

MUDIE'S SELECT LIBRARY,

(LIMITED.)

30 TO 34, NEW OXFORD STREET.

BRANCH OFFICES: { 241, BROMPTON ROAD, S.W.
48, QUEEN VICTORIA ST, E.C.

SUBSCRIPTION.

One Guinea Per Annum and upwards.

Dhananjayrao Gadgil Library

GIPE-PUNE-003132

SIR ROBERT PEEL

VOL. III .

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO., NEW-STREET SQUARE
LONDON

W. Lister & Co. Lith. Lond.

Lady Peel
from a mezzotint by Samuel Cousins, R.A. after a picture by Sir Thomas Lawrence, P.R.A.

SIR ROBERT PEEL

FROM HIS PRIVATE PAPERS

EDITED FOR HIS TRUSTEES BY

CHARLES STUART PARKER

SOMETIME M.P. FOR THE COUNTY AND FOR THE CITY OF PERTH AND LATE FELLOW OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, OXFORD

WITH A CHAPTER ON HIS LIFE AND CHARACTER
BY HIS GRANDSON, THE HON. GEORGE PEEL

IN THREE VOLS.—VOL. III.

LONDON

JOHN MURRAY, ALBEMARLE STREET

1899

V3, 217, 7488

C9.3

3132

CONTENTS

OF

THE THIRD VOLUME.

CHAPTER I.

INDIA, 1843-34.

	PAGE
Lord Ellenborough Punishes the Ameers of Scinde—Supported by Wellington, Fitzgerald, Ripon, and Peel—Annexes Scinde—Recalled by the Company—Rewarded by the Crown . . . . .	1

CHAPTER II.

IRELAND, 1841-1843.

O'Connell and Repeal—The Irish Government—De Grey, Eliot, Sugden—The Law Officers—National Education—Patronage—Chief Secretary and Lord Lieutenant—Repeal Agitation—Poverty of the Tenantry—Payment of the Priests—County Franchise . . . . .	34
---	----

CHAPTER III.

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND, 1834-1843.

The Ten Years' Conflict—Patronage—'Taking on Trials'—The Call—Veto Act—Collision with Civil Courts—A Policy of Reserve—Spiritual Independence—Demand for Abolition of Patronage—Claim of Right—Convocation of Ministers—Answers from the Crown—Answer from Parliament—Letters to and from the Queen—Secession—Majority or Minority?—Free Church and Old Church . . . . .	69
--	----

CHAPTER IV.

IRELAND, 1844.

Policy for Ireland Discussed—In Cabinet—In Debate—In Letters—Roman Catholic Barristers—A new Lord Lieutenant—Trial by Jury—Working the Press—Federalism—Prosecution of O'Connell—Board of Charitable Bequests . . . . .
---	--

CHAPTER V.

1844.

Bank Charter Act—Prediction of its Working in a Crisis—Disraeli's Party Allegiance—Factory Act—Brunow on Peel's Speech—Budget—Sugar Duties—Sandon and Ashley—Stanley goes to the Lords—Gladstone's Difficulties on Maynooth—Proposed Solution—Royal Visits . . . . .	PAGE 134
--	-------------

CHAPTER VI.

1845.

Resignation of Gladstone—Second Free Trade Budget—Protectionist Discontent—Maynooth—Academical Institutions for Ireland—Irish Tenants' Compensation—A Roman Catholic Under Secretary for Ireland—National Defence—Overwork of the Prime Minister—Orange Disturbances—Cónciliation and Coercion—Free Trade in Food . . . . .	163
---	-----

CHAPTER VII.

NATIONAL DEFENCE, 1844-45.

Defence of Canada—Commission on Naval Defence—Effect of Steam Navigation—Bridges across the Channel—Wellington's Official Protest—Peel's Reply—Choice of Evils—State of Defensive Forces—Increase of the Army—Personal Supervision—Overwork of the Prime Minister . . . . .	195
---	-----

CHAPTER VIII.

OCTOBER TO DECEMBER 1845.

The Corn Law Question—Changed Opinions—'Gradual Abatement of Protection'—Peel on Free Trade—Howick and Melbourne on Peel—Failure of Potato Crop—Remedies—Proposed Suspension of Corn Laws—Cabinet Meetings—Dissent of Colleagues—Lord Lincoln's Advice—Peel's Criticism—Correspondence with the Queen—Resignation—Lord John Russell undertakes to form a Government—Peel sent for to bid the Queen Farewell . . . . .	220
---	-----

CHAPTER IX.

INDIA, 1844-45.

Hardinge Governor-General—His Policy towards the Punjab—Satisfaction of Nesselrode—Ellenborough's Self-vindication—Sikh Government and Army—Home News—Free Trade Budget—Maynooth—Irish Policy—Hardinge on High Tory Defections—Peel on the Dissolution of his Government—Counsels Hardinge to remain . . . . .	256
--	-----

CHAPTER X.

1845-46.

Lord John Russell fails to form a Government—Peel's Resignation by Command withdrawn—Stanley leaves the Cabinet—Vacancies filled—Third Free Trade Budget . . . . .	PAGE 283
--	-------------

CHAPTER XI.

INDIA, 1845-46.

Sikh Invasion—Ferozpoore—Sir Hugh Gough—Criticism at Home— Sobraon—Sikh Submission—Terms of Peace—Thanks of Parlia- ment—Rewards . . . . .	295
--	-----

CHAPTER XII.

1846.

Moving the Address—Exposition of Policy—Rancour of Cobden—Re- monstrance of his Friends—Explanations—Resignations—Letters to old Supporters—Obstruction of Free Trade Bills . . . . .	322
---	-----

CHAPTER XIII.

JUNE 1846

Organised Revenge—' Boldness and Dexterity '—Protection of Life in Ireland—Conversion of Lord George Bentinck, Lord John Russell, and their Followers—Advice of Charles Villiers—Of Wellington— Of Brougham—False Charge by Lord George Bentinck—Revived by Disraeli—' Abominable Combination '—Wellington's ' Blood up '—Peel's Forecast—Wellington's Comments—Victory on the Corn and Tariff Bills—Defeat on Ireland—Advice from Cobden and Brougham—Tribute to Cobden—European Opinion—Arthur Stanley—Croker—Carlyle . . . . .	349
---	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN, 1841-46.

Difficulties in Canada—Peel's Counsel—Bagot's Action—Wellington's Anger—Questions with the United States—Ashburton Treaty— Palmerston's Criticism—Relations with France— Entente cordiale —National Defence—Proposed Resignation of Aberdeen—Prevented by Peel . . . . .	379
---	-----

CHAPTER XV.

PATRONAGE, 1841-46.

Exercise of Patronage as Irish Secretary and as Prime Minister— Church Preferment in Ireland, Scotland, England—Peerages— Baronetcies—Pensions and Royal Bounty—Whig Pensions— Wordsworth—Tennyson—Hood—Owen—Bell—Forbes—Murchi- son—Brown—Hamilton—Faraday—Haydon—Shee . . . . .	413
---	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

1846-47.

Withdrawal to Drayton—Farewell Letter to the Queen—Messages from the Political World—Hume—Brougham—Graham—Wellington—Aberdeen—Bulwer—Dr. List—Bunsen—Whig Administration in Ireland—Correspondence with Hardinge . . . . .	PAGE 451
--	-------------

CHAPTER XVII.

1847-48.

Peel a Spectator—Letters to King Leopold—Famine in Ireland—The Whigs seek Advice—General Election—Tamworth Letter—Peelite Success—Peel declines Presidency of Royal Society—Diplomatic Relations with Rome—Revolutions on the Continent—State of England and Ireland—Records of Cabinet Councils . . . . .	477
--	-----

CHAPTER XVIII.

1849.

Whig Overtures to Graham—Repeal of the Navigation Laws—Peel's Aid invoked—Peel on a United Germany—Maiden Speech of Frederick Peel—Latest Counsels of Sir Robert Peel—His Policy for Ireland—'Measures commensurate with the Evils'—Encumbered Estates Act—Advice to Lord Clarendon—National University for Ireland—Reaction against Free Trade, in England, and in Ireland . . . . .	500
---	-----

CHAPTER XIX.

1850.

Letter to the Drayton Tenants—Disraeli's Motion on Agricultural Distress—Supported by Gladstone—Defeated by Peel—Efforts to restore Protection—Foreign Policy of Palmerston—Coercion of Greece—Alienation of France and Russia—Censured by the Lords—Supported by the Commons—Peel's last Speech—Diplomacy, its Use and Abuse—Fatal Accident and Death—National Grief—Private Letters . . . . .	528
A SUMMARY OF THE LIFE OF SIR ROBERT PEEL . . . . .	561
LINES ON SIR ROBERT PEEL . . . . .	623
INDEX . . . . .	627

ILLUSTRATIONS

NEW DRAYTON HALL . . . . .	. Title-page
LADY PEEL . . . . .	Frontispiece
After the picture by Sir Thomas Lawrence, P.R.A.
DRAYTON MANOR . . . . .	To face p. 452
STATUE OF SIR ROBERT PEEL IN WESTMINSTER ABBEY . . . . .	page 622

INDEX

ABBOTT

ABBOTT, Chief Justice, i. 399
Abercrombie, Dr., iii. 97
Abercromby, Lord, ii. 273
Aberdeen, Lord, ii. 157-159, 166, 211, 232-236, 240, 266, 367, 376;
in Peel's Cabinet, ii. 392; Wellington on Canada Bill, ii. 443; at one with Peel, ii. 460; Scottish Church Bill, ii. 467, 472.

