

~~MF-38~~ 3889

541

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-000541

MAKING A DOZEN ALIKE

A SEASONAL INDUSTRY

A STUDY OF THE MILLINERY
TRADE IN NEW YORK

BY

MARY VAN KLEECK

DIRECTOR DIVISION OF INDUSTRIAL STUDIES
RUSSELL SAGE FOUNDATION

NEW YORK
RUSSELL SAGE FOUNDATION
MCMXVII

Copyright, 1917, by
THE RUSSELL SAGE FOUNDATION

X9(M835). 7311

E7

541

WM. F. FELL CO. PRINTERS
PHILADELPHIA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	v
LIST OF TABLES	vii
Introduction	i
I. The Significance of the Trade.	25
II. Facts about the Trade	33
III. The Workers	59
IV. The Seasons	70
V. Wages and Work Conditions	104
VI. Learning the Trade	144
VII. Public Control in the Millinery Trade	166
SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT ON STATISTICS OF SEASONS AND WAGES
I. The Seasons	197
II. Wages.	205
APPENDICES
A. Record Cards Used in the Investigation	237
B. Notes on Wages of Straw-braid Sewers	248
C. Wages in Millinery Workrooms of Department Stores in New York City and in Eight Up-State Cities	250
D. The Wages Board for Milliners in Victoria.	254
INDEX	265

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

Photographs by Lewis W. Hine

	FACING PAGE
Making a Dozen Alike	Frontispiece
A "Puller-in" at Work	8
A "Puller-in" for a Division Street Shop	8
Rear Windows of a Workroom on Division Street	34
Millinery on Division Street	34
Some Branches of the Millinery Trade	42
Packing Hats	42
A Small Retail Shop	48
Copyists in a Broadway Wholesale Shop	48
Working on a Balcony Above the Store	60
At the Height of the Season	80
In a Retail Shop	106
A Crowded Workroom on Broadway	126
Busy Season in a Third Avenue Shop	126
Practicing for Home Work for a Wholesale Shop	142
Open Evenings	142
Forewoman Criticizing Work	146
Training an Apprentice	152
A Millinery Class in a Public Evening School	160
Making Hats for the Wholesale Trade	160

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE	PAGE
1. Number of shops included in the payroll investigation, maximum force of women employed in the hat trimming departments, and number of records secured, by branch of the trade	11
2. Sources of names of women milliners interviewed at home, October, 1911, to August, 1914	20
3. Location of millinery establishments investigated, by branch of the trade	35
4. Designation of occupations of women employed in one retail millinery establishment, February 2, 1914	45
5. Designation of occupations of women employed in one wholesale millinery establishment, February 7, 1914	48
6. Occupations of women employed in 29 retail and 27 wholesale millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	50
7. Nativity of women employed in retail and wholesale millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	66
8. Time of year when the maximum force of women was employed in retail, retail-wholesale, and wholesale establishments. 1913	78
9. Weeks of employment of maximum force of women in retail, retail-wholesale, and wholesale millinery establishments. 1913	79
10. Weeks on payroll, in one position lasting more than one week during the year 1913, by occupations, for women employed in millinery establishments	82
11. Years employed in present establishment and years of experience in the trade, for women employed in millinery establishments in New York City, as shown by current payroll. 1914	85
12. Years 50 millinery establishments had been in business and maximum force of women employed. 1913	86
13. Weeks millinery workers interviewed at home were employed in millinery during year previous to investigation	89
14. Time out of employment and total time for which pay was lost, in millinery and in subsidiary occupations, during year previous to investigation, by millinery workers interviewed at home.	90

