

EAST INDIA (JAILS COMMITTEE),

R E P O R T

OF THE

INDIAN JAILS COMMITTEE,

1919-20.

---

Presented to Parliament by Command of His Majesty.

---

LONDON:

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HIS MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE.

To be purchased through any Bookseller or directly from
H.M. STATIONERY OFFICE at the following addresses:
IMPERIAL HOUSE, KINGSWAY, LONDON, W.C.2, and 28, ABINGDON STREET, LONDON, S.W.1;
37, PETER STREET, MANCHESTER; 1, ST. ANDREW'S CRESCENT, CARDIFF;
23, FORTH STREET, EDINBURGH;
or from E. PONSONBY, LTD., 116, GRAFTON STREET, DUBLIN.

1921.

[Cmd. 1303.] Price 6s. Net.

Y:45:62.2.N2t

F11
15222

NOTE.

In certain passages of the Report references are made to building plans. These plans are not attached to the present issue of the Report as being unlikely to be of general interest, but are obtainable free of charge on application to the Record Department (Parliamentary Branch), India Office.

INDIAN JAILS COMMITTEE, 1919-20.

The Resolution appointing the Committee [Government of India : Home Department (Jails) Resolution, No. 63, dated Simla, the 28th April 1919] is printed as Appendix I.

SIR ALEXANDER G. CARDEW, K.C.S.I., I.C.S., .. .. . Chairman.
Member of the Executive Council, Madras.

Sir James H. DUBOULAY, K.C.I.E., C.S.I., I.C.S.,
*Secretary to the Government of India,
Home Department.*

Colonel James JACKSON, C.I.E., I.M.S.,
*late Inspector-general of Prisons,
Bombay.*

Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Walter J. BUCHANAN,
K.C.I.E., I.M.S. (retired),
late Inspector-general of Prisons, Bengal.

Khan Bahadur KHALIFA SYED HAMID HUSAIN,
Delhi.

D. M. DORAI RAJAH, of Pudukottah, B.A., B.L.,
Madras.

Norman G. MITCHELL-INNES, Esq.,
*Inspector of Prisons, Home Office,
London.*

Donald JOHNSTONE, Esq., I.C.S., .. .. . Secretary.
Punjab.

John W. STEADMAN, Esq., .. .. . Assistant Secretary.
India Office, London.

	QUESTIONS.
Volume I : Report and Appendices
Volume II : Minutes of Evidence taken in England, the Madras Presidency, and the Andamans	1-6705
Volume III : Minutes of Evidence taken in Burma, Bengal and Assam	6706-12586
Volume IV : Minutes of Evidence taken in Bihar and Orissa, the Central Provinces and the Bombay Presidency	12587-20700
Volume V : Minutes of Evidence taken in the United Provinces, the Punjab and the North-West Frontier Province	20701-29649

CONTENTS OF VOLUME I.

CHAPTER I.—INTRODUCTORY.

	PAGE.
1. Subjects for inquiry	25
2. Inspections in Great Britain	25
3. Witnesses in Great Britain	25
4. Visit to the United States	26
5. Visits to Japan, the Philippines and Hong Kong	27
6. Interrogatories and procedure in India	27
7. Tour in India and Burma	28

CHAPTER II.—HISTORICAL RESUME.

8. Prison reform in England	29
9. Prison reform in India—Committee of 1836-38	29
10. " " Committee of 1864	30
11. " " Conference of 1877	30
12. " " Committee of 1888-89	30
13. " " Progress since 1889	31
14. Present position of Indian jail administration	31

CHAPTER III.—GENERAL PROPOSITIONS and SCHEME of REPORT.

15. Aim of prison administration	33
16. Essentials of prison administration :
"    "    (i) Expert superintendence	33
17. "    "    (ii) A properly selected and paid staff	33
18. "    "    (iii) Classification	34
19. "    "    (iv) Reformatory influences	34
20. "    "    (v) Aid to prisoners on release	34
21. "    "    (vi) Measures to prevent imprisonment	35
22. "    "    (vii) Measures to shorten imprisonment	35
23. Scheme of Report	36
24. Outlay on reform—a true economy	36

CHAPTER IV.—INSPECTION and SUPERINTENDENCE of PRISONS.

	PAGE.
25. Growth of movement for concentration of prisoners in central jails . . . . .	38
26. Maximum number of prisoners in a single jail . . . . .	38
27. Concentration of prisoners in central jails recommended . . . . .	38
28. Present position in regard to concentration . . . . .	39
29. Whole-time superintendent for every central jail recommended . . . . .	39
30. Present position of district jails . . . . .	40
31. Increasing burden of work on civil surgeons . . . . .	40
32. Civil surgeon unable to devote sufficient time to jail work . . . . .	41
33. A whole-time superintendent for larger district jails recommended . . . . .	41
34. Recruitment of superintendents of district jails from the jailor class . . . . .	41
35. Promotion of jailors to be deputy superintendents in charge of manufactures not approved . . . . .	42
36. Recruitment of superintendents of district jails from other sources . . . . .	42
37. Scale of pay for superintendents of district jails . . . . .	42
38. Medical charge of district jails and allowances therefor . . . . .	43
39. Charge of district jail during absence of civil surgeon on tour . . . . .	43
40. Possible effect of the Government of India Act, 1919 . . . . .	44
41. Arguments for and against combination of executive and medical functions in central jails . . . . .	44
42. Committee's conclusions . . . . .	45
43. Same subject continued . . . . .	45
44. The Inspector-general of Prisons . . . . .	46
45. Periodical conferences of Inspectors-general recommended . . . . .	46
46. Training of superintendents . . . . .	46
47. Study leave for study of jail administration . . . . .	47
48. Views of D. M. Dorai Rajah of Pudukottah and Mr. Mitchell-Innes . . . . .	47
49. Views of Colonel Jackson and Sir Walter Buchanan . . . . .	48

CHAPTER V.—PRISON ESTABLISHMENT.

Section I.—Executive and Clerical Staff.