ALBERT

Pope, iii. 493; his and Palmerston's foreign policy, iii. 535, 539, 540; Guizot on Peel's death,
iii. 552; his letter to Princess Lieven, iii. 553; Lady Peel's letter, iii. 555; and his reply, iii.
556 Academical Institutions (Ireland)
Bill, iii. 176

Subscribers, and others, wishing to purchase Early Second-Hand copies of this work are requested to send their names to the Librarian who will forward particulars of price as soon as the book can be spared for sale.

posed retirement deprecated by Peel, Wellington, and Graham, iii. 401-407; on Ellenborough
at the Admiralty, iii. 411;
Princess Lieven, iii. 456; on the Russell, iii. 241; Wellington and the command-in-chief, iii. 243;

Russell's scruples, iii. 250-253;
Russell's refusal to take office,
iii. 283, 284; Cobden's outburst,

Gemunt ab imo corde Britanniae ;
Europa surdo moeret inops metu ;
Et Victor Europae senili
Dux lacrima decorabit urnam.

At vos, propago digna patris, mei
Quondam sodales, cum quibus aureum
Tam saepe deduxisse solem
Moris erat viridi sub Herga,

Solamen orbi quod licet unicum
Praestate ; factis nobilibus patrem
Nigro repensum de sepulcro
Reddite consiliis Britannum.

INDEX

ABBOTT

Abbott, Chief Justice, i. 399
Abercrombie, Dr., iii. 97
Abercromby, Lord, ii. 273
Aberdeen, Lord, ii. 157-159, 166, 211, 232-236, 240, 266, 367, 376; in Peel's Cabinet, ii. 392; Wellington on Canada Bill, ii. 443; at one with Peel, ii. 460; Scottish Church Bill, ii. 467, 473; Foreign Office, ii. 482; appoints Stratford Canning Minister at Constantinople, ii. 485; in Scotland with the Queen, ii. 543; the life of a public man, ii. 559; Factory Bill, ii. 560; on 'united education,' ii. 561; a conversation with the Queen, ii. 571; the Veto Act, iii. 72, 75-77; Scottish Church Patronage, iii. 83; the vacancy at Florence, iii. 161; the admission of maize, iii. 226; supports Peel's proposals, iii. 229; Brunow on the Punjab, iii. 276; and Wellington, iii. 292; on Peel's probable retirement, iii. 363; Peel on Boundary question, iii. 387-389; our relations with France, iii. 390, 401, 409; Guizot and Ste.-Aulaire, iii. 392; on the Queen's visit to Louis Philippe, iii. 393; the Tahiti affair, iii. 394; his protest against Wellington's national defence scheme, iii. 396; Peel's speech for France, iii. 398; Louis Philippe's folly, iii. 399; Guizot, iii. 400, 409; his proposed retirement deprecated by Peel, Wellington, and Graham, iii. 401-407; on Ellenborough at the Admiralty, iii. 411; Princess Lieven, iii. 456; on the

ALBERT

Pope, iii. 493; his and Palmerston's foreign policy, iii. 535, 539, 540; Guizot on Peel's death, iii. 552; his letter to Princess Lieven, iii. 553; Lady Peel's letter, iii. 555; and his reply, iii. 556
Academical Institutions (Ireland) Bill, iii. 176
Adare, Lord, i. 307
Adelaide, Queen, iii. 340, 511
'Advertiser,' the, ii. 398
Afghanistan, ii. 481, 581-600; iii. 1
'Age,' the, ii. 96
Agricultural Distress, debate on, iii. 532
Ailsa, Marquis of, ii. 271, 527
Airy, Professor, Astronomer Royal, ii. 307, 308; iii. 445
Airy, Mrs., ii. 307, 308
Akbar, ii. 594, 597
Albert, Prince, ii. 408, 413, 414; Government defeated on proposed Grant for, ii. 432; Peel and the Queen's Household, ii. 455-458, 464; birth of Prince of Wales, ii. 511; a chasse in Windsor Park with Peel, ii. 518; visit to Scotland, ii. 537-545; on Ellenborough's recall, iii. 22; Scottish Church, iii. 98; on the Irish Catholic prelates, iii. 128; on O'Connell, iii. 133; a list of Peel's guests, iii. 162; Income Tax Bill, iii. 170; proposed visit to Ireland, iii. 181; the Queen's interview with Russell, iii. 241; Wellington and the command-in-chief, iii. 243; Russell's scruples, iii. 250-253; Russell's refusal to take office, iii. 283, 284; Cobden's outburst,

ALBERT

iii. 329; Peel's speech on second reading of Corn Bill, iii. 339; analysis of the division, iii. 342; Cobden's speech, iii. 343; Royal visit to Ireland postponed, iii. 463; a 'frightful state of things' in Ireland, iii. 465; on Peel's Tamworth address, iii. 487; clouds on the political horizon, iii. 490; 'the many awful events,' iii. 495; Cabinet Minutes, iii. 499; National University for Ireland, iii. 521; Peel's death, iii. 547, 548

Algeria, the French in, iii. 314

Ali Morad, iii. 263

Alison, Mr., ii. 267

Alison, Sir Archibald, ii. 327

Alston, Mr., ii. 350

Althorp, Lord. See Spencer, Lord

America, ii. 356, 462, 481, 492; supports Repeal in Ireland, iii. 46; hostile to England, iii. 195, 216; the Oregon question, iii. 318, 324, 371; welcomes Peel's Corn Bill, iii. 374; the Boundary question, iii. 386-389

Anglesey, Lord, ii. 6; 'a good courier,' ii. 8; Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, ii. 33, 61; advises concession, ii. 50; a bitter draught, ii. 65; his recall, ii. 66-72

Anson, G. E., ii. 455-458, 463, 525

Anstruther, Captain Robert, an early friend, i. 14, 447

Anti-Corn Law League, ii. 218, 222, 224, 510, 524, 530, 557, 570; iii. 47, 334

'Anti-Union,' the, ii. 161

Apsley, Lord, i. 34, 46

Arbuthnot, C., Secretary to Treasury, i. 40, 47, 79, 433, 452, 457, 482, 491, ii. 2; on the King's attitude, ii. 3, 5, 178; his sore misgivings, ii. 10; Patronage Secretary, ii. 13; on the King and Wellington, ii. 18, 19; Woods and Forests, ii. 30; on suppression of Roman Catholic Association, ii. 103; Whig overtures, ii. 163, 167; and Croker, ii. 171; Government's Reform plans, ii. 176; Peel on Reform riots, ii. 189; relations between Wellington and Peel, ii. 232, 240,

ARGYLL.

319, 442, iii. 219, 291, 361; a significant conversation, ii. 244, 247; Molesworth's motion, ii. 359; Brougham, ii. 369; Peel at Belvoir Castle, ii. 373; Conservative leaders' prudence, ii. 375, 377; Peel has no wish for office, ii. 387; Wellington as Foreign Secretary, ii. 391; the Queen and Prince Albert, ii. 408; Wellington's health, ii. 412; Croker never to be depended on, ii. 414; Peel for action, ii. 424; the Grant for Prince Albert, ii. 432, 433; on Wellington's intentions—Irish Municipal Bill and Canada, ii. 440, 443; a peacemaker, ii. 447, 450; the Household question, ii. 459; Wellington on Peel's new Cabinet, ii. 460, 483; Ministers' intention to dissolve, ii. 463; on Lord Londonderry, ii. 483; trouble at Manchester, ii. 510; Peel on import of foreign cattle, ii. 527; distress at Paisley, ii. 532; Wellington Commander-in-Chief, ii. 535, iii. 457; India, ii. 579; Wellington and Ireland, iii. 63; Lord Spencer on Peel's Budget, iii. 170; Wellington on national defence, iii. 201; Peel resumes office, iii. 290; his opinion of Russell, iii. 291; Peel reconstructing the Government, ibid.; Peel's Free Trade policy, iii. 326; Russell and the Protection Bill, iii. 345-347; Wellington on the Protection Bill, iii. 351; true relations between Peel, Liverpool, and Canning, iii. 358, 360; Lady Lyndhurst's canard, iii. 362; Wellington on Bagot's Canadian policy, iii. 382-385; the Boundary question, iii. 387; our warning to France, iii. 400; Stanley on Irish agriculture, iii. 517; a croaking country banker, iii. 518; Peel's death, iii. 545

Arbuthnot, Mrs., i. 483

Arbuthnot, George, iii. 359

Arbuthnot, Sir Thomas, ii. 541

Argyll, Duke of, Wellington on Scottish Church, ii. 468; his Bill, ii. 470, 473; Peel on the Bill, ii. 471; the Veto Act, iii.