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE	PAGE
15. Experience in different branches of the trade for millinery workers interviewed at home	92
16. Subsidiary work in which 79 millinery workers interviewed at home have been employed since entering the millinery trade	94
17. Duration of employment of women in five leading millinery establishments in New York City, for the calendar year 1913	102
18. Actual weekly earnings of women employed in millinery establishments, department stores, paper box factories, and candy factories in New York City, 1913, compared by cumulative percentages	111
19. Median weekly rates of wages and earnings, by years in the trade, for women employed in millinery, as shown by current payroll, 1914	113
20. Average weekly earnings during period of employment for women employed in any one millinery establishment for more than one week during the calendar year 1913	117
21. Incomes in past year, by weekly wages in present or last position, for millinery workers interviewed at home.	123
22. Average weekly earnings in single establishments during the calendar year 1913, for women employed in five leading millinery establishments in New York City	139
23. Weekly hours of work in millinery establishments investigated in payroll study and maximum number of women employed. 1913	140
24. First weekly wages received in retail or wholesale millinery establishments by workers interviewed at home.	150
25. Age at leaving school of millinery workers interviewed at home	153
26. Last day school attended by millinery workers interviewed at home	154
27. Grade at leaving school for millinery workers who last attended day school in a New York City public school	154
28. Median weekly wage rates, by age at beginning work and years since beginning work, for millinery week workers on current payroll. 1914	163
29. Number of women employed and total wages paid in retail, retail-wholesale, and wholesale millinery establishments in each week of the year 1913	199
30. Actual annual wages paid in the year 1913, and estimated annual wages for a year of 52 maximum weeks, in 40 retail, retail wholesale, and wholesale millinery establishments in New York City	200

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE	PAGE
31. Maximum, minimum, and average number of women employed in any one week, and maximum, minimum, and average amount of wages paid in any one week during the calendar year 1913, in 40 retail, retail-wholesale, and wholesale millinery establishments	201
32. Weeks that women were on the annual payroll of a single millinery establishment in the calendar year 1913, by main branches of the trade	203
33. Weekly rates of wages for women week workers employed in retail and wholesale millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	206
34. Actual earnings during one week for women piece and week workers employed in retail and wholesale millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	207
35. Weekly rates of wages, by years in the trade, for women week workers employed in millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	208
36A. Actual earnings during one week, by years in the trade, for women week workers employed in millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914.	210
36B. Actual earnings during one week, by years in the trade, for women piece workers employed in millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914.	211
37. Weekly rates of wages, by ages, for women week workers employed in millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	213
38. Actual earnings during one week, by ages, for women piece and week workers employed in millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	214
39. Weekly rates of wages, by occupations, for women week workers employed in millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	215
40. Actual earnings during one week, by occupations, for women piece and week workers employed in millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	216
41. Actual earnings during one week, by years in the present establishment, for women piece and week workers employed in millinery establishments, as shown by current payroll. 1914	218
42. Average weekly earnings during period of employment, by occupations, for women employed in any one millinery establishment for more than one week in the calendar year 1913	220

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE	PAGE
43. Average weekly earnings during period of employment, by number of weeks on the payroll during this period, for women employed in any one millinery establishment for more than one week in the calendar year 1913	221
44. Total earnings during period of employment, by occupations, for women employed in any one millinery establishment for more than one week in the calendar year 1913	223
45. Total earnings during period of employment, by main branches of the trade and by number of weeks on the payroll, for women employed in any one millinery establishment for more than one week on the calendar year 1913	224
46. Usual weekly earnings in present or last position, by years in the trade, for millinery workers interviewed at home	226
47. Incomes in past year, by number of weeks employed during year, for millinery workers interviewed at home	227
48. Average weekly earnings during period of employment of women employed in any one millinery establishment for more than one week in the calendar year 1913, for individual wholesale, retail-wholesale, and retail establishments	228
49. Median average weekly earnings in 40 millinery establishments, by weekly hours of labor	231
50A. Weekly wage rates paid to millinery week workers on current payroll, 1914, who began work under 16 years of age, by years since beginning work	232
50B. Weekly wage rates paid to millinery week workers on current payroll, 1914, who began work at 16 years of age or over, by years since beginning work	233

