a host of others."—The Bystander.

"An exceptionally entertaining book . . . there is plenty of new and deeply interesting matter."—The Guardian.

"Mr. Russell is the best of story-tellers. He has kept a diary since he was a boy, and he has but to turn to it like a cave of treasure in order to find the materials for a new and delightful book. . . . Mr. Russell has given us a book full of good humour and good feeling as well as good reading."—The Daily News.

LONDON: T. FISHER UNWIN LTD.

POLITICS AND PERSONALITIES

With Other Essays by

THE RIGHT HON.

GEORGE W. E. RUSSELL

T. FISHER UNWIN LTD.
LONDON: ADELPHI TERRACE

First published in 1917
Second Impression 1917

KM.53
- E7

3281

(All rights reserved)

TO LANCELOT RIDLEY PHELPS
PROVOST OF ORIEL
IN HONOUR OF A FRIENDSHIP
WHICH BEGAN WHEN WE WERE FRESHMEN

NOTE

THIS book owes its existence to the kindness of Mr. Fisher Unwin, who happened to see some of the papers which compose it, and judged them worthy of reproduction.

My best thanks for permission to reproduce them are due to the Editors of the Daily News, the Manchester Guardian, the Nation, and the Cornhill Magazine.

G. W. E. R.

June 26, 1917.

CONTENTS

I.—POLITICS AND THE CONSTITUTION

	PAGE
I. TYRANNICIDE	15
II. A FORGOTTEN PHRASE	23
III. ARISTOCRACY	31
IV. THE HAWARDEN KITE	39
V. JOHN BULL IN IRELAND	46
VI. M.P. OR DELEGATE ?	53
VII. SCAPEGOATS	60
VIII. DISAFFECTION AND ITS REMEDY	67
IX. REPUBLICANISM	75
X. ROYALTY	82
XI. DICTATORSHIP	93
XII. THE WHIGS AND THE CONSTITUTION	100
XIII. FRANCE IN ENGLAND	111

II.—IDEALS AND WAR

I. CONSCIENCE AND CASUISTRY	121
II. CONSCIENCE AND COURAGE	128

CONTENTS

	PAGE
III. THE TRUSTEES OF POSTERITY	136
IV. THRIFT	157
V. CHIVALRY	165
VI. THE DARK SIDE OF SCIENCE	172
VII. WATERLOO	179
VIII. GREECE	187

III.—PERSONALITIES, ANCIENT AND MODERN

I. A QUEEN READY-MADE	197
II. AN UNCROWNED KING	217
III. MISS JENKINS AND THE DUKE	229
IV. A NEST OF WHIGGERY	250
V. DEMAGOGUES	262
VI. FROM ROME TO LONDON	270
VII. THE POWER OF SPEECH	277
VIII. CONSCIENCE AND ACTION	285

IV.—MISCELLANEA

I. DESTINY	295
II. THE SPIRITS IN PRISON	304
III. EDUCATION	311

CONTENTS

	PAGE
IV. A DISREGARDED PROPHET	318
V. GHOSTS	325
VI. WHY THURSDAY?	334
VII. IN HONOUR BOUND	341
VIII. HATFIELD	348
IX. BISHOPS AND ECONOMY	355
X. CONSIDERATION	362