HISTORY OF INDIA,

FROM

THE EARIEST PERIOD TO THE CLOSE OF LORD DALHOUSIE'S ADMINISTRATION.

BY JOHN CLARK MARSHMAN.

VOL. III.

LONDON:
LONGMANS, GREEN, READER & DYER.
1867.

[The right of Translation is reserved.]
NOTICE.

The small proportion of the present work which has been allotted to the Hindoo and Mahomedan period of Indian history has been the subject of remark by those who have honoured the previous volumes with their notice. The author would therefore embrace the present opportunity of explaining that it was intimated to him by the Syndicate of the University of Calcutta that they had adopted Mr. Elphinstone's standard work in reference to that early period, and desired the present work to commence where he had left off, with the history of the British Empire in India. He was happy to be relieved from the necessity of going over ground which had been so fully occupied by that eminent writer, and cheerfully reduced the volume he had already compiled to the dimensions of a simple introduction.

1st November, 1867.
ERRATA.

Page 401, side note, for "refusing" read "permitting."

432, ten lines from bottom, for "Inspector-General" read "Director-General."
CONTENTS

THE THIRD VOLUME.

CHAPTER XXX.

LORD WILLIAM BENTINCK'S ADMINISTRATION, 1828—1835.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1828</td>
<td>Lord William Bentinck Governor-General</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Reduction of civil allowances</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The half batta order</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1830</td>
<td>Arrangement regarding Malwa opium</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1828</td>
<td>Resumption of rent free tenures</td>
<td>6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1832</td>
<td>The Cole insurrection</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1831</td>
<td>Insurrection of Teetoo Meer</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1832</td>
<td>Annexation of Cachar</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1834</td>
<td>Reduction and annexation of Coorg</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1828-34</td>
<td>Non-interference policy of Lord William Bentinck</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Remarks on our position in India</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1799-1809</td>
<td>Affairs of Mysore</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1831</td>
<td>The raja assumes the Government</td>
<td>19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1832</td>
<td>Lord William Bentinck assumes the entire management of Mysore</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Bhopal; the able administration of the rane</td>
<td>21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1834</td>
<td>Jodhpore, misconduct of the raja and his submission</td>
<td>22</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1835</td>
<td>Jeyapore; disorders of the government</td>
<td>23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Murder of Mr. Blake</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1834-35</td>
<td>Oude; Lord William threatens to assume the government</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1834</td>
<td>Hakim Mehdi; his extraordinary talents</td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Orders of the Court of Directors to take over the management of the country</td>
<td>23</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1835</td>
<td>Events at Gwalior on the death of Sindia</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1830</td>
<td>First symptoms of Russophobias</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1809-22</td>
<td>Progress of Runjeet Sing; reform of his army</td>
<td>31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1822</td>
<td>Arrival of French officers at Lahore</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1822</td>
<td>Character of the Sikh soldiery</td>
<td>33</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1823</td>
<td>Battle of Founshera</td>
<td>34</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1831</td>
<td>Syud Ahmed's insurrection and progress; his death</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Dray horses sent to Runjeet Sing</td>
<td>35</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Lieutenant Burnes's mission to Sinde and Lahore</td>
<td>36</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1831</td>
<td>His reception by Runjeet Sing</td>
<td>38</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Runjeet Sing's power</td>
<td>39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Khalsa or Sikh commonwealth</td>
<td>40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1831</td>
<td>Meeting at Roopur between Lord William Bentinck and Runjeet Sing</td>
<td>41</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1831</td>
<td>Treaty with Sindh</td>
<td>43</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER XXXI.

LORD WILLIAM BENTINCK'S ADMINISTRATIVE REFORMS—MATERIAL PROGRESS, 1828—1835.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1828-34</td>
<td>Remodelling of the judicial system</td>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1833</td>
<td>Revenue settlement, north-west provinces</td>
<td>46</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Labours of Mr. Robert Bird</td>
<td>47</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1831</td>
<td>Employment of natives in the Government</td>
<td>48</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1830</td>
<td>The question of Sattesians</td>
<td>49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Lord William Bentinck's enquiries and his resolution</td>
<td>51</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1830</td>
<td>Abolition of the rite</td>
<td>52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1832</td>
<td>Hindoo law of inheritance modified</td>
<td>53</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1831</td>
<td>Admission of native Christians to office</td>
<td>54</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1830-34</td>
<td>Suppression of Thuggee—labours of Major Sleeman</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Steam communication on the rivers, and between England and India</td>
<td>56</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1842</td>
<td>Peninsular and Oriental Company</td>
<td>57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1833-35</td>
<td>Education; orientalism</td>
<td>58</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1835</td>
<td>Triumph of English</td>
<td>59</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Remarks on this policy</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1833</td>
<td>The General Assembly's Institution in Calcutta</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1835</td>
<td>The Medical College in Calcutta</td>
<td>62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1827</td>
<td>Sir John Malcolm, Governor of Bombay</td>
<td>63</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1832</td>
<td>Collision between the Supreme Court and the Government at Bombay</td>
<td>64</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Conflict of the Court of Directors and the Board of Control; Palmer</td>
<td>65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>and Co.</td>
<td>66</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1834</td>
<td>Case of the Lucknow bankers</td>
<td>67</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1834-35</td>
<td>Financial results of Lord William Bentinck's administration</td>
<td>68</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1833-35</td>
<td>Fall of the great houses in Calcutta</td>
<td>69</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1835</td>
<td>Remarks on Lord William Bentinck's administration</td>
<td>70</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XXXII.

Date. Page
1833 The new charter; extinction of the China monopoly ... 63
1833 Government of India continued to the Company ... 64
1833 Modifications in the Government ... 65
1833 Europeans allowed to settle in India ... 66
1833 Character of the Company’s Government ... 67
1835 Sir Charles Metcalfe Governor-General, ad interim ... 68
1835 Lord Heytesbury ... 69
1835 Liberation of the press ... 70
1835 Result of this measure ... 71
1835 Sir Charles Metcalfe Governor of Agra ... 72
1836 Displeasure of the Court at the liberation of the press ... 73
1836 Sir Charles Metcalfe resigns the service ... 74
1836 Remarks on his administration ... 75
1836 Benevolent efforts of the Company’s Government ... 76
1784 Augustus Cleveland ... 77
1829 Civilization of the Bheels by Lieutenant Outram ... 98
1832 Civilization of Mairwarra by Captains Hall and Dixon ... 102
1833 Female infanticide ... 103
1834 Successive efforts to eradicate it ... 104
1835 Human sacrifices among the Khonds ... 105
1836-40 Efforts to eradicate it by Colonel Campbell and Major Macpherson ... 106

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Lord Auckland’s Administration—The Afghan Expedition, 1836—1842.

1836 Lord Auckland Governor-General ... 113
1836 Shah Soojah’s expedition; its failure ... 114
1835 Runjeet Singh’s views on Sind ... 115
1836 Dost Mahomed at Peshawur ... 116
1838 Battle of Jamrud ... 117
1836 Rapid extension of Russian power ... 118
1834 Influence of Russia in Persia ... 119
1834 Persian expedition to Khorsabad ... 120
1836 Failure of Mr. McNeill’s negotiations ... 121
1838 Persian expedition to Herat ... 122
1838 Lord Auckland’s advisers ... 123
1838 Captain Burnes’s mission to Cabul ... 124
1838 His negotiations with Dost Mahomed ... 125
1838 Arrival of the Russian envoy ... 126
CONTENTS.

Date.

1838 Lord Auckland's haughty communication to the Dost 128
1838 Failure of Captain Burnes's mission 129
1838 Resolution of Lord Auckland to dethrone the Dost 130
1838 Mr. Macnaghten's mission to Runjeet Sing 131
1838 The tripartite treaty 132
1838 The grand expedition into Afghanistan 132
1838 Character of this expedition 134
1838 Lord Auckland's manifesto, October 1st 135
1838 First five months of the siege of Herat—Lieutenant Pottinger 136
1838 Battle of the 24th June—the siege raised 137
1838 Persistence in the expedition to Cabul 140

CHAPTER XXXIV.

LORD AUCKLAND'S ADMINISTRATION—THE AFGHAN EXPEDITION,
1838—1842.

1838 Strength of the British armies 141
1839 Treatment of the Ameers of Sinde 142
1839 Progress of the army 144
1839 Treaty with Mehrab Khan of Khelat 145
1839 Arrival at Candahar 145
1839 Capture of Ghuzni 146
1839 Arrival at Cabul 148
1839 Flight and pursuit of Dost Mahomed 148
1839 Progress of Colonel Wade and Prince Timur to Cabul 149
1839 Retention of the force in Afghanistan 150
1839 Capture of Khelat 151
1839 Honours bestowed on the conquerors 152
1839 Death and character of Runjeet Sing 153
1839 Hostility of the Lahore durbar 154
1840 Russian complaints against Khiva 155
1840 British diplomacy in Central Asia 155
1840 Object of the Russian expedition to Khiva 156
1840 Failure of the expedition 157
1840 The Bala Hissar and the cantonments 157
1840 Intrigues at Herat against the British Government 159
1840 Condition of the Government in Afghanistan 160
1840 Movements of Dost Mahomed 161
1840 Surrender of Dost Mahomed 162

CHAPTER XXXV.

LORD AUCKLAND'S ADMINISTRATION—THE AFGHAN EXPEDITION—
MISCELLANEOUS NOTICES, 1841—1842.

1841 Major Todd obliged to quit Herat 165
1841 General Nott and Major Rawlinson at Candahar 166
CONTENTS.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1841</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Insurrection of the Eastern Ghilzyes</td>
<td>168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Court of Directors anxious to quit Afghanistan—Lord Auckland resolves to remain</td>
<td>169</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Retrenchment of stipends; revolt of the Ghilzyes</td>
<td>170</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sir Robert Sale attacked in the passes</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Security of the Envoy</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Insurrection in Cabul; murder of Sir A. Burns</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General Elphinstone's infirmities</td>
<td>175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Indecision and procrastination of the authorities</td>
<td>176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Loss of the Commissariat fort and all the supplies</td>
<td>178</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sir Robert Sale declines to return to Cabul</td>
<td>178</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General Nott sends a force to Cabul, which returns</td>
<td>179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The question of assassination</td>
<td>180</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Brigadier Shelton united in the command; his impracticable temper</td>
<td>181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Action at Behmaroo</td>
<td>182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Last action, 23rd November</td>
<td>182</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Despondency in the cantonment</td>
<td>183</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Negotiations with the enemy</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Arrival of Akbar Khan</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Treaty of 11th December</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Violation of the treaty by the enemy</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Assassination of Sir William Macnaghten</td>
<td>188</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Character of Sir William</td>
<td>189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Energetic advice of Major Pottinger rejected</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1842</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commencement of the retreat</td>
<td>192</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disasters of the retreat</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Surrender of the ladies and officers</td>
<td>194</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total destruction of the force</td>
<td>195</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Character and effects of the catastrophe</td>
<td>195</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Despondency and weakness of Lord Auckland</td>
<td>196</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Active exertions of Mr. Robertson and Mr. George Clerk</td>
<td>197</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Colonel Wild's brigade; its disasters</td>
<td>198</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General Pollock's brigade</td>
<td>199</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Close of Lord Auckland's administration</td>
<td>200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Connection with idol temples dissolved</td>
<td>201</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Lord Ellenborough's Administration—Close of the Afghan War, 1842.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1842</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Ellenborough Governor-General</td>
<td>292</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disaffected state of the troops at Peshawur</td>
<td>293</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General Pollock forces the Khyber</td>
<td>204</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sir Robert Sale at Jellalabad</td>
<td>205</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Councils of war</td>
<td>206</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The succession of earthquakes</td>
<td>207</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Akbar Khan besiegers Jellalabad</td>
<td>208</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS

Date. | Page
--- | ---
1842 Defeat of Akbar Khan | 209
1841-42 Transactions at Candahar | 210
Surrender of Ghuzni | 211
Conduct of Brigadier England at Hykulye | 212
Lord Ellenborough's Proclamation, 15th March | 213
He determines to withdraw the armies at once from Afghanistan, 19th April | 214
Effect of the order on General Nott and General Pollock | 215
Lord Ellenborough's change of plan, 4th July | 216
Death of Shah Soojah | 218
Condition of the English captives and hostages | 219
Advance of General Pollock | 221
Battle of Tezeen; re-occupation of Cabul | 223
Advance from Candahar | 223
The Somnath Gates | 224
Rescue of the prisoners | 225
Capture of Istaniff | 227
Destruction of the great bazaar at Cabul | 227
Return of the army of retribution | 228
Proclamation of Lord Ellenborough | 229
The Gates Proclamation | 230
Ovation to the returning heroes | 231
Remarks on the transactions in Afghanistan | 233
Colonel Stoddart and Captain Conolly at Bokhara | 234
They are executed in the market-place | 236

CHAPTER XXXVII.

Lord Ellenborough's Administration—Sinde and Gwalior Wars, 1842—1844.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1842</td>
<td>Conduct of the Ameers of Sinde during the Afghan war</td>
<td>237</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Sir Charles Napier assumes the command; his proceedings</td>
<td>238</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The new treaties</td>
<td>239</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Strange proceedings of Sir Charles</td>
<td>241</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Capture of Emamgur</td>
<td>244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1843</td>
<td>Conferences with the Ameers</td>
<td>244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Conference with Major Outram at Hyderabad</td>
<td>245</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Ameers sign the treaties</td>
<td>246</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Attack on the Residency</td>
<td>247</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Battle and victory at Meanee, 17th February</td>
<td>247</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Annexation of Sinde</td>
<td>249</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Second battle, 22nd March</td>
<td>249</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Remarks on the conquest of Sinde</td>
<td>250</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1844</td>
<td>The mutinies</td>
<td>252</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1843</td>
<td>Progress of Affairs at Gwalior</td>
<td>254</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Condition of the Gwalior army</td>
<td>255</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Dismissal of the Regent</td>
<td>256</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Confusion at Gwalior</td>
<td>257</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1843</td>
<td>Lord Ellenborough's Minute, Nov. 1</td>
<td>259</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Advance of the British force</td>
<td>262</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Battle of Maharajpore</td>
<td>263</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Battle of Punniar</td>
<td>265</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The new settlement at Gwalior</td>
<td>265</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1844</td>
<td>Recal of Lord Ellenborough</td>
<td>266</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Improvements during his administration</td>
<td>268</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

LORD HARDINGE'S ADMINISTRATION, 1844—1848.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1844</td>
<td>Sir Henry Hardinge Governor-General</td>
<td>270</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>His education Minute</td>
<td>272</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Restoration of flogging in the native army</td>
<td>273</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1839-40</td>
<td>Revolutions in the Punjab</td>
<td>274</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1842</td>
<td>Shere Sing's negotiations with the British Government</td>
<td>276</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Movement in Tibet</td>
<td>276</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1843</td>
<td>Murder of Shere Sing</td>
<td>276</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1844</td>
<td>Murder of Heera Sing and Pundit Julla</td>
<td>277</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ascendancy of the army</td>
<td>278</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1845</td>
<td>Plunder of Golab Sing and Moolraj</td>
<td>279</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Preparations to meet a Sikh invasion</td>
<td>280</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Character of the Khalsa army</td>
<td>281</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The Sikh army crosses the Sutleje</td>
<td>282</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>General Littler besieged in Ferozepore</td>
<td>285</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1845</td>
<td>Coniscation of the Cis-Sutleje state</td>
<td>284</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Battle of Moodkee</td>
<td>285</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Battle of Ferozeshahr</td>
<td>286</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Second engagement, December 22</td>
<td>289</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Remarks on these battles</td>
<td>290</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Pause for reinforcements</td>
<td>292</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1846</td>
<td>Battle of Aliwall</td>
<td>293</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Battle of Sobroon</td>
<td>294</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The army enters the Punjab</td>
<td>297</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Settlement of the Punjab</td>
<td>298</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Sale of Cashmere to the Raja Golab Sing</td>
<td>299</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Treaty of 9th March, 1846</td>
<td>300</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Procession of the captured guns</td>
<td>301</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>New arrangements in the Punjab, December, 1846</td>
<td>302</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Reduction of the Company's army</td>
<td>304</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Restoration of the Mogul canals</td>
<td>305</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Ganges Canal projected by Colonel Colvin</td>
<td>306</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Supported by Lord Hardinge</td>
<td>307</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1843</td>
<td>Close of Lord Hardinge's administration</td>
<td>307</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

Lord Dalhousie's Administration—Second Sikh War, 1848—1849.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>309</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>310</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>311</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>313</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>314</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>315</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>316</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>316</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>317</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>318</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>319</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>320</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>320</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>321</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>322</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>324</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>325</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>326</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>327</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>327</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>328</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>329</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>330</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>331</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>332</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>333</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>334</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>335</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>336</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>337</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>338</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>339</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER XL.