ARGYLL

- 72; Dr. Chalmers' conversion, iii. 81
 Army, increase of, iii. 215
 Arnold, Dr. Thomas, ii. 146
 Arran, Lord, iii. 19
 Arrivabene, Count, iii. 373
 Arthur, Sir George, ii. 439, 441; iii. 29
 Ashburton, Lord, ii. 482; consulted by Peel on finance, ii. 498; approves of Property Tax, ii. 500; Graham on indirect taxation, ii. 504; memorandum on Corn Laws, ii. 507; the Boundary question, iii. 386; will not speak on repeal of Navigation Laws, iii. 505
 Ashley, Lord, the Bedchamber question, ii. 392, 393, 399; on Melbourne and the Radicals, ii. 404; the Queen and Prince Albert, ii. 408; a Protestant point, ii. 414; the language of thousands, ii. 466; leader of the Protestants, ii. 474; Mining Reform, ii. 534; children in factories, ii. 548; Drummond's assassination, ii. 554; on Ellenborough's Soinde policy, iii. 7; his motion on the Factory Act, iii. 147, 148; misunderstood by Peel, iii. 154; Bright's motion on Game Laws, iii. 179; on Hardinge, iii. 307; asks for Chiltern Hundreds, iii. 337; on Peel's interment in Westminster Abbey, iii. 550
 Assassination Bill (Ireland), iii. 344, 352, 367
 Aston, Mr., iii. 391
 Attwood, Mr., i. 380-382
 Auckland, Lord, ii. 575, 578, 580, 589; on Ellenborough's recall, iii. 269
 Augereau, i. 175
 Augsburg, Confession of, iii. 69
 Austin, James, ii. 401
 Austria, iii. 373
- BAGOT, Sir Charles, Governor of Canada, iii. 44, 379-386, 388
 Bagwell, Right Hon. W., i. 149
 Bailly, M., Mémoires de, ii. 325
 Bank Charter Act, ii. 572; iii. 134-143, 570
 Bank of England, iii. 134-143

BLICK

- Bank Restriction Act, i. 289 et seq.
 Bankes, Mr., i. 75, 100
 Banks, Sir Joseph, iii. 447
 Baring, W., ii. 264, 467, 570; iii. 508
 Barker, Mr., ii. 38
 Baronetcies and peerages, Peel's practice and motives in bestowal of, iii. 426-435
 Barrow, Mr., ii. 304
 Barry, Colonel, i. 169
 Bathurst, Lord, i. 30, 33, 313, 336, 374, 433, 488; ii. 8, 18, 81, 227
 Bavaria, King of, ii. 352
 Bayly, Henry, ii. 370-372
 Beaufort, Duchess of, ii. 466
 Beaufort, Duke of, ii. 227
 Beckett, Sir John, i. 35, 481
 Bedford, Duchess of, ii. 456, 458, 459
 Bedford, Duke of, ii. 178; the Bedchamber question, ii. 458, 459; Lord John Russell and Lord George Bentinck, iii. 344, 346; Lady Lyndhurst's canard, iii. 362; repeal of Navigation Laws, iii. 504; Arbuthnot's croaking country banker, iii. 524; 'a war of classes,' iii. 525
 Belgium, revolution in, ii. 159
 Bell, Dr., i. 156
 Bell, Lady, iii. 447
 Bell, Sir Charles, iii. 447
 Bellew, Dr. (Bishop of Killala), i. 93
 Bennett, Mr., i. 192, 202
 Benson, Colonel, iii. 299
 Bentinck, Lord George, i. 376; iii. 345, 346; Irish Protection of Life Bill, iii. 349, 350, 355; his attack on Peel, iii. 356; a gleam of sense, iii. 489
 Beresford, Lord George, i. 409
 Beresford, Lord, ii. 141
 Bernadotte a hypocrite, i. 138
 Bernal, Mr., ii. 292
 Bessborough, Lord, iii. 466
 Beverley, Lord, iii. 308
 Bexley, Lord, ii. 11, 29
 Bimetallism, i. 394
 Bird, Mr., iii. 32
 Bisset, Miss, iii. 458
 Blake, Mr., iii. 174
 Blakesley, Dean (Lincoln), iii. 552
 Blandford, Lord, ii. 176
 Blick, Rev. Francis, i. 11

BLOMFIELD

Blomfield, Dr., Bishop of London, ii. 77, 284, 550, 560; iii. 422
 Bolivar, i. 354, 368
 Bonaparte, i. 25, 28, 41; peace with, i. 127; defeated by allies, i. 128; return from Elba, i. 170; at Lyons, i. 172; at St. Helena, i. 183
 Bonapartists of Ireland, i. 172
 Bonham, Mr., ii. 414, 428, 469
 Borodino, battle of, i. 41
 Bosanquet, Mr., banker, iii. 140
 Bourne, Sturges, ii. 21, 35
 Bowring, Dr., ii. 250
 Boyd, Mr., M.P. for Coleraine, iii. 425
 Boyle, David, Lord Justice Clerk, Scotland, iii. 428, 483
 Brazil, negotiations with, ii. 498
 Breadalbane, Marquis of, ii. 545
 Brennan, Patriok, ii. 137
 Brewster, Sir D., iii. 445
 Bridge, Rev. R., Peel's tutor, i. 17
 Bridges, Sir John, ii. 141
 Briggs, Mr., ii. 39
 Bright, John, M.P. for Durham, ii. 568; on Game Laws, iii. 179; on Peel's Free Trade speech, iii. 522; on Peel's last speech, iii. 542
 Bristol, Reform riots at, ii. 189
 British Association, iii. 492
 'British Critic,' the, ii. 475
 Broadfoot, Major, iii. 277, 300
 Brodie, Sir Benjamin, iii. 545
 Brotherton, General, iii. 271
 Brougham, Lord, i. 61, 343; ii. 4, 14, 21; on Roman Catholic Association Bill, ii. 103; Whig overtures, ii. 165; his view of political unions, ii. 192; on the King and his Ministers, ii. 255, 265; a feeler, ii. 360; and Croker, ii. 369, 374, 376, 395, 399, 414; Hardinge and Arbuthnot on, ii. 369; plans of education, ii. 553; Drummond's assassination, ii. 555; on O'Connell's prosecution and conviction, iii. 68, 124, 125; the Veto Act, iii. 71; the Maynooth Bill, iii. 175; on Adam Smith, iii. 193; advises withdrawal of Protection Bill, iii. 354; in praise of Peel, iii. 357; his counsel against resignation, iii. 369; Graham a peer (?), iii. 370; on Peel's tribute to Cobden,

CALCRAFT

iii. 372; urges Peel to stand for City, iii. 485; some slavery crotchet, iii. 504
 Brown, Colonel, i. 192, 201, 202
 Brown, Robert, botanist, iii. 446, 447
 Brown, Dr. T., Church and State in Scotland, iii. 93
 Brummell, Beau, i. 227
 Brunow, Baron, iii. 149, 276
 Buccleuch, Duchess of, ii. 543; iii. 90, 113
 Buccleuch, Duke of, ii. 519, 542; iii. 240, 264, 285, 287, 288, 291, 327, 504
 Buckingham, Duke of, i. 221, 334, 383; ii. 382, 482, 505, 520
 Buckland, Dr., Dean of Westminster, iii. 162, 417; on Owen's claims for a pension, iii. 445; on Robert Brown's claims, iii. 446
 Buller, Charles, ii. 385; iii. 328, 330, 426
 Bulwer, Sir Henry L., iii. 177, 341, 392, 458, 509
 Bulwer's Palmerston, cited, ii. 165
 Bunbury, E. H., iii. 341
 Bunsen, Chevalier, iii. 373, 460, 505, 506
 Burdett, Sir Francis, i. 39, 372, 451; ii. 46, 190, 414
 Burgh, Sir Ulysses, ii. 141
 Burke, Michael, i. 135
 Burke and Hare, ii. 44
 Burrell, Sir Charles, ii. 531
 Bushe, Chief Justice for Ireland, i. 71, 80, 302; iii. 426
 Butler, Dr. H. M., Dean of Peterborough, iii. 419, 560
 Butt, Mr., iii. 123
 Byng, Mr., ii. 71
 Byron, Lord, with Peel at Harrow, i. 13, 25
 CABINET COUNCILS, History of, iii. 496
 Cabul, Macnaghten's murder at, ii. 581, 583; British captives in, ii. 586, 591; Nott's advance on, ii. 592, 594, 599, 600; occupied by Pollock, ii. 597; rescue of captives, ibid.
 Caird, Mr., on Irish agriculture, iii. 517, 518
 Calcrafft, Mr., ii. 21

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge, Trinity College, ii. 283;
 King's College, ii. 285
 Cambridge, Duchess of, ii. 409
 Camden, Lord, ii. 321, 402, 476
 Campbell, John, ii. 361
 Campbell, Lord, iii. 124, 170
 Campbell, Sir Hay, iii. 428
 Camperdown, Lord, ii. 409
 Canada, rebellion in, ii. 354-358,
 362, 381; Peel's memorandum on union of Upper and Lower,
 ii. 435; Wellington's scheme, ii.
 439, 440; Bill passed, ii. 444;
 defences of, iii. 195, 197, 216;
 Bagot's policy, iii. 379-386; the Boundary question, iii. 386;
 Peel's views, iii. 389
 Candlish, Dr. Robert S., iii. 54, 75, 77
 Candy, Mr., ii. 570
 Canning, George, i. 44, 45; Catholic question, i. 67, 297, 311-314, 345, 372, 466; Oxford election, i. 250; resignation, i. 298; proposed viceroy of India, i. 300; leadership of House of Commons, i.
 327 et seq.; opinion of Peel, i.
 331, 487, 490; the King, i. 335;
 the Brougham incident, i. 343;
 Exchequer bills, i. 396; Sievrac,
 i. 407; Lord Liverpool's illness,
 i. 450; reconstruction of Government—Wellington's, Peel's, and his own claims, i. 451 et seq.;
 embarrassed by Catholic claims,
 i. 458; Prime Minister, i. 463;
 friendly relations with Peel, i.
 464, 487, 493; Peel's reason for resigning, i. 466; six ministerial resignations, i. 487 et seq.; Whig coalition, i. 491; illness and death, i. 493; effect of his death on political parties, ii. 1 et seq.; the uncompromising foe of Reform, ii. 174, 176; Corn Laws, iii. 220; relations between Peel, Liverpool, and, iii. 358-360
 Canning, Mrs., i. 449
 Canning, Lord, ii. 482
 Canning, Sir Stratford, ii. 485 Canterbury, Archbishop of. See
 Howley, Dr.
 Canterbury, Lord, ii. 477
 Cardwell, Dr., iii. 419
 Cardwell, Lord, Vice-President of
 Board of Trade, i. 30, iii. 168;
 Peel's illness, iii. 457, 480;