INDEX

INDEX

- ADVANCEMENT: dependent upon experience, 49; supervision and training promote, 146; trade school reports on, 4; trend of shops toward Fifth Avenue, 36; workers denied, 147-148
- AGE OF WORKERS: at leaving school, 153; census comparisons, 64-65; census report for New York City, 52, 53; determines wage rates, 162-163; factor in wages, 114; legislation needed to prevent child labor, 163, 165; rate of wages by age group, 212-214; records of wage-earners, 173, 183-184; wage rates for workers beginning at sixteen or over, 233; wage rates for workers beginning under sixteen, 232
- ALLIANCE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU: scope of work, 3
- APPRENTICES AND LEARNERS: Alice P. Barrows on, 5; Alliance Employment Bureau for boys and girls, 3; English definition of, 186, 262; grouping workers in high grade shops, 44; how first positions obtained, 153; industrial education standards, 161-165; interviewing girls in evening schools, 20; Manhattan Trade School prompts investigation, 3-4; median and weekly wages, 148, 150-152, 162-163; methods that promote efficiency, 145-146, 150, 155-156, 160-165; nature of work in first positions, 152-153; no contract period for, 145; number in retail shops, 45, 49, 50, 53, 54, 56; period not clearly defined, 146, 147, 148; practice of retail and wholesale shops regarding, 145-148; previous training a basis of wages, 151-155; schools in New York City teaching millinery, 31; systems in foreign countries, 148-150, 185-188, 262-263; trade schools and classes, 3, 4, 156-162; uncertain employment a deterrent, 4; work without wages, 149-150, 151. See also Learning
- AUSTRALIA: Employment and wage statistics for Victoria, 259-261; Factories and Shops Acts, 261-263; size of establishments in Victoria, 261; Victoria wage boards prescribe minimum pay, 183-192; wage board correspondence with Chief Inspector of Factories, 254-258
- BARROWS, ALICE P.: conducts investigations, 3, 4, 5, 23, 157
- BOSTON TRADE SCHOOL: millinery department, 156
- BROADWAY: distinctive character of trade, 7; wholesale trade moves northward, 36-37

INDEX

- BRYNER, EDNA: trade school advocate, 156
- CHILDREN: census report for New York City, 52, 53, 55; efficiency depends on when beginning work, 230, 234; wage regulation imperative, 163, 165
- CLARA DE HIRSCH HOME: millinery classes in, 4, 156
- CLASSIFICATION: division of processes, 42-52; initial difficulties of preparing lists, 6; method of selling basis of, 34-39; occupational data and the census, 52-56; record cards, 8; three distinct methods of, 7
- CLEVELAND SURVEY: trade school advocated, 156, 157
- COMMITTEE ON WOMEN'S WORK: activities of, 2-3
- CONFLICTING STATEMENTS: interviews and trade opinions, 23-24
- CONSUMERS' LEAGUE: solving wage and unemployment problems, 172, 195
- CONTRACT SYSTEM: exploitation of, 39-40; extent of, and earnings, 40; no plan of, for apprentices, 145
- CO-OPERATION: Committee on Women's Work of Russell Sage Foundation, 2, 3; employers' attitude toward investigators, 13-15; Factory Investigating Commission, 2, 3, 5, 11; record cards refused by employers, 11; securing data, 1-13; wage board problems, 192-196; with interviewers, 21; workers' co-operative plan, 95. See also Factory Investigating Commission; Record Cards
- COST OF LIVING: Factory Investigating Commission report, 167; milliners' budgets, 168-171, 177-178; payroll statistics, 176-178; recommendation for a wage board, 192-196; report and recommendation of Factory Investigating Commission, 179-180; wage legislation in Australia, 184-191
- CUSTOMERS: custom establishments in New York City, 52-56; location fixes type of, 36, 37-38, 39; purchasing methods various, 33-34; retail shops adjuncts to the factory, 38
- DEPARTMENT STORES: Factory Investigating Commission on employment, 2, 11, 80; weekly earnings in, obtained by factory commission, 111; workroom wages in New York City and State, 250-253
- DIVISION STREET: hiring and wages, 133; method of soliciting custom, 7; no piece workers, 108-109
- EDUCATION: Boston Trade School, 156; co-operation and public control, 192-196; how employes regard trade schools, 158-159; industrial training, problems of, 155-165; institutions having millinery classes, 156; Manhattan Trade School courses, 3-4, 156, 161-162; National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education bulle-