Lord Dalhousie's Administration—The Second Sikh War—The Second Burmese War—The Santal Outbreak, 1849—1855.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1848</td>
<td>339</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>340</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>341</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>342</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>343</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>344</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>345</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>346</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>347</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>348</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>349</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>350</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849</td>
<td>350</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1849–54</td>
<td>352</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>System of government in the Punjab</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The border; disarmament; the police</td>
<td>353</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Finance and revenue</td>
<td>354</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Slavery; dacoity; thuggee</td>
<td>355</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Suppression of infanticide</td>
<td>356</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Roads and canals in the Punjab</td>
<td>358</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1854</td>
<td>359</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Beneficial result of these measures</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1852</td>
<td>361</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The second Burmese war</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commodore Lambert deputed to Rangoon</td>
<td>362</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Insult offered to Captain Fishbourne</td>
<td>363</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proceedings of the Commodore</td>
<td>364</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resolution of Lord Dalhousie</td>
<td>366</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>His exertions in fitting out the expedition</td>
<td>367</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organization of the expeditionary force</td>
<td>368</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Capture of Rangoon</td>
<td>369</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Co-operation of the Peguers</td>
<td>370</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Close of the war</td>
<td>371</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Annexation of Pegu</td>
<td>372</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Happy result of the conquest</td>
<td>374</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1855</td>
<td>376</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Santal émeute</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1849–50</td>
<td>377</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mutinies in the Punjab</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dispute between the Governor-General and Sir Charles Napier</td>
<td>379</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Decision of the Duke of Wellington</td>
<td>380</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER XLI.

LORD DALHOUSSIE'S ADMINISTRATION—TRANSACTION WITH NATIVE PRINCES, 1848—1854.

| 1848 | The Sattar question | 380 |
| 1848 | Question of adoption; Sir George Clerk, Mr. Willoughby | 383 |
| 1848 | Lord Dalhousie's researches | 384 |
| 1848 | His conclusions | 386 |
| 1849 | General principles laid down by Lord Dalhousie | 387 |
| 1853 | Decision of the home authorities | 388 |
| 1853 | Berar, death of the raja | 388 |
| 1853 | British and native administrations | 390 |
| 1837–58 | Anxiety of the people for British rule | 391 |
| 1853 | Lord Dalhousie resolves to annex it | 391 |
| 1853 | Minutes of Colonel Low and Mr. Halliday | 392 |
| 1853 | Sale of jewels | 394 |
| 1853 | Jhansi | 395 |
| 1853 | Remarks on the annexations | 397 |
| 1853 | Extent of Lord Dalhousie's responsibility | 399 |
| 1853 | Opposition to annexations | 400 |
| 1853 | Arguments adduced against them | 401 |
| 1853 | Death of the Nabob; Lord Harris refuses to maintain the succession | 404 |
| 1801–53 | Nabob of the Carnatic | 402 |
| 1853 | Arrangements of Lord Wellesley | 403 |
CONTENTS.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1853</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Dalhousie concurs with him</td>
<td>405</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Nizam and Berar; the contingent</td>
<td>406</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Proceedings of Lord Dalhousie</td>
<td>408</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>His Minute</td>
<td>408</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New treaty and its results</td>
<td>410</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nana Sahib</td>
<td>412</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mysore; admirable administration of General Cubbon</td>
<td>415</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lord Dalhousie refuses to restore the Government to the raja</td>
<td>416</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reference to the original treaty</td>
<td>416</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1867</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Subsequent history of transactions regarding the raj</td>
<td>417</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER XLII.

Lord Dalhousie's Administration—Oude—Administrative and Material Improvements—Conclusion, 1848–56.

| Chronic misrule in Oude | 419  |
| Remonstrances of successive Governors-General | 420  |
| 1851 Report of Colonel Sleeman | 421  |
| 1855 Report of General Outram | 423  |
| Lord Dalhousie's Minute | 424  |
| Minutes of the Members of Council | 425  |
| Decision of the-home authorities | 427  |
| Remarks | 428  |
| 1848–56 Administrative reforms | 429  |
| Military Board; public works department | 430  |
| Education | 431  |
| Revenue, finance, commerce | 432  |
| Steam communication | 433  |
| Low and uniform postage | 434  |
| 1848–56 Lord Dalhousie's journeys | 435  |
| Roads and Canals | 436  |
| Mr. Thomason's administration and character | 437  |
| Great system of Indian railways | 439  |
| The electric telegraph in India | 444  |
| Character of Lord Dalhousie's administration | 446  |
| Censured for not having foreseen the mutiny | 448  |
| His anxiety regarding European troops | 449  |
| Censured for having caused the mutiny by his annexations | 450  |
| Examination of the subject | 450  |
| Assumed causes of the mutiny | 451  |
| The greased cartridges the real cause | 452  |
| 1853 Charter of 1853 | 454  |
| Reduction in the number of the Court of Directors | 455  |
| Establishment of a Lieutenant-Governorship in Bengal | 455  |
| Civil service thrown open to competition | 456  |
| 1858 Close of the rule of the East India Company | 457  |
INDEX.

INDEX.

Abdalees, their origin, a 264.
Abdoolla Khan, the Syud, assists Ferokshere to mount the throne, a 185; sets up another emperor; is defeated, a 190.
Aborigines of India, their creed and languages; dislodged by successive invaders, a 2.
Adam, Mr. John, Governor-General, ad interim, persecutes the press, and destroys its freedom, b 881.
Adil Shah, of Bejapoe, joins the confederacy against the Portuguese, and is defeated, a 118.
Adili, the last emperor of the Soor dynasty, a 101 and 102.
Adoption, arguments for permitting it, c 441.
Afghanistan, expedition to, c 183; authorized by Sir John Hobhouse, c 133; objections of great statesmen to it, c 133; its character, c 134; strength of the expeditionary force, c 141; advance of the army, c 144; difficulties of its progress; reaches Candahar, c 145; captures Ghuznee, c 147; reaches Cabul, c 148; determination to retain the force, c 150; perilous state of the Government, c 160; Court of Directors advise retiring, Lord Auckland resolves to remain, c 169; retrenchment of stipends, and revolt, c 171; the army annihilated, and British authority extinguished, c 195; remarks on the expedition, c 233; reconquest of Afghanistan by the army of retribution, c 223; retirement from the country, c 228.
Afghans of Orissa rebel, and are extinguished, a 216.
Agency houses in Calcutta, their origin, prosperity and downfall, c 79.
Agnew, Mr. Vans, murdered at Mooltan, c 313.
Ahmednugur, dynasty of Nizam Shah established, a 83; attacked by Akber, and defended by Chand Sultana, a 120; capture of it, a 121; its vigour renewed by Malik Amber, a 128; the king attacks the Portuguese, and is repulsed, a 119; absorbed in the Mogul empire, a 137.
Ahmed Shah, Abdalee, his early history and progress; invades the Punjab; defeated at Sirhind, a 265; invades India a second time, a 266; his third invasion; sacks Delhi, a 267; defeats the Maharratas at Paniput, a 291.
Ahmed Shah, the Mogul, ascends the throne of Delhi, a 255.
Ajmure, a powerful Hindoo monarchy in 1191, a 41.
Akbar Khan arrives at Cabul and assumes the command, c 184; dictates a treaty, c 185; assaymates Sir W. Macnaghten, c 189; defeated at Jellalabad, c 209; sends his prisoners to Toorkistan, c 222; defeated at Tezeen, c 222.
Akbar, the Mogul emperor; his birth, a 99; succeeds to the throne, a 103; defeats Hemu at Paniput, a 104; becomes his own master at eighteen; constitution of his army, a 105; revolt of his generals, a 106; full establishment of his authority, a 107; intermarries with Hindoo princesses, a 108; conquers Chittore and Guzerat, a 109; and Bengal, a 111; revolt and subjugation of his Mogul generals, a 112; conquers Cashmere, a 113; defeated by the Khyberees; conquers Sind and Candahar, a 114; attacks and captures Ahmednugur, a 121; his death, a 122; his character and institutions; his religious views and toleration, a 123; his revenue system and the division of the empire, a 124; his military system, and the economy of his court, a 125.

Albuquerque, the greatest of all the Portuguese viceroys, a 89; raises the colonial power of the Portuguese to its summit; his base treatment and death, a 90.

Alexander the Great, his expedition to India, a 12; defeats Porus, and the C atharians, a 19; his army refuses to cross the Sutlej; his grand views; builds Alexandria; dies at Babylon, a 14; his fame spread throughout the east, a 15.

Ali Gohur, son of the emperor, escapes from Delhi and enters Behar; besieges Patna; retires, a 284; accepts a donation from Clive, a 285.

Ali Merdan, betrays Candahar to Shah Jehan; his great public works and his canal, a 139.

Ali Morad, his perfidy; obtains the urban by fraud; deceives Angria, Conajee, Alumgeer, emperor of Delhi, Almeyda, the first Portuguese viceroy of India, Aliwal, battle of, c 293.

Alla-oos-deen, Ghizzye, conducts the first Mahomedan expedition across the Nerbudda; takes Deogur; assassinates his uncle, a 54; conquers Guzerat, a 66; captures Chittoor, a 56; extinguishes the Belial dynasty, a 57; sends successive expeditions to the Deccan, as far as Cape Comorin, and acquires extraordinary wealth, a 58; his death, a 59.

Alla-oos-deen, Ghory, defeats Byram, a 39; sacks Ghuurse; is defeated and captured by the Seljuks and restored to power; his death, a 40.

Almeida, the first Portuguese viceroy of India; attacked by the Egyptian and Guzeralee fleets, a 88; death of his son and his own great success, a 89.

Almora, conquest of, b 298.

Alumgoer, emperor of Delhi, assassinated by Ghazee-oos-deen, a 288.

Aluptugune, governor of Candahar, becomes independent, a 27.

Amalgamation of the troops of the Crown and the Company, enjoined on Lord Cornwallis, b 9; approved by Pitt, b 43; and by Dundas; Lord Cornwallis's scheme rejected by the Court of Directors, b 63.

Ameer Khan, his rise, b 134; joins Holkar, b 135; plunder the Rajpoot states, b 203; attacks Nagpore, b 233; repulsed by the raja's troops, b 235; full establishment and strength of his power, b 304; his exactions from the Holkar state, b 325; sides with the British Government, and becomes an independent prince, b 330.

Amherst, Lord, Governor-General, b 379; engages in the Burmese war, b 385; his annexations, b 399; expedition against Bhurtpore, b 402; created an earl, b 410; disastrous financial results of his administration, b 411; his lenity towards the press, b 411; his departure from India, b 413.

Amiens, peace of, and restoration of the foreign settlements, b 113.

Andra dynasty, extent and duration of its power, a 20.

Angria, Conajee, the Mahratta pirate, fortifies Gheriah, beats an English and Portuguese fleet, and captures three Dutch vessels, a 268; Gheriah captured by Clive and Watson, a 269.

Annexation of lapsed principalities; opinion of Lord Dalhousie, c 387; fixed principle established by the Home authorities, c 388; opposed by a party in England, c 400; the annexation policy, attributed to Lord Dalhousie; examination of the three cases on which the assumption rests, c 397; extent of Lord Dalhousie's responsibility, c 399.

Anungpal, the Hindoo king of the Punjab, attacks Mahmood of Ghuznee, and is totally defeated, a 30.

Anwar-oos-deen, appointed Nabob of the Carnatic; founds the family of the Nabobs, a 231; attacks the French at Madras and is defeated, a 239; defeated and slain at Amboor, a 241.
INDEX.

Arabs, enlisted in large numbers by the Deccan princes, $353; their obstinate defence of forts, $353.

Arakan, conquest of, $333.

Arsoom, battle of, $151.

Army of the Company reduced by Lord Hardinge, c 304.

Army, indecisive action before, between Coote and Hyder, c 399.

Arras, battle of, gained by Colonel Kestng over the Mahrattas, c 359.

Assam, conquest of, $352.

Asserupat, besieged and captured, $355.

Ayse, battle of, $149.

Auckland, Lord, Governor-General, c 112; difficulties regarding Persia, Russia, and Afghanistan, c 121; his advisers, c 123; resolves to depose Dost Mahomed and elevate Shah Soojah, c 130; forms the tripartite treaty, c 132; expedition to Afghanistan, c 132; his manifesto, c 134; persists in the expedition after the relief of Herat, c 140; occupation of Afghanistan, c 150; created an earl, c 152; embarrassments of the Government, c 160; expulsion of the British from Afghanistan, c 195; Lord Auckland's despondency and weakness, c 196; quits India, c 204.

Aurungzebe, appointed viceroy of the Deccan, a 141; attacks Golconda and burns Hyderabad, a 142; attacks Beejapore; recalled to Delhi by his father's illness, a 143; his character, a 144; defeats Dara, enters Delhi, deposes Shah Jehan, and mounts the throne, a 145; disposes of his brothers, a 148; his illness and recovery, a 149; reaches the height of his prosperity, a 162; renews the war with Sawaije, a 165; invades the Khyber, and is baffled, a 164; persecutes the Hindoos, and imposes the jizye, a 165; his grand expedition to the Deccan, a 171; disastrous invasion of the Concan, a 172; conquers and extinguishes Beejapore, a 173; puts an end to the kingdom of Golconda, a 174; his conduct towards the English, a 212, 213; his increasing embarrassments in his conflict with the Mahrattas, a 180; makes overtures to them, and retires discomfited to Ahmednugur; his death, a 181; and character, a 182.

Ayshah-bye, her magnificent administration of the Holkar state for thirty years, $133.

Babar, his early career, a 91; his five expeditions to India, a 92; defeats the emperor, and captures Delhi, a 93; defeats Nana Sungs, a 94; conquers Chunderea, Ouda, and Behar; his death and character, a 95.

Beezah-bye, widow of Dowlut Rao Sindia, adopts a son, a 23; monopolizes all power, a 29; collides with the raja, a 30; interference of the British paramounts, a 30; obliged to retire from the country, a 30.

Bahadoor Shah succeeds Aurungzebe, a 162; his death, a 185.

Bahadoor Shah, of Guzerat, his aggressive wars, a 96; defeated by Humayoon; recovers his kingdom, a 97.

Bahmani dynasty; its establishment in the Deccan by Husayn Sungs; extent of the kingdom, a 77; reaches the summit of prosperity, a 81; the kingdom broken up, and five states formed out of it, a 83.

Balil's, Colonels, detachment entirely annihilated by Hyder, a 390.

Bajee Rao becomes Peshwa; impetuousity of his character, a 192; incursions into Malwa, a 193; obtains the crown of Guzerat, a 194; defeats Dhahary and makes the ancestor of the Guickwar family guardian of his infant son; convention with the Nizam, a 195; obtains Jhansi; Malwa conceded to him, a 196; marches to the gates of Delhi and retires, a 197; defeats the Nizam at Bhopal, a 198; his death, and character; consolidation of the Mahratta power under him, a 226.

Bajee Rao, the 2nd; the throne bequeathed to him by Madhoor Rao; his character, $69; plots and counter-plots at Poona, $60; he succeeds as Peshwa; gets rid of Nana Farnwvaze, $61; designs the assassination of Dowlut Rao Sindia, $62. See PESHWA.

Balajee Vishwanath, his origin; rises to the office of Peshwa; his energy a 187; obtains great privileges from Hussein Ali; observations on them, a 188; the privileges confirmed by the emperor; he reorganises the Mahratta polity; his death, a 192. Balajee Rao, succeeds Bajee Rao as Peshwa, a 226; obtains the supreme authority among the Mahrattas, a 252; attacks Salabat Jung, and is defeated by Bussy, a 253; ravages the Carnatic; Mahratta system of plundering, a 255; sends a great army against the Abdalees, a 289; which is defeated at Paniput, a 291; dies of a broken heart, a 292. Balance of power in India extinguished by the battle of Kourdah, b 73. Balasore, establishment of the Company's factory at, a 207. Bapra, the Rajpoot; his exploits; attacks the Mahomedans, a 24; placed on the throne of Chittore, a 24; goes to Khorasan, and marries Mahomedan wives, a 26. Bareilly, insurrection at, b 301. Barlow, Sir George, Governor-General ad interim, b 189; his antecedents and his character, b 191; resolves to upset the policy of Lord Wellesley, b 190; withdraws from his alliances, b 191; adds two declaratory articles to the treaties with Sindia and Holkar, and neutralises them, a 196; abandons Jeypore to plunder, b 196; interposes at Hyderabad to advantage, b 204; refuses to concede the demands of the Peshwa, b 205; Governor of Madras, b 206; his great unpopularity, b 206; treatment of Mr. Sharston, b 337; the Carnatic Commission, b 337; his proceedings stir up a mutiny of the European officers, b 338; his firmness quells it, b 249; his recall, b 245. Bassan, memorable treaty of, b 140; gives umbrage to Sindia and the raja of Nagpore, and leads to a war, b 142. Beder; one of the principalities which arose on the ruins of the Bahminy kingdom, under the Busted Shaby dynasty, a 83, 114. Beejapore; becomes independent under the Adil Shaby dynasty, a 83, 115; the great gun cast by Koomy Khan, a 117; attacked by Aurungzebe, a 143; again invaded by him, a 173; extinction of the kingdom; magnificent edifices of its princes, a 174. Beejanyugur, foundation of the Hindoo kingdom of, a 63; the king constantly worsted by the Bahminy armies; he enlists Mahomedans; his continued want of success, a 80; resources of the kingdom; attacked by four Mahomedan princes; entire defeat of the Hindoo army at Tallicotta, a 116; extinction of the kingdom, a 117. Begums of Oude, demand the treasures and jageers said to be bequeathed to them by the vizier; the demand compromised by the Resident, a 318; the vizier at Chunar obtains Hastings's consent to despooil them, a 418; they are deprived of their wealth and their lands, a 418; their servants tortured, a 420; their jageers restored, a 421. Bellal, the Hindoo dynasty of, in the Deccan, extinguished, a 57. Beloli Lodi, emperor of Delhi; his ancestry; incessant wars with Jounpore, a 69; extinguishes that kingdom; his death, a 70. Benares, the ancient Hindoo dynasty of Fal, a 41; its temples destroyed by Aurungzebe, a 165; the province of, ceded to the Company by the Vizier, a 348. See Cuvier Singh. Benfield, Paul, his humble position in the service; his demand of 23 lacs he had advanced to the Nabob, and on the crops of Tanjore, a 380; creates eight members of Parliament with the funds of the Nabob; consigned to infamy by Burke, a 456; gains 60 lacs by the payment of the Nabob's debts without enquiry, a 437. Bengal, introduction of brahmans and kayusta, a 26; Hindoo power extinguished, a 40; revolts from the throne of Delhi, a 63; reconquered by Akbar, a 112; establishment of Portuguese power in it, a 137; its total extinction, a 189; first establishment of the East India Company, a 206; abandoned by Charnock, a 213; he returns and founds Calcutta, a 214; fifty years contest between the Company and the Nabob, a 235; devasted by the Mahrattas, a 223; comes under the authority of the English, a 280; injurious effect of the double Government established by Clive, a 342; its miserable condition 1757-1772, a 315; created into a Lieutenant-Governorship, c 456.
INDEX.