CHURCH

famine in Ireland, iii. 481; M.P. for Liverpool, iii. 488; Navigation Laws, iii. 503; Peel v. Protection, iii. 534; Brodie on Peel's death, iii. 545
 Cardwell, Mrs., i. 9
 Carew, R. S., i. 231
 Carlile, Mr., ii. 168
 Carlisle, Lord, ii. 13
 Carlyle, Thomas, iii. 377
 Caroline, Queen, i. 297, 298
 Cashel, Archbishop of, i. 125
 Cashel, Peel member for, i. 24;
 gives up, i. 40, 41
 Cashmere, insurrection in, iii. 474
 Cassilis, Lord, i. 493
 Castlemaine, Lord, i. 124
 Castlereagh, Lord, iii. 425
 Cathcart, Lord, i. 41
 Cathedral Reform, ii. 411
 Catholic. See Roman Catholic
 Central Asia, iii. 258
 Chalmers, Dr., ii. 409, iii. 70, 72, 73, 76; the liberum arbitrium,
 iii. 78, 79; his Memoirs, quoted,
 iii. 81, 93, 95; convocation of Ministers, iii. 88; his forecast,
 iii. 98
 Chandos, Marquis of, ii. 179, 195
 Channel Islands, defence of, iii. 197,
 199, 205
 Chantrey, Sir Francis, ii. 510
 Charitable Trusts Act, 1843, iii.
 126-133
 Charles I. and the Coronation Oath,
 ii. 220
 Charles X., i. 130; dethroned, ii.
 156-158
 Charles Alexander, Grand Duke of Saxony, iii. 549
 Chartists, ii. 510, 538, 543, 546
 Chatham, Lord, and Parliamentary Reform, ii. 173
 Chelsea Pensioners Bill, ii. 568
 China, war with, ii. 481
 Christina, Queen of Spain, iii. 390,
 393
 Church in Scotland, the, ii. 418,
 423, 429, 430, 467-474, iii. 54;
 in 1834-1843, iii. 69-100; the Patronage question, iii. 69, 72, 85, 415; Dr. Chalmers on the 'call,' iii. 70; General Assembly,
 iii. 71, 72, 80, 84, 85, 91; Convocation of Ministers, iii. 88, 90-98; Free Church and Old Church, iii. 99

CHURCH

Church Bill, Irish, ii. 216, 224, 290
 'Church Briefs,' ii. 37
 Church Extension, ii. 547, 563
 Church Patronage, Ireland, iii. 414; Scotland, iii. 415; England, iii. 416; Peel's Act, iii. 422
 Church Reform (England), ii. 283, 284
 Cicero, Pro Plancio, ii. 106; Pro Sestio, iii. 491
 Civil List pensions, iii. 436
 'Claim of Right,' the, iii. 85, 89, 91
 Clare, Lord, ii. 512; iii. 181
 Clare election, ii. 47, 99
 Clarence, Duke of, i. 489; ii. 42, 76, 100
 Clarendon, Lord, Peel's proposed commission on Ireland, iii. 513; Mr. Caird's advice: Stanley's gloomy views, iii. 517; a National University for Ireland, iii. 520, 521
 Clearing House, the, iii. 141
 Clerk, Sir George, ii. 188; iii. 83
 Clive, Lady Harriet, ii. 403
 Clive, Lord, i. 329
 Cloncurry, Lord, ii. 73
 Clonfert, Bishop of, i. 131
 Coal strikes, ii. 549
 Cobbett, William, i. 356, 407; ii. 213
 Cobden, F., ii. 522, 558
 Cobden, Richard, ii. 522; obstructs direct taxation, ii. 524; a painful incident, ii. 556; opposes Chelsea Pensioners Bill, ii. 568; votes for income tax, iii. 169; his Sunderland speech, iii. 193; his rancour against Peel, iii. 328-333, 338; second reading of Corn Bill, iii. 343; his advice to Peel, iii. 367; Peel's tribute to, iii. 372
 Cochrane, Lord, i. 163, 181
 Cochrane, Sir Thomas, ii. 469
 Cockburn, Rev. William (Dean of York), i. 197; ii. 95, 109
 Cockburn, Sir George, ii. 42; iii. 217
 Colchester, Lord (Speaker Abbot), i. 39, 85, 157, 250
 Collins, Dr., Dean of Killala, iii. 121
 Collis, Mr., iii. 64
 Coltman, Judge, iii. 124

CROKER

Combe, Mr., iii. 329, 330
 Combination Laws, i. 379; ii. 418
 Compton, Lord, i. 80
 Comyn, Peter, ii. 146-151
 'Confession of Faith' (Scotland), iii. 70
 Connor, iii. 37
 Conservatism, false and true, iii. 273, 274, 309; origin and progress under Peel, iii. 573, 617
 Conyngham, Lady, i. 317, 482, 493; ii. 18
 Conyngham, Lord, i. 180; ii. 148, 150
 Cook, Dr., iii. 79, 80
 Copleston, Rev. Dr., pamphlet on Currency, i. 291, 292; suggeste as Primate of Ireland, i. 325; candidate for bishopric of Oxford, i. 445; ii. 23
 Corballis, Mr., iii. 174
 Corn Laws, ii. 379, 382, 463, 497, 499, 504, 505, 507, 522, 530, 551; iii. 220, 224, 227, 229, 231, 235, 240, 281, 292, 323, 326, 335, 336, 339, 345, 347, 348, 371, 374, 531, 589-604
 Corne, Rev. W., i. 252
 Coronation Oath, value of, ii. 218
 Corporate Reform (Ireland), ii. 322, 324, 345, 434
 'Correspondent,' the, i. 114
 Corry, John, i. 5
 Cosby, ii. 137
 Cottenham, Lord, iii. 79, 124
 Cotton, Mr., Chairman of East India Company, iii. 11
 County Franchise (Ireland), iii. 52, 68, 110
 'Courier,' the, i. 114, 234, 236
 Cowley, Lord, ii. 268, 400
 Cox, Hayward, ii. 229
 Cox, Miss, ii. 403
 Cramer, Dr., Dean of Carlisle, iii. 419
 Craufurd, Mr., ii. 223
 Criminal Law Reform, i. 377; ii. 37
 Crofton, Sir Edward, i. 141, 151
 Croker, J. W., i. 45; on Curwen's Bill, i. 47; Peel and Government patronage, i. 48, 49, 54 et seq.; Irish elections, i. 63; in Paris and Brussels with Peel, i. 182; on Peel and O'Connell, i. 195; his peace salary, i. 216; on Peel's retirement from Ireland, i. 268;

CROKER

Irish boards, i. 280; on leadership of House of Commons, i. 327-331; Lord Liverpool's supposed conversion to popery, i. 371; explanations and letters to Peel, i. 468-474; death of Peel's father, ii. 151; loses his seat, ii. 156; Tory schism, ii. 171; Peel and Reform, ii. 175, 186, 203, 215, 224; on Reform Bill, ii. 181, 184, 204; Peel on counter-associations, ii. 190, 191; a screw loose, ii. 192; Peel's magnanimity, ii. 215; on Peel's Cabinet, ii. 261; Stanley's intentions, ii. 277; on Church Reform, ii. 284; and Brougham, ii. 369, 374, 376, 395, 399, 414, iii. 193; Wellington's opinion of, ii. 376; collecting 'accurate' information, ii. 395; the Queen and Prince Albert, ii. 412; Peel and the elections, ii. 475; Peel's Free Trade convictions, ii. 529; Peel on Charitable Trusts Act, iii. 130; Graham on 'our country gentlemen,' iii. 172; Maynooth Bill, iii. 175; Peel on Lord Clare, iii. 181; Brougham on Adam Smith, iii. 193; Corn Laws: the 'Croker Papers,' quoted, iii. 374; on Wilberforce, iii. 416

Crolly, Archbishop, iii. 126, 132

Crown livings, iii. 422

Cumberland, Duke of, i. 180, 263; ii. 67, 118, 178, 216, 282, 322, 323, 353, 374

Cunningham, Mr., iii. 75, 77

Currency, the, i. 289 et seq.

Currie, Hardinge's Chief Secretary, iii. 300

Curwen's Act, i. 38, 39, 47

Curzon, Robert, ii. 197

Custom House, ii. 569

Customs Bill, iii. 270

Cuvier, iii. 433

Dacre, Lord, ii. 183, 184

Dalhousie, Lord, President Board of Trade, iii. 168, 287, 291, 455

Daly, M.P. for Galway, ii. 62, 350

Daly, James, i. 205, 265

Damer, Dawson, iii. 46

D'Arcy, Major, ii. 119

DISRAELI

D'Artois, Comte (Charles X.), i. 130; ii. 156-158

D'Aumale, Duc, iii. 393

Davies, Rev. Richard, i. 15, 27

Davy, Sir Humphry, i. 363

Dawney, Mr., iii. 337

Dawson, Captain, iii. 425

Dawson, Geo. R., Peel's Under-Secretary, i. 22, 303, 392, 482; ii. 53, 156, 192, 260, 483; iii. 431

Day, Mr., ii. 137

Dean, Mr., Chairman of Customs, iii. 294

De Feltre, Duc, i. 175

De Grey, Lady, ii. 389; iii. 362

De Grey, Lord, ii. 266, 389; Viceroy of Ireland, ii. 482, iii. 34; Buckingham's resignation, ii. 520; 'Alarmists,' iii. 36; Dr. Elrington, iii. 38; his relations with Eliot, iii. 40-45, 60; spread of Repeal agitation, iii. 46; Lucas, iii. 53, 55; on Sugden and Eliot, iii. 55; on appointment of Roman Catholics, iii. 56, 61, 103; Howley's preferment, iii. 60; resigns, iii. 112; Repeal magistrates, iii. 187; Peel on Irish Church Patronage, iii. 414; 'Father Mathew,' iii. 424; Peel on creation of baronets, iii. 430