50. Staff to be divided into two branches, executive and clerical . . . . .	50
51. Recruitment of executive branch . . . . .	50
52. Pay and duties of jailors . . . . .	51
53. Practice of making excessive recoveries from jailor's pay . . . . .	51
54. Jailor to be relieved as far as possible of clerical work . . . . .	52
55. Pay and duties of the deputy jailor . . . . .	53
56. Pay and duties of the clerical branch . . . . .	54
57. Effect of higher pay on clerical staff . . . . .	54
58. European warders . . . . .	55
59. Quarters and recreation room . . . . .	55
60. Probation . . . . .	55
61. Rule 308 of United Provinces Jail Manual . . . . .	55

Section II.—Warder Establishment.

	PAGE.
62. Insufficiency of present rates of pay of warder establishment . . . . .	56
63. Need for improved class of warder . . . . .	57
64. Increased scale of pay and provision of family quarters recommended . . . . .	57
65. Other recommendations relating to warder establishment . . . . .	58
66. Appointment of chief warder suggested . . . . .	59
67. Police to be relieved of any part of the guarding of central and district jails . . . . .	59
68. Increase of strength recommended . . . . .	59
69. Basis of scale of warder establishment to be adopted . . . . .	60
70. Circle reserve system in Bengal . . . . .	60

Section III.—Medical Staff.

71. Present method of deputing medical subordinates to Jail Department . . . . .	61
72. Proposed separate jail sub-medical service not recommended . . . . .	61
73. Improvement in present system recommended . . . . .	62
74. Increase in jail allowances recommended . . . . .	63
75. Whole-time sub-assistant surgeon generally necessary . . . . .	64
76. Strength of subordinate medical staff . . . . .	64
77. Relations between sub-assistant surgeons and jailor . . . . .	65
78. Changes in nomenclature not recommended . . . . .	65
79. Assistant surgeons employed in jails . . . . .	66

Section IV.—Technical Staff.

80. Trained experts for charge of large industries . . . . .	66
81. Trade instructors for smaller jails . . . . .	66
82. Technical assistant for the Inspector-general . . . . .	67

CHAPTER VI.—CONVICT OFFICERS.

83. Arguments for and against convict officer system . . . . .	68
84. Employment of convict officers excessive . . . . .	68
85. Difficulty of finding qualified prisoners . . . . .	69
86. No convict to be outside barrack at night . . . . .	70
87. No convict officer to be in independent charge . . . . .	70
88. Grade of convict warder to be abolished . . . . .	70
89. Divergent opinions . . . . .	71
90. Remission and gratuity to convict officers . . . . .	71
91. Convict officers in simple imprisonment yards . . . . .	71
92. Convict officers in habitual yards and jails . . . . .	71
93. Exemption from liability to ankle-rings and fetters . . . . .	72

CHAPTER VII.—CLASSIFICATION and SEPARATION of PRISONERS.

Section I.—The Habitual Convict.

94. Views of International Congresses on the classification of prisoners . . . . .	73
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

	PAGE.
95. System of classification followed in England . . . . .	73
96. History of classification of prisoners in India . . . . .	73
97. Practical carrying out of the rules regarding classification . . . . .	74
98. Separate jails should be set apart for habitual criminals . . . . .	74
99. Criticisms on existing definition of a "habitual criminal" . . . . .	74
100. Practical application of existing definition and its results . . . . .	75
101. Need for revised definition of habitual . . . . .	76
102. Should classification as habitual depend only on previous conviction ? . . . . .	76
103. Power necessary to segregate prisoners of vicious character who are not habituals . . . . .	77
104. By whom the classification of habituals should be made . . . . .	77
105. Every prisoner should have opportunity of showing cause against classification as a habitual before it is carried out . . . . .	78
106. Defects in methods of classification . . . . .	78
107. Proposed revised rules . . . . .	79
108. Main object of revised definition . . . . .	80
109. Members of criminal tribes not necessarily habituals . . . . .	80
110. Vicious prisoners to be segregated though not classed as habitual . . . . .	81
111. Escape or attempt to escape not to constitute a habitual . . . . .	81
112. Habituals not to be excluded from the remission system . . . . .	81
113. Habituals : how far to be liable to special treatment in regard to labour . . . . .	81
114. Habituals to sleep in separate cells at night . . . . .	82
115. Habituals not to be employed as convict officers . . . . .	82
116. Rules as to habituals : how far applicable to females . . . . .	82
117. Rules as to separate habitual jails liable to modification in view of local conditions . . . . .	83

Section II.—The Non-habitual Convict.

118. The Star class in Great Britain . . . . .	83
119. Effect of this classification in British prisons . . . . .	84
120. Reasons for introducing a Star class in Indian prisons . . . . .	84
121. Star class as proposed to be introduced in India . . . . .	84
122. Effect of Star classification . . . . .	85

Section III.—Simple Imprisonment and Connected Questions.

123. Further divisions of prisoners in Great Britain . . . . .	85
124. Offenders in the first division . . . . .	86
125. Offences of offenders in the first division . . . . .	86
126. Offenders in the second division . . . . .	87
127. Offences for which persons are placed in the second division . . . . .	87
128. Existing rules regarding simple imprisonment . . . . .	88
129. Bad effects of existing rules . . . . .	88
130. Proposed creation of two kinds of simple imprisonment . . . . .	89
131. Proposals regarding special treatment of well-to-do criminals . . . . .	90
132. Proposals regarding special treatment of political criminals . . . . .	90
Annexure to Chapter VII.—Table showing the proportion of Habituals in the Jail Population on 1st January 1920 . . . . .	92

CHAPTER VIII.—SEPARATION at NIGHT.*Section I.—Introductory.

133. Introductory remarks . . . . .	93
134. Cubicles in association wards . . . . .	93
135. Reasons for disapproval of cubicles . . . . .	93
136. Increased number of cells required in all Provinces . . . . .	94
137. Divergent opinion regarding separation for all prisoners at night . . . . .	94

Section II.—The Opinion of the Members in favour of the Principle of Association at Night.

