

The total expenditure incurred in connection with the Committee including the cost of printing its Report amounted to about one lakh of rupees.

SERVANTS OF INDIA SOCIETY'S
BRANCH LIBRARY
BOMBAY

L41Posta:

Synopsis.

CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTORY.

PARAS.

Appointments of Committee and terms of reference	1
Its visits to different offices in Delhi and Lahore	2
Invitations for suggestions	3—4
Questionnaires	5
List of offices visited	6—7
Examination of witnesses and their list	8—9

[CHAPTER II.

CIRCLE OFFICES.

Uneconomic tours undertaken by certain Deputies Postmaster-General ..	11—12
Direct submission of cases to Deputies Postmaster-General	13
Submission of cases direct to Postmaster-General through Assistant Postmaster-General	14
A Section with less than 10 men not to have more than one selection grade clerk	15
Abolition of appointments of Head Assistants and reduction in pay of the office Superintendent, Burma, recommended	17
Post Office clerks to be employed in Circle Offices in exceptional cases ..	20
Circle Office clerks to be paid higher scales of pay than Post Office clerks ..	21
Certain financial and administrative powers to be delegated to Divisional Superintendents and First Class Postmasters	22
Assistant Postmasters-General to be authorised to deal finally with certain cases ..	23
Pension cases of selection grade officials to be submitted direct to the Audit Office by Divisional Superintendents and First Class Postmasters	24
Typing work in Circle Offices to be done by Section writers	25
Character sheets entries to be made in accordance with Home Department Resolution No. 1568-1695-(Ests.), dated the 14th September 1915	27
Promotion to selection grade appointments to be made by examination	27
Minor Circles for the North West Frontier and other minor provinces	28—31
Circle Offices, standard for calculating clerical staff	32—39

CHAPTER III.

STOCK DEPOTS.

Only one selection grade appointment for each Stock Depot and that in the lower selection grade	41
Postal Stock Depot at Moghalpura to be placed under the officer in charge of the local Telegraph Depot	42

	Paras.
Forms to be supplied by Government Presses direct to all offices except Branch Post Offices and Inspector of Post Offices	46
Money Order Receipt Books, selection grade sub-offices to obtain—half-yearly ..	49
Summer Uniforms, making up of—from material obtained from the Indian Stores Department contractors and their distribution to be entrusted to the Jail Department	52
Direct supply of articles by the I. S. D. contractors to indenting offices ..	54
Bicycles and clocks to be obtained through the Indian Stores Department ..	56
Time-pieces for the use of the traffic Branch to be obtained through the C. T. S.	56
Stamps and Seals to be supplied direct to the Indenting offices by the manufacturers	57
Jute and canvas bags, large, post offices and R. M. S. divisions to obtain their supply of—direct from the I. S. D. contractors	58
Departmental publications to be obtained by selection grade offices from the Government Press	59
Index of Invoices, abolition of the system of maintaining—despatched and issue of closing invoices	63
Consumable articles to be obtained by Head and Sub-Offices for the Divisional Superintendents or First Class Post Offices once or twice a year ..	66
Unserviceable articles of stock such as lamps, to be disposed of locally ..	67—68
Countersigning officers to be held responsible for the requirements indented for	70
Methods followed by Heads of Circles in printing their circulars	71—72

CHAPTER IV.

DEAD LETTER OFFICES.

Location and functions of Dead Letter Offices	73—75
Irregularity of procedure followed in D. L. O., Nagpur	76
Directory offices to be established at the headquarters of each circle	77
Undeliverable registered articles bearing senders' names, registered newspapers and unregistered packets to be returned direct to senders or agents in India by offices of delivery	81 and 83—85.
Undeliverable unpaid or insufficiently paid articles to be returned by all D. L. Os. to senders without the intervention of the Home D. L. O.	84
Establishment of present D. L. Os. to be revised	87
One central D. L. O. to be established for the whole of India	88
Notice in form D. L. O. 15 to be issued by all Postmasters	90
Unpaid and insufficiently paid inland postcards to be destroyed by Head Postmasters	91
Open or insecurely paid letters to be sent out for delivery	92

(iii)

CHAPTER V.

RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE.

	Paras.
R. M. S. organisation, a short history of the evolution of the present day—and its inherent defects	94—103
Director of Mails, creation of one central authority at Delhi for controlling mails under the designation of —	104
Sorting arrangements at Calcutta, Bombay, Ballard Pier, Madras and Poona should be under the R. M. S.	106—108
Delivery offices to be assigned numbers as at Bombay	109
Mail Offices, improved accommodation for	110
Unusual bag invoices, system of preparing—to be extended	111
Mail agency work, at certain offices to be transferred to P. O.	112
Mail guards, conversion of certain mail agents to	112
Work papers, abolition or reduction of second check of	113
Mail lists in Record Offices, abolition of detailed	114
Assistant Inspectors, replacement of Inspectors by—	115
Headquarters Inspectors, additional—to be appointed	116
Superintendents of Post Office, to be attached to R. M. S. for a period of not less than 5 years	117
Van peons and porters of the R. M. S. to be treated as belonging to one cadre	120
Redistribution of R. M. S. Division	126—130

CHAPTER VI.

FOREIGN POST.

Labelled bundles, preparation of, for certain offices in the United Kingdom	133
Insured letters, avoidance of double handling of	134
Direct Mails system, extension of—and of direct bags	140
Straits Mails, abolition of the special train for	147
Eastward mails, despatch of—by ordinary mail train	149
Rangoon town delivery work to be done at Calcutta or in Rangoon	150
Ballard pier, revision of sorting arrangements at	158—159
Overtime allowance,— scale of—for Foreign Post employees	164
scale of—for volunteers required for dealing with Inward Foreign Mails	172
Abolition of—to certain postmen in Bombay for Foreign mail delivery	173
Ballard Pier standard for preparation of bags by—for Inward Foreign Mails	176
Ballard Pier, opening of certain direct bags and bundles at	177
O tward Foreign mails, despatch of —	178
Beats of foreign mails sections, splitting up of —	179
Ballard Pier, shifting of the Foreign Parcel Section to—	180
Time-test, for Foreign Registration and Parcel work	185

	Paras
Customs Declaration,—on parcels received from U. K. to be pasted on the parcels by the British Post Office	186
Parcel lists, detailed—to be discontinued —	187
Form F. P. 1, omission of certain columns in —	188
C. O. D. outward parcels, discontinuance of register of V. P. articles received in respect of—	189
Registered packets, bulk entry for —	190
C. O. D. articles, discontinuance of certificates of payments for —	191
Advice of money orders, discontinuance of issue of intimation of —	192

CHAPTER VII.

DIVISIONAL ORGANISATION.

Second inspection, not to be restored	204
Mail Overseers, to be replaced by Assistant Inspectors	193—2
Inspectors' and Superintendents' jurisdictions to be enlarged	206—2
Ranges to be formed in Major Circles	223
Revised functions of the Superintendents of Post Offices	225
Telegraph inspection of combined offices to be conducted by Telegraph Engineering Officers	230

CHAPTER VIII.

ORGANISATION, GENERAL.

Divisional Superintendents, town offices in Presidency towns to be placed under	233
Divisional Superintendents, town offices under 1st class head postmasters also to be placed under	234
Lower Division cadre, direct recruits to—to be absorbed in the new grades for clerks	235
Inferior ranks, men promoted from—to be employed on routine work	236

CHAPTER IX.

SIMPLIFICATION OF POST OFFICE METHODS.

Mr. Postwallah in Bombay	249—2
Money orders, full particulars of—not to be entered in Form M. O. 3 of money orders already detailed in Form M. O. 44	277
Cheques, issue of—for payments of money orders in large offices	279
Cheques, issue of—for other transactions	280
Telegraphic Money Order Advice form, alteration of—	282—2
Registered and Parcel Lists, bulk entry in —	287
Leaky articles, Postmasters to issue notice to senders of —	291
Receipts for registered articles, entries on—	295—2
V. P. articles, raising of limits of—to be sent out through postmen	297
Parcel postage, redirected—to be credited in cash	298—2
Inland parcels, size of	300