De la Beche, Sir H., iii. 492

De la Warr, Lord, ii. 398; iii. 308

Denham, Captain, i. 183

Denison, Beckett, iii. 325

Denman, Common Serjeant, i. 358

Denman, Lord, iii. 124

Denvir, Bishop, iii. 130

Derby, Reform riots at, ii. 189

De Rothesay, Lord Stuart, ii. 268

Desart, Earl of, i. 46, 193

D'Esterre, Mr., i. 186

Devon, Lord, iii. 64

Devon Commission, iii. 177, 510

Devonshire, Duke of, i. 63

Dhuleep Singh ('The Boy'), iii. 270

Dickinson, Dr., Bishop of Meath, iii. 38

Disraeli, Benjamin, ii. 465; Pittacus' letter ascribed to, ii. 478; his petition to Peel, ii. 486-489; on his party allegiance, iii. 144; sugar duties, iii. 153; his 'open and avowed rebellion,' iii. 154; a malicious imputation, iii. 332; in full-dress uniform, iii. 334; his onslaughts on Peel, iii. 347,

DISRAELI

- 356; his Lord George Bentinck quoted, iii. 349; a place for his brother, iii. 424; Peel on his protectionist motion, iii. 522; his motion on agricultural distress, iii. 532; intends to be Prime Minister, iii. 576
- Disraeli, Mrs., ii. 486
- Dissenters, their influence under Reform Act, ii. 223; marriages of, ii. 275; and Church Reform, ii. 285; a sorry triumph, ii. 560; 'hating all establishments,' iii. 271
- Doneraile conspiracy, ii. 137
- Donnally, Mary, ii. 137
- Donoughmore, Lord, i. 312
- Dorset, Duke of, i. 166
- Douay Testament, the, ii. 130
- Douglas, Sir Howard, iii. 337
- Douglas, Lord, ii. 2
- Drainage Act (Scotland), iii. 482
- Drainage Commission (Ireland), iii. 228
- Drayton Estate, Peel's letter on agriculture to tenants of, iii. 528
- Driver, Dr., i. 448
- Drummond, Edward, ii. 394; his assassination, ii. 552; iii. 330
- Drummond, Henry, i. 196; iii. 522, 531
- Drury, Rev. Mark, i. 12, 14, 22, 325, 388; iii. 509
- Dryden, John, Hind and Panther quoted, ii. 105; Absalom and Achitophel, ii. 108
- Dublin, Archbishop of, iii. 39, 120
- 'Dublin Evening Post,' i. 105, 114, 134
- 'Dublin Journal,' i. 115, 218
- Dudley, Lord, ii. 28, 38, 46, 266
- Dugdale, Mr., ii. 467
- Duigenan, Dr., i. 45, 85, 87
- Duncannon, Lord, ii. 254
- Duncombe, Mr., ii. 568
- Dunlop, Mr., ii. 473; iii. 54, 75
- Dunsandle, Lord, iii. 357
- Durham, Lord, ii. 242; and Canada, ii. 357, 381; and the Whigs, ii. 369; his character and conduct, ii. 370; Croker's assurance, ii. 395
- Dyott, ii. 467
- EARLE, Mr., Poor Law Commissioner, Dublin, ii. 394

ELLENBOROUGH

- East India Company, ii. 576, 579; and Lord Ellenborough, ii. 595, iii. 10-22; sanction Hardinge's appointment, iii. 26; and Sir C. Napier, iii. 272
- East Indies, ii. 503
- Easthope, Sir J., iii. 485
- Eastlake, Sir C. L., ii. 510
- Ecclesiastical Commission, ii. 276, 283, 411, 547; Peel's gift to, ii. 565, 566
- Eden, A., iii. 357
- Edgar, Rev. Dr., iii. 454
- Edgeworth, Miss, ii. 331
- 'Edinburgh Courant,' ii. 473
- 'Edinburgh Evening Post,' ii. 473
- 'Edinburgh Review,' iii. 512
- Education (Ireland), ii. 116, 127-131, iii. 35, 115, 118-120; (England and Wales), ii. 419, 533, 541, 561
- Egerton, Lord Francis (afterwards Earl of Ellesmere), ii. 277, 303, 336, 359, 451, 510; iii. 322, 356
- Egypt, ii. 38; iii. 30, 259
- Elbing Letter, the, iii. 459, 460
- Eldon, Lord, i. 127, 335, 360, 451, 460, 488; ii. 4, 32, 71, 76
- Eliot, Lord. See St. Germans, Earl
- Ellenborough, Lord, ii. 29, 81, 374; Peel's Cabinet, ii. 392; congratulates Peel, ii. 400; Board of Control, ii. 482; Wellington on defence of India, ii. 536; Governor-General of India, ii. 575-592, iii. 1; disaster in Afghanistan, ii. 581; orders for evacuation, ii. 586, 593; his hasty judgment, ii. 587; his Indian Administration, cited, ii. 590; Fitzgerald on, ibid.; an unfortunate order, ii. 593; his optimism, ii. 594; Peel on, ii. 596; his ultimatum to Akbar, ii. 597; the Somnauth Gates, ii. 598, 599; Wellington's and Peel's congratulations, ii. 599, 600; the Simla Proclamation, ii. 601; punishes the Scinde Ameers, iii. 2, 7; claims support, iii. 2-5; Peel on Indian and Home questions, iii. 7, 8; the East India Company's censure, iii. 10-22 passim; indicates his Scinde policy, iii. 14; his complaints, iii. 15, 17, 18, 20; appeals to the Queen, iii. 16; his thirst for military command, iii. 20; recalled, iii. 22; Peel on Governor-General Hardinge, iii. 27; the Queen's approval, iii. 28, 32; his welcome to Hardinge, iii. 29; a forecast of events in India, iii. 258; farewell to India, iii. 260; his vindication, iii. 262; his return, iii. 264, 269; attacks Board of Control, iii. 265; First Lord of the Admiralty, iii. 288, 291, 412; on Hardinge's Sikh campaign, iii. 302; repeal of Navigation Laws, iii. 504; on Gough, iii. 505

ELLENBOROUGH

 Ellesmere, Earl. See Egerton, Lord Francis
 Ellice, Mr., ii. 216; iii. 524
 Elrington, Dr., iii. 36, 38
 Emancipation Act, iii. 50
 Encumbered Estates Act, iii. 517
 England, General, ii. 591
 Enniskillen, Lord, ii. 119, 389; iii. 34, 186
 Erne, Lord, iii. 181, 186
 Espartero, iii. 391
 Estcourt, Mr., iii. 175
 Evans, Mr., M.P. for Westminster, iii. 308
 Everett, Mr., ii. 333
 Exeter, Lord, iii. 333

FACTORY BILL, i. 259 et seq., ii. 549, 560; Act (1844), iii. 147
 Faraday, Professor, iii. 447
 Farnborough, Lord, ii. 142
 Farnham, Lord, i. 231; iii. 68
 Ferdinand Philippe, Duke of Orleans, ii. 352, 353
 Ferrand, Mr., iii. 153
 Ffrench, Lord, iii. 50, 51
 Finance, ii. 38, 411-509, 524; policy of deficits, ii. 411, 489, 498; income tax, ii. 490, 501-503, 507, 522, 573, iii. 170, 171, 270; retrenchment, ii. 492; the Revenue Departments, ii. 495; revision of tariff, ii. 496, iii. 169, 170, 270; revision of Corn Law, ii. 499; property tax, ii. 499-502, 506; house tax, ii. 503, 507; Gladstone's capacity for, ii. 512; Bank Charter Act, iii. 134-143; reduction of interest on Consols, iii. 147; the Gold Standard (Peel's Act), iii. 568-570

FREMANTLE

Fine Arts Commission, ii. 509
 Fingall, Lord, i. 118, 373
 Finlay, Kirkman, i. 261
 Fisheries (Ireland), iii. 229
 Fitzgerald, Hon. W. V., i. 64, 110
 Fitzgerald, Lord, ii. 268; Board of Control, ii. 578, 580, 584, 590; on Ellenborough's Afghan policy, ii. 593; a peacemaker, ii. 595; Nott and Pollock have set all right, ii. 597; tenders resignation, iii. 2; his death, iii. 6
 Fitzgerald, Mr., ii. 47
 Fitzwilliam, Lord, ii. 409
 Fletcher, Judge, i. 153, 214, 221
 Flint, Sir C., i. 96
 Flood, Sir F., i. 145, 164, 210, 283
 Follett, Mr., iii. 67, 125, 126
 Forbes, Professor, iii. 441, 445
 Forester, Lord, iii. 308
 Foster, Colonel, i. 43
 Foster, J. Leslie, i. 87, 89, 246, 344; priests and Irish education, i. 392, ii. 127, 129; Louth election, i. 409; Catholic Emancipation, i. 423
 France, revolution in, ii. 156; state of, ii. 449; and the peace of Europe, ii. 454, 462; her irritation, ii. 455; strained relations with, ii. 481; Protestant Church of, iii. 70; hostile to England, iii. 195; warlike demonstrations, iii. 200; in Algeria, iii. 314; entente cordiale with, iii. 390-412; and Palmerston's coercion of Greece, iii. 541; National Assembly on Peel's death, iii. 546
 Franchise Bill (Ireland), iii. 52, 68, 110
 Free Trade, ii. 507, iii. 579-581; Peel's views on, ii. 529, iii. 371, 522; Peel's second and third Budgets, iii. 169, 294, 583; the Elbing Letter, iii. 459; reaction against, iii. 525; history of, iii. 584; the question of hostile tariffs, iii. 586
 Freeholders, forty-shilling, i. 79, 222, 424
 Fremantle, Sir Thomas, ii. 428, 531; Secretary at War, iii. 113; Chief Secretary, Ireland, iii. 178, 185; on report of Drainage Commission, iii. 228; Irish Fisheries, iii. 229; Peel's farewell to the Queen, iii. 255; Peel's resumption of office, iii. 290; Mr. Boyd, M.P. for Coleraine, iii. 425 Freshfield, J. W., ii. 262, 482