138. Reforms already advocated . . . . .	95
139. Object and effect of these reforms . . . . .	95
140. Provision of cells for the whole prison population not necessary . . . . .	95
141. Original reasons for a cellular system . . . . .	96
142. Cells possess a merely negative virtue . . . . .	96
143. Cellular system at Prison Congress of 1900 . . . . .	96
144. Actual result of a thorough cellular system . . . . .	96
145. Properly regulated association not a source of contamination . . . . .	97
146. A fair proportion of cells necessary . . . . .	97
147. Methods on which prison discipline should be based . . . . .	97
148. Cellular confinement for twelve hours a day objectionable . . . . .	98
149. Provision of the essential education and recreation in a cellular prison very difficult . . . . .	98
150. Climatic objections to cells in India . . . . .	98
151. Witnesses reasons for preferring cellular confinement :
(i) It is more severe form of punishment . . . . .	99
152.     "     "     (ii) It prevents contamination . . . . .	99
153.     "     "     (iii) It prevents unnatural vice . . . . .	99
154. The theory that prisoners plot future crimes in sleeping barracks . . . . .	101
155. Cells not necessary for all habituals . . . . .	101
156. Theory that cellular confinement is good for every prisoner . . . . .	101
157. Is the cellular system universally accepted ? . . . . .	101
(i) England . . . . .	101
(ii) America . . . . .	101
158. Further objections to cells . . . . .	102
159. Experience of association wards in India . . . . .	102
160. Disadvantages under which the Indian association system worked . . . . .	105
161. Cellular system versus association system . . . . .	105

Section III.—The Opinion of the Members in favour of the Principle of Separation at Night.

162. Separate sleeping accommodation at night an essential principle . . . . .	106
163. Distinction between separate sleeping accommodation at night and the cellular system . . . . .	106
164. British system of separate sleeping accommodation at night . . . . .	106
165. Separation at night required by law in some American States . . . . .	107
166. Reasons why this system has been neglected in other States . . . . .	107

	PAGE
167. Instances in America where system of separation at night has been given up . . . . .	107
168. Opinions in favour of separation at night . . . . .	108
169. General position of the question in America . . . . .	109
170. Opinion of Inspectors-general in India : . . . . .
(i) Madras . . . . .	109
171. " " (ii) United Provinces and the Punjab . . . . .	109
172. " " (iii) Bengal . . . . .	109
173. " " (iv) Assam, Central Provinces, Bombay and the North-West Frontier Province . . . . .	110
174. " " (v) Bihar and Orissa, and Burma . . . . .	110
175. Opinion of other Indian jail officials . . . . .	110
176. Experience negatives supposed ill effects of separation at night . . . . .	111
177. Deterrent effect of separation at night . . . . .	111
178. Reformative and administrative value of separation at night . . . . .	111
179. Classification of prisoners, an inadequate safeguard . . . . .	112
180. View that one prisoner will reform another prisoner examined . . . . .	112
181. Unnatural vice in association wards . . . . .	112
182. Other irregularities possible under association system . . . . .	113
183. Recreation between hours of 6 and 9 P.M. . . . .	113
184. Climatic objection to cells examined . . . . .	114
185. Improved type of cell desirable . . . . .	114
186. View that cost of cells is excessive examined . . . . .	115
187. Summing up . . . . .	115

Section IV.—The Opinion of the Member who favours Separation at Night for some Classes of Prisoners and Association for other Classes.

188. Opinion of Sir James DuBoulay . . . . .	115
----------------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER IX.—PRISON LABOUR and MANUFACTURES.

189. Meaning of term 'hard labour' . . . . .	117
190. Hard labour and the exploitation of the prisoner . . . . .	117
191. Hard labour as a means of the reformation of the prisoner . . . . .	118
192. Non-productive labour condemned . . . . .	118
193. Hard labour and short-term prisoners . . . . .	118
194. Other limitations of reformatory labour . . . . .	119
195. Agricultural labour . . . . .	119
196. Intramural labour and modern industrial methods . . . . .	119
197. Concentration of jail labour on a few large industries . . . . .	120
198. Market for jail manufactures ; government departments to take jail-made goods . . . . .	120
199. Infractions of this principle (i) Madras . . . . .	121
200. " " " (ii) The United Provinces . . . . .	121
201. " " " (iii) The Punjab and the North-West Frontier Province . . . . .	122
202. Jail manufactures must be of good quality ; hence necessity for modern methods . . . . .	122
203. Remarks of the Indian Industrial Commission on jail labour . . . . .	123
204. Limitations on jail competition with private enterprise . . . . .	123

	PAGE.
205. Power driven machinery in jails—Jute and cotton manufactures	121
206. " " " " Woollen manufactures	124
207. Reference made to Chambers of Commerce	124
208. Representative of Indian Merchants' Chamber and Bureau, Bombay	124
209. Use of machinery in English and American prisons	125
210. Summary of principles recommended	125
211. Excessive resort to manual labour	126
212. Expert direction of labour in large jails	127
213. The price of jail-made goods	127
214. Uniformity in task advocated	128
215. Allowance for defective intelligence	128
216. Extramural labour in India—opinions of previous Committees	128
217. Employment on public roads, drains and municipal work condemned	129
218. Instances of public works labour in certain Provinces	129
219. Principles to be followed in employment of prisoners on large public works	130
220. Accommodation and guarding of public works gangs	130
221. Separation of habituals from casuals	131
222. Public works labour restricted by observance of certain conditions	131
223. The agricultural jail	131
224. Requirements for agricultural jails	132
225. Bulk of labour must be intramural	132

CHAPTER X.—PRISON DISCIPLINE.

Section I.—Prison Offences and Punishments.

226. Origin of existing rules	133
227. Corporal punishment	133
228. Infliction of corporal punishment	134
229. Handcuffs and fetters	134
230. Standing handcuffs	134
231. Period for imposition of fetters	135
232. Separate, cellular and solitary confinement	135
233. Penal diet	136
234. Change of labour	136
235. Combination of punishments	136
236. Prison offences	137
237. Minor amendments regarding offences	137

Section II.—The Use of Irons as a Means of Restraint and for Security.

