

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Development of the work	5
Farm operators	6
Character of the farms	7
Methods used	9
Method of obtaining data	9
Work report	10
Ledger and cash books	11
Barn books	11
Ledger headings	11
Transfers between accounts	12
Comparison with industrial accounting	14
Interest on investment	15
Inventories	17
Importance of quantities	18
Human labor	18
Horse labor	20
Use of equipment	20
Stock accounts	20
Manure, lime, and grass seed	20
Real estate	21
Crop accounts	21
Subsorting entries	22
Closing accounts	22
Capital invested	24
Profits	26
Education of operators	28
Human labor	30
Sources and amounts of labor	30
Hours of labor	32
Relation of allowance for operator's time to profits	32
Cost of labor	32
Seasonal distribution of labor	36
Week-day and Sunday labor	42
Distribution of labor by enterprises	44
Distribution of direct and indirect labor	45
Estimated labor requirements on average New York farms	48
Labor in milk production including the raising of silage and hay	49
Horse labor	50
Relation of grain fed to other factors	53
Relation of hours worked to other factors	54
Seasonal distribution of horse labor	55
Distribution of horse labor by enterprises	62
Equipment	63
Real estate costs	66
Operators' houses	67
Tenant houses	67
Barns and other outbuildings	67
Crop land	67
Pasture and fences	67
Woodland	73
General expenses	73
Manure	73
Lime	78
Dairy cattle	80
Poultry	89
Farm poultry	89
Commercial poultry	93

	PAGE
Hogs.....	97
Sheep.....	101
Costs of producing crops.....	103
Alfalfa.....	105
Barley.....	107
Field beans.....	109
Buckwheat.....	111
Cabbage.....	113
Corn for grain.....	115
Corn for silage.....	117
Hay.....	119
Mangels for stock feed.....	121
Oats.....	122
Peaches.....	124
Pears.....	125
Potatoes.....	126
Rye.....	128
Wheat.....	130
Averages for seven years.....	132
Real estate.....	133
Human labor.....	133
Horse labor.....	133
Equipment.....	133
Cows.....	134
Hay.....	134
Oats.....	134
Barley.....	135
Corn for grain.....	135
Corn for silage.....	135
Potatoes.....	136
Cabbage.....	136
Alfalfa.....	136
Wheat.....	137
Beans.....	137
Buckwheat.....	137
Published records of farm business operations.....	138