FREMANTLE

GAISFORD, Dean, i. 17, 362; iii. 419, 420

Galway, state of, ii. 62-64

Game Laws, iii. 179

Garrick, David, his compliment to Lord Camden, ii. 476

Gascoigne, General, iii. 499

Gaskell, Milnes, iii. 334, 427

General Assembly (Scotland), iii. 71, 72, 80, 84, 85, 90-98

George III., i. 67

George IV., on Catholic question, i. 70, 106, 107, 313, 349, 370, 458; Peel, i. 102, 334, 457; on peace with France, i. 127; treatment of Queen, i. 297; Canning, i. 303, 335, 370, 456; plot to poison, i. 315; prerogative of mercy, i. 315-317; Londonderry's death, i. 320; 'Sunday Times,' i. 336 et seq.; Colonel Stephenson, i. 339, 340; ministerial patronage, 358; distrust of Wellesley and Canning, i. 370; address from Roman Catholic Irish noblemen, i. 373; Royal Society medals, i. 387; command-in-chief of army, i. 435; Oxford bishopric, i. 444; Lord Liverpool's illness, i. 449; on Lord Liverpool's successor, i. 456 et seq.; appoints Canning Prime Minister, i. 463; against concession to Catholics, ii. 1; his attitude towards Wellington and Peel after Canning's death, ii. 2-7; offers Wellington command-in-chief, ii. 7; makes Herries Finance Minister, ii. 10, 22; a perfect despot, ii. 18; sends for Wellington, ii. 26; his views on Wellington's Cabinet, ii. 29; Duke of Clarence, ii. 42; his efforts for Hunton, ii. 43; recalls Lord Anglesey, ii. 66; opposes Roman Catholic Relief, ii. 76; a qualified consent, ii. 82; meditates Royal Academy reform, ii. 142; his failing health, ii. 145; Peter Comyn's case, ii.

GLOBE

147-151; his illness, ii. 149, 152; and death, ii. 153

Gérard, General, ii. 156

Germany, Peel's sympathy with her aspirations, iii. 505, 506; the King's comments, iii. 507

Ghuznee, ii. 594, 597, 598

Gibraltar, defence of, iii. 199

Gillespie, Dr., iii. 71

Gladstone, Sir John, ii. 267; created baronet by Peel, iii. 434

Gladstone, W. E., 'there were two Peels,' ii. 209, iii. 571; Colonial Office, ii. 266, 267; on O'Connell's reception at Liverpool, ii. 326; Board of Trade, ii. 482, iii. 6; Revenue Commissioner, ii. 495; Peel on Provision Laws, ii. 497; on finance, ii. 498; in favour of direct taxation, ii. 502; proposed house tax, ii. 503; on Corn Laws, ii. 504, 520, 525; correspondence with Peel—finance and Church matters, ii. 512-517; his scruples about Maynooth, iii. 107; disagrees with Graham, iii. 110; resigns Board of Trade on Maynooth question, iii. 160, 163-169; his loss felt in House of Commons, iii. 269; Colonial Secretary, iii. 285, 291; consults Stanley, iii. 287; a plea for Lord Lyttelton, iii. 292; without a seat, iii. 308, 338, 343; on America's reception of Peel's Corn Bill, iii. 374; Peel's reply to his comments on Church Patronage, iii. 418; creation of peers, iii. 426; Peel's offer of baronetcy to his father, iii. 434; Wordsworth's pension, iii. 437, 438; Tennyson, iii. 440, 441; his reciprocity views (Navigation Laws), iii. 503; Peel's fatal accident, iii. 544; his tribute to Peel in House of Commons, iii. 546; his letter to Lady Peel, iii. 560; Peel's accurate forecast, iii. 577

Glasgow University, Peel Lord Rector of, ii. 327

Gleig, Rev. G. R., Chaplain-General of the Army, ii. 45

Glengel, Lord, ii. 358

Glengall, Lord, iii. 37

'Globe,' the, iii. 535, 539

GLOUCESTER

Gloucester, Duchess of, ii. 179, 414
 Gloucester, Duke of, ii. 179
 Goadby, Mr., iii. 446
 Goderich, Lord (Hon. F. Robinson), i. 25, 56, 61, 62, 476; Premier, ii. 3; Wellington and the command-in-chief, ii. 7; and Herries, ii. 11; with the King, ii. 11, 13; fall of his ministry, ii. 26
 Going, Mr., ii. 137
 Golab Singh, iii. 305, 312, 313, 474
 Gold Standard, the (Peel's Act), iii. 568-570
 Gordon, Dr., iii. 75, 87
 Gordon, Hon. W., iii. 336
 Gordon, Sir Arthur, afterwards Lord Stanmore, The Earl of Aberdeen, ii. 166; iii. 73, 548
 Gordon, Sir Robert, ii. 268; iii. 363
 Gosford, Lord, ii. 363
 Gough, Lord (Sir Hugh), iii. 23, 24, 257, 297-300, 308; Hardinge's support of, iii. 310; traduced: Peel's defence of, iii. 505
 Goulburn, Henry, i. 60, 282; Irish Chief Secretary, i. 302; Peel and the Home Office, i. 306; Ireland and yeomanry, i. 352; at issue with Wellesley, i. 354; Orangemen, i. 355; Irish societies, i. 390; Catholic question, i. 416; priests, i. 418; military force in Ireland, i. 421; troops for Portugal, i. 427; Irish law officers and Catholic Association, i. 429, 431; on Herries and the Whigs, ii. 22; Chancellor of Exchequer, ii. 29, 38, 482; Dawson's speech, ii. 53; 'give me credit for honesty,' ii. 89; Metropolitan Police Bill, ii. 114; Peel on Scotch hardihood, ii. 141; death of Peel's father, ii. 151; an overture from Old Tories, ii. 170; Peel on Reform, ii. 187, 195; Hildyard's Bill, ii. 196; Peel on Conservative policy, ii. 212; the Coronation Oath, ii. 218; the Address, ii. 224; the Irish Church, ii. 243; the Tithe Bill, ii. 248; Home Office, ii. 264, 267; promotions to the Bench, ii. 272, 273; Church Reform, ii. 283; Municipal Reform, ii. 314; the approaching session, ii. 318; Molesworth's motion, ii. 367; in Peel's Cabinet, ii. 392; Peel's reply to his criticisms, ii. 400; Peel on policy of deficits, ii. 411; three private letters, ii. 429; Peel's son William, ii. 452; Peel on electioneering, ii. 466; Peel on the Government, ii. 479; income tax, ii. 490; Peel on the Revenue Departments, ii. 495, 569; Peel on import duties, ii. 509; tax on clerical incomes, ii. 550; threatened, ii. 559; Peel's gift to Ecclesiastical Commissioners, ii. 567; the City election, ii. 571 reduction of interest on Consols, iii. 147; Maynooth Bill, iii. 175; Peel on railway speculation, iii. 188; on state of naval arsenals, iii. 196; potato famine in Ireland, iii. 225, 461; third Free Trade Budget, iii. 294; on Wilberforce, iii. 416; Peel on baronetage, iii. 430; 'the Irish expenditure will be frightful,' iii. 469

GRAHAM

 Gower, Lord Francis, Irish Chief Secretary, ii. 50, 52, 64, 69, 73, 82, 84; Peel's Irish measures, ii. 115, 122-125, 133-139; the flowing tide, ii. 166
 Graham, Sir James, Whig overtures, ii. 163, 165; resigns, ii. 247; Peel's overtures to, ii. 257, 259; a Peelite, ii. 289, 298; Corporate Relief, ii. 312, 337; deprecates dissolution, ii. 322; on Reform, ii. 329; loses seat for Cumberland, ii. 348; his gloomy views, ii. 377; Peel's Cabinet, ii. 392; the Bedchamber question, ii. 398; congratulates Peel, ii. 400; his plan of campaign, ii. 421-423; on Wellington's forecast, ii. 427, 428; on differences between Wellington and Peel, ii. 438, 442; topics for consideration, ii. 453; Home Secretary, ii. 482, iii. 23; on ways and means, ii. 492; committee on averages, ii. 505; income tax v. house tax, ii. 507; Ashburton's memorandum, ii. 508; Peel on protection, ii. 528; Peel on education, ii. 533; Queen's visit to Scotland, ii. 539, 542,