238. Jail Committee of 1889 on diversity of practice between Provinces	138
239. Orders of Government of India	138
240. Present position in the United Provinces	139
241. Present position in the Punjab	139
242. Rules recommended for intramural prisoners	140
243. Rules recommended for extramural prisoners	140

	PAGE.
244. The belchain . . . . .	140
245. Use of the belchain in Burma . . . . .	141
Section III.—Outbreaks and Escapes.
246. Rewards for recapture of escaped prisoners . . . . .	141
CHAPTER XI.—REFORMATORY INFLUENCES in PRISONS.
Section I.—Remission.
247. Existing system . . . . .	142
248. Extended application recommended . . . . .	142
249. Increase of remission recommended . . . . .	142
250. Remission while in hospital, etc. . . . .	143
251. Forfeiture of remission and exclusion from remission system . . . . .	143
252. Special remission . . . . .	144
253. Eligibility for special remission . . . . .	145
254. Continuance of system recommended . . . . .	145
Section II.—Gratuities to Prisoners in Prison.
255. Recommendation of Jail Committee of 1888-89 . . . . .	145
256. English system . . . . .	146
257. American system . . . . .	146
258. Principle of gratuity approved . . . . .	147
259. Gratuity to be granted for work in excess of standard task . . . . .	147
260. How standard task should be fixed in certain cases . . . . .	147
261. Gratuity to prisoners employed in jail services or untasked work . . . . .	148
262. Disposal of gratuity . . . . .	148
263. Purchase of articles of comfort out of gratuity . . . . .	148
264. Financial effect of proposals . . . . .	149
Section III.—Interviews and Letters.
265. Reformatory value of interviews and letters . . . . .	149
266. Limitations necessary . . . . .	150
267. Rules should be uniform . . . . .	150
268. Increase in letters and interviews recommended . . . . .	150
269. Discretion of superintendent . . . . .	150
270. Interview rooms . . . . .	150
271. Model rules . . . . .	150
Section IV.—Education, Prison Libraries and Supply of Books and Periodicals.
272. Provision of facilities for education in jails . . . . .	151
273. Limitations . . . . .	151
274. Libraries and reading . . . . .	151
275. Occupation of the prisoners between lock-up and sleeping-time . . . . .	152
276. Females . . . . .	153
Section V.—Religious and Moral Instruction and Religious Observances in Prison.
277. Existing practice . . . . .	153
278. Opinions of witnesses . . . . .	153

	PAGE.
279. Provision of religious and moral instruction recommended . . . . .	154
280. Appointment of ministers of religion . . . . .	154
281. Admission of other ministers . . . . .	154
282. Access of ministers to prisoners . . . . .	155
283. Provision of places of worship . . . . .	155
284. Religious observances . . . . .	155
285. Muhammadans . . . . .	155
286. Muhammadans and the Ramean . . . . .	156
287. Sikhs . . . . .	156
288. Miscellaneous . . . . .	156

Annexure to Chapter XI.—Rules regarding Interviews and Letters.

A. General Rules . . . . .	158
B. Special Rules relating to Under-trial and Civil Prisoners . . . . .	160

CHAPTER XII.—PRISON HYGIENE and MEDICAL ADMINISTRATION.

Section I.—Diet, Cooking, Distribution of Food, and Connected Matters.

289. Details regarding jail dietaries . . . . .	161
290. Importance of variety in jail dietary . . . . .	162
291. Power to alter dietary . . . . .	162
292. Vegetables in jail dietary . . . . .	163
293. Importance of good cooking and preparation of food . . . . .	163
294. Distribution of food . . . . .	164
295. Places for feeding prisoners . . . . .	165
296. System of purchasing rations and their storage . . . . .	165

Section II.—Clothing, Bedding and Connected Topics.

297. Scale of clothing for convicts . . . . .	165
298. Issue of langotis . . . . .	166
299. Supply of towels . . . . .	166
300. Trousers to replace shorts . . . . .	166
301. Distinctive clothing for habituals . . . . .	166
302. Wrist-ring, ankle-ring and neck-ring . . . . .	167
303. Clothing of prisoners attending courts . . . . .	167
304. Hospital clothing and bedding . . . . .	167

Section III.—General Sanitary Arrangements.

305. Need for economy . . . . .	167
306. Water-supply . . . . .	168
307. Conservancy : detailed points . . . . .	168
308. Disposal of night-soil . . . . .	169
309. Disinfection of clothing and bedding . . . . .	170
310. Lighting . . . . .	170

Section IV.—Hospital Administration and the Care and Nursing of the Sick.

311. Opinions of witnesses . . . . .	170
312. Progress hitherto achieved . . . . .	171

	PAGE.
313. Defects in equipment . . . . .	171
314. Absence of trained nurses . . . . .	172
315. Provision of trained nurses recommended . . . . .	172
316. Training of selected prisoners as hospital orderlies . . . . .	173
317. Medical attendance at night . . . . .	173
318. Open-air treatment . . . . .	174
319. Cooking for hospital patients . . . . .	174
320. Tuberculous cases . . . . .	174
321. Transfer to civil hospitals in certain cases . . . . .	174
322. Minor points in medical administration . . . . .	175
323. Exercise . . . . .	176
324. Weighments of prisoners. . . . .	176

Section V.—Overcrowding.

325. Dangers of overcrowding . . . . .	176
326. Overcrowding in Bombay Presidency . . . . .	177
327. Bombay Common Prison and Yeravda and Ahmedabad Central Jails . . . . .	178
328. Camp jails in Bombay . . . . .	178
329. Overcrowding in Punjab jails . . . . .	178
330. Lahore Central Jail . . . . .	178
331. Montgomery and Multan Central Jails . . . . .	179
332. Overcrowding in Bengal . . . . .	179
333. Alipore Central Jail . . . . .	179
334. Working capacity of jails . . . . .	180
335. One berth for each prisoner essential . . . . .	180
336. Superficial and cubic space for each prisoner . . . . .	180

CHAPTER XIII.—INSANITY, MENTAL DEFICIENCY and ABNORMALITY.

337. Certifiable insanity and other forms of mental abnormality . . . . .	181
338. British Mental Deficiency Act. . . . .	181
339. Defect in British Act . . . . .	182
340. Need for provisions similar to English Act in India . . . . .	182
341. American methods in regard to other mental cases . . . . .	183
342. Proposals relating to American methods . . . . .	183
343. Principles underlying these proposals . . . . .	183
344. Proposals involve revision of law of criminal responsibility . . . . .	184
345. English law of criminal responsibility . . . . .	184
346. American and Colonial view . . . . .	185
347. Probable practical results of adoption of proposed methods . . . . .	185
348. Danger of malingering . . . . .	186
349. Objections to other proposals . . . . .	186
350. Adoption of American methods at present deprecated . . . . .	187
351. Dissent of certain Members . . . . .	187

CHAPTER XIV.—ASSISTANCE to PRISONERS on RELEASE.