Bentinck, Lord William, Governor of Madras; recalled on the Vellore mutiny, b 211; appointed Governor-General, c 1; his economical reductions, c 2; passes the half batta order, c 2; annexes Cachar, c 11; annexes Georg, c 11; his non-interference policy, c 14; deprives the raja of Mysore of his government, c 20; threatens the King of Oude to take over the whole administration, c 26; supported in this by the Court of Directors, a 27; meeting with Ranjest Sing at Roopur, c 41; makes a treaty with Sinde, c 43; his great administrative reforms, c 45; settlement of the north-west provinces, c 47; originates the employment of natives in the public service, c 49; abolishes suttee, c 51; modifies the Hindoo law of inheritance, c 56; admits native Christians to office, c 57; suppresses thuggery, c 58; encourages steam navigation, c 60; labours in the cause of education, c 63; establishes the medical college, c 68; financial results of his administration, c 78; remarks on it, c 80.

Berar, becomes independent under the Imad Shahy dynasty, a 83; absorbed in the kingdom of Ahmednugur, a 114; ceded to Akbar by Chand Sultana, a 131. For the Bhonslay dynasty, see Nagpore.

Bharut, the earliest king of India, a 2.

Bishavpol, the khan of, welcomes Captain Burnes, c 38; assists in defeating Moolraj, c 815.

Bheela, civilized by Capt. Outram, c 100.

Bhoja raja, his peaceful and illustrious reign, a 42.

Bhopal, noble conduct of the raja to General Goddard, not forgotten by the British Government, a 368; invaded by Sindia and Nagpore, b 335; saved by the interposition of the British Government, b 332; treaty with the state in 1817, b 332; great talents of the Begum, and her admirable administration; adorned with the Star of India, c 22.

Bhurtpore, founded by the Jauta, a 202; the failure of the siege in 1803, b 173; treaty with the raja, b 173; Doorjun Saul seizes the government in 1825, b 403; collects a large army and defies the Government, b 406; second siege and capture, b 407; disgraceful plunder, b 408; effects of the capture in India, b 410.

Bidegor, captured by the English; the troops divide 40 lacs of booty among themselves, a 417.

Bird, Mr. Robert, his eminent services in the settlement of the north-west provinces, c 48.

Bird, Mr Wilberforce, Deputy-Governor of Bengal, improves the condition of the magistracy, and raises the pay of the Darogas, c 268; instrumental in abolishing lotteries, c 269; and slavery, c 270.

Black Hole, the tragedy of, a 273.

Board of Control, established by Mr. Pitt, a 433; Board of Customs, Salt, and Opium abolished in Calcutta, c 430; Board of Revenue left, c 430; Military Board abolished, c 431.

Bombay, the port acquired from the King of Portugal, a 208; the Presidency enlarged by the territories taken from the Peshwa, b 365.

Bombay, President and Council; offer assistance to Raghoth; capture Salsette, a 358; conclude the treaty of Surat with Raghoth, a 359; which is disallowed at Calcutta, c 369; despatch an army to Poona in the cause of Raghoth, a 365; the disgraceful convention of Wurgam, a 367; which the Council repudiates, c 369.

Boodh, his birth, religion and death, a 11.

Boodhism spreads through Ceylon, Tibet, Tartary, and China, a 11.

Boodhists expelled from India, a 18.

Boorhanpore captured, b 150.

Bourbon, Isle of, captured by an English force, b 248.

Broadfoot, Major, his eminent services at Jellalabad, c 205; political agent at
INDEX.

Loodiana, c 288; his efforts to collect supplies during the first Sikh war, c 288; his death at Ferozeshuhur, c 291.

Bunshah, his worship succeeds the Institutes of Munoo, a 6.

Buckingham, Mr. J. S., banished from India by Mr. Adam, b 382.

Bulbul, emperor of Delhi, his exemplary reign, a 51.

Buonaparte sends a large armament to Pondicherry, after the peace of Amiens, which Lord Wellesley does not allow to land, b 118.

Burma; rise and progress of Burmese power, b 382; haughty treatment of British envoys, b 383; conquests of the Burmese, 1815-25, b 384; origin of the first war, b 385; faulty arrangements of the campaign, b 387; disaster at Ramoo, b 388; arrival of the expedition at Rangoon, b 389; sickness and mortality, b 390; army advances to Prome, b 395; negotiations for peace, b 395; final engagement, b 397; treaty of Yandaboo, b 398; remarks on the war, b 399; second Burmese war, c 360; organization of the force, c 368; capture of Rangoon, c 369; war closed without a treaty, c 371; annexation of Pegu, c 372.

Burnes, Capt., proceeds up the Indus with the dray horses for Runjeet Singh, a 137; honourably welcomed by him, c 38; sent on a mission to Cabul, c 124; his negotiations with the Dost, c 124; his false position, c 125; failure of his mission, and his departure from Cabul, c 129; knighted, c 152; murdered on the 2nd Nov. 1841, c 174.

Bussy, makes Salabut Jung soobadar, a 245; obtains large donations from him, a 238; obtains the northern sircars, and establishes a great French power in the Deccan, a 254; captures the English factories on the coast, a 257; his character and progress; his power extinguished by Lally, a 258; returns to India at the end of twenty-four years, and reaches the coast, a 404; his operations at Cuddalore suspended by the news of peace between France and England, a 405.

Buxar, the Nabob Vixier defeated at the battle of, a 395.

Byram of Ghuznee, the last of the dynasty, puts Seif-ood-deen to death; defeated by Alls-ood-deen; his death, a 39.

Cabral, conducts the second Portuguese expedition to India, and discovers Brazil, a 86; intrigues against him at Calicut; he seizes Moorish vessels and burns the town, a 87.

Cabul, occupied by a British army, a 148; troops turned out of the Bala Hisser, c 157; insurrection of the 2nd Nov. 1841, c 173; inactivity of the political and military chiefs, c 175; the envoy calls up a reinforcement from Candahar, which returns after a few marches, c 179; he orders Gen. Sale to return, but he proceeds on to Jellalabad, c 178; spread of the insurrection, c 176; fatal error in the construction of the cantonments, c 177; Brigadier Shelton made second in command, c 181; his impracticable temper, c 181; the last action, 23rd Nov., c 183; negotiations with the insurgent chiefs, c 184; treaty of 11th Dec. violated by the chiefs, c 186; assassination of Sir W. Macnaghten, c 189; renewed negotiations with Major Pottinger, c 190; new treaty, c 192; retreat of the army, c 192; its unexampled misery, c 193; surrender of the ladies and officers, c 193; total extinction of the force, c 195; character and effects of the catastrophe, c 195; second expedition to Cabul, c 217; the city reoccupied, c 223; rescue of the British prisoners and hostages, c 225; destruction of the great bazaar, c 227; departure of the British army, c 228.

Cachar, campaign in, b 392; annexed by Lord W. Bentinck, a 11.

Calcutta, foundation of, a 214; its fortification, a 216; the Maharatta ditch, a 227; its defenceless state in 1765, a 271; besieged by Seraja Dowlah, a 272; surrenders; tragedy of the Black Hole, a 273; recaptured by Clive, a 275; becomes the capital of Bengal, a 343.

Calcutta Council, its atrocious conduct regarding the transit duties, a 301; makes war on Meer Casim, a 302; its rapacity on the elevation of Nujum-ood-dowlah, a 307.

Calcut, becomes independent in the ninth century, a 22; the Zamorin receives the first Portuguese expedition, a 85; he attacks the Portuguese, and is defeated, a 119.
INDEX. 465

Campbell, Capt., his efforts to eradicate human sacrifices in Goomoor, c 107.
Canals of the Mogul dynasty, restored by Lord Hastings, c 305; the great Ganges Canal, designed by Col. Colvin, c 305; begun by Lord Auckland, c 306; works suspended by Lord Ellenborough, c 306; resumed and pushed forward by Lord Hardinge, c 307; energetic efforts of Lord Dalhousie to complete it, c 437; constructed and finished by Col. Cautley, c 437; Basse Dooab Canal in the Punjab, projected by Lord Dalhousie and executed by Col. Napier, c 359.
Candahar, betrayed by Ali Merdan to the Moguls, a 139; reconquered by the Persians; three unsuccessful efforts to retake it by the Moguls, a 140; captured by the expeditionary force, in 1839, c 145; disaffection of the Doonnees, c 167; their total discomfiture, c 169; progress of events after the insurrection at Cabul, c 210; admirable arrangements of Gen. Nott and Major Rawlinson, c 210; attacked by the insurgents 10th March, 1842, defended by Major Lane and Major Rawlinson, c 211; army quite it, and marches to Cabul, c 223.
Candahar, becomes independent, a 65; is subordinate to the neighbouring princes, a 71; annexed to the Mogul empire, a 121.
Carnao, Col., his incapacity and supersession, a 366, 367.
Carnatic, invaded by Servaes, a 165; its extent; overrun by the Moguls; entrusted to Zulfiqar Khan, Daood Khan, and Sadutoolla, a 292; Anwar-coodeen founds the family of the Nabobs of the Carnatic, a 231; its revenues taken over for the expenses of the Mysore war, a 396; restored to the Nabob by Mr. Dundas, a 438; deplorable embarrassment of the Nabob; fleeced by his creditors, European and native, b 104; makes assignments of land contrary to the treaty, b 105; Lord Wellesley offers a reasonable settlement, which he refuses, b 106; discovery of his treasonable correspondence with Tippoo, b 106; Lord Wellesley annexes the Carnatic, b 107; new treaty with the Nabob in 1801; its personal character, a 108; Nabob dies childless in 1833, c 404; Lord Harris proposes to extinguish the Nabobship, c 404; Lord Dalhousie fully concurs with him, c 405; Court of Directors order the titular Nabobship to cease, c 406.
Cashmere conquered by Akbar, a 113; and by Runjeet Sing, c 33; sold by the British Government to Golab Sing, in 1846, c 233.
Ceded and conquered provinces receive the promise of a permanent settlement, from Lord Wellesley, b 265; disallowed by the Court of Directors, b 266; settlement made by Mr. Robert Bird, b 47.
Chandernagore, established by the French, a 209; captured by Clive, a 277.
Chand Sultana, her noble defence of Ahmednugur, a 120; her tragic death, a 121.
Charnock, retires from Hooghly to Chuttanutty, a 211; is taken away to Madras by Captain Heath, a 213; returns and founds Calcutta; his death and monument, a 214.
Charter of the East India Company of 1793, b 49; of 1813, b 273; of 1833, c 82; of 1853, c 454.
Cheyt Sing, the raja of Benares; his family and position; extraordinary aid demanded of him, a 415; he hesitates, and Mr. Hastings imposes a fine of 80 lacs on him; is placed under restraint and escapes to Rammugur, c 416; to Budgegur, a 417; and to Bundelcund, a 418; remarks on this transaction, a 418.
Chillianwala, battle of, c 333; its results, c 337; public opinion of it in England and in India, c 338; leads to the recall of Lord Gough, c 339.
Chin Kilich Khan, the Tartar, as Nizamool-moolk, appointed subadar of the Deccan, and founds a new dynasty, a 186.
Chinsurah, its foundation, a 209; attacked by Clive, a 285.
Chittors, illustrious ancestry of the raja, a 23; invaded by Mahmoon, who is defeated by Khoman, a 26; captured by Akbar, a 109; singular mode in III. which the capture is commemorated to this day; abandoned for Oodypore, a 109.

Cholas in the Deccan, a 21.

Cholera, its first appearance in India in Col. Pearce's detachment proceeding to Madras, a 375; breaks out in Lord Hastings's camp in 1817, b 329.

Christianity introduced into India by St. Thomas, a 20; propagation of it in India, b 213.

Christian natives first admitted to office by Lord W. Bentinck, c 57.

Chronology, ancient, of the Hindoos, a 2.

Chundra-goopta, Governor of Bombay, c 337.

Clive, his energetic efforts to retrieve the disasters of Cabul, c 197; Governor of Bombay, c 382; Sir George Clerk's Minute on the case of adoption at Sattara, c 384.

Cleveland, Augustus, his efforts to civilize the Rajmahal hill tribes, c 99.

Clive, first development of his genius, a 239; captures Arcot, a 246; memorable siege of that place, a 247; captures Gheriah; Governor of Fort St. David, a 293; sent to recover Calcutta, a 274; retakes it, and attacks Hooghly, a 275; defeats the Nabob, a 276; captures Chandernagore, a 277; victory at Plassey, a 279; sends an expedition under Col. Forde to the coast, a 283; conflict with the Dutch, a 285; returns to England, a 286; created a peer, a 307; his unworthy treatment in England; Court of Directors constrained to send him out a second time as Governor to Bengal, a 308; his arrangement with the Nabob of Moonsheedabad, the Emperor and the Vizier, a 310; gives back Oude; obtains the Dewanny, a 310; quells the mutiny of the European officers; sets up the society of inland trade, a 313; returns to England; review of his career; bullied and badgered at home, a 313; his tragic death, a 316.

Cole insurrection, c 5.

College of Fort William, established by Lord Wellesley, b 123; abolished by the orders of the Court, and revived in a modified form, b 125.

Colvin, Mr. John, private secretary to Lord Auckland; his great influence over his mind; one of his counsellors, c 123; promotes the Afghan expedition, c 123.

Combermere, Lord, captures Bhurtpore, b 409; obtains six lacas of rupees of prize money, b 409.

Conolly, Capt. Arthur, his treatment at Bokhara, and his execution, c 236.

Coorg, character of the country, c 11; atrocities of the raja, c 12; conquered and annexed, c 13.

Coote, Col., defeats Lally at Wandewash, a 261; captures Pondicherry, a 263; Sir Eyre appointed Commander-in-chief in Bengal; embarks for Madras, a 392; captures Carangolly; gains the battle of Porto Novo, a 393; and of Polillore, a 394; and of Solingur, a 395; his death, a 404.

Cornwallis, Lord; his antecedents; his great reputation, b 4; appointed Governor-General; sets about the reform of abuses, b 5; enumeration of them, b 6; demands the Cantoor Silver, b 9; the Nizam's demand of aid perplexes him; his notable letter to the Nizam, b 10; resolves on war with Tippoo, b 12; treaty of alliance with the Nizam and the Mahrattas, b 18; leaves the campaign of 1790 to General Meadows, b 14; sends a force by land to Madras, b 15; takes the field in person; arrives at Madras; marches towards Seringapatam, b 16; captures Bangalore, b 17; battle of Arcara, b 18; obliged to retire through want of provisions, b 19; conquers the Baramahal; captures numerous forts; the grand convoy, b 22; he marches into Mysore; captures the defences around Seringapatam, b 23; hip and Bruce for peace, b 24; peace of Seringapatam, b 23; its terms, b 25; his proceedings arraigned in both Houses; ratified by Parliament; he is created a Marquis, b 28; his revenue reforms, b 29; his code, b 37; his civil and criminal institutions, b 36; review of them at the end of seventy years, b 288; he proposes the guarantee treaty, which is accepted by the Nizam, b 52; and rejected by the Mahrattas, b 53; he returns to England, b 53; accepts the office of Governor-General, but throws it up in disgust, b 57; goes out to India a second time as Governor-General in 1805, b 188; annuls Lord Wellesley's policy, b 187; his death, b 189.
INDEX.

467

Court of Directors, contend with the Board of Control, in the matter of Palmer and Co., of Hyderabad, c 73; writ of mandamus issued against them, and they sign the despatch under compulsion, c 74; resist the orders of the Board to compel the King of Oude to pay the demands of the bankers, c 75; their enlightened despatch to India after the Charter of 1833, c 87; character of their government for twenty-five years after that date, to the day of their extinction, c 87; number reduced from thirty to eighteen, c 454.