INDEX

- tin, 156; trade school courses, 156-162. See also Technical Schools; Trade Schools
- EMPLOYERS: attitude of, 13-15; discontent over employes, 68-69; dull season, suggestions for, 196; milliners' wage board, 180-182; number interviewed, 20; reluctant to show payrolls, 14; report on hiring learners, 145; suggestions for co-operative wage board in New York, 192-196; wage legislation in Australia, 182-191
- EMPLOYES: Department of Labor statistics, 13; in retail establishments in New York City, 45, 50, 52-56; in wholesale establishments, 48, 50, 52-56; in wholesale and retail shops, 10-13; method of securing records, 8-13; number of women workers in principal cities of world, 29; women in hat trimming departments, 10, 11; workers in Australia, 183, 187-188
- FACTORIES AND SHOPS ACTS: milliners' board determination in Australia, 261-263
- FACTORY INVESTIGATING COMMISSION: age data, 65; findings of weekly earnings, 110, 111; payrolls in department stores, 11; recommendation of wage board by, 179-180, 196; report on minimum wages, 167-168, 178-180; safety and sanitation studies by, 2; study of wages in New York state, 2, 3, 5; wages in department store workrooms, 250-253
- FAMILY STANDARDS: personal interviews reveal types, 59-64
- FICTION OF OWNERSHIP: management, and family partnership, 64
- FIFTH AVENUE: character of trade distinctive, 6-7; Paris models, 51
- GRAND STREET: distinctive character of trade, 7
- HAND WORKERS: copyists, number of, 47, 48; distribution of, in wholesale factory, 47-50, 52-56; division of processes, 42-50; fashion creates demand, 48, 57-58; number in retail establishments, 45, 50, 52-56; occupational groups, 42-50; raw materials and factory supplies for, 41; workroom organization, 42-51
- HIRING: notification of vacancies, 136; organization needed for, 136; relation of the supply to demand, 131-133; usual practice, 133, 136-137
- HOME WORKERS: overtime practice, 142; payrolls hard to determine, 17; relation to contractors, 40
- HOURS OF LABOR: home and piece workers, 142; millinery workers, 140-142; overtime, and the law, 140-142; Supreme Court decision on women's work in factories, 31-32; variable payrolls, 18
- HOURLICH, MARIE H.: aids in investigations, 23
- INSPECTION: Committee on Women's Work, 2-3; initial plans for securing lists, 6;

INDEX

- occupations investigated by state commission, 2; report on shops in Australia, 183-190, 254-263; state legislation to protect, 2; workroom conditions, 143. See also Factory Investigating Commission
- INSTRUCTION. See School Classes; Technical Institutes; Trade Schools
- INTERVIEWS: card record method, 21; conflicts of opinion, 23-24; employers furnish statistics, 19, 20, 22; investigators who took part, 23; milliners discuss trade schools, 157-159; number of women and employers interviewed, 20; repeated instances, 22; reports on inadequate wages, 167-171, 176-178; sources of names of milliners, 20, 21; with apprentices, 145, 147-148, 152; workers' co-operation, 19-23
- IRREGULARITY OF EMPLOYMENT: annual wages variable, 104-114; apprentices, 148; checking payrolls difficult, 17-18; factors in the problem, 159, 164; Factory Investigating Commission activities, 167-181; fashion the chief cause, 172, 194-196; "no annual earnings," 14; proposed measures to relieve, 168, 179-182, 192-196; record cards give data, 8-13; significance of the trade, 25-28; tabulation difficult, 1; trade school inquiries, 3-5; variations in style and season, 97-100; wage board regulations in Australia, 183-187; wage statistics for retail and wholesale, 197-204. See also Seasons
- LAMPSHADE MAKING: a subsidiary trade, 93; Manhattan Trade School class in, 4
- LEARNING: apprenticeship systems in foreign countries, 148-150, 185-188, 262-263; efficiency problems, 163-165; opportunities for advancement, 145-152; organization methods in retail and wholesale shops, 145-148; schooling attained by beginners, 153-155; significance of term, 144-145; training classes and standards, 156-162. See also Apprentices and Learners
- LEGISLATION: measures to regulate wages, 168, 179-183; payroll records inadequate, 19; remedies for inadequate training, 193-196; standards that need control, 165; study of wages by state commission, 2, 5; Supreme Court decision on women's working hours, 31-32; wage board practice in Australia, 183-192; when problems challenge attention, 166-167, 195-196
- LOCATION: census statistics, 52-56; defines character of trade, 37-39; New York establishments and branch of trade, 35; uptown trend of business, 36-37; sections identify trade, 7; typical groups, 6-7
- MANHATTAN TRADE SCHOOL: industrial education policy of, 156, 161-162; millinery study proposed by, 3-4
- MANUFACTURERS: contract system deficient, 39-40; designation of occupations, 45, 48,