352. Prisoners' aid societies . . . . .	188
353. Composition of societies . . . . .	188
354. Private effort and government grants . . . . .	189

	PAGE.
355. Societies' agents and their duties . . . . .	189
356. Access to prisoners . . . . .	190
357. Aid to female prisoners . . . . .	190
358. Prisoners' homes, workshops and labour yards . . . . .	190
359. Gratuities and their disbursement to prisoners after release . . . . .	191
360. Connection between parole officers and aid societies . . . . .	192
361. Communication between societies . . . . .	192

CHAPTER XV.—MEASURES for PREVENTION of COMMITTAL to PRISON.

Section I.—The Child—Offender.

362. Introductory . . . . .	193
363. Special treatment of child-offenders . . . . .	193
364. Age-limits of childhood . . . . .	194
365. The child-offender in the United States . . . . .	194
366. The child-offender in England . . . . .	194
367. Imprisonment of child-offenders to be prohibited . . . . .	195
368. Provision of remand homes recommended . . . . .	195
369. Children's courts in the United States and in England . . . . .	196
370. Provision of children's courts in India recommended . . . . .	197
371. Special magistrates for child-offenders in the United Provinces . . . . .	197
372. The Children's Court, Calcutta . . . . .	197
373. Necessity for full information before dealing with child-offenders . . . . .	198
374. Release on probation . . . . .	198
375. The probation officer . . . . .	199
376. Probation officers in the United States, Great Britain and Calcutta . . . . .	199
377. Methods of probation work . . . . .	200
378. Whipping . . . . .	200
379. Institutions for children in the United States . . . . .	201
380. Institutions for children in Great Britain . . . . .	201
381. Reformatory schools in India . . . . .	202
382. Certified schools in Madras . . . . .	202
383. Location of schools, and staffs . . . . .	202
384. Supervision after release and statistics of after-results . . . . .	203
385. Defective children . . . . .	203
386. Non-criminal children in bad surroundings . . . . .	204

Section II.—The Adolescent Criminal.

387. Adolescence a critical period . . . . .	204
388. Limits of age of adolescence . . . . .	204
389. Adolescents not to be sent to ordinary jails . . . . .	205
390. Borstal institutions in England . . . . .	205
391. Reformatories in America . . . . .	206
392. Juvenile jails in India . . . . .	206
393. Age-periods in Indian statistics . . . . .	206
394. Adolescents guilty of grave crime to go to juvenile jails . . . . .	207
395. Special Institutions for other adolescent offenders . . . . .	207

	PAGE.
396. Female adolescents . . . . .	208
397. Dissent of one Member . . . . .	208
398. Courts to be empowered to commit to Special Institutions . . . . .	208
399. Transfer from ordinary or juvenile jails to Special Institutions . . . . .	209
400. Transfer from Special Institutions to juvenile jails . . . . .	209
401. Nomenclature in Special Institutions . . . . .	209
402. Selection of staff, and dress of inmates . . . . .	209
403. Maximum population and reformatory influences . . . . .	210
404. Occupation and training . . . . .	210
405. Physical exercises and drill . . . . .	211
406. System of grades . . . . .	211
407. Gratuities, recreation, etc. . . . .	211
408. Mental and physical examination . . . . .	211
409. Punishments . . . . .	212
410. Period of detention . . . . .	212
411. Licensing . . . . .	213
412. Breach of license or relapse into crime . . . . .	213
413. After-care . . . . .	213
414. Committees of visitors . . . . .	214
415. Official agents attached to Special Institutions . . . . .	214
416. Salvation Army Homes . . . . .	214
417. The Rangoon Home . . . . .	214
418. The Bombay Home . . . . .	215
419. Finger prints, P. R., P. R. T. and K. D. prisoners . . . . .	215

Section III—Probation.

420. Probation in America . . . . .	216
421. Advantages claimed for probation in America . . . . .	216
422. Restitution combined with probation . . . . .	216
423. Saving effected by use of probation . . . . .	217
424. Probation and social work . . . . .	217
425. Probation staff . . . . .	217
426. Importance of preliminary examination . . . . .	218
427. Probation and its influence on crime . . . . .	218
428. American courts and the probation system . . . . .	219
429. Probation in England—The Probation of Offenders Act, 1907 . . . . .	219
430. English opinion regarding probation . . . . .	220
431. Probation in India—section 562, Criminal Procedure Code . . . . .	221
432. Its application by the courts in India . . . . .	221
433. Proposed revision of the section . . . . .	221
434. Introduction of the probation system into India recommended . . . . .	222
435. Information necessary for the courts . . . . .	223
436. Selection of cases suitable for probation essential . . . . .	224

Section IV.—Fines, Short sentences and other points.

437. Removal of compulsory imprisonment under Indian Penal Code . . . . .	224
438. Procedure in levy of fines . . . . .	225
439. Grant of time and payment of fine by instalments . . . . .	226
440. Order "warned and discharged" in trivial cases . . . . .	226
441. Short sentences, in India . . . . .	226
442. Western opinion regarding the short sentence . . . . .	227
443. Opinion in India . . . . .	228

	PAGE,
144. Imprisonment under twenty-eight days to be prohibited	292
144A. System of labour in lieu of imprisonment in force in Egypt	229
145. Solitary confinement awarded by the courts	230

CHAPTER XVI.—The INDETERMINATE SENTENCE.

146. Economic loss involved in imprisonment	231
147. Mere length of imprisonment harmful	231
148. Defective information available to sentencing courts	232
149. Adoption of the indeterminate sentence in America	233
150. Arguments in favour of the indeterminate sentence	234
151. Analogies in England and India	234
152. Revision of long sentences recommended	235
153. Details of scheme	236
154. The Revising Board	236
155. Intermediate imprisonment—Thana and Lahore experiments	237
156. Suggestions regarding intermediate period	238
157. Conditions of release	238
158. Parole officers	239
159. Police not to exercise supervision	239
160. Lump remissions on public occasions to cease	240

CHAPTER XVII.—SPECIAL CLASSES of PRISONERS.