Canouj; its magnificence; the king submits to Mahmood of Ghuznee, a 32; occupied by the Rathores, a 41; the king celebrates the sacrifice of the horse, a 42; conquered by Mahomed Ghory, and the kingdom extinguished, a 45.

Currie, Sir F., resident at Lahore, c 310; his proceedings during the revolt of the Sikhs, c 313-318.

Cuttaek, made over to the Nagpore raja by Aliverdy Khan, a 229; conquered by the English in 1803, and annexed, b 150; disturbances in 1817 and 1818; their cause, and their suppression, b 363.

Dacoity, its great prevalence in Bengal; system of the dacoits, their atrocities; impunity with which they were committed, b 271; violent attempts to extinguish them, b 272.

Dalhousie, Lord, Governor-General, c 309; forced into a second Punjab war, c 321; on its successful issue annexes the kingdom, c 349; created a Marquis, c 350; his arrangements for the government of the Punjab, c 353; earnest endeavours to put down infanticide, c 357; the great material improvements he promotes in the Punjab, c 358; grand result of the system of administration he introduced, c 360; forced into a second Burmese war, c 361; his energetic prosecution of it, c 367; concludes Pegu, c 372; dispute with Sir E. Tern, his opinion of the Duke of Wellington upon the subject of his propositions, c 380; annexation of Sattara, c 381; his opinion of our policy regarding native states, c 387; annexation of Berar, c 388; and of Jhansi, c 395; enumeration and examination of his annexations, c 397; concurs with Lord Harris in extinguishing the titular nabobship of the Carnatic, c 403; obtains Berar from the Nizam in lieu of the debt, and the annual payment of the contingent, c 406; refuses to continue the pension to Nana Sahib, c 412; refuses to restore the government of Mysoor to the raja, c 416; his advice regarding Oude, c 424; annexes it by orders from England, c 427; his administrative reforms, c 429; organizes Public Works Department, and lavishes funds on it, c 431; promotes education, c 432; revenue, finance, and commerce during his administration, c 433; promotes steam communication on the Indus and the Irawaddy, c 433; projects the port of the Mutlah, c 434; encourages the project of a bridge over the Hooghly, c 434; establishes low and uniform postage, c 434; his journeys, c 435; promotes the construction of roads and canals, c 436; establishes the grand system of railways in India, c 439; and of the electric telegraph, c 444; embarks for England, c 446; character of his administration, c 446; censured for not having foreseen the mutiny, c 448; censured for having caused it, c 450; the annexation policy attributed to him not the cause of it, c 451; his death, c 447.
INDEX.

Daood Khan, Governor of the Carnatic, entertained by Mr. Pitt, Lord Chatham's father at Madras, a 183; offers the chief to the Maharratas, a 184; Governor of Guzerat, a 186; attacks and defeats Hussein Ali Syud, but is killed by a cannon ball, a 187.

Dara, son of Shah Jahau, his character, a 144; defeated by Aurungzebe's force; is paraded through Delhi, and put to death, a 148.

Darius, his expedition to India; extent of his conquests, a 10.

Deegaon, treaty of, b 152.

Dewanny of Bengal, Behar and Orissa bestowed on the Company by the emperor, a 310.

Deegaon, treaty of, b 152.

Dhondia Waug, pursued and crushed by General Wellesley, b 100.

Dias, Bartholomew, first doubles the Cape of Good Hope, a 84; perishes in a storm off the Cape, a 86.

Dixon, Capt., his great efforts to civilize the Mairs, c 102.

Doorgawuttee, the Hindoo queen of Guurra; her beauty, her valour, her tragic end, a 107.

Dooryudhun defeated by Yoodisthaer; his death, a 8.

Dost Mahomed, ruler of Cabul, c 113; proclaims a religious war to recover Peshawur from the Sikhs, c 115; its failure, c 116; his application for assistance to Lord Auckland, c 116; to Persia, c 117; to Russia, c 127; receives Capt. Burns cordially, c 124; determination of Lord Auckland to dethrone him, c 128; receives the Russian envoy, c 129; dissuades Capt. Burns, c 129; flies from Cabul on the approach of the British army, c 148; pursued by Captain Outram and others, c 149; his movements after his flight, c 161; collects a large force at Khooloom, and is defeated, c 162; advances into the Kohistan, c 163; defeats an English force, and surrenders, c 165; liberated on the return of the army, c 233; his last interview with Lord Ellesborough, c 233; forms an alliance with the rebel Sikhs in 1848, c 326; the force he sent into the Punjab, flies back in disgrace, c 347; reconciled to the British Government, and concludes a treaty in 1856, c 234.

Drake, Mr. Governor of Calcutta in 1756; his dastardly conduct, a 272.

Duff, Dr., his great and successful efforts in the cause of native education, c 67.

Duncaq, Mr. Jonathan, his efforts to eradicate infanticide at Benares, c 103; and on his appointment as Governor of Bombay, c 104.

Dundas, Mr. moves a vote of censure on Hastings, a 429; and for his recall and that of Mr. Hornby, President at Bombay, a 430; refuses to support the Rohilla charge against Hastings, a 424; first and ablest President of the Board of Control, a 434.

Dupleix, his antecedents; Governor of Chandernagore and of Pondicherry, a 238; his opposition to Labourdonnae, a 234; violates the capitulation of Madras; besieges Fort St. David; repulsed by the Nabob; persuade the Nabob to join him, a 298; defends Pondicherry against the English, and obtains great renown in India, a 297; determines to establish a French empire in the Deccan, a 299; experiences a reverse, a 242; takes Masulipatam, a 243; is appointed Viceroy of all the territories south of the Kistna, and reaches the summit of his glory, a 244; superseded by Godolphin, a 250; his fate; remarks on his career, a 251.

Dutch, their first establishment in Beugal, a 209; they bring a force from Java to Chinsura, where it is defeated by Col. Forde, a 218.

East India Company; its origin, first adventure, a 206; eight succeeding adventures; first send vessels to India, a 206; successful combat with the Portuguese; firman from Jehangeer, a 205; and from Shah Jahan, a 206; their privileges confirmed by Cromwell, a 207; and by Charles the Second, a 208; their great prosperity, 1662-1682, a 209; obtain Admiralty jurisdiction, a 210; determined to fight the Great Mogul; rival Company established in London, a 210; send out Admiral Nicholson with a large armament; his instructions; his fleet dispersed; he burns Hooghly, a 211; attack of the pilgrim ships, which leads to an accommodation with the emperor, a 212; ambition of the Company quenched for half a century, a 214; union of the two Companies, a 219; embassy to Delhi, a 221; noble conduct of Mr. Hamilton, the surgeon, and privileges obtained through him, a 222; strange anomaly of the Company's position in 1772, a 337; its vicious constitution, a 338; interference of Parliament in its affairs, a 339; its financial difficulties; the Regulating Act, a 340; close of the career of the East India Company, in 1808, c 457.

Education, great encouragement given to it by Lord Hastings, b 357; Parliamentary grant devoted to oriental studies, c 63; the despatch of the Court of Directors on the subject, c 64; struggle between the Orientalists and the Anglicists, c 65; decision of Lord W. Bentinck in favour of English instruction, c 66; suspicious results of this decision, c 67; education fostered by Lord Hardinge, c 272; encouraged by Lord Dalhousie, c 431; great educational despatch of Sir Charles Wood, c 432; Director-General of public instruction appointed by Lord Dalhousie, c 432; great encouragement given to vernacular education by Mr. Thomson, c 438.

Edwardes, Lieut., his great and successful efforts to put down the insurrection in Mooytan, c 315; gains the battle of Kineyree, c 315; and of Sudoosain, c 316; his efforts neutralized by the defection of Shere Sing, c 320.

Electric Telegraph in India, c 444.

Ellenborough, Lord, Governor-General, c 202; his spirited notification, 15th March, 1842, a 213; orders the armies to retire, 19th April, a 214; authorizes the Generals to advance, 4th July, a 217; orders the gates of Sonaah and the mace of Mahmood to be brought away from Ghuznee, a 224; Proclamation of 1st Oct., a 229; Gates Proclamation, a 230; orders the Ameers of Sinde to sign new treaties, a 238; after the victory of Meanee annexes Sind, c 249; complications at Gwalior, a 254; his Minute of 1st Nov. 1843, c 259; British armies advance, and gain two victories, c 262-265; he concludes a new treaty with Sindia, which destroys the independence of the state, a 265; recalled by the Court of Directors, c 267.

Ellora, the wonderful caves of, a 19.

Elphinstone, Gen., commanding in Afghanistan; his bodily infirmities, c 175; is given up as a hostage during the retreat, c 194; his death, c 226.

Elphinstone, Mr. Mount Stuart, sent on a mission to Cabul, a 226; his judicious proceedings with Bajee Rao, b 335; Governor of Bombay; his successful administration, b 412; his code, b 412; twice refuscs the Governor-Generalship, c 89.

Emamgur, captured by Sir Charles Napier, c 244.

Emperor, Shah Allum, invades Behar, and is defeated by Col. Calliaud, a 294; defeated a second time by Captain Knox, a 295; invests Meer Cassim with the Soobadaree of the three provinces, and proceeds to Delhi, a 298; his arrangement with Clive; grants the Dewanny to the Company, a 310; seated by the Mahrattas on the throne of Delhi, a 335; quarrels with them, and is reduced to submission, a 336; Gholam Kadir puts out his eye, b 42; rescued from the Mahrattas and restored to his throne by General Lake, b 156.
INDEX.

England, Brigadier, repulsed at Hykulsaya, c 212; his singular conduct in the Kajuck pass, c 213.

Europeans first allowed to settle in India in 1833, c 86.

Esufkrees defeat Akbar's army in the Khyber, a 113; and battle Aurungzebe, a 164.

Expedition, from Bengal to Madras, along the coast under Col. Pearce, a 375; he reaches Pulicat, a 394.

Famine, the great, in Bengal, 1770, a 315; the famine at Madras, a 401.

Ferozepore, the army starts from, on the Afghan expedition, c 141; reviewed there by Lord Ellenborough on its return, c 261; Sir John Littler beleaguered by the Sikhs at Ferozepore, c 283.

Ferozeshuhur, battle of, 21st Dec. 1845, c 287; second engagement, 22nd Dec., c 289; remarks on them, c 290.

Fishbourne, Capt., insulted by the governor of Rangoon, which results in war, c 302.

Fleet, the magnificent mercantile fleet of the Company, b 366.

Flint, Lt., his gallant defence of Wandewash; refused any promotion by the Court of Directors, a 393.

Flogging in the native army, abolished by Lord W. Bentinck, revived by Lord Hardinge, c 273.

Forde, Col., his expedition to the coast; defeats the Marquis Confians, a 283; takes Masulipatam and obtains a cession of territory from Salabut Jung, a 284; defeats the Dutch force at Chinsurah, a 286.

Fort William. Its erection, a 216.

Fox's India Bill; its provisions, a 430; violent opposition to it, a 431; passes the Commons; rejected in the House of Lords, a 432; comparison of it with Pitt's Bill, a 434.

Francis, Mr. Philip, arrives in Calcutta, as member of Council; enters on a violent and systematic opposition to Hastings, a 346; is wounded in a duel with him, and returns to England, a 354.

Fraser, Gen., gains the battle of Deeg; and is mortally wounded, b 172.

French East India Company, established, a 209.

Fullerton, Col., his expedition into Mysore, a 407; his success, a 408; his progress arrested by the Madras Government; ordered to restore all his conquests—and then to retain them, a 408, 409.

Futteh Khan, the great vizier at Cabul, blinded and murdered by Kamrun, c 33.

Gates of Somnath, demanded by Runjest Singh, and refused by Shah Soojah, c 113; brought away by order of Lord Ellenborough, c 224; the magnificent Proclamation concerning them, c 290; consigned to oblivion in the fort of Agra, c 231.

General Assembly's institution in Calcutta, c 67.

Ghaze-ood-deen, son of the Nizam, advances to seize the Deccan; is poisoned by his own mother, a 254.

Ghaze-ood-deen, son of the former, generalissimo of the imperial army; deposes and blinds the emperor, 1764, a 266; invades the Punjab, and provokes Ahmed Shah Abdalee, a 267; invites the Mahrattas, a 286; murders the emperor Aurungzebe, a 286.

Ghaze Toghluk, first emperor of that family, a 69; his death, a 61.

Gheisa-ood-deen mounts the throne and associates his brother, Mahomed Ghory with him in the Government, a 40.
INDEX.

Ghesiah, Angria's, captured by Clive and Watson, a 269.

Ghilzay dynasty, succeeds to the throne of Delhi, a 53; extinguished by Ghazes Toghulk, a 59.

Ghilzyes, the eastern; their turbulent character, their disaffection; defeated by Col. Wymer, c 168; break out into rebellion in October, 1841, c 171.

Gholam Kadir, sacks Delhi; puts out the eyes of the emperor, 1788; is mutilated by Sindia and dies in torture, b 42.

Ghor, rise of the dynasty of, a 39; it ends with Mahomed, a 47.

Ghuznee, its fortifications, c 147; captured by the British army, c 147; surrendered to the Afghans by Col. Palmer, c 312; recaptured and burnt, c 224.

Gillespie, Gen., suppresses the mutiny at Vellore, b 209; captures Fort Cornelis in Java, b 252; subdues the native chiefs, b 253; is killed at Kalunga, b 291.

Ginjee, the strong fortress of, occupied by the Mahrattas, and captured by Zalikhar Khan, a 179.

Godard, Gen., his successful expedition across the country from the Jumna to Surat, a 368; takes Ahmedabad, and drives the Mahrattas back to the Nerbbuda, a 371; beats them at Doogaur, a 374; failure of his expedition to Poona, a 874.

Godeheu, succeeds Dupleix and terminates hostilities with the English; a 250.

Godwin, Gen., commands in the second Burmese war, c 368.

Gound and Gwallor, complications arising out of their cession to the raja, b 174; restored to Sindia, b 187.

Golab Singh, his origin and rise, c 274; coerced and plundered by the Khalsa troops, c 279; negotiates for the durbar with Lord Hardinge, c 300; obtains Cashmere for a crore of rupees, c 300.

Golconda, the Kootub Shyly dynasty establishes an independent kingdom at, a 89; the king submits to Aurungzebe, and consents to pay down a crore of rupees, a 143; he is attacked again by Aurungzebe, a 173; and the kingdom is extinguished, a 174.

Goorkha, campaign planned by Lord Hastings, b 291; three out of four divisions unsuccessful, b 291; effect of our discomfiture on the princes of India, b 294; Lord Hastings's extraordinary efforts to retrieve our honour, b 295; successful exertions of Gen. Ochterlony, b 297; conquest of Almora, b 298; second campaign, b 299; Gen. Ochterlony marches towards the capital, b 299; the durbar submits, and signs the treaty, b 300; remarks on the war, 300.

Gooroo Govind, the Sikh prophet, a 184.

Gough, Sir Hugh, fights the battle of Maharajpore, c 264; advances in haste to the aid of Sir John Littler, c 284; battle of Moodkee, c 286; of Ferozeshuhur, c 286; and of Sobraon, c 294; created a Baron, c 302; takes the command of the army for the reconquest of the Punjab, c 324; Ramnagar, c 326; Chiliwanwa, c 332; is recalled, c 339; fights the battle of Guzerat, c 343; and is made a Viscount, c 350.

Gour, the ancient capital of Bengal, depopulated and deserted, a 113.

Governor-General; the office created in 1773, a 340; enlargement of its powers, b 47.

Guickwar, the dynasty established in Guzerat by Peelaje, originally a cowherd, a 192; transactions at the court of the, b 163.

Gundahar Khastree, murdered by Trimbukjes, b 310.

Guizerat, governed by the Bhaglases, a 41; the Hindoo power extinguished by Alla-ood-deen, a 55; becomes independent of Delhi, a 65; Mozuffer the first king, a 71; his grandson Ahmed builds Ahmedabad, a 72; Mahmood governs it for fifty years; his illustrious reign, a 74; Mozuffer the second; the wild and turbulent Bahadoor Shah, a 76; it is conquered by Akbar, a 109; it passes over to the Guickwar, a 135; disputes between Govind Rao and Putteh Sing Guickwar, a 357; Putteh Sing makes a treaty with Raghooba, and Col. Keating, c 360; Guzerat, in the Punjab; last and decisive battle, of 1849, c 344; remarks on it, c 346.
INDEX.

Gwalior, gallant capture of it by Major Popham, c 373; Junjoojee Sindia dies without issue, c 234; his widow of thirteen adopts a lad of eight, c 234; appointment of the Maha as regent, c 255; he is dismissed, c 256; insubordination of the army, c 255; confusion at the capital, c 257; Lord Ellenborough's Minute of 1st Nov, 1843, c 259; his proceedings, c 261; orders the army to advance, c 263; battles of Maharajpore and Punniar, c 264; new treaty and settlement, c 265; the contingent augmented, c 266; it revolts during the Sepoy mutiny and fights Gen. Windham at Cawnpore, c 266.

Hakim Mehdi, the illustrious minister of an unworthy master in Oude, c 27.