INDEX

- 50; distribution by jobbers, 38, 39; factory salesrooms, 38-39; materials and products, 41; pressed hat industry, 41, 48; retail and wholesale processes, 42-49; seasonal risks, 57-58; state investigations to safeguard workers, 2; statistics unsatisfactory, 52-56; trade centers for, 39
- MEIGS, ELIZABETH L.: aids in investigations, 23
- MEN IN TRADE: census statistics, 52-56; in manufacturing lines, 13; millinery contractors, 39-40; pressed hat manufactories, 41, 48
- MINNEAPOLIS SURVEY: report on vocational education, 156
- NATIONALITY: comparative skill of workers, 68; discontent of foreign-born workers, 68-69; diversity in types, 65-68; English wage board legislation, 183-192, 255-263; foreign systems of apprenticeship, 148-150; general effect on the trade, 67-68; proportion of earnings, 114-115; proportion of foreign to native-born workers, 67; Russian workers' attempt to organize trade union, 68; statistics of women in retail and wholesale, 66
- NEIGHBORHOOD SHOPS: character of, 35-40; characteristic types of trade, 7, 35; location of, by branch of trade, 35-40; owners describe their business careers, 62-64; wage records lacking, 6; why locations change, 36-37
- NEW YORK: census of milliners in 1910, 13; classes in millinery, 156; department stores in state investigated, 11; distinctive trade centers, 6-7; employers' defense of low wages for learners, 147, 150; facts about the trade, 33-58; notes on wages of straw-braid sewers, 248-249; number of milliners, 172; shop employes in 1912, 13; wages in department store workrooms, 250-253; wage standards, 167-171, 175-178
- NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR: bulletin on straw sewers' wages, 248-249; department store unemployment, 80; industrial directory furnishes shop list, 6; statistics by, 54, 55
- OCCUPATIONS: apprentices and helpers, 45, 49, 50, 53, 54, 56; census statistics, 52-56; contractor methods, 39-40; copyists, 45, 47, 49; designation of women in wholesale trades, 48, 50; designing, and "Madame" who plans, 43-44, 45, 46, 50, 51, 57; division of processes, 42-52; forewoman's duties, 43-44, 46; hand workers, 41, 42-56; hat pressers, 41, 48; home workers, 17, 40, 142; jobbers' methods, 38, 39; machine work on straw hats, 41; occupational groups, 42-49; straw-braid sewers, 248-249; wholesale and retail methods, 42-56; work distribution in retail trade, 45, 50
- ODENCRANTZ, LOUISE C.: field work and statistics by, 3, 23
- PAYROLLS: a model, 16; cipher records, 19; designating

INDEX

- workers, 17; detailed statistics of irregularity of employment and wages, 197-204; difficulty of determining earnings, 17-18; diverse forms of, 15-19; earnings and annual income, 115-121; findings of Factory Investigating Commission, 167-179; legislation prescribed, 19; nine-hour standard, 18; numbers instead of names, 16, 17; seasonal unemployment and the trade, 77-86; study plan for, 5; time clocks for record keeping, 16; week work and piece work, 108-110
- PIECE WORKERS: overtime for, 142; payment methods for, 108-109, 112; payroll records for, 17, 18; provisions for, in Australia, 263; straw-braid sewers, 248-249; weekly earnings, retail and wholesale shops, 207, 211, 214, 216, 218
- PRATT INSTITUTE: millinery classes in, 4, 156
- PUBLIC CONTROL: budgets defining living costs show need of, 168-171; changing fashions a campaign for women, 195-196; conflict compels a hearing, 166; consumer responsible for irregular conditions, 172-173; Factory Investigating Commission on wages, 167-168, 179-182; inadequate wages a vital issue, 175-178; irregular employment and need for state control, 174-175; money wages versus real wages, 190-191; organized co-operation and the wage scale, 192-195; wage boards in Australia, 183-190
- PURCHASING: district changes, 36-37; Fifth Avenue the goal, 35-36; location and number of establishments, 35; neighborhood shops characteristic, 35-39; relation of retailers and wholesalers, 34; types of customers, 36-39; various methods of, 33-34
- REAL WAGES VERSUS MONEY WAGES, 190-191
- RECORD CARDS: current payroll record with statements of worker, 242; individual earnings on payroll, back of card, 241; individual earnings on payroll, front of card, 240; interview methods, 21; investigator's report of shop, 247; methods of using, 8-13; number of employes and total weekly wage, 238; number of workers, 11, 12-13; payroll statistics, 11-12; payroll time clocks, 16; questions answered by worker, 243; statistical record, 10, 11; wholesale and retail shops, 11, 13; worker's record in home interview, 244; work history, at home interview, 245; worker's report of shop, home interview, 246
- RETAIL TRADE: department store statistics, 250-253; Division Street customs, 7; employment of apprentices, 145-146, 147, 151; identity of retail-wholesale shops to retail, 205; number of shops and women employed, 10-13; rates of pay distinct from earnings, 205-234; seasonal fluctuations in wages, 71-76; statistics of irregularity of employment and wages, 197-204; statistics of

INDEX

- occupations, 45, 50; typical custom of securing trade, 7. See also Occupations
- RETAIL-WHOLESALE TRADE: employment and wage statistics for, 71-73, 76, 77, 79, 102; irregular employment and wage statistics, 198, 200, 203-204; seasons affect employment, 71-79; type of workmanship, 205
- RICHARDSON, ANNA M.: aids in investigations, 23
- RUSSELL SAGE FOUNDATION: studies by, 2, 3
- SCHOOL CLASSES: industrial problems, 155-165, 193; institutions that conduct, 3, 4; lampshade making, 4; publication of study by Russell Sage Foundation, 21; pupils interviewed, 4, 20, 21; suggestions for public control, 193
- SEASONS: alternating work periods, 77-78, 92; business life of establishments, 86-87; change, a trade characteristic, 93; changing fashions affect employment, 98, 174, 195; considerations to prevent losses, 57-58; diagrams showing relation of wages to workers, 72-75; difficult to adjust losses, 87-88; dull season occupations, 94-97; employment data of New York establishments, 102; employment record covering year, 89-90; estimating labor waste, 199-200; experience data for different branches, 91-92; fluctuating characteristics of trade, 1, 4-5; irregular employment and loss of wages, 70-81; irregular employment and the labor force, 197-204; loss of time and wages shown in table, 90-91; payroll statistics, 82, 84, 198-204; retail-wholesale shops and annual wage average, 71-76; securing the data, 1-8; statistics on length of experience and continuous employment, 84-85; style changes affect, 97-101; unemployment factors, 70; unemployment in department stores, 80; unemployment in other industries, 80-81; unemployment insurance may regulate, 195; unemployment twice in year, 76-77; when maximum force employed, 78-79
- SIGNIFICANCE OF THE TRADE: contrasted with other industries, 30; customs of the country, 27-28; facts that commend the trade, 29; industrial education problems, 31-32; labor legislation standards, 31-32; millinery a fundamental industry, 28; number of women employed in principal cities, 28-29; seeking out reasons, 25; social reform and economics, 25-27
- STANDARDS OF LIVING: adjustment of earnings, 125-130; co-operative methods, 127; legislation that would promote, 179-182, 193-196; milliners' budgets, 168-170, 177; moral issues, 130; personal and economic facts of workers, 59-64; statement of expenses, 126
- STATISTICS (TABLES): age at leaving school, 153; annual income for all work, 123; average wages in Victoria, Australia, 260; average weekly earnings, 139; average weekly earnings and duration of employment, 221; average weekly earnings, by occupations, 220; designation of occupations, 45, 48, 50; distribution of workers according to earnings, 117; experience in different branches, of women interviewed, 92; grade at leaving school, 154; last schools attended, 154; learners' wages, 150; location of trade centers investigated, 35; loss of time by milliners interviewed, 90; maximum and minimum number of employes and wage averages, 201; median weekly earnings, 113; median weekly earnings, by hours of labor, 231; median weekly wages, 163; number of employes and weekly wages, 198; occupations in dull seasons, and number of workers, 94; payroll data for various occupations, 82; piece and week workers' wages, by ages, 214; piece and week workers' wages, by occupations, 216; relation of annual earnings to estimated wages, 200; season of maximum employment, 77; shops, and women employed, 10; size of establishments in Victoria, Australia, 261; sources of names of milliners interviewed, 20; time employed of women in leading establishments, 102; total earnings, by occupations, 223; total earnings, by time in one shop, 224; wage rates for week and piece workers, 207; wage rates for week workers, 206; wages, by age, and employes in Victoria, Australia,