Section I—Civil Prisoners.

461. Imprisonment in execution of decrees of civil courts	241
462. Objections to presence of civil prisoners in criminal jails	241
463. Civil prisoners should be in civil prisons subject to the senior civil judge	241
464. If this is impossible, civil prisoners' yard should be completely cut off from criminal jail	242
465. Civil prisoners to be allowed books and newspapers prohibited	242
466. Employment of convict officers in civil prisoners' yard to be	242

Section II.—State Prisoners.

467. Arrangements relating to State prisoners in jail	242
-------------------------------------------------------	-----

Section III.—Military Prisoners.

468. Present system of committing soldiers of the Indian Army to criminal jails for military offences	243
469. Prisoners sentenced for purely military offences should not be sent to criminal jails	243
470. If this is impossible they should go only to a selected jail or jails	244

Section IV.—Under trial Prisoners.

471. Existing arrangements for under-trial prisoners	244
472. Under-trial block to be entirely separated	244
473. Convict officers should not be used to guard under-trial prisoners	244
474. Absence of proper classification and segregation at present	245
475. Measures for separation by night and by day in future	245
476. Sub-divisions of the under-trial yard	246

	PAGE.
477. Period spent as under-trial to be allowed for as part of any sentence of imprisonment . . . . .	246
478. Under-trial prisoners, to be allowed books and newspapers . . . . .	247
479. Supply of food, clothing, etc., to under-trial prisoners from outside . . . . .	247
480. Rules regarding change of clothes and cutting hair . . . . .	248
481. Employment of under-trial prisoners . . . . .	248
482. Imposition of handcuffs and irons on under-trial prisoners . . . . .	248
483. Rule 810 of the Punjab Prison Manual . . . . .	248
484. Release of under-trial prisoner on medical grounds . . . . .	248
485. Rule 878 of the United Provinces Manual . . . . .	249
486. Provision of food for under-trial prisoners sent to or coming from court . . . . .	249
487. Under-trial prisoners in subsidiary jails . . . . .	249
Section V.—Prisoners under Sentence of Death.
488. Guard over condemned prisoners should be composed of warders, not police . . . . .	249
489. Rules of the United Provinces regarding use of fetters and belchain on condemned prisoners disapproved . . . . .	250
490. Females under sentence of death should be kept in the female yard and guarded by female warders . . . . .	251
491. Condemned prisoners should be allowed books, tobacco, interviews and religious ministrations . . . . .	251
492. Gallows should be near condemned cell and warrant should be read before leaving cell . . . . .	251
Section VI.—Female Prisoners.
493. Separation of female prisoners from males . . . . .	252
494. In future construction, female yard should be a separate enclosure . . . . .	252
495. Classification and segregation of female prisoners . . . . .	252
496. Concentration of female prisoners at selected centres recommended . . . . .	253
497. Matron or female warder to be provided at every jail where female prisoners are received . . . . .	253
498. Escorting of female prisoners . . . . .	254
499. Female prisoners in subsidiary jails . . . . .	254
500. Employment of female prisoners . . . . .	254
501. Children of female prisoners . . . . .	255
502. Other matters affecting female prisoners . . . . .	255
Section VII.—Lepers.
503. A special jail or annexe should be provided for lepers . . . . .	255
504. All lepers to be segregated from all other prisoners . . . . .	255
505. Disinfection of cell occupied by leper . . . . .	256
506. Female lepers . . . . .	256
Section VIII.—Lunatics.
507. Non-criminal lunatics should not be sent to criminal jails . . . . .	256
508. Prompt removal of criminal lunatics from jail to lunatic asylum desirable . . . . .	256
509. Concentration of criminal lunatics in selected jails recommended . . . . .	257
510. Instruction to be withdrawn . . . . .	257
Annexure to Chapter XVII.—Statement showing the daily average number of Civil Prisoners . . . . .	258

	PAGE.
CHAPTER XVIII.—VISITORS.
511. Importance of system of visitors, official and non-official	259
512. A sufficient number of visitors to be appointed in all Provinces	259
513. Appointment of official visitors	259
514. Number of non-official visitors	260
515. Appointment of non-official visitors	260
516. Period of appointment of non-official visitors	261
517. Visiting insufficient in certain Provinces	261
518. System of visiting recommended	261
519. Non-official visitors should have the same powers and duties as official visitors	262
520. Recommendations regarding powers and duties of visitors	262
521. Visits—how to be conducted	262
522. Lady visitors to be appointed for prisons where there are female prisoners	263
523. Powers and duties of lady visitors	263
CHAPTER XIX.—PRINCIPLES of PRISON CONSTRUCTION.
524. Area to be provided within a jail	264
525. Area to be provided outside a jail	264
526. Distance of site from town	264
527. Lay-out of a jail	265
(i) Quarantine	265
(ii) Hospital	265
(iii) Under-trials	265
(iv) Civil prisoners	266
(v) Females	266
(vi) Store-rooms	266
(vii) Main entrance	266
528. Jail ward or barrack	266
529. Jail cells	267
530. Latrines	267
531. Hospital	268
532. Dividing walls between yards	268
CHAPTER XX.—SUBSIDIARY JAILS.
533. Reasons for existence of subsidiary jails	269
534. Reasons for varying number of sub-jails in different Provinces	269
535. Prisoners should not remain under police control	270
536. Warder staff in subsidiary jails	270
537. Warder staff in Bengal	271
538. Warder staff in Madras and Bombay	271
539. Other staff in subsidiary jails	271
540. No convicts should in future serve their sentences in subsidiary jails	271
541. Subsidiary jails to be cellular	272
542. Bathing and latrines	272
543. Suggestions as to improvement of subsidiary jail buildings	272
544. Visitors	273

CHAPTER XXI.—TRANSPORTATION AND THE ANDAMANS.

Section I.—Review of the Existing Conditions in the Andamans.

545.	Origin of the Penal Settlement at Port Blair . . . . .	274
546.	Description of the Andaman Islands . . . . .	274
547.	Causes of ill-success of the Settlement . . . . .
	(i) Malaria . . . . .	275
548.	(ii) Absence of sufficient women . . . . .	275
549.	(iii) Absence of reformatory influences . . . . .	276
550.	(iv) Unnatural vice . . . . .	277
551.	Resulting demoralisation of prisoners . . . . .	278
552.	Evidence as to bad state of morals in Settlement . . . . .	278

Section II.—Proposals for the Future of the Settlement.