Half batta order, enjoined by the Court of Directors, and carried into effect by Lord W. Bentinck, c 2.

Hall, Capt., his efforts to civilize the Mairs, c 102.

Halliday, Mr., Secretary to the Government of Bengal for eleven years; appointed the first Lieutenant-Governor, c 355.

Hamilton, Mr., the surgeon; his noble conduct at the Court of Delhi; he obtains privileges from the Company, c 222.

Hardinge, Sir Henry, Governor-General, c 270; his antecedents, c 271; revives flagging in the native army, c 273; his preparations on the Punjab frontier, c 261; the Sikhs invade our territory, c 283; he confiscates the Cis-Sutleje districts, c 284; engaged in the battle of Moodkee, c 285; takes the second in command of the army, c 286; engaged at Ferozeshahur, c 287; calls up reinforcements, c 292; engaged at Sobroon, c 294; pushes a division across the Sutleje, c 297; determines to spare the throne of the Punjab, but annexes the Jullunder Doab to the Company's territories, c 299; sells Cashmere to Golab Sing, c 300; makes a settlement of the Government of the Punjab, 9th March, 1846, c 306; and a second in December, c 302; created a Viscount, c 302; reduces the Company's army; and the public expenditure by a crore and a-half of rupees, c 304; puts down sutees in native states, c 307; retires from the Government, c 308.

Harris, General, commands the coast army, b 87; defeats Tipoo at Malavella, b 89; captures Serinipatam, b 90; obtains a rich haul of prize money beyond his share, b 99.

Hartley, Col., his extraordinary talent and success pass unrequited, a 366; his brilliant exploit in Malabar, b 15.

Hastings, Lord, Governor-General, b 283; forced into a war with Nepal, b 283; arranges the campaign, b 391; dictates a treaty to the durbar at Katmandoo, b 300; addresses the Court on the growing power of the Pindarees in 1813, b 304; and again in 1814, b 312; forbidden to undertake any offensive operations, b 316; forms a subsidiary treaty with Nagpore, b 314; receives permission to take the field against the Pindarees, b 318; his arrangement of the campaign, b 327; military preparations on the grandest scale which had ever been seen, b 327; obliges the Peshwas, as the penalty of his perfidy to sign a new treaty, and to surrender large territory, b 322; takes the field in person, b 328; advances to Gwalior, and obliges Sindia, who was wavering, to sign a treaty, b 328; enters into treaties of alliance with the various native princes, b 331; on the outbreak of the Peshwas, confiscates all his dominions, b 350; operations against the Pindarees, and the confederacy utterly eradicated from the soil of India, b 343; great results of the campaign: the Pindarees, Panam, and Mahrajas power, utterly broken up, b 343; the Satara family endowed with a small principality, b 349; general hostility of the Court of Directors to him, b 356; the first Governor-General to patronize education, b 357; leaves the finances in a state of prosperity before unknown, b 363; his partiality to the unworthy Rumbolds of
INDEX.

Hyderabad, injurious to his fame, 573; vote of thanks from the Directors and proprietors in 1822, 575; vote of censure on his proceedings in 1823, 577; remarks on his administration, 575; his death, 578.

Hastings, Warren, his appointment to the service; returns to England; appointed second in Council at Madras, 541; Governor of Bengal, 542; introduces great changes into the administration; the first Rohilla war, 543; sells Corah and Allahabad to the Vizier, 544; first Governor-General, 541; outvoted in Council and becomes powerless, 547; accusations concocted against him, 549; charge brought by Nundu koomar; Hastings refuses to sit in Council to be bullied by natives, 550; the execution of Nundu koomar, laid at his door; he is condemned by the Court of Directors; supported by the Court of Proprietors, 552; offers to resign, and then recalls his resignation; Col. Monson's death restores his authority; Clavering's attempt to seize the fort baffled by Hastings, 553; dispute settled by the Supreme Court, 554; his vigorous measures on the breaking out of the war with France, 568; offers a treaty to the raja of Berar, which is declined, 574; comes to an understanding with him; the land expedition to Madras, 575; treaty with Sindia; treaty of Saliyee with the Mahrattas, 576; restores the Guntoor Sircar to the Nizam, 584; energetic measures on Baillie's defect, 591; sends troops to Europe, 592; Sir Eyre Coote to Madras, 593; makes Sir Elijah Impey chief judge of the Sudder, 594; demands extraordinary aid of Cheyt Sing, and fines him fifty lacs; on his hesitating to pay it, proceeds to Benares, 595; his extreme peril; escapes to Chunar, 597; consents to the spoliation of the Begums of Oude, 598; Motion for his recall passed by the House of Commons, 599; supported by the Court of Directors; repudiated by the Court of Proprietors, 609; transactions regarding Fyzoola Khan, 620; Hastings censured by the Court of Directors, resigns the Government and returns to England, 621; his reception; refused a parley by Mr. Pitt; attacked by Mr. Burke, 622; Burke goaded into the impeachment by Major Scott; charges against Hastings; he reads a prolix reply, 629; the Rohilla charge; charge regarding Cheyt Sing, 644; the Begum charge, 653; Hastings's trial; dignity of the scene; the impeachment conducted by the Whigs, 656; faced with undue violence; his acquittal; remarks on his character and administration, 627; his death, 658.

Hauterwyck, fort of, captured and demolished, 603.

Havelock, Capt., dissuades from surrender at Jellalabad, 206; arranges the battle of the 7th April, 1842, which accomplishes the deliverance of the garrison, 209.

Hath, Capt., his expedition to Bengal, and its disastrous results, 213.

Heera Singh assassinated at Lahore, 277.

Hemu, the Hindoo minister of Adil Shah; his great talents, 102; he is defeated by Akbar, 104.

Herat, Persian expedition against, 122; character of the Government and the people, 136; besieged five months without result, 137; battle of the 24th June, 1839, 137; the siege abandoned, 139; Major Todd, political agent, 159; unexampled ferocity of the king and his minister, 159; Major Todd obliged to withdraw the mission, 160.

Heylesaury, Lord, appointed Governor-General by the Tories; the appointment cancelled by the Whigs, 90.

Hindoostan, fully developed after the expulsion of the Boodhists, 6.

Hindooism introduced into Java, 17.

Hindoo College established, 1818, 358.

Hindostan, the northern division of India; description of it; its boundaries, 1; early settlement of the Hindoos, 8; comprises five of the early divisions and original languages, 4; its condition when invaded by Mahomed Ghory, 41.
INDEX.

Holkar, origin of the family, a 195; Tokajoee, his marauding expedition into Hindostan, a 334; sent to Hindostan by Nana Fursawee to watch Sindia, b 41; last appearance of the Holkar troops under the national standard, b 55; Jeswunt Rao, his descent; his wild character; his rise to power, b 134; defeats Sindia's army, b 135; is defeated in his turn, b 186; he recruits his forces, marches on Poona, and totally defeats the armies of the Peshwa and Sindia, b 138; his rampant feeling, and his insolent demand on General Lake, b 166; war declared against him; he draws on and annihilates Col. Monson's force, b 168; he besieges Delhi, but is baffled by Col. Ochterlony, b 171; lays waste the Dacca, pursued and defeated by Gen. Lake, b 171; his army defeated at Deeg, b 172; pursued into the Punjab, by Gen. Lake, brought to bay, and left off by Sir George Barlow, b 189; violates the treaty; plunders Jeypore, b 193; elicits his spirit career in insanity, b 199; anarchy in his death, b 324; the army omnipotent; it resolves to oppose the British force advancing against the Pindareses, b 341; is defeated at Mahidpore, b 342; new treaty and curtailment of territory, b 543.

Holwell, Mr., Governor of Calcutta at the time of the tragedy of the Black Hole, a 272.

Hooghly, early establishment of the Portuguese, a 138; destruction of the Portuguese settlement, a 139; first English factory, a 207; burnt by Admiral Nicholson, a 211; captured by Clive, a 275.

Hughes, Admiral, captures Negapatam and Trincomallee, a 396; fights four naval actions with Suffrein, a 399; quite Madras Roads and proceeds to Bombay, a 401.

Human sacrifices among the Khonds, c 108; efforts to eradicate them, c 109.

Humayoon, emperor of Delhi, conquers Guzerat, a 96; thrice defeated by Shere Khan; his sufferings in the desert, a 99; flies to Persia; his treatment there; captures Candahar, a 102; establishes himself in Afghanistan; defeats Secunder Soor, and re-establishes the throne of Delhi, a 103; his death, a 103.

Hussein Ali, assists Ferokshere to ascend the throne of Delhi, a 185; viceroy of the Deccan, a 187; the Maharratas invited to oppose him, and he grants them the chout, a 188; marches to Delhi, deposes Ferokshere, and puts him to death, a 189; is stabbed to the heart, a 190.

Hussein Gungu, first Bahmny king of the Deccan; his origin and progress, a 77.

Hyderabad, made the seat of the Nizam's Government, a 191; French force established by the Nizam, b 77; that force extinguished, b 82.

Hyderabad, in Sinde, battle of, c 249.

Hyder Ali, his parentage; his early career, a 320; foundation of his fortune, a 321; agrees to aid Lally, a 322; reduced to extremities; recovers his fortunes, and usurps the throne of Mywood, a 323; increases his power; conquers Bednore; great wealth acquired there, a 324; totally defeated by the Maharratas, a 325; invades Malabar and conquers Calicut; confederacy against him, a 326; buys off the Maharratas; bribes the Nizam to join him, a 327; defeated at Changanam, a 328; proceeds to the western coast, defeats the Bombay expedition; returns to the Comorandul coast, a 330; his offer of peace rejected by the Madras Government, a 331; dictates peace under the walls of Madras; war with the Maharratas, a 332; his disgraceful defeat at Milgota, a 333; constrained to make peace, a 334; his encroachments on the Maharratas, a 334; allies himself with Raghoba; is attacked by the Maharratas and the Nizam; defeats their objects, a 385; joins the confederacy against the English; peace with the Maharratas, a 387; preparations for war; supineness of the Madras Government, a 388; he bursts on the Carnatic; desolation of the province, a 389; annihilates Col. Baillie's detachment, a 391; is defeated at Porto Novo, a 393; at Pollilore, a 394; at Solingur, a 395; his reverses in Malabar, a 397; his despondency; arrival of the French expedition revives him, a 398; he repulses Coote from Arnee, a 399; his death, a 402. Ibrahim Lodi, the last of that dynasty, defeated by Baber, a 93.
INDEX.

Ibrahim, son of Ali Merdan, governor of Bengal, invites Job Charnock from Madras, a 214.

 idols connected with the state in 1811, dissociated in 1833, c 201.

Impey, Sir Elijah, chief judge of the Supreme Court, a 846, and of the Sudder Dewanny, a 414.

India, its boundaries, divisions, extent and population, a 1; its ten divisions, and ten languages, a 4; its condition on the accession of Baber, a 93; and after the invasion of Nadir Shah, a 201; and after the battle of Paniput, a 292; its condition in 1758, b 73; in 1813, b 384; at the close of 1817, b 826; its altered aspect after the Pindaree and Mahratta war, b 845.

Indian empire, completed by the annexation of the Punjab, which extended it from Cape Comorin to the Khyber Pass, c 351.

Infanticide, female, its prevalence, c 104; great efforts to eradicate it, c 105; successful operations in the Punjab, c 856.

Inheritance, Hindoo law of; its persecuting character modified by Lord W. Bentinck, c 56.

Inland trade, Society for, established by Clive; abolished by the Court of Directors, a 314.

Iskandar, the virgin fortress of Afghanistan, captured, c 227.

Jauta, emigrate from the banks of the Indus, a 202.

Java, passes under the dominion of Napoleon, b 249; he strengthens the army and the defences, b 251; expedition fitted out from Calcutta to conquer it, b 250; capture of fort Cornelius, b 251; and of the whole island, b 252.

Jehandar Shah, mounts the throne of Delhi, and is put to death, a 185.

Jehangir, ascends the throne of Delhi, a 125; his early proceedings, a 126; marries Noor Jehan, a 127; attacks Malik Amber, and is foiled; subdues Oodyapore, a 129; operations in the Deccan, a 132; seized by Mohabet, a 133; is released and dies, a 134.

Jellalabad, occupied by Sir Robert Sale, c 205; the miserable defences restored by Major Brodfoot, c 206; injured by earthquakes, but again completed, b 207; battle of the 7th April, 1842, and total defeat of Akbar Khan, c 209.

Jenghis Khan, his antecedents, a 48; defeats Mahomed of Kharistan; lays waste a thousand miles of country; revolution created by him in Central Asia; founds the Mogul power, a 49.

Jesus Christ, his birth and divine mission, a 20.

Jeypal of Lahore, crosses the Indus, attacks Subuktugeen; submits to him; refuses the payment he had promised; is attacked, a 29; and totally defeated, a 29, 30.

Jeypore, the Hindoo raja of, gives a daughter in marriage to Humsaun, and also to Akbar, a 108; menaced by Ameer Khan, seeks a British alliance, which he refuses as soon as it is promised, b 516; the last prince to accept the alliance in 1817, b 383; renewed discord and anarchy, c 24; interference of the British Government, c 24; murder of Mr. Blake, c 25.

Jetee, an odious poll tax imposed by Aurungzeb on the Hindoos, a 153; and removed by Mahomed Shah, a 190.

Jhansi, annexation of, c 395.

Jones, Sir Harford, embassy to Persia, b 228.

Joudhpore, the raja of, gives his daughter in marriage to Akbar, a 108; contest between the raja and his nobles; differences with the British Government; raja succumbs on the appearance of a British force, c 23.

Joanpore, becomes an independent kingdom, a 85; it is extinguished eighty years after; its splendid buildings, a 70.

Kerowlee, Minute of Lord Dalhousie on the death of the raja, c 398; he refers the question of succession to the Court; their decision, c 398.
KERULE, the ancient kingdom of, in the Deccan, included in Malabar and Carnata, c 22.

KHALAIS; the Sikh commonwealth, its character, c 40; the Khalsa army pampered by the rulers becomes insubordinate, c 277; becomes master of the state, c 278; its strength, efficiency, and spirit, c 281; pours down on the British territory, c 282; finally and completely conquered and dissolved, c 347.

KHARIAM, the ancient kingdom of, rises upon the ruins of the Seljuks, c 46.

 KHARISMA, the ancient kingdom of, rises upon the ruins of the Seljuks, a 46.

KHULAPORE, becomes the seat of the younger branch of the Mahratta royal family, c 183.

KOOROO-KSHETRU, the great battle at, fought between the Kooroos and the Pandoos, and celebrated in the great epic of the Mahabharat, a 8.

KOOTUB-OD-DIN, his extensive conquests in Hindostan; makes Delhi the capital of the Mahomedan power in India, a 47; his death, a 48.

KOROOGAUM, battle of, b 348.

LUHIBHU, his legend, not to be found in the Vedas, a 5; accompanies Yoodister in his wanderings; his valour at Kooroo-Kshetru; retires to Dwarka; is slain and deified, a 8.

KURNU, king, his great liberality, a 21.

KURRECK SING, succeeds Runjeet Sing, c 273.

KUULUGH KHAN, the Mogul, the descendant of Jenghis Khan invades Hindostan, and is defeated, a 56.

LABOURDOUNNAIS, his antecedences, his abilities; comes out to India with a large armament to expel the English, a 232; captures Madras, a 233; returns to Europe, a 234; thrown into the Bastile; his death, a 235.

LAKE, Gen., takes the field in 1803, and captures Allygor, b 154; defeats Sindia's army at Delhi, b 156; enters Delhi, and delivers the blind emperor from captivity, b 157; captures Agra, b 158; and defeats Sindia's army at Laswaree, b 158; pursues Holkar into the Doob, and defeats him, b 171; chases him into the Punjab, brings him to bay, and is obliged to conclude a disgraceful treaty with him by order of Sir George Barlow, b 193; raised to the peerage, b 178; besieges Bhurtpore, and is four times repulsed, b 178; throws up his political appointment in disgust, b 197.

LALL SING, the paramour of the ranae of Lahore appointed minister, c 280; commands at Moodkee and at Ferozeshuhur, c 285-286; tried for his treachery to the British Government, and banished from the Punjab, c 803.

LALLY, appointed Governor of French India; his antecedents; captures fort St. David; recalls Bussy, a 259; attacks Tanjore without success; unsuccessfully besieges Madras, a 260; defeated by Col. Coote at Wandewash, a 261; nobly defends Pondicherry; which is captured; his lamentable fate on his return to Paris, a 263.

LAMBERT, Commodore, deputed to Rangoon, c 362; blockades the port, and renders the war inevitable, c 364.

LAWSWARE, battle of, b 158.

LAUDERDALE, Lord, appointed by the Whig ministry Governor-General; the appointment vigorously and successfully resisted by the Court of Directors, b 207.

LAWRENCE, Major Stringer, sent against Devi-cotta, a 238; defeats the French at Bahoor, a 249; baffles them for two years at Trichinopoly, a 249.