	Paras.
Acknowledgment form, preparation of—	301
Senders' address on registered articles	302
V. P. money order form, modification of—	303
"Nil" registered lists, discontinuance of— in town sub-offices ..	304
Deceased depositor's case, raising of limits of powers of Postmasters in ..	305
Savings Bank Memos, Omission of name of depositor in—	307
Public Accounts, power of opening of —to be delegated to Head Postmasters in certain cases	308
Savings Bank Account, closure of — without production of Pass Book ..	309
Savings Bank ledgers, recopying of —	310—312
Savings Bank Accounts, opening of — for minors by legal guardians ..	313
Cash certificates, Index register for	314—315
Joint Savings Bank Accounts, opening of	316
Abolition of—
(1) Postmen's Postage Account, (2) Memo. of taxed postage (3) Memo. of forward postage (4) Special error book	318
Registration and Parcel work, all branch officers to be authorised to do independent	322

CHAPTER X.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Postal Publications, to be sold through Treasury Contractors	324
Medical leave, not to be shown in character sheets	326
Village returns, to be prepared in February and August	327
Correction of Manuals, certificate of —	328
P. & T. Guide, Check of — by Postmaster	330
Kit Inspection Reports	331
Error extracts, for petty irregularities	332—333
Unusual bag invoice, to be prepared by carbon process—	334
Sub-Account clerk, Monthly examination of — in sorting list	335
Inspection of First class head post offices by Deputy Postmasters-General ..	336
Mail carriers, penalty on	339
List of Indian Post Offices, supply of extract of — to R. M. S.	342
Doguti bags, use of — in place of R. C. B. covers	345
Parcel and Packet bags despatch of — by weighment system	347
Inspection Report Forms, simplification of —	349
Conveyance of mails, employment of contractors for — on runner's lines ..	350
Locked bag system, extension of —	353
Statistical registers, combination and modification of certain —	354—356
Acquittance rolls, return of — by sub-offices	357—358
ension application of selection grade officials	359

	Para.,
Extra duty allowance bill	360—361
Contingent bills, not payable	362
Accounts classification, noting of — on vouchers	364
Service Books, noting of periods of leave in —	365
Post Office Manuals, Rearrangements of —	366—368
P. & T. Guide, changes in ² —	369—372
Abstract of Postal information	373

CHAPTER XI.

RECRUITMENT AND TRAINING.

One cadre for clerical establishment	375
Recruitment examination	376—380
Confirmation examination	381
Promotion to Upper Grade	382
Promotion of Postmen	383
Training of recruits	386—388
Recruitment of Superintendents	389—391

CHAPTER XII.

TIME TESTS AND ITS APPLICATION.

Abolition of one man system	398
Escort of mails by P. O. officials	399
Correspondence branch, staff for — of large offices to be sanctioned out of time-test	401
Press sorting offices, review of work of —	402
V. P. claims Department, in Presidency offices	403
Mail offices, fixation of hours of attendance in	405
Time-Test—
Defects and anomalies in —	410
— for accounts branch of P. Os.	413
— for accounts branch of Head Record Offices	415
Time allowance, for sorting offices	416
Vernacular articles, transcription of destination on	417

CHAPTER XIII.

STANDARDS FOR DETERMINING THE STATUS OF POST OFFICES.

Standards for selection grade appointments, a short history of the evolution of the existing —	420—423
Anomalies in the application of existing standards	423—431

(vii)

CHAPTER XIV.

ACCOUNTS.

	Paras.
Post Office, to be divided into 2 categories only	437
Accounts Offices, to be established at the Headquarters of each Circle ..	440
Accounts of Post Offices to be inspected by Inspectors of Accounts working under the Accounts Office	447
Salary Bills, preparation of — in the Office of the Divisional Superintendents	459
Money Order Audit Office, establishment of a central	467
Audit Offices, installation of suitable machinery in —	476
Telephone Revenue Accounting Offices, standard for fixing strength of staff in—	481
Preaudit system, abolition of —	482

CHAPTER XV.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

CHAPTER XVI.

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

CHAPTER XVII.

APPENDICES A TO M.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES.

NOTES OF DISSENT.