INDEX TO BOTH VOLUMES

INDEX

All page numbers without volume indication refer to Volume I of the present work. Where they refer to Volume II they are preceded by the Roman numeral "II". References to two consecutive pages are followed, as a rule, by the letter "f.", while "ff." denotes three consecutive pages. For more than three, the first and last pages are given. An asterisk after a number indicates a footnote, but where something is mentioned both in the text and in a footnote, only the former is indicated.

Names of people are printed in small capitals, titles of books, pamphlets and articles in italics. Works of known or presumptive authors are to be found under the authors' names; collections of documents, collective works and writings of unknown authors are to be found under their respective titles. Names of anonymous authors are in square brackets. Under the name of the publisher or editor reference is made to the particular work.