LAWRENCE, Mr. John, afterwards Sir John, in charge of the Jullunder doosab; clears it of rebels in a fortnight, c 330; member of the Board of Administration in the Punjab, c 352; subsequently Governor-General, c 352.
INDEX. 477

Lawrence, Major Henry, afterwards Sir Henry, Resident at Lahore, c 302; puts down revolt in Cashmer, c 302; head of the Board of Administration, c 352.
Lawrence, Major George, afterwards Sir George, in command at Peshawur, c 323; overpowered by his mutinous troops and made prisoner, c 324.
Legislative power withdrawn from the minor Presidencies, and concentrated in the Supreme Council, c 85.
Littler, Sir John, besieged at Ferozepore, c 283; commands a division at Ferozepore, c 287.
Lodi, the Afghan family of, acquires the throne of Delhi, a 69.
Lotteries, abolished, c 269.
Lunar race, a 6.
Macao, occupied by a British force, b 246.
Macartney, Lord, Governor of Madras, a 395; opens negotiations with Tippoo, a 406; sets Hastings at defiance, a 409; his commissioners sign the treaty of Mangalore, a 410.
Macaulay, Mr., legislative member of the supreme council, c 85.
Macnaughten, Mr. W. H., his progress in the service, c 128; one of Lord Auckland's counsellors, c 128; his mission to Lahore, c 181; appointed surveyor at Cabul, c 141; created a Baronet, c 162; his security while the revolt was spreading, c 172; his efforts during the siege, c 182; forms a treaty with Akbar Khan, c 185; negotiates with other chiefs, c 187; assassinated by Akbar Khan, c 189; remarks on his character and proceedings, c 189.
Macpherson, Sir John, Governor-General ad interim; his administration, a 439.
Macpherson, Major, his successful efforts to suppress human sacrifice in Goosmoor, c 110.
Madho Rao, becomes Peshwa at the age of eighteen, a 224; his death, a 555.
Madho Rao, the second, installed Peshwa when ten days old, a 357; receives the investiture of regent of the Mogul empire through Sindia, b 46; assembles the whole army of the Mahratta commonwealth, for the last time at Kurdu, b 55; his tragic death, b 59.
Madras, first establishment of the Company's factory at, a 207; captured by Labourdonnais, a 283; restored to the English, b 287; besieged by Lally without success, c 290; state of affairs in 1751, a 312.
Madras Council, treaty with the Nizam in 1766, a 226, and in 1768, a 229; mismanage the war with Hyder, a 330; refuse his offers of peace, a 331; sign the treaty he dictates, a 332; refuse him the aid they were bound to give by treaty, a 334; they depose Lord Pigot; seven of the members expelled by the Court of Directors, a 381; their incredible inhumanity, a 388.
Mahamjapore, battle of, c 285.
Mahm, captured by the English; Hyder incensed by this act, goes to war, a 386.
Mahmood Gawan, the able minister of the Bahmimy state; his talents; his success, a 81; assassinated by order of his master, a 82.
Mahmood, succeeds to the throne of Ghuznee; his twelve expeditions to India, a 29; defeats Jeypal, and the raja of Bhutnera, a 30; captures Nagurote, and Thanesur, a 31, and Cunouj, a 32; takes Somnath, and obains immense booty, a 54; his death and character, a 55.
Mahomed, his birth; his creed; its diffusion, a 24.
Mahomed Ali, son of Anwar-ood-deen, Nabob of the Carnatic, a 241; besieged in Trichinopoly by Chunda Sahib, a 246; is relieved by Major Lawrence; puts Chunda Sahib to death, a 248; becomes Nabob; his character, a 217; made independent by the emperor in 1765, a 319; obliged to transfer the revenue of the Carnatic to the English Government; a 356; his debts, a 435. See Maos or Amoo.
Mahomed Ghory, the real founder of the Mahomedan power in India, a 41; defeated by the Hindoos, a 43; defeats the Hindoo princes in the north, a 44; defeated by Taksah, a 46; subdues the Gukkurs, and is killed by two of them, a 47.

Mahomed Shah, emperor of Delhi, a 189; his death, a 265.

Mahomed Shah, the last substantive king of the Bahmanii dynasty, plunders Conjeeveram, a 81; puts his minister to death, a 82.

Mahomed Toghalulk, extinguishes the Hindoo dynasty of Telingana, a 60; his extravagant character; his expedition to China, which fails, a 61; his atrocious cruelties; endeavour to remove the capital to Dowlutabad, a 62; sends an embassy to the Caliph; revolt of the provinces; universal anarchy, a 63; his death, a 64.

Mahomedan invasion of India, the first, a 25.

Maharattas, their rise and progress, a 150; their power founded by Sevajee, a 152; seat of Government transferred to Ginjee; their extensive depredations, a 177; comparison of their military force with that of the Moguls, a 178; weakened by internal dissensions, a 183; accession of power gained by the Convention of 1717, a 188; they invade Bengal, a 226; and the Carnatic, a 230; their power at its summit, a 287; their broken power, a 291; their expedition to Hindostan, a 334; invade Bokilcund, a 335; extract a bond from the Nabob Vizier; enter Oude for plunder, a 336; retire to their own country, a 337; resources of the Maharatta empire, a 1772; their riee and军事 strength, a 355; defeated at Arras, a 359; invade Mysore and make peace with Tippoo, b 8; co-operate with Lord Cornwallis in the Mysore war, b 13; description of their encampment; siege of Simoda; their main body returns to the English camp when peace had been concluded, b 21; but they receive their full share of territory and indemnity, b 23; totally defeat Nizam Ali at Kurdia, b 56.

Malavelly, battle of, b 68.

Malcolm, Capt. John, his services at Hyderabad, b 90; envoy to Persia, b 109; second embassy to Persia, b 329; gains the battle of Mahipore, b 342; concludes a personal settlement with the Peshwa, b 332; Sir John Malcolm, Governor of Bombay, c 69; collision with the Supreme Court, c 70; decision of the home authorities, c 72.

Malik Amber, the Abyssinian; his great talent; sustains for twenty years the sinking state of Ahmednagar; engages the services of the Maharattas, a 128; his revenue settlement; burns Mandoo, a 131; joins Shah Jehan, a 132; his death, a 135.

Malwa, its independence established by Sultan Dilsawr; Sultan Hoseung builds Hoseungabad, a 71; Mahmood Ghilzye founds a new dynasty; his illustrious reign, a 72; his successor's singular seraglio; Mahmood, the last king, a 75-76; extinction of the kingdom, a 77.

Mangalore, siege and noble defence of; it capitulates, a 407; treaty of, a 410.

Massacre of the European prisoners at Puna, a 303.

Mauritius, hostile proclamation of the Governor, b 74; proposed expedition frustrated by Admiral Rainier, b 111; depredations of French privateers, b 248; capture of the island, b 249.

Meeanee, battle of, c 247.

Medical college established in Calcutta, c 68.

Medowas, Gen., his inefficient campaign of 1790, b 14.

Meer Gassim Nabob, a 296; his vigorous administration; removes his government to Monghir; organizes a powerful army, a 297; receives investiture from the emperor, a 298; plunders Ramnacular, a 299; his convention with Mr. Vanstettart regarding the transit duties, a 300; rejected by the Council; he abolishes all duties, a 301; the Calcutta Council declare war against him; he is defeated at Cutwa and at Gheriah, a 302; massacres his English prisoners; dies to the Nabob Vizier, a 303.

Meer Jaffier joins the confederacy against Sersa Dowlah, a 277; made Nabob, a 280; his donations to the English, a 280; deposed, a 296; made Nabob a second time, a 302; pecuniary engagements with the Calcutta Council, a 308; his death, a 307.
INDEX.

Meer Jumla; his early career, a 141; prime minister at Golconda; joins Aurungzebe, a 142; defeats Shah Soojah, a 147; governor of Bengal; disastrous expedition to Assam; his death, a 149.

Mehidpoor, battle of, b 342.

Metcalfe, Mr., envoy to Lahore, checks the career of Runjeet Sing, b 222; obliges him to sign a treaty, b 225; concludes treaties with the native princes, b 881; succeeds to the baronetcy, b 378; successful opposition to Palmer and Co., b 378; persuades Lord Amherst to take the field against Shertpora, b 406; appointed Governor of Agra, c 86; and Governor-General, ad interim, c 88; establishes the liberty of the press, c 91; beneficial results of this measure, c 92; great displeasure of the Court of Directors, c 94; he throws up the service, c 96; remarks on his administration, c 97; appointed Governor of Jamaica and of Canada, c 96; raised to the peerage, c 96.

Mill, Mr. James, despatch on the subject of education, c 64; despatch on the principles of government after the Charter of 1833, c 67.

Minto, Lord, Governor-General, b 215; his vigorous efforts to restore security in Bundelcund, b 216; sends embassies to Lahore, Cabul, and Persia, b 231-230; checks Ameer Khan's designs on Nagpore, b 234; proceeds to Madras to quell the mutiny, b 244; sends an expedition to Bourbon and the Mauritius, b 249; proceeds on the expedition to Java, b 249; representation to the Court regarding the Findarrees, b 259; superseded, b 253; regress to England, and Oct. 1813, b 254.

Mohabet, pursues Shah Jehan, a 131; is persecuted by Noor Jehan, a 132; seizes the person of the emperor, a 133; releases him, a 134; raises Shah Jehan to the throne, a 135.

Monson, Col., his disastrous retreat, b 168.

Montgomery, Mr. Robert, member of the Board of Administration in the Punjab, c 322; draws up a simple code of jurisprudence, c 323.

Moolkee, battle of, c 285.

Moolraj succeeds his father in the government of Mooltan, c 310; coerced and fleeced by the Khalsas, c 310; offers to resign his post, and the Regency appoints a new governor, who proceeds with Mr. Agnew and Lieut. Anderson to Mooltan, c 311; the officers murdered, c 312; Moolraj raises the standard of revolt, c 313; besieged by a British force, c 319; besieged by the defection of Sherie Sing, c 320; siege renewed, c 329; town and fort captured, c 341.

Moosheed Kooloo Khan; his origin; appointed dewan of Bengal, a 221; his system of government; his persecution of Hindoo zemindars; his remittances to Delhi; his death, a 223.

Moosheedabad, its foundation, a 221.

Morari Rao of Gooty, his fine army; his activity and courage; joins Mahomed Ali, a 249; his power extinguished by Hyder, a 385.

Mozaffar Jung, aided by the French; defeats Anwar-ood-deen at Amboo, a 249; assumes the dignity of Soobadar of the Deccan, a 241; falls into the hands of Nazir Jung, a 242; is released on his death, and saluted Soobadar, a 244; killed by the Patan Nabobs, a 245.

Muguda, grandeur of the kingdom; its maritime trade, a 16.

Muhahharut, the great epic, a 7-9.

Munoo, the institutes of, a 5.

Munro, Major Hector, quells the mutiny of the Bengal Sepoys, a 304; defeats the Vizier at Buxar, a 305; Sir Hector Munro; his incapacity at Madras, a 380; retreats before Hyder Ali to the Presidency, a 391.

Munro, Sir Thomas, his celebrated ryotwary system, b 359; his great statesmanship eulogized by Mr. Canning, b 412; appointed Governor of Madras, b 412; his great services in the first Burmese war, b 412; his death, b 412.
Mustapha Khan revolts against Aliverdy, and is defeated, 428.

Mutiny of the sepoys quelled by Major Munro, 304; of the European officers quelled by Clive, 311; of the European officers in Bengal, in 1795-96; weak concessions of Government, 65; third mutiny of the European officers, at Madras, 238; of the sepoys at Barrackpore, 399; of the regiments on being ordered to Sinda, 252; of the Madras 47th and other regiments, 253; of the corps in the Punjab in 1848-49, 377; of the regiment ordered to Burmah, in 1852, 387; the last and greatest mutiny of the sepoys, 1857, not occasioned by annexations, 450; assumed causes of it, 451; the real cause, 453.

Mysore, Lord Wellesley creates a new principality, and puts a boy of six on the throne, 96; opinion of Sir Thomas Munro on the subject, 18; treaty made with the raja purely personal; Lord Wellesley expressly excludes the word "heirs and successors," 416; the raja assumes the government, 19; twenty years of misrule create a rebellion, which Lord W. Bentinck puts down, and then takes the entire management of the country, consigning the raja to an annuity, 20; Court of Directors refuse to restore any portion of it to him, 21; admirable administration of General Cubbon, 415; raja requests Lord Dalhousie to restore the government to him, which is refused, 416; three succeeding Governors-General refuse the same request, 417; he adopts a son; the Government of India refuse to acknowledge his right to the sovereignty, and it is refused by Sir Charles Wood, 417; these decisions reversed by the Tory administration of 1867, 418.

Nabob of Arcot's debts; nefarious proceedings of the Nabob Mahomed Ali and his creditors; proposed settlement by Warren Hastings, by Fox, by Dundas, 435; and by Pitt; Dundas pays them off without enquiry; Burke's celebrated speech, 436; sequel of the debts, 437.

Nadir Shah, his origin, 198; invades Afghanistan and India, 199; massacre of Delhi, 201; immense booty acquired by him; returns to Persia, 201.

Nagpore, kingdom of, called also the kingdom of Berar, founded by Bhonsley, 223; origin of that family; Rughoojee Bhenslay invades the Carnatic, 223; Hastings endeavours to form an alliance with him, but without success; he supplies Godiward with provisions, 369; joins the confederacy against the Company, 373; makes an amicable settlement with Hastings in 1780, 375; the raja declines the alliance proposed by Lord Wellesley, in 1798, 81; allies himself with Sindia against the British Government, 142; is defeated at Argazom, 151; signs the treaty of Dogaom, 152; threatened by Ameer Khan, 223; offered assistance by Lord Minto, 325; death of the raja, 314; subsidiary alliance with his successor, 314; the raja, Appa Sahib, breaks out into revolt, 337; is defeated at Seestabuldee, 338; deposed, 340; administration of Mr. Jenkins, during the minority of his successor, 399; misrule of the raja when he assumes the government, 399; anxiety of the people for the restoration of British rule, 399; death of the raja without issue or adoption, 388; Lord Dalhousie's Minute on the succession, 391; Minutes of Col. Low and Mr. Halliday, 393; annexation of the country, 394; decision of the Court of Directors, 394; sale of jewels, 395.

Nana Fughree; dies from Paniput; member of the regency in the durbar at Poona, 369; overpowered by the partizans of Raghoob; restored to power, 364; conducts the war against the English, 365; alliance with Lord Cornwallis against Tipoo, 13; dies from Poona, 60; recovers his power; deceived and confined, 61; his death and character, 131.

Nana Sahib; pension to his adoptive father purely personal, 413; he demands the continuation of it, which is refused, 414; becomes, in revenge, the great head of the mutiny, 415.
INDEX
481

Nanuk, the Sikh prophet, a 184.
Napier, Sir Charles, assumes the command in Sinde; his harsh treatment of the Ameena, c 239; gains the victories of Meeanee and Hyderabad, c 418-429; appointed Commander-in-chief, c 339; his collision with Lord Dalhousie, c 372; decision of the Duke of Wellington on the subject, c 380; he retires from the service, c 380.
Napoleon, his ambitious designs on India in 1807 lead the Government to seek foreign alliances, in the Punjab, in Afghanistan, and in Persia, b 221.
Narayen Rao, the Peshwa, assassinated, a 355.
Natives of India unjustly excluded from offices by Lord Cornwallis, b 38; introduced to the English respectability by Lord William Bentleek, c 49; Charter of 1833 removes all restriction on their employment, c 86.
Native princes, their incessant encroachments on each other, b 26.
Nazar Jung, sustainer of the Deccan, a 240; defeats Chunda Sahib and Muzaffar Jung, a 242; unexpectedly attacked and killed, a 244.
Nepal, description of it, b 285; progress of Goorkha power, b 286; encroachments on British territory, b 287; remonstrances of the Calcutta Government, b 287; the durbar determines on war, b 288; and strikes the first blow, b 289. For Nepal War, see GOORKHA CAMPAIGN.
Newspaper, first native, published by the Missionaries at Serampore in 1818, b 356.
Nizam Ali, put his brother to death; usurps the throne of Hyderabad, a 318; plunders and burns Poona; defeated by Raghoeb, a 325; English treaty with him in 1767; forms a confederacy against Hyder; then joins him; and deserts the English, a 327; defeated at Sangama; his territories invaded from B.决定 328; deserts Hyder and makes peace with the English; treaty of 1768, a 329; forms a grand confederacy against the English, a 383; surrenders the Guntur sircar, b 9; his alliance with the English against Tipoo, b 13; the contingent of troops supplied by him, b 17; totally defeated by the Marathas at Kurdla, b 56; his French force under Raymond, b 57; disbanded, b 82; revolt of his son, b 58; treaty with Nana Farnvooee, b 60; subsidiary treaty formed with him by Lord Wellesley, b 78; cedes territory to repay the subsidiary force, b 101; establishment of the Contingent under his successor, b 369; Chundoo Lall's oppressive administration, b 370; interference of Sir Charles Metcalfe, b 371; Palmer and Co. make advances at a high rate of interest, and obtain assignments on the land, b 371; they are opposed by Sir Charles Metcalfe, b 373; they are paid off by the Government of India, and become bankrupt, b 374; Lord Dalhousie determines to settle the vexatious question of the Contingent, c 400; debt accruing from nonpayment of it, c 401; the Nizam's utter inattention to business, c 407; Lord Dalhousie's Minute, c 408; new treaty forced on the Nizam, c 410; Berar and other districts taken over for the debt and the annual payments, c 411; singular good fortune of the Nizam family, c 412.
Nizam; Chin Killieh Khan, the Tartar favourite of Aurungzebe, the first Soobadar of the Deccan, a 186; appointed vizier of the empire; and retires in disgust to the Deccan, and becomes independent, a 191; defeated by Bajee Rao, a 197; appointed generalissimo of the imperial forces; defeated at Bhopal, a 198; his death, at the age of 104, and the confusion which ensued, a 240.
Noor-jehan, her parentage and beauty, a 126; becomes the queen of Jumàheer; her talents and influence, a 127; intrigues against Shah Jehan, a 131; her hatred of Mohabeet, a 132; is defeated by him and then reconciled to him; again breaks with him, and retires into private life on the death of the emperor, a 135.
Northern sircars, ceded to the French, a 254; apportioned to the English, a 284; transferred to the Company by the emperor; misconduct of the Madras Council regarding them, a 319.

III
INDEX.

North-West Provinces, law to redress fraudulent sales of land in them, b 361; revenue settlement, c 46.

Nott, Gen., his proceedings at Candahar, c 210; advances for the recovery of Cabul, c 223.

Nozad affair, anomalous interference of Parliament to compel payment of an unjust claim, c 77.

Nundu, king of Mugudu, a 15.

Nundu koomar, charges brought by him against Hastings, a 350; Hastings charges him with conspiracy; a native charges him with forgery; he is tried and executed, a 351; remarks on this transaction, a 352.

Ochterlony, Gen., his noble defence of Delhi b 171; his great skill and eminent success in the Goorkha campaign of 1815, b 297; commands in the second campaign, marches towards Calamado, and dictates peace, b 300; orders a force against Bhurtpore, b 403; countermanded by Lord Amherst, b 403; his spirited remonstrance, b 404; his resignation and death, b 405; remarks on his character, b 405.

Omichund, his vast wealth, and princely establishment; joins Seraja Dowlah, a 278; and then joins the confederacy against him, a 278; is circumvented by Olive; reflections on the transaction, a 279.

Oodypore, made the capital of Mewar, a 109; captured by Shah Jehan, a 129;...
INDEX. 483

Patan power in Hindostan revived by Ameer Khan, b 394; crushed by Lord Hastings, b 345.

Pegu, incorporated with the Company's territories in 1852, c 372; benefits resulting from it, c 374.

Peninsular and Oriental Company, successful efforts to establish steam communication between England and India; great national importance of their labours, c 61.

Permanent settlement in Bengal, in 1793, b 34; the result of that measure, b 35.

Persia, native envoy to the court, in 1799, b 108; he succeeds in withdrawing Zemaul Shah from India, b 108; Capt. Malcolm's costly and magnificent embassy, b 109; French embassy, b 227; the Ministry send Sir H. Jones as envoy from the Crown, b 228; Lord Minto sends Col. Malcolm as envoy from the Government of India, b 228; conflict between Persia and Russia; total discomfiture of the former, c 119; Persian expedition to Khorasan, c 120; Mr. McNeil endeavours to prevent an expeditions to Herat, c 121; it is undertaken notwithstanding, c 122; siege of eight months raised, c 139; king returns to his capital disgraced, c 139; and undertakes another expedition in 1896, c 233.

Peshwa, Baise Rao, subsidiary treaty proposed by Lord Wellesley, and declined, b 73; he refuses the share offered him of Tippoo's territories, b 180; defeated at Bolkar, and takes refuge in British territories, b 133; signs the treaty of Bassein, b 140; restored to power by the British, b 144; important character of that treaty, b 141; it leads to a war with Sinda and Nagpore, b 142; Peshwa's oppressions and superstitions, b 303; comes under the sinister influence of Trimubukjee, b 309; sanctions the murder of Gungadbur Shasnee, b 311; his hostility to the British Government, b 321; Lord Hastings deprives him of territory, b 322; he breaks out in open hostility, b 333; attacks the British force at Kirkee, and is defeated, b 335; dies from Poona and is pursued, b 347; defeated at Korygaum, b 348; defeated at Ashtee, b 350; surrenders on receiving a pension for life, b 351; sent to Bithoor, b 353.

Phayre, Sir A., his administration of Burmah, c 576.

Pigot, Lord, his antecedents; Governor of Madras; restores Tanjore to the raja, c 380; deposed by the Council; restored by the Court of Directors; dies, c 381.

Pindarees, their origin, b 254; their connection with the native princes, b 255; their leaders, b 256; their system of plunder, b 257; their atrocities, b 258; attack British territories, 1812, b 259; Lord Minto's strong representation to the Court, b 259; Lord Hastings' representation, b 304; second and more urgent despatch, b 312; their bold expedition to the south in 1813, b 313; Mr. Canning forbids active operations, b 317; but on hearing of their atrocities authorizes them, b 318; their last expedition of 1814-15; its wide range, b 319; members of Council yield to Lord Hastings' remonstrance, and agree to exterminate them, b 320; Lord Hastings organizes the Pindarees campaign on a grand scale; strength of the force brought into the field, b 327; they are completely exterminated, b 345.

Piracy on the coast of Arabia suppressed by Lord Minto, b 245.

Pitt's India Bill, c 432.

Plassey, the battle of, changes the fortunes of the Company, c 280.

Political officers in the Punjab; their able conduct during the revolt, c 329.

Pollock, General, sent with a brigade to relieve Cabul, c 199; reaches Peshawur, finds Col. Wild's force totally demoralized, c 203; spends February and March in restoring discipline and confidence, c 203; forces the Khayer, c 204; reaches Jellalabad, c 206; advances with the army of retribution, c 221; defeats the Afghans at Jagdullah and TesSea, c 222; and reoccupies Cabul, c 223.

2 r 2
INDEX

Pondicherry, besieged without success by Admiral Boscawen, a 237; captured by Col. Coote, a 263; captured a second time in 1778, a 386; and again in 1798, b 39.

Poona, plundered by Nizam Ali, a 325; and by Sirjee Rao Ghatkay, b 62.

Poona, Hyder's able minister conceals his master's death; his exemplary conduct, a 402; the eminent minister of the new dynasty; but, after eleven years of service, is dismissed by his master, c 19.

Poorunder, treaty of; its degrading provisions, a 361; disapproved of by the Court of Directors, a 363.

Popiah, Major, captures Gwalior, a 372.

Porto Novo, battle of, gained by Gen. Popham, Major, captures Gwalior, a 361.

Postage, low and uniform rate established, c 434.

Portuguese, the first to double the Cape of Good Hope, a 84; their first expedition to India, a 85; their trade, and their importance in the sixteenth century, a 117; defeat the combined Mahomedan powers; repel the attack on Goa, in 1578, a 118; establish themselves in Bengal, a 137; they found and fortify Hooghly; their establishment at Chittagong, a 138; Hooghly captured and their power broken, a 139.

Postage, the first to double the Cape of Good Hope, a 84; their first expedition to India, a 85; their trade, and their importance in the sixteenth century, a 117; defeat the combined Mahomedan powers; repel the attack on Goa, in 1578, a 118; establish themselves in Bengal, a 137; they found and fortify Hooghly; their establishment at Chittagong, a 138; Hooghly captured and their power broken, a 139.

Postage, low and uniform rate established, c 434.

Postage, low and uniform rate established, c 434.

Pottinger, Lieut., his exertions at Herat, c 136; Major Pottinger, political officer at Char cặpkar, c 190; flies wounded to the cantonment, c 190; assumes political charge in Afghanistan on the murder of Sir William Macnaghten, c 190; his bold advice rejected, c 191; is taken as a hostage, c 193; his energetic efforts to rescue the hostages and captives at Bannevan, c 225.

Press, persecuted by Mr. Adam, b 380; treated with lenity by Lord Amherst, b 411; practically free under Lord William Bentinck, c 91; and rendered legally free by Sir Charles Metcalfe, c 92; high displeasure of the Court of Directors, c 94.

Principal Sudder Ameen; the office established by Lord William Bentinck, b 51.

Proprietary, French, destroy British trade in the Indian seas, b 247.

Procession of the Proprietary, c 301.

Property right in the lands of Bengal discussed; generously given to the zemindars by the Court of Directors, b 32.

Punjab, confusion in the lands of Bengal discussed; generously given to the zemindars by the Court of Directors, b 32.

Punjab, confusion in the lands of Bengal discussed; generously given to the zemindars by the Court of Directors, b 32.

Punjab, confusion in the lands of Bengal discussed; generously given to the zemindars by the Court of Directors, b 32.

Punjab, confusion in the lands of Bengal discussed; generously given to the zemindars by the Court of Directors, b 32.

Public works, erected into a department and fully organized, and liberally supplied by Lord Dalhousie, c 431.

Raffles, Sir Stamford, suggests the expedition to Java, and assists in the organization of it, b 250; appointed Governor of it, b 258; founds Singapore, b 365.

Raghoob plunders Guzerat; ravages the domains of the emperor, a 255; captures Delhi; marches to the Indus: he is deprived of the command of the army, a 286; defeats Nizam Ali, a 325; assassinates Naryum Rao, and becomes Peshwa; makes war on the Nizam, a 826; displaced by the Poona regency; proposes to resist them, a 357; negotiates with
INDEX.

Bombay, a 358; treaty disallowed in Calcutta, approved of in England, a 362; revolution in his favour at Poona, a 363; counter-revolution, a 364; new treaty with Bombay; expedition to Poona, on his behalf, a 365; its disastrous result, a 366; he surrenders to Sindia, a 367; receives a jageer; sent to Hindostan; escapes, a 369; pensioned off, a 377.

Railways, great Indian system of, established by Lord Dalhousie, c 439.

Rajpoot princes, British protection, without success, b 202; it is extended to them by Lord Hastings, in 1817, b 331.

Rajpoots, through the bigotry of Allahabad, b 130.

Railways, British system of, c 137.

Rajpoot, revolt of, Mr. T. C., Governor of Agra, his energetic efforts to send relief to Cabul, c 197.

Rae, Sir Thomas, his embassy to Delhi, c 130.

Rohilla Afghans, their rise, a 202; they defeat the Nabob of Oude, a 265.

Robin, Mr. Metcalfe, sent an envoy to his Court, b 222; obliged him to sign a treaty, and confines him to the right bank of the Sutleje, b 225; he reforms his army, c 31; obtains the Koh-i-noor, c 33; conquers Mooltan, c 33; conquers Cashmere, c 33; takes French officers into his service, c 34; conquers the Derajat, c 40; insurrection of Syud Ahmed, c 35; welcomes the mission of Capt. Burnes, c 38; his great power, his army, his resources, his ambition, c 39; meets Lord W. Bentinck at Roopur, c 41; obtains possession of Pesawur, c 114; his views on Sindia restrained, c 115; concludes the tripartite treaty, c 132; his death and character, c 152.

Russia, progress of her power and increase of her territory, c 118; acquires a paramount influence at the court of Persia, c 119; sends an envoy to Cabul, c 127; assists the Persians in the siege of Herat, c 138.

Revenue, the great source of national wealth, a 91; its elastic character, d 265; its development, II 354; and also by Gen. Godwin in 1852, c 369.

Roads constructed under Lord Dalhousie, c 435.

Robertson, Mr. T. C., Governor of Agra, his energetic efforts to send relief to Cabul, c 197.

Ranee of Iahore, her licentiousness, c 278; designated by Lord Hardinge the Messalina of the north, c 279; her intrigues, c 317; banished to Benares, c 318.

Rangoon, capture of in 1824, b 389; and also by Gen. Godwin in 1852, c 369.

Ramunu, the ruler of Ceylon, defeated by Ramu, a 7.

Red Sea, expedition to, under Gen. Baird, b 112.

Regulating Act of 1773, c 340.

Rent-free tenures, freely resumed under native rulers, c 6; resumption of them in 1828, c 7.

Revenue Board, established by Lord William Bentinck at Allahabad, c 46.

Revenue settlement in Bengal, in 1772, a 343; in 1777, a 394; it is ordered to be concluded for ten years, and then made permanent in 1793, b 81.

Revenue settlement, North-West Provinces, c 46.

Revenue of India, their elastic character, c 432; increase from 30 crores in 1846, to 45 crores in 1856, c 432.

Rajpoot, his power and magnificence, a 76; defeated by Baber, a 94.

Raneo of Lahore, assumes power, c 250; her licentiousness, c 278; designated by Lord Hardinge the Messalina of the north, c 279; her intrigues, c 317; banished to Benares, c 318.

Rangpur, capture of in 1824, b 389; and also by Gen. Godwin in 1852, c 369.

Ranee of Iahore, her licentiousness, c 278; designated by Lord Hardinge the Messalina of the north, c 279; her intrigues, c 317; banished to Benares, c 318.

Rangpur, magnificent pagodas at the meeting, c 41.

Rumfoulde, Sir Thomas, Governor of Madras; his large remittances to England, c 382; transactions concerning the Guntoor Sirsar, c 383; his dismissal, c 384; defence of his conduct furnished by his own papers. Appendix, vol. I.

Ranjist Sin, his rise to power; subdues the various tribes in the Punjab, b 219; attempts to annex the Cis-Sutleje principalities, and extend his power to Delhi, b 220; Lord Minto determines to oppose it, b 221; Mr. Metcalfe sent as envoy to his Court, b 222; obliges him to sign a treaty, and confines him to the right bank of the Sutleje, b 225; he reforms his army, c 31; obtains the Koh-i-noor, c 33; conquers Mooltan, c 33; conquers Cashmere, c 33; takes French officers into his service, c 34; conquers the Derajat, c 40; insurrection of Syud Ahmed, c 35; welcomes the mission of Capt. Burnes, c 38; his great power, his army, his resources, his ambition, c 39; meets Lord W. Bentinck at Roopur, c 41; obtains possession of Pesawur, c 114; his views on Sindia restrained, c 115; concludes the tripartite treaty, c 132; his death and character, c 152.
INDEX.

Ryotwarry system at Madras, $b$ 267; fully established by Sir Thomas Munro, under orders from the Court, $b$ 359.
Sadoleapore, battle of, c 327.
Sadu Ali, a Khorasan merchant founds the royal family of Ouda, a 191; his treasonable advice to Nadir Shah, a 200; laid under contribution by him, and swallows poison, a 201.
Sagar, the sea king of Bengal, a 6.
Sahoo, made king of the Mahrattas, while in Aurungzebe’s hands, a 177; is released, a 187; his weakness leads to the usurpation of the Peshwa, a 193; arrangement with the Kolapore branch of the family, a 194; his follies and death, a 231.
Salabut Jung, Soobadar of the Deccan, a 245; invades Mysore, a 255; attacks Savanore, a 256; marches against Bussy, and is obliged to submit, a 257;cedes territory to the English, a 284; acknowledged Soobadar of the Deccan by the peace of Paris; deposed and put to death by his brother, a 318.
Salaries of civil servants increased by Lord Cornwallis, $b$ 7.
Salyo, treaty of, a 376; ratified by the Mahrattas only on hearing of Hyder’s death, a 377.
Salsette, occupied by the Bombay Government, a 358.
Sanbajee, succeeds Sevajee; his victorious reign, a 170; tortured to death a 176.
Sanskrit language; its original seat and gradual mixture with the provincial languages of India, a 4.
Santhal émeute, c 376.
Satara, principality of, established by Lord Hastings, $b$ 349; death of the raja in 1848; question of perpetuating it by adoption, c 382; Minutes of Sir George Clerk, c 382; of Mr. Wiloughby, c 383; researches of Lord Dalhousie, c 384; his conclusion; his Minute, c 386; orders of the Home authorities on the subject of the annexation of this and kindred dependent principalities, a 386; it is annexed, c 388.
Salgong, the ancient port of Bengal; its decay, a 138.
Seetabadlee, battle of, $b$ 388.
Seelatulbaulee, battle of, $b$ 338.
Seleucus invades India, a 15.
Selenus, their progress and proceedings, a 36, 37; extinction of their power, a 40.
Seraja Dowlah, nabob of Bengal, his oppressions, a 269; betakes Calcutta, a 273; returns to Moorshedabad, a 274; marches again to Calcutta, a 276; is defeated by Clive, and concludes a treaty, a 276; confederacy against him, a 277; he is defeated at Plasy, a 279; flies to Rajmahal, a 280; is captured and assassinated by Meerun, a 281.
Seramore Missionaries, their labours, $b$ 213; opposed by Government; anomalous conduct of the public authorities, $b$ 214; violently assailed in the House of Commons by Mr. Marsh, and defended by Mr. Wilberforce, $b$ 281.
Seringapatam, strength of the fortifications, $b$ 86; it is invested, $b$ 91; and captured, $b$ 92.
Setta, the bankers of Moorshedabad, join the confederacy against Seraja Dowlah, a 277; advise Clive to join it, a 278; put to death by Meer Cassim, a 303.
Sevajee, his birth, a 152; education; early talents; captures Torna; builds Saigrur, a 153; his progress; ravages the Mogul territory, a 154; obtains the Concan, a 155; attacks Shaista Khan at Poona, a 157; plunders Surat, a 158; assumes royalty; his depredations on the sea; expedition to Barcelona, a 159; submits to Aurungzebe; convention of Poornunder; origin of the chowk, a 160; proceeds to Delhi; is insulted, placed under restraint, and escapes, a 161; his civil and political institutions, a 162; plunders Surat a second time, a 163; defeats the emperor’s troops, a 164; is crowned with great ceremony, a 167; his expedition to the Carnatic, a 168; his death, a 169; and character, a 170.
INDEX.