553.	Any fresh attempt at colonisation must be in a fresh locality . . . . .	279
554.	Difficulties surrounding the idea of a fresh settlement in the Middle Andaman . . . . .	279
555.	Fresh settlement not recommended . . . . .	280
556.	Other alternatives . . . . .	281
557.	Reasons against retention of present system . . . . .
	(i) Excessive size of the convict population . . . . .	281
558.	(ii) Heavy expenditure on staff necessary . . . . .	281
559.	(iii) Extra expense involved in transportation . . . . .	282
560.	(iv) Deportation of bulk of prisoners unnecessary . . . . .	282
561.	(v) Loss of deterrent effect of transportation . . . . .	283
562.	(vi) Industrial value of Settlement not a sufficient reason for detention . . . . .	283
563.	Retention on present lines not recommended . . . . .	285
564.	Reasons in favour of entire abandonment of the Settlement . . . . .	285
565.	Reasons against entire abandonment . . . . .	285
566.	Alternative recommended for adoption . . . . .	286
567.	Restrictions in respect of age and physical condition to be abolished . . . . .	287
568.	Amendment of Indian Penal Code recommended . . . . .	287
569.	Establishment and accommodation eventually necessary . . . . .	287
570.	Effect of proposals on jail population in India . . . . .	288
571.	Selection of prisoners for retention in Indian jails in intermediate period . . . . .	288
572.	Female prisoners to be brought back to India . . . . .	289
573.	Increased accommodation to be provided in India . . . . .	289

Section III.—Reforms required in the Cellular and Associated Prisons.

574.	Reforms immediately necessary in Cellular and Associated Prisons . . . . .	289
575.	Present position of the Cellular, Associated and Female Prisons . . . . .	289
576.	Staff of the Cellular and Associated Prisons . . . . .	290

	PAGE.
577. Duties imposed on medical superintendent . . . . .	290
578. Subordinate medical staff of the Cellular and Associated Prisons . . . . .	290
579. Clerical staff of the Cellular and Associated Prisons . . . . .	291
580. Warder staff of the Cellular and Associated Prisons . . . . .	291
581. Manufacturing department of the Cellular Prison . . . . .	291
582. Jail hospital of the Cellular Prison . . . . .	291
583. Sickness in the Cellular and Associated Prisons . . . . .	292
584. Other reforms required in the Cellular and Associated Prisons . . . . .	292
585. Remission, revision of sentences and eligibility for eventual re- lease . . . . .	292
586. Provision of a library in the Cellular Prison . . . . .	293

Section IV.—Reforms required in the Andamans outside the Cellular and Associated Prisons.

587. Proposals relating to intermediate stage . . . . .	293
588. Period to be spent in the Cellular Prison . . . . .	294
589. Number of stations to be reduced to six, which should be regular temporary jails . . . . .	294
590. Superintendence of concentration stations or temporary jails . . . . .	294
591. Superior staff of concentration stations or temporary jails . . . . .	294
592. Recruitment of superior staff . . . . .	295
593. Requests by members of overseer staff . . . . .	295
594. Subordinate staff for concentration stations or temporary jails . . . . .	295
595. High death-rate of the Settlement in the past . . . . .	296
596. Existing medical arrangements . . . . .	296
597. Pay and allowances of medical staff of existing out-hospitals . . . . .	297
598. Early removal of phthisis cases recommended . . . . .	297
599. Periodical weighments of convicts to be introduced . . . . .	297
600. Better provision to be made for avoidance of wet clothes . . . . .	297
601. Cooking and distribution of food to be better controlled . . . . .	298
602. Early morning meal to be issued every day . . . . .	298
603. Prevalence of malaria . . . . .	298
604. Measures for eradication or prevention of malaria . . . . .	299
605. Employment of convicts . . . . .	299
606. Future industrial development of the Andamans . . . . .	299
607. The forest camps in the Middle Andaman . . . . .	300
608. Same subject continued . . . . .	300
609. Same subject continued . . . . .	300
610. Same subject continued . . . . .	300
611. Record of gangs and labour should be maintained . . . . .	301
612. Possible use of labour-saving machines should be considered . . . . .	301
613. Number of convict officers to be reduced . . . . .	301
614. Classification of convicts to be introduced . . . . .	302
615. Self-supporter system . . . . .	303
616. Existing self-supporter system to be abandoned . . . . .	303
617. Remission system to be introduced . . . . .	304
618. Revision of sentences by revising board . . . . .	304
619. Release of decrepit prisoners to be considered . . . . .	304
620. Prisoners ineligible for return to India . . . . .	304
621. Stipends of existing self-supporters . . . . .	305
622. Issue of dry rations . . . . .	305
623. Introduction of gratuity system recommended . . . . .	305

	PAGE.
624. Provision of moral and religious influences . . . . .	305
625. Points of detail . . . . .	306
(i) Rules regarding interviews . . . . .	306
(ii) Rules regarding letters in vernacular languages . . . . .	206
(iii) Rules regarding letter writing . . . . .	306
(iv) Rules regarding petitions to Government . . . . .	306
(v) Rules regarding stamps on petitions . . . . .	307
(vi) Corporal punishment for escape . . . . .	307
(vii) Periods spent in chain gang . . . . .	307
(viii) Houses built for self-supporters . . . . .	307
(ix) Books for sick in hospital . . . . .	307
(x) Caste and other symbols not to be removed from prisoners . . . . .	308
(xi) Religious and caste prejudices to be respected . . . . .	308
626. Summary of proposals . . . . .	308
627. How far immediate effect necessary . . . . .	309
628. Dissent . . . . .	309

Section V.—Opinion of the Member who Dissents.

629. The points for determination as per the reference of the Govern- ment of India . . . . .	309
630. Preliminary points for consideration . . . . .	309
631. Brief history of the various Committees' views as to what use this form of sentence was put to . . . . .	309
632. Fundamental idea on which transportation was based . . . . .	310
633. Conclusion about the first point and reasons for the same . . . . .	310
634. Legal consequence following abolition of the sentence . . . . .	311
635. Should the system be retained for special class of people to be described as specially dangerous . . . . .	311
636. What is the definition of "specially dangerous prisoners" ? . . . . .	311
637. In whom should the power to classify vest ? . . . . .	312
638. Accommodation for, and treatment of, such prisoners . . . . .	312

CHAPTER XXII—CRIMINAL TRIBES.