INDEX

261; week and piece workers' wages, by years in trade, 210; weekly earnings, by number and type of shop, 228-229; weekly earnings, by years in one establishment, 218; weekly earnings, by years in trade, 226; weekly earnings in various industries, 111; weekly hours of work, 140; weekly piece workers' earnings, by years in trade, 211; weekly wage rate, workers beginning before sixteen, 232; weekly wages, by ages, 213; weekly wages, workers beginning at sixteen or over, 233; weeks of employ of interviewed workers, 89; weeks of employ of maximum force, 79; weeks on annual payroll, by branches of trade, 203-204; week workers' wages, by occupations, 215; week workers' wages, by years in trade, 209; women in trade in Victoria, Australia, 259, 261; yearly income, by weeks employed, 227; years in present establishment and extent of experience, 85; years in trade of 50 establishments and maximum force, 86

STRAW-BRAID SEWERS: wages, and notes on, 248-249

STUDIES: co-operation in securing data, 1, 2-5, 6, 11, 250-253; record cards used in investigation, 237-247

TECHNICAL INSTITUTES: millinery schools and classes, 4; trade classes, 156. See also Education; Trade Schools

THIRD AVENUE: distinctive character of trade, 7

INDEX

- TRADE SCHOOLS: institutes contribute data, 4; institutes training milliners, 156; Manhattan Trade School for Girls, 3-4; methods interest employers, 22; milliners' opinions concerning, 157-159; promoting trade standards, 160-165. See also Education; Technical Institutes
- TRADE UNIONISM: benefit association founded, 135; facts that account for lack of, 69; Milliners' Union, 134; organization lacking, 133-134, 135; Russian workers attempt to organize, 68
- UNEMPLOYMENT. See Irregularity of Employment
- WAGE BOARD LEGISLATION: application to millinery urged, 181-183, 192-196; Factory Investigating Commission recommends, 179-180, 196; procedure in Victoria, Australia, 183-190, 255-263. See also Australia
- WAGES: adjustment to standards of living, 125-130; age a factor, 114; annual averages in retail-wholesale trade, 73-76; annual earnings and the median wage, 121-125; annual payroll statistics, 115-116; apprentices, 148, 149, 150-153; argument for a New York wage board, 192-196; budget estimates, 169-170, 177-178; cities of New York state investigated, 11; department store workrooms, 250-253; distribution of workers to weekly earnings, 117-118; estimating for piece workers, 137-138; Factory Investigating Commission on, 2-3, 5, 11; fines and deductions, 119; four kinds of data, 106-107; girls employed by contractor, 40; interpreting income, 105-107; irregularity of employment statistics, 197-204; low pay a menace, 2; median earnings, 119-121; methods of investigation, 5-6, 8, 10-12; minimum expense statement, 126; native and foreign-born workers, 114-115; overtime in small shops, 141-142; payroll records inadequate, 15-19; rate asked, and that received, 136-137; rates of pay distinct from earnings, 205-234; report of commission's investigation, 167-168, 171, 178-180; seasonal fluctuations affect, 70-81; state legislation to regulate, 2-3, 5, 11; straw-braid sewers, 248-249; unusual earnings, 104-105; variable scales of, 138-139; variation according to experience, 111-114; variations, and the median rate, 175-178, 184-190; Victoria wage board, 183-190, 254-263; wage boards determine minimum, 183-190; weekly earnings in various industries, 111; week work and piece work, 108-110
- WALTER, HENRIETTE R.: statistical work by, 23
- WEBB, SIDNEY: economic theory of wages, 192
- WEEK WORKERS: computing payrolls for, 17, 18; rate of wages in retail and wholesale shops, 206-210, 212-219; wage and conditions, 108, 109, 110, 125

INDEX

- WHOLESALE TRADE: department store statistics, 250-253; Division Street factories, 7; employers interviewed, 22; methods of, 34, 39, 46, 47-49, 51; number of firms employing apprentices, 145; number of shops and women employed, 10-13; occupational statistics, 48, 50, 56; rates of pay distributed from earnings, 205-234; seasonal fluctuations in wages, 71-76; statistics of irregularity of employment wages, 197-204; uptrend of business, 7

CHECKED
2003-04