GRAHAM

544; Chartist riots in Lancashire, ii. 546; Church extension, ii. 548, 550; Corn Laws, ii. 551; Wesleyans, ii. 560; military expenditure, ii. 572; rescue of the Cabul captives, ii. 597; Scinde, iii. 8; Ellenborough and the East India Company, iii. 11, 13; Peel on Dr. Elrington, iii. 38; de Grey v. Eliot, iii. 40, 43; Sugden, iii. 51; an embarrassing question, iii. 52; conciliation to Catholics, iii. 60; Irish law officers, iii. 62; Wellington and Ireland, iii. 63, 190; Irish peasantry, iii. 64; anxious thoughts on Ireland, iii. 65; payment of priests, iii. 67; O'Connell's prosecution, iii. 68; Scottish Church question, ii. 77, 88, 89; the Strathbogie Presbytery, iii. 82; reply to the Moderator of the General Assembly, iii. 90, 93; Roman Catholic education in Ireland, iii. 110; O'Connell convicted, iii. 125; Peel on the Charitable Trusts Act, iii. 127-129; Disraeli's 'open and avowed rebellion,' iii. 154; Gladstone's retirement from Board of Trade, iii. 164, 166; our country gentlemen out of humour, iii. 172; Ireland in 1845, iii. 187; on Heytesbury, iii. 188; on national defence, iii. 201; small arms and accoutrements, iii. 218; failure of potato crop in Ireland, iii. 223, 226; on proposed repeal of Corn Laws, iii. 224, 345; supports Peel, iii. 229; Stanley's dissent, iii. 231, 236; interview with Russell, iii. 244; on Hardinge's report to the Queen, iii. 266; on Stanley and Gladstone, iii. 286; Cobden's rancour, iii. 328; Villiers on, iii. 352; not going to Upper House, iii. 370; Peel's tribute to, iii. 376, 490; on Bagot's policy in Canada, iii. 386; France, iii. 390; on Aberdeen's wish to resign, iii. 407; Scottish Church patronage, iii. 415; Disraeli's impudence, iii. 424; Brougham's excitement, iii. 454; Russell's new Cabinet, iii. 455; Bradford's tribute to Peel, iii. 457; his

GRENVILLE

attachment to Peel, iii. 458; effects of settlement of Corn and Sugar questions, iii. 462; Irish farmers, iii. 463; Whig measures for Ireland, iii. 464, 470; alarming state of Ireland, iii. 467; on Russell, iii. 468; Peel's policy triumphant, iii. 470; the Tamworth address, iii. 487; on result of the elections, iii. 489; a forecast, iii. 491; Londonderry's project of Conservative reorganisation, iii. 495, 502; history of Cabinet Councils, iii. 496-499; Russell's overtures to, iii. 500; Gladstone's reciprocity views, iii. 503; Mr. Caird on Irish agriculture, iii. 518; a National University for Ireland, iii. 520; Drummond's motion, iii. 522; Palmerston and Russell, iii. 524; reaction against Free Trade, iii. 525; a possible combination, iii. 527; Peel's disinterestedness, iii. 534; Palmerston and Aberdeen, iii. 536, 540; Peel's last letter to, iii. 538; Aberdeen's soreness, iii. 540; at Peel's deathbed, iii. 544; Prince Albert's letter on Peel's death to, iii. 548; his letter to Lady Peel, iii. 557
 Granby, Lord, iii. 335, 463, 503
 Grand Canal Company, i. 98
 Grand Duke of Saxony, Charles Alexander, iii. 549
 Grand Jury Laws (Ireland), ii. 116
 Grant, Sir Alexander ('The Chin'), ii. 10, 13, 19, 20, 165
 Grant, Charles, i. 267; ii. 28, 46, 165
 Grattan, i. 75, 140, 155, 246
 Grattan's Committee and Bill, i. 73-85; ii. 105
 Greece, and Turkey, ii. 34
 Greeks, after Navarino, ii. 38
 Greene, Mr., iii. 43
 Gregory, Mr., Under-Secretary for Ireland, i. 36, 77, 114, 121, 162; Peel and O'Connell, i. 189; Insurrection Act, i. 199; Pastorini's Prophecy, i. 340; Peel's explanations, ii. 32, 86; his surprise and dismay, ii. 88; Peel's Police Bill, ii. 114
 Gregson, Mr., ii. 37, 39, 267
 Grenville, Lord, i. 247; ii. 227, 406

GRESLEY

- Gresley, Mr., ii. 96
Greville's Memoirs, quoted, ii. 211, 248, 458; iii. 302, 534, 538
 Grey, Lord, ii. 27; Premier, ii. 170, 175; and Duke of Cumberland, ii. 178; wishes to dissolve, ii. 182, 236; on political unions, ii. 192; resigns, ii. 203, 248; loud in praise of Peel, 215; Peel v., ii. 258; Wellington on, ii. 343; Wellington's question, ii. 375; Ministers and Court appointments, ii. 406; his objection to Palmerston, iii. 284; no part in a Whig Government, iii. 346; Princess Lieven on, iii. 360; Cabinet Minutes, iii. 497-499; Frederick Peel's maiden speech, iii. 508
 Guizot, M., iii. 175, 201, 390-392, 394, 395, 400, 404, 405, 406, 409, 455, 456, 552

- HADDINGTON, Lord, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, ii. 285; Admiralty, ii. 482; Scottish Church question, iii. 80; naval defence, iii. 196, 217; state of the Royal yacht, iii. 200; merchant steamships, iii. 212; Privy Seal, iii. 291; Peel on Boundary question, iii. 387
 Halford, Sir Henry, ii. 145, 153, 178
 Hall, Dr., Dean of Christ Church, Oxon., i. 253
 Hallam, Henry, ii. 173; declines Peel's offer of baronetcy, iii. 432; grants Peel's request for portrait, iii. 433; his appeal for Tennyson, iii. 439-441
 Hamilton, Lord Archibald, ii. 329
 Hamilton, Sir Edward, iii. 426
 Hamilton, Sir William, Astronomer Royal, iii. 445, 447
 Hanover, King of, ii. 352, 353
Hansard's Debates, ii. 399; iii. 327, 378
 Hardinge, Lady Emily, iii. 32, 304
 Hardinge, Lord (Sir Henry), on Goderich's Cabinet, ii. 3; Irish Chief Secretary, ii. 159, 160, 264, 286; Peel's second, ii. 183, 350; at Drayton Manor, ii. 188; in Wellington's confidence, ii. 231, 240; municipal reform, ii. 312,

HARGREAVES

- 319; Wellington and Peel, ii. 321; war to the knife between Melbourne and Durham, ii. 368; in Peel's Cabinet, ii. 392; election prospects, ii. 467; Secretary at War, ii. 482; Lord Londonderry, ii. 484; plan for enrolment of pensioners, ii. 546, 574; declines command in India, ii. 585, 588; Governor-General of India, iii. 24-28, 256-282; Ellenborough's welcome to, iii. 29; military demands of Bombay Government, iii. 197; G.C.B., iii. 257; his Punjab policy, iii. 260, 263, 475; on Ellenborough, iii. 260; Peel on Ellenborough's return to England, iii. 264; the Sikhs, iii. 266, 267, 270, 274, 277-279, 296, 305; his report to the Queen, iii. 266; his gratitude to Her Majesty, iii. 273; Peel counsels him to remain, iii. 281; Peel's resignation and resumption of office, iii. 295; on Gough, iii. 297, 300, 310, 314; Feroz-pore, iii. 299; his wishes about Napier, iii. 299, 300; Peel's congratulations, iii. 301; critics at home—Ellenborough, Greville, Auckland, iii. 302, 303; his Life, quoted, iii. 302; the thanks of Parliament, iii. 303; peace overtures, iii. 304; Sohraon: Sikh submission, iii. 305; honours for, iii. 307; home news from Peel, iii. 308; Lahore occupied, iii. 310; annexation impossible, iii. 312; summary of results, iii. 315; declines Ordnance Department, iii. 315, 320; his gratitude to Peel, iii. 316, 319; an Annuity for, iii. 354, 355; correspondence with Peel, iii. 471-476; Russell's friendly message, iii. 472; Cashmere insurrection over, iii. 474; the Punjab, iii. 475; for repeal of Navigation Laws, iii. 504; at Peel's deathbed, iii. 544
 Hardinge, Chas. Stewart (afterwards Lord Hardinge), iii. 299
 Hardinge, Lt.-General Sir Arthur E., iii. 299
 Hardwicke, Lord, ii. 520, 528; iii. 200, 335
Hare's Sermons, ii. 446
 Hargreaves, Rev. James, i. 10, 26

HARROWBY

- Harrowby, Lord, i. 247; ii. 193, 198, 199, 204; iii. 505
 Hart, Lord Chancellor, ii. 74
 Hartismere, Lord, iii. 337
 Hastings, Lord, i. 300, 303
 Hastings, Sir Thomas, iii. 484
 Hatherton, Lord, i. 382-384
 Hawkins, Caesar, iii. 545
 Haworth, Elizabeth, Peel's grandmother, i. 3
 Haworth, Miss Jane, Memoir of the Peel Family, i. 1-6; Peel's parents and home life, i. 9
 Haworth, Peel and Yates introduced calico printing into Lancashire, i. 4, 5
 Hawthorne, Mr., i. 26, 36, 50, 53
 Haydon, B. R., iii. 448, 449, 458
 Head, Sir Francis, ii. 409
 Hemans, Mrs., ii. 306
 Henley, Dowager Lady, i. 10
 Henniker, Lord (afterwards Lord Hartismere), iii. 337
 Henry VIII. and the Reformation, ii. 155
 Henry, Dr., iii. 522
 Herbert, Sidney, Secretary to Admiralty, ii. 482, iii. 67; Secretary at War, iii. 168; declines Irish Chief Secretaryship, iii. 178; his memorandum on national defence, iii. 197, 217; supports Peel (Corn Laws), iii. 229; promises well as a debater, iii. 269; on Lord George Bentinck's conversion, iii. 355; declines Russell's overtures, iii. 455; M.P. for Wilts, iii. 488; on diplomatic relations with Rome, iii. 493; Peel's Drayton letter, iii. 531
 Herries, John C., Finance Minister, ii. 10, 22; his interview with the King, ii. 11; the King's favour, ii. 18; Whigs object to, ii. 20; v. Huskisson, ii. 26; Duchy of Lancaster, ii. 29; Peel's guest, ii. 192; on Lord Wharnccliffe's overtures, ii. 194; out of Parliament, ii. 482, 483; consulted by Peel on finance, ii. 498; in favour of property tax, ii. 506; on Ireland and the income tax, ii. 523
 Herschel, Sir John, iii. 444
 Hertford, Lord, i. 268, 473; ii. 181
 Hewett, Sir George, i. 150, 176, 211