639. Scope of inquiry regarding criminal tribes . . . . .	313
640. Scheme of this Chapter . . . . .	313
641. Madras Presidency, Kulasekharapatnam Settlement . . . . .	313
642.     "             , Pallavaram Settlement . . . . .	314
643.     "             , Perambur Settlement . . . . .	314
644.     "             , Kavali Settlement . . . . .	315
645.     "             , Stuartpuram Settlement . . . . .	315
646.     "             , Sitanagaram Settlement . . . . .	316
647.     "             , Other Settlements . . . . .	316
648. Bombay Presidency, Sholapur Settlement . . . . .	316
649.     "             , Bijapur Settlement . . . . .	317
650.     "             , Other Settlements . . . . .	317
651.     "             , Visapur Special Settlement . . . . .	318
652. United Provinces, Cawnpore Settlement . . . . .	318
653.     "             , Fazalpur Settlement, Moradabad . . . . .	319
654.     "             , Najibabad Settlement . . . . .	319
655. Bengal Presidency, Saidpur Settlement . . . . .	319

	PAGE.
656. Bihar and Orissa, Settlements in Champaran district . . . . .	320
657. " " " , Settlements in Saran district . . . . .	321
658. Burma, Assam, Central Provinces and North-West Frontier Province . . . . .	321
659. Importance of the economic factor . . . . .	321
660. Settlements must provide adequate work . . . . .	322
661. The Punjab, Dhariwal Settlement . . . . .	322
662. " " , Moghalpura Settlement . . . . .	323
663. " " , Okara Settlement . . . . .	323
664. " " , Amritsar Settlement . . . . .	323
665. Commitment to settlements should be by gangs, not by indi- viduals . . . . .	324
666. Dangers of committing individuals to settlements . . . . .	324
667. Necessity of formal inquiry if individuals are committed . . . . .	325
668. Official supervision and control essential . . . . .	325
669. Differing opinions as to personnel of management . . . . .	326
670. Necessary qualifications of settlement managers . . . . .	326
671. Objections to removal of tribes to distant regions . . . . .	327
672. Separation of children from parents ordinarily to be avoided . . . . .	327
673. The boarding house system for children . . . . .	328
674. Education and industrial training . . . . .	328
675. Medical aid . . . . .	328
676. Registration of children usually not required . . . . .	329
677. Necessity of finding employment for settlers . . . . .	329
678. Comparative advantages of various kinds of employment . . . . .	329
679. Guarding and security of settlements . . . . .	330
680. Final release from settlements . . . . .	330
681. Periodical conferences of criminal tribes officers recommended . . . . .	331
682. Absorption of settlers into the general community the final aim . . . . .	331

CHAPTER XXIII.—SUMMARY of RECOMMENDATIONS.

683. (a) Chapter III—General Propositions and Scheme of Re- port . . . . .	332
(b) Chapter IV—Inspection and Superintendence of Prisons . . . . .	333
(c) Chapter V—Prison Establishment . . . . .	335
(d) Chapter VI—Convict Officers . . . . .	340
(e) Chapter VII—Classification and Separation of Prisoners . . . . .	341
(f) Chapter VIII—Separation at Night . . . . .	343
(g) Chapter IX—Prison Labour and Manufactures . . . . .	346
(h) Chapter X—Prison Discipline . . . . .	348
(i) Chapter XI—Reformatory Influences in Prison . . . . .	351
(j) Chapter XII—Prison Hygiene and Medical Administra- tion . . . . .	354
(k) Chapter XIII—Insanity, Mental Deficiency and Abnor- mality . . . . .	359
(l) Chapter XIV—Assistance to Prisoners on Release . . . . .	361
(m) Chapter XV—Measures for Prevention of Committal to Prison . . . . .	362
(n) Chapter XVI—The Indeterminate Sentence . . . . .	368
(o) Chapter XVII—Special Classes of Prisoners . . . . .	369
(p) Chapter XVIII—Visitors . . . . .	374
(q) Chapter XIX—Principles of Prison Construction . . . . .	376

	PAGE.
(r) Chapter XX—Subsidiary Jails	377
(s) Chapter XXI—Transportation and the Andamans	379
(t) Chapter XXII—Criminal Tribes	386

CHAPTER XXIV.—CONCLUSION.

684. The late Khan Bahadur Khalifa Hamid Husain	389
685. Measure of agreement and difference in the Report	389
686. Acknowledgments to the Secretaries	389
687. Acknowledgments to the Government Press	389

CONTENTS of APPENDICIES.

Appendix I—Resolution appointing Committee	397
Appendix II—A List of the Institutions visited in Great Britain	400
Appendix III—A List of the Institutions visited in (a) the United States and (b) the Far East.	402
Appendix IV—The Committee's Itinerary in India and Burma	404
Appendix V—Correspondence with Chambers of Commerce	415
Appendix VI—Correspondence regarding the New Diet Scales in Jails in the Madras Presidency	424
Appendix VII—Mental Defect and Mental Abnormality and Disease as a Causative Factor in Crime [by Colonel James Jackson, C.I.E., I.M.S., and Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Walter J. Buchanan, K.C.I.E., I.M.S., (retired)]	425
Appendix VIII—Note on Insanity and Mental Deficiency (by Sir James H. DuBoulay, K.C.I.E., C.S.I., I.C.S.)	472
Appendix IX—Note on the Treatment of the Child-Offender and the Adolescent Offender in Great Britain and the United States.	475
Appendix X—Note on the Indeterminate Sentence and the System of Release on Parole, or Conditional Release, as worked in the United States and other Countries	504
Appendix XI—Memorandum on the English Prison System (by Norman G. Mitchell-Innes, Esq.)	523
Appendix XII—Note on the Egyptian System of labour in lieu of imprisonment for non-payment of fines	534
Appendix XIII—Prison Plans. (These will be found in the Pocket at the end of the Volume)	