Sindia, his birth, a 151; succeeds to the jageer of Poona; creates a king of Ahmednugur, and makes extensive conquests in the south, a 152; revisits his son, Sevaje, a 157; his death; his possessions, a 159.

Shah Jehan, driven to rebellion, attacked and pursued by Mohabet, a 131; flies to Bengal, a 132; ascends the throne of Delhi, a 134; his extravagant expenditure, a 135; subdues Ahmednugur, a 137; breaks the Portuguese power in Bengal, a 138; his four sons, a 144; deposed by Aurungzebe, his character, his magnificence, a 145, 146; his death, a 162.

Shah Soojah receives the embassy of Mr. Elphinstone, in 1809, with whom he forms a treaty; is defeated by his brother and obliged to fly across the Indus, b 226; obliged to resign the Koh-i-noor to Runjest Sing, c 83; becomes a pensioner of the British Government at Lucknow, c 83; unsuccessful attempt to recover his power in 1833, c 113; Lord Auckland determines to see him on the throne of Cabul, c 130; signs the truce treaty, c 132; Shah Soojah proceeds with the expedition, c 140; enters Cabul as king, c 149; his unpopularity, and its cause, c 160; his tragic death, c 218.

Shere Sing, son of Runjest Sing, becomes raja, c 274; is put to death, c 277.

Shere Sing, sent with an army to coerce Moolrajs, c 517; goes over to him, c 520; marches towards Lahore, c 522; baffles Lord Gough at Ramnagar, c 523; lai; Long a strong position on the Chenab at Khushpur, c 53; fights the battle of Chillianwala, c 533; defeated at Guzerat, c 545; surrenders to General Gilbert, c 547.

Shere Khan, the Afghan; his origin, occupies Behar; conquers Bengal; defeats Humayoon, a 98; mounts the throne of Delhi; conquers Malwa and Marwar, a 100; his institutions, death, and character, a 101.

Shere, Sir John, his views on the permanent settlement, b 32; Governor-General, b 52; central in the struggle during the mutiny of the Nizam and the Mahmutta, b 54; British reputation compromised by it, b 55; makes concessions to the mutinous officers, b 65; is superseded, b 66; his scrupulous justice regarding the succession of Oude, b 68; his danger at Lucknow, b 69; his courage and composure; resigns the Government, and returns to England, b 70; created a peer, b 70.

Sikhs, their origin and progress; become a military community, a 184.

Sindia, the origin of his family, a 195; ravages Rohilcund; drives back across the Ganges; defeated by Ahmed Shah, a 288; killed at Paniput, a 292.

Sindia, Dowlut Rao, succeeds his great uncle, Mahdajee Sindia, at the age of thirteen, b 53; refuses the alliance proposed by Lord Wellesley, b 81; is defeated by Holkar in 1801, b 130; defeats Holkar, but neglects to crush him, b 137; is totally defeated by Holkar at the battle of Poona, 1802, b 336; takes refuge at the treaty of Bassein, and forms an alliance with Nagpore, b 142; his memorable declaration, which leads to war, b 145; defeated at Assaye, b 149; concludes an armistice with Gen. Wellesley, b 151; attacks the British army at Argaom, b 151; strength of his French force in Hindostan, b 153; loses Allygur, b 154; his troops defeated in the battle of Delhi, b 155; signs the treaty of Sirjes Anjengaom, which deprives him of half his territory, b 160; his hesitation regarding the Purnias, b 183; the Resident advances to Gwalior, and forces him to sign a treaty, b 328; his death, c 28; his widow, Baeza-bye, adopts a son, c 29; refuses him any share of power, c 29; the Resident prevents a conflict, c 30; the Bye expelled the kingdom, c 30. For the war of 1843, see GWALIOR CAMPAIGN.
INDEX.

Sindia Mahdajee, detached from Raghoba by the Poona regency, a 358; negotiates the convention of Wurgaum; Raghoba surrenders to him, a 357; connives at his escape; a 359; is defeated by Goddard, a 371; completely defeated by Col. Carnac, a 373; makes a treaty with Hastings, a 376; concludes the treaty of Salbye, on the part of the Maratha confederacy, a 377; his great success in Hindostan demands c10or for Bengal and Behar, b 40; plunders the Rajpoots; defeated by them, b 41; his sepoy force organized by de Boigne; a 358; negotiates the convention of Wurgaum; Ragboba surrenders to him, a 367; connives at his escape; a 369; is defeated by Goddard, a 371; completely defeated by Col. Carnac, a 373; makes a treaty with Hastings, a 376; concludes the treaty of Salbye, on the part of the Maratha confederacy, a 377; his great success in Hindostan demands c10or for Bengal and Behar, b 40; plunders the Rajpoots; defeated by them, b 41; his sepoy force organized by de Boigne; a 358; negotiates the convention of Wurgaum; Ragboba surrenders to him, a 367; connives at his escape; a 369; is defeated by Goddard, a 371; completely defeated by Col. Carnac, a 373; makes a treaty with Hastings, a 376; concludes the treaty of Salbye, on the part of the Maratha confederacy, a 377; his great success in Hindostan demands c10or for Bengal and Behar, b 40; plunders the Rajpoots; defeated by them, b 41; his sepoy force organized by de Boigne; a 358; negotiates the convention of Wurgaum; Ragboba surrenders to him, a 367; connives at his escape; a 369; is defeated by Goddard, a 371; completely defeated by Col. Carnac, a 373; makes a treaty with Hastings, a 376; concludes the treaty of Salbye, on the part of the Maratha confederacy, a 377; his great success in Hindostan demands c10or for Bengal and Behar, b 40; plunders the Rajpoots; defeated by them, b 41; his sepoy force organized by de Boigne; a 358; negotiates the convention of Wurgaum; Ragboba surrenders to him, a 367; connives at his escape; a 369; is defeated by Goddard, a 371; completely defeated by Col. Carnac, a 373; makes a treaty with Hastings, a 376; concludes the treaty of Salbye, on the part of the Maratha confederacy, a 377; his great success in Hindostan demands c10or for Bengal and Behar, b 40; plunders the Rajpoots; defeated by them, b 41; his sepoy force organized by de Boigne; a 358; negotiates the convention of Wurgaum; Ragboba surrenders to him, a 367; connives at his escape; a 369; is defeated by Goddard, a 371; completely defeated by Col. Carnac, a 373; makes a treaty with Hastings, a 376; concludes the treaty of Salbye, on the part of the Maratha confederacy, a 377; his great success in Hindostan demands c10or for Bengal and Behar, b 40; plunders the Rajpoots; defeated by them, b 41; his sepoy force organized by de Boigne; a 358; negotiates the convention of Wurgaum; Ragboba surrenders to him, a 367; connives at his escape; a 369; is defeated by Goddard, a 371; completely defeated by Col. Carnac, a 373; makes a treaty with Hastings, a 376; concludes the treaty of Salbye, on the part of the Maratha confederacy, a 377; his great success in Hindostan demands c10or for Bengal and Behar, b 40; plunders the Rajpoots; defeated by them, b 41; his sepoy force organized by de Boigne; a 358; negotiates the convention of Wurgaum; Ragboba surrenders to him, a 367; connives at his escape; a 369; is defeated by Goddard, a 371; completely defeated by Col. Carnac, a 373; makes a treaty with Hastings, a 376; concludes the treaty of Salbye, on the part of the Maratha confederacy, a 377; his great success in Hindostan demands c10or for Bengal and Behar, b 40; plunders the Rajpoots; defeated by them, b 41; his sepoy force organized by de Boigne;
INDEX.

Supreme Council, Installed in Calcutta, a 346; its opposition to Hastings, a 347; disallows the treaty with Baghobra, and sends Col. Upton to Poona, who concludes the treaty of Poorunder, a 361.

Supreme Court in Calcutta, established, a 340; arrival of the Judges, a 346; its undefined jurisdiction, hangs Nundu koomar; interference with the zamindars, a 411; ignores the Nabob of Mooshahabad; disorganizes the whole system of Government, a 412; summons the Governor-General and Council, a 413; Act of Parliament passed to define its jurisdiction, a 415.

Supreme Court of Bombay, its collision, in like manner, with the Government, c 70.

Surat; Company's first establishment, a 204; its commercial importance; defended against Sevajee by the English servants of the Company, a 158.

Suttees, abolished in the Company's territories by Lord William Bentinck, c 81; and in the native states by Lord Hardinge, c 807.

Swartz, the missionary, his mission to Hyder, a 397; his sage remarks to Col. Fullerton on his retreat, a 408.

Syuds, the imperial dynasty of the, a 69.

Syud Ahmed, a Mahomedan fanatic, stirs up a revolt in the Punjab, and is put to death, c 58.

Takshuk invasion of Hindostan: the supposed origin of the race, a 9.

Talnair, capture of the fort, b 353.

Tamul literature before the introduction of brahminism, a 21.

Tanjore, a Mahratta principality established in the extreme south by Shahjee, a 158; invaded by Sevajee, a 163; disputed succession and interference of the English, a 298; besieged without success by Lally, a 260; arrangement of 1765 made with the raja by the Nabob, a 318; exorbitant demand of Mahomed, a 414; refused by the raja; who is attacked by an English army; constrained to conclude a treaty, a 378; fresh demands of the Nabob; Tanjore conquered by a Madras force and made over to him; restored to the raja; and the Governor of Madras dismissed, a 380; the raja mediated by Lord Wellesley, b 103.

Tanty-bye, regent of the Mahratta state for seven years, a 183; intrigues on the eve of Sahoo's death; her grandson raised to the throne, a 292.

Tea, first introduced by the Company into England, a 208.

Teetoo Meer, his insurrection, c 10.

Tej Singh, appointed Commander-in-chief of the Sikh army, c 280; boleaguer Sir John Littler, c 283; his misconduct at Sobraon, c 296.

Telengana, its early history, a 22; the Hindoo dynasty extinguished, a 60; a new Hindoo dynasty established, a 63.

Tellicherry, gallant sortie, and defeat of the Mysore army, a 397; Tellichetta, decisive battles at, a 116.

Territorial acquisitions in India; various proposals to limit or relinquish them by Clive, Hastings, Lord Cornwallis, and Lord Shelburne, b 26.

Thanseer, the most opulent Hindoo shrine, destroyed by Mahood of Ghuznee, a 81.

Thomason, Mr. James, his successful administration of the N. W. Provinces, c 487.

Thuggas, its character, prevalence, and atrocities, extinguished by Lord William Bentinck, through Col. Sleeman, c 58.

Tibet, movement of Golab Sing defeated, c 276.

Timur, his birth and early adventures; his conquests in Central India, a 66; enters India and puts 100,000 captives to death; captures and plunder Delphi; recrosses the Indus, a 67.

Tippoo, plunders the country seats around Madras, a 333; ascends the throne; his resources; returns to the western coast, a 403; recaptures Beconore; siege of Mangalore which costs him half his army, a 407; treats the Madras commissioners with indignity; signs the treaty of Mangalore, a 416; war with the Mahrattas; makes peace suddenly, b 3; attacks the III. 2 K
INDEX.

Travancore lines and is repulsed, b 12; war with the English, the Nizam and the Peshwa; campaign of 1790, b 14; he lays waste the Carnatic; his embassy to France, b 16; battle of Arikera, b 18; awaits the arrival of Lord Cornwallis at the capital, 1792; is attacked and defeated, b 23; constrained to make peace, and cede half his territory, and pay three crores of rupees, b 24; reduction of his power, b 28; he determines to expel the English from the Deccan, b 73; forms an alliance with the French at the Mauritis, b 74; receives the French officers, b 76; strength of his army, b 76; first communication of Lord Wellesley to him, b 84; continuation of the correspondence, b 85; his duplicity, b 86; war with him sanctioned in England, b 85; General Harris marches against him, b 88; Tippoo marches against the Bombay army on the western coast and is defeated, b 89; defeated by General Harris at Malavelly, and retires to Seringapatam, b 89; is slain in the assault of his capital, b 89; his character, b 94; allotment of his territory between the Nizam and the English, and the boy raja set up by Lord Wellesley, b 96.

Toder Mull, subdues the Moguls in Bengal, a 112; and the Khyberaees, a 114; his settlement of the land revenue and the finances of Bengal, a 124.

Toghluk dynasty on the throne of Delhi, a 60; its termination, a 68.

Toolose-bye, the regent of the Kolkar state, her talents, her beauty, and her licentiousness, b 324; her tragic death, b 342.

Trade, private, encouraged by Lord Wellesley, b 126; reproubed by the Court of Directors, b 127; trade of India thrown open to private enterprise in 1813, b 278; trade of China thrown open to the nation in 1833, c 83.

Transit duties; their origin and nature; occasion of disputes with Meer Cassim which cost him his throne, a 299.

Travancore, threatened by Tippoo; the raja purchases Ayacotta, and Cran- ganore from the Dutch, b 11; the raja repels Tippoo's attack, b 12.

Treaties with the native princes in the north, concluded by Lord Wellesley, b 161; revoked by Lord Cornwallis, and Sir George Barlow, b 187, 190; revived by Lord Hastings in 1817-18, b 331.

Trevelyan, Sir Charles, his eminent services in the cause of English education, c 65.

Trimbukjee, his sinister influence over Bajee Rao, b 309; murders Gungadhur Shastree, and is surrendered to the British Government, b 312; placed in confinement and escapes, b 321.

Ugikoolo, the ancestors of the four great tribes of Rajpootana; their legendary origin, a 17.

Vasco de Gama conducts the first Portuguese expedition to India, a 85; lands at Calicut; opposition of the Moors, a 85; second voyage to India; burns Calicut; establishes a factory at Cochin, a 87.

Vedus, collected by Vyasu; their leading doctrines, a 5.

Vikramaditya, king of Oojean; his era; his grandeur; his encouragement of learning, a 19; his fabulous power; his creed, a 20.

Vizier Ali, assassinated Mr. Chevry at Benaree, b 114.

Wade, Col., and Prince Timur force the Khyber Pass and reach Cabul, c 149.

Waldemar, Prince, takes part in the engagements of Ferrozeshuhur, c 291.

Walid, his extensive conquests in India; his ambition, a 25.

Walker, Col., restores the Guickwar's finances, b 163; his efforts to abolish infanticide, c 105.

Watson, Admiral, his arrival at Bombay; assists in the capture of Gheriah, a 269; and of Calcutta, a 275.

Wellesley, Lord, Governor-General, b 71; state in which he found India, b 73; adopts the most vigorous policy throughout India, b 78; proposes subsidiary alliances with the princes, b 78; extinguishes the French force at Hyderabad, b 81; declares war against Tippoo, b 87; proceeds to Madras.
INDEX. 491

...to prosecute it with vigour, b 84; abolishes the kingdom of Mysore, and divides the territory, b 97; creates a new dynasty, b 96; forms a new treaty with the Nizam, b 101; mediates the Nabob of the Carnatic, b 107; sends an embassy to Persia, b 109; his transactions with the Nabob of Oude, b 115; obtains a large cession of territory, b 116; establishes the College of Fort William, b 123; encourages private trade, b 126; loses case at the India House, b 128; offers to resign, b 128; entreated to remain, b 131; concludes the treaty of Bassein with the Peshwa, b 140; which offends Sindia and Nagpore, b 142; war with them on a grand scale, b 147; victory attends the British arms and Sindia loses half his territories, b 160; treaties made with the princes in the north, b 161; disallowed by his successor, b 187; unfortunate siege of Bhurtpore, b 172; treaty with the raja, b 173; close of Lord Wellesley's administration, b 178; remarks on it, b 178; prosecuted by Mr. Pauli, b 183; alarm at the India House, b 181; hostility of the Court of Directors to him, b 181.

Whish, Gen., sent with a brigade to Mooltan, c 316; his operations suspended by the defection of Shere Sing, c 329; siege renewed, c 339; capture of the town and fort, c 341.

Wilkinson, Mr. Launcelot, his efforts to eradicate infanticide, c 106.

Willoughby, Mr. J. P., his efforts to eradicate it, c 106; his Minute on the Satara case, c 333.

Wilson, Dr. H., opposes the abolition of suttee, c 54; the great champion of Orientalism, c 65.

Wurzgum, convention of, a 367.

Yoodishtheer, performs the sacrifice of the horse, a 7; goes into exile for twelve years; victorious in the battle of Kooroo Kshetrn, and retires to Dwarka with Krishna, a 8; and disappears, a 9.

Zemindars, their rise, b 29; settlement of the land made with them in 1793, b 51; their constant extortions; the necessity of restricting their demand on the ryots, b 32; the classes whose rents they were not at liberty to enhance, b 83.

Zulfiqar Khan, captures Ginjee, a 179; supports Jehander Shah, and is murdered by Ferokshere, a 185.