HORNER

- Heytesbury, Lord, ii. 575; Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, iii. 113; national education in Ireland, iii. 115, 120; trial by jury, iii. 118; a Catholic Clerk of the Crown, iii. 119; deaneries of Killala and Limerick, iii. 121; federalism, iii. 123; Mr. Butt, ibid.; Charitable Trusts Act, iii. 126, 128; memorial of Roman Catholic archbishops &c., iii. 127; Dr. Crolly, iii. 128; Bishop Denvir, iii. 130; a boon to Roman Catholics, iii. 131; O'Connell's embarrassment, iii. 132; the Queen's and Prince Albert's approval, iii. 133; Eliot's successor, iii. 178; Maynooth Bill, iii. 179; on Roman Catholic appointments, iii. 184, 185; McKenna, iii. 186; failure of potato crop, iii. 224, 226; Peel on Russell, iii. 288; Grey's and Cobden's recklessness, iii. 290; Peel's bold front, iii. 341; Irish jobs, iii. 425; the Tamworth address, iii. 487
 'Hibernian Journal,' i. 114
 Hildyard, Mr., ii. 196
 Hill, Sir George, i. 26, 412, 424
 Hill, Lord, ii. 535
 Hillsborough, Lord, iii. 425
 Hippisley, Sir John, i. 83, 140
 Hobhouse, Right Hon. Henry, i. 305, 334, 489; ii. 35, 152, 275, 282, 484, 563; iii. 430
 Hobhouse, John Cam (afterwards Lord Broughton), ii. 182
 Hobhouse, Sir John, ii. 335; iii. 472
 Hodgson, Dr., iii. 545
 Hodson, Dr., i. 24
 Hogg, James, ii. 309
 Holland, Reformed Church of, iii. 70
 Holland, Dr., ii. 192
 Holland, Lord, i. 329; ii. 23, 26, 377; iii. 498
 Holmes, Mr., ii. 11, 13, 191, 195, 216
 Hood, Mrs., iii. 443
 Hood, Thomas, iii. 442-444
 Hope, Charles, Lord Justice Clerk, Scotland, ii. 472; iii. 75, 76, 428
 Hope, George, ii. 394; iii. 292
 Hope, Lord President, i. 399
 Horner, Leonard, i. 290, 295, 379, 481; ii. 545, 549

HOTHAM

- Hotham, Lord, ii. 89-91
 House tax, ii. 503, 507
 Howe, Lord, ii. 511
 Howick, Lady, ii. 360
 Howick, Lord, ii. 360; iii. 221
 Howley, Dr., Archbishop of Canterbury, ii. 77, 217, 249, 276, 284, 550, 562, 568; iii. 419, 421
 Howley, Mr., Third Sergeant, Ireland, iii. 54, 60
 Hudson, Mr., ii. 251, 255
 Hulton, W., i. 486; ii. 94, 262, 266
 Humboldt, his Plantæ Equinoctiales dedicated to R. Brown, iii. 446
 Hume, Joseph, i. 379; on English intolerance, ii. 43; called to account by Peel, ii. 291, 292; proposed motion on Canada, ii. 358; further reform, ii. 385; opposes Chelsea Pensioners Bill, ii. 568; the Crown and East India Company, iii. 31; on Ellenborough's recall, iii. 269; on Peel's retirement, iii. 453
 Hume, Dr., ii. 412
 Hunton, the Quaker, ii. 42
 Hunsisson, Mr. i. 327-329, 336, 396; ii. 20, 23-26, 28, 46, 162; iii. 220

- IBRAHIM PASHA, ii. 38
 Import duties, repeal of, ii. 509
 Income tax, ii. 503, 507, 522, 573; Bill, iii. 170, 171, 270, 581
 India, Governors-General of, ii. 575; in 1844-1846, iii. 256-282, 295
 Inge, Mr., ii. 96
 Ingestre, Mr., ii. 467
 Inglis, Sir Robert, ii. 106, 563; iii. 176, 177, 343
 Innes, A. Taylor, The Law of Creeds in Scotland, iii. 98, 100
 Inquisition, Spanish, ii. 43
 Insurrection Act (Ireland), i. 143 et seq., 178, 199, 205, 495, 503; ii. 135
 Ireland, Peel Chief Secretary, i. 35; Viceroy and Castle staff, ibid.; Castle patronage, i. 50 et seq., 101, 160-163; Catholic question, 66 et seq.; Grattan's Committee and Bill, i. 73-85, ii. 105; Protestant ascendancy, i. 87; Education Bill, i. 87-93; administration and officials, i. 94, 95-99; Pension Fund, i. 100;

IRELAND

- policy of Lord Whitworth, i. 105; murderous outrages, i. 120, 131, 199, 231, 302; naval service, i. 113; the press, i. 114-118; Catholic Board, i. 118, 134 et seq.; lawlessness and disaffection, i. 122 et seq.; Orangemen, i. 122, 158, 159, 355, 368; Catholic bishops, i. 123; soldiers as police, i. 132 et seq.; Kilkenney resolutions, i. 135; Police Act: Insurrection Act, i. 143-152, 178, 199, 205, 206, ii. 135; police appointments, i. 151, 152; Judge Fletcher's charge, i. 153; special magistrates, i. 162; the 'Lords Justices,' i. 166; effects of peace on price of corn, i. 167; militia embodied, i. 178; Catholic petition, i. 184, 185, 188; perjury and crime, i. 206; parliamentary criticism, i. 207; retrenchment and reform, i. 208; military estimates, i. 208, 217; Medical Board, i. 209; sinecures, i. 212; inquiry into state of, i. 213-223; rigid economy, i. 218; magistracy, i. 218, 221; affray at Roscrea, i. 223; Catholic schism, i. 225; Vice-Treasurer for, i. 227 state of, i. 228, 232 et seq.; 236, 257, 416 et seq.; Englishmen must govern, i. 229; increase of emigration, i. 233; impending famine, i. 239-245; distillation and export of potatoes, i. 240 et seq.; Irish members and Peel, i. 255; Peel's farewell to, i. 265 et seq.; elections, i. 269; patronage, i. 270; payments for political support, i. 273; method of selecting officials, i. 277 et seq.; practice of selling public offices, i. 283; secret societies, i. 340, 390; Pastorini's Prophecy, i. 340; under Lord Wellesley, i. 342; religious education, i. 342; Roman Catholic Association, i. 345 et seq., 357, 410, 416, 426, 428-431; Wellington's fears of civil war, i. 348, yeomanry, i. 352; Catholic Convention: State payment of Catholic clergy, i. 369; Catholic Relief Bill, i. 372; proceedings at Derry, i. 391, 392; Catholic prelates and education, i. 393; Waterford and Louth elections, i. 409 et seq.; religious animosities, Roman Catholic priests, i. 409, 410, 417 et seq.; Protestant processions, i. 412; military forces in, i. 420, 428; effects of Clare election, ii. 48; concession to (?), ii. 50; proposed Bills for, ii. 84; Sir W. Scott on, ii. 97; Suppression Bill, ii. 103; Disfranchisement Bill, ii. 104; Poor Laws, ii. 116, 162, 345, iii. 502; Grand Jury, ii. 116; iii. 116, 272; education, ii. 116, iii. 35, 115, 118-120; police, ii. 121, iii. 61; Peel's first remedy, ii. 122; insurrection in, ii. 125, 159; more tranquil, ii. 143; repeal of Union, ii. 161; Church Bill, ii. 216, 224, 290, 293; Tithe Bill, ii. 220, 299-301, 345; corporate reform, ii. 322, 324, 325; Municipal Bill, ii. 336-347, 434, 438, 440, 445; Lords' Select Committee, ii. 383, 386; peerage in, ii. 413; Wellington on, ii. 418, iii. 63, 190; repeal agitation, ii. 453, iii. 34, 46, 47, 49; Registration Bill, ii. 455, 572, iii. 52; and the income tax, ii. 523; in 1841-1843, iii. 34-68; franchise, iii. 52, 68, 110; weakness of law officers, iii. 62; in 1844, iii. 101-133; trial by jury in, iii. 116, 124; Charitable Trusts Act, iii. 126-133; Maynooth Bill, iii. 173-176, 612; Academical Institutions Bill, iii. 176; Tenants' Compensation Bill, iii. 177; monster meetings in, iii. 190; failure of potato crop, iii. 223-229, 280, 461; Drainage Commission, iii. 228; fisheries, iii. 229; Protection of Life Bill, iii. 344, 348, 349, 351, 614; Assassination Bill, iii. 367; Church patronage in, iii. 414; Whig Government of, iii. 461-470, 501; Peel on state of, iii. 476; famine in, iii. 481, 502; seed corn for, iii. 482; Whigs and the Habeas Corpus Act, iii. 501; Peel's proposals (1849), iii. 513; Russell's policy, iii. 511; its agriculture, iii. 517; Encumbered Estates Act, ibid.; National University for, iii. 519-521; a loud cry for Protection, iii. 525, 590; the rulers of, iii. 609

IRELAND

KNOWLES

JACKSON, Rev. Cyril, Dean of Christ Church, Oxon., i. 17; advice to Peel, i. 28, 29; on Peel's election for Oxford, i. 251
 Jackson, Solicitor-General (Ireland), iii. 39
 Jamaica, ii. 388, 401; Lord Clare Governor of, ii. 512
 James, Rev. J. T., i. 403-405
 James, Sir Walter, iii. 308
 Jameson, Mrs., iii. 511
 Jarnac, Count, iii. 373, 495
 Jefferson, ii. 334
 Jenkinson, Cecil, ii. 34
 Jenkyns, Dr., Master of Balