'This is a book which was distinctly wanted. As a book of reference it should prove invaluable to journalists, and as a lucid account of how Egypt became what she was when England took her in hand, it will be instructive to every intelligent reader.'—SATURDAY REVIEW.

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF ARTHUR YOUNG. With Selections from his Correspondence. Edited by M. BETHAM EDWARDS. With 2 Portraits and 2 Views. Large crown 8vo. 12s. 6d.

'Miss Edwards has done her task with a reserve and succinctness to be much commended. She deserves well of all who hold in honour the memory of one who ever strove manfully to make two blades of grass grow where one grew before.'—TIMES.

THE LIFE OF SIR JOHN HAWLEY GLOYER, R.N., G.C.M.G.

By Lady GLOYER. Edited by the Right Hon. Sir RICHARD TEMPLE, Bart., G.C.S.I., D.C.L., LL.D., F.R.S. With Portrait and Maps. Demy 8vo. 14s.

'Written with noteworthy tact, ability, and discretion by his widow. . . . One of the best and most satisfied of our biographies of its class produced within recent years.'—WORLD.

DEEDS THAT WON THE EMPIRE. By the Rev. W. H. FITCHETT ('Vedette'). Seventh Edition. With 16 Portraits and 11 Plans. Crown 8vo. 6s.

'There is no bluster, no brag, no nauseous cant about a chosen people; but there is a ringing enthusiasm for endurance, for dashing gallantry, for daring and difficult feats, which generous-hearted boys and men will respond to quickly. There is not a flabby paragraph from beginning to end.'—BOOKMAN.

THE STORY OF THE CHURCH OF EGYPT: being an Outline of the History of the Egyptians under their successive Masters from the Roman Conquest until now. By E. L. BUTCHER, Author of 'A Strange Journey,' 'A Black Jewel,' &c. 2 vols. crown 8vo. 16s.

'Mrs. Butcher is to be congratulated on the ability, thoroughness, and research which she has brought to the accomplishment of her formidable task.'—CHRISTIAN WORLD.

RELIGIO MEDICI, and other Essays. By Sir THOMAS BROWNE. Edited, with an Introduction, by D. LLOYD BOWEN, M.D., F.R.C.P. Revised Edition. Fcp. 8vo. 3s. 6d. net.

'Dr. Lloyd Bowen's gives an excellent selection, edited with the loving care of a true bibliophile, which leaves no phase of Browne's genius unrevealed.'—MANCHESTER COURIER.

GABRIELE VON BULOW. Daughter of Wilhelm von Humboldt. A Memoir Compiled from the Family Papers of Wilhelm von Humboldt and his Children, 1791-1887. Translated by CLARA NORDLINGER. With Portraits and a Preface by Sir EDWARD B. MALBY, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., &c. Demy 8vo. 16s.

'Miss Nordlinger's excellent translation gives English readers an opportunity of becoming acquainted with a very charming personality, and of following the events of a life which was bound up with many interesting incidents and phases of Europe's history.'—TIMES.

ELECTRIC MOVEMENT IN AIR AND WATER. With Theoretical Inferences. By Lord ARMSTRONG, C.B., F.R.S., LL.D., &c. With Autotype Plates. Imperial 4to. £1. 10s. net.

'One of the most remarkable contributions to physical and electrical knowledge that have been made in recent years. . . . The illustrations are produced in a superb manner, entirely worthy of so remarkable a monograph.'—TIMES.

SMITH, ELDER, & CO.'S RECENT BOOKS.

With Portraits and a Facsimile Letter. Small post 8vo. 6s.

CHARLES LAMB AND THE LLOYDS. Edited by E. V. LUCAS.

GLASGOW HERALD.—'Mr. Lucas has preserved exactly the right proportion in the treatment of his subject. . . . A very pleasant and valuable book.'

SCOTSMAN.—'Full of a fresh interest for everyone who likes to be in close touch with Lamb and the Lake Poets.'

THE POETICAL WORKS OF ROBERT BRIDGES. Vol. I.

CONTENTS:—Prometheus the Firegiver; Eros and Psyche; and the Growth of Love. Small crown 8vo. 6s.

GUARDIAN.—'As dainty an edition as any poet could desire for his work and it will no doubt win for Mr. Bridges a considerable proportion of the many new readers whom he deserves.'

TIMES.—'Works which have for years past been treasured by a small circle, and which we hope will make their way into a much wider world.'

SPECTATOR.—'Eros and Psyche is a marvellous piece of workmanship. The stanza is managed with consummate ease, and the style, fluent in narrative, is full of dignity.'

BRITISH RULE AND MODERN POLITICS: an Historical Study.

By the Hon. A. S. G. CANNING, Author of 'The Divided Irish,' 'History in Fact and Fiction. Large crown 8vo. 7s. 6d.

PEOPLE.—'Should help foreigners to understand how our mighty empire was built up.'

ULSTER GAZETTE.—'The inquiring student should find in this work the sources of great learning and great research.'

PAGES FROM A PRIVATE DIARY. Reprinted from the Cornhill

Magazine. Crown 8vo. 6s.

TIMES.—'The writer has a pretty wit and goes gaily amiably.'

SPECTATOR.—'The place the diary claims is on that inner shelf where lie the books which are to be read and re-read, and, above all, the books which are to be dipped into. . . . "Style," "distinction," call it what you will, the touch is present here which lifts mere writing into literature.'

MANCHESTER GUARDIAN.—'The book is uniformly delightful.'

ECBU.—'Compact of a double delight—the delight afforded by sympathetic criticism of books, and an eager appreciation of nature, and the delight given by laughter-moving stories and humorous aperçus on men and things.'

IDLEHURST: a Journal kept in the Country. By JOHN HALSHAM.

Crown 8vo. 6s.

TIMES.—'Nature and man in the Weald of Sussex are sketched with sympathy and a genial pen.'

MANCHESTER GUARDIAN.—'The descriptive power shown is of the highest kind.'

SCOTSMAN.—'A delightful work for a man who is fond of the country and of a good book, and it should please everyone who takes it up.'

AURORA LEIGH. By ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING. NEW AND

CHEAPER EDITION. With an Introduction by ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE, and a Frontispiece. Crown 8vo. cloth, gilt edges, 3s. 6d.

BIRRELL, Q.C., M.P. With 2 Portraits, 10 Full-page Illustrations, and 2 Facsimile Letters.

THIRD EDITION. Large crown 8vo. 10s. 6d.

TIMES.—'This is in many respects a model biography, vivid, sympathetic and entertaining, and full, without overflowing the due bounds of personal history. In short, Mr. Birrell has written a genial life of one of the most genial and popular of men.'

MR. STANLEY WEYMAN'S NEW NOVEL

SECOND EDITION. With a Frontispiece. Crown 8vo. 6s.

THE CASTLE INN.

By STANLEY J. WEYMAN,

AUTHOR OF 'A GENTLEMAN OF FRANCE,' 'SHREWSBURY,' &c.

SPECTATOR.—'A happy combination of the qualities of his earlier and later works—alert narrative and wealth of incident, coupled with careful portraiture and development of character.'

GUARDIAN.—'The story is told in Mr. Weyman's best manner—and how good that is nobody needs to learn at this time of day.'

DAILY NEWS.—'Mr. Weyman has written nothing informed with more charm, more dash, or more character.'

ACADEMY.—'Compact of incident, and full-flavoured of the latter half of the eighteenth century.'

ST. JAMES'S GAZETTE.—'A capital story in Mr. Weyman's best manner.'

GLOBE.—'Full of movement and excitement.'

London: SMITH, ELDER, & CO., 15 Waterloo Place, S.W.

SIR CHARLES HALLE'S LIFE AND LETTERS. Being an Autobiography (1819-60), with Correspondence and Diaries. Edited by his Son, C. E. HALLE, and his Daughter, MARIE HALLE. With 2 Portraits. Demy 8vo. 16s.

'The volume is one of the most interesting of recent contributions to the literature of prose. . . . A strong sense of humour is manifest in the autobiography as well as in the letters, and there are some capital stories scattered up and down the volume.'—TIMES.

THE MEMOIRS OF BARON THIEBAULT (late Lieutenant-General in the French Army). With Recollections of the Republic, the Consulate, and the Empire. Translated and Condensed by A. J. BUTLER, M.A., Translator of the 'Memoirs of Marbot.' 2 vols. With 2 Portraits and 2 Maps. Demy 8vo. 28s.

'Mr. Butler's work has been admirably done. . . . These memoirs abound in varied interest, and, moreover, they have no little literary merit. . . . For solid history, bright sketches of rough campaigning, shrewd studies of character, and lively anecdote, these memoirs yield in no degree to others.'—TIMES.

PREHISTORIC MAN AND BEAST. By the Rev. H. N. HUTCHINSON, Author of 'Extinct Monsters,' 'Creatures of Other Days,' &c. With a Preface by Sir HENRY HOWORTH, M.P., F.R.S., and 10 Full-page Illustrations. Small demy 8vo. 16s. 6d.

'A striking picture of living men and conditions as they once existed. . . . It combines graphic description with scientific accuracy, and is an admirable example of what a judicious use of the imagination can achieve upon a basis of established facts.'—KNOWLEDGE.

SHAKSPEARE COMMENTARIES. By Dr. G. G. GERVINUS, Professor at Heidelberg. Translated, under the Author's superintendence, by F. E. BENNETT. With a Preface by J. F. FURNIVALL. Fifth Edition. 8vo. 14s.

THE BOOKMAN.—In her new biographical edition Mrs. Richmond Ritchie gives us precisely what we want. The volumes are a pleasure to hold and to handle. They are just what we like our ordinary every-day Thackeray to be. And prefixed to each of them we have all that we wish to know, or have any right to know, about the author himself; all the circumstances, letters, and drawings which bear upon the work.

THE ACADEMY.—Thackeray wished that no biography of him should appear. It is certain that the world has never ceased to desire one. Hence the compromise effected in this edition of his works. Mrs. Ritchie, his daughter, will contribute to each volume in this edition her memories of the circumstances under which her father produced it. Such memoirs, when complete, cannot fall far short of being an actual biography.

THE DAILY CHRONICLE.—We shall have, when the thirteen volumes of this edition are issued, not, indeed, a biography of Thackeray, but something which will delightfully supply the place of a biography, and fill a regrettable gap in our literary records.

* * * A Prospectus of the Edition, with Specimen Pages, will be sent post free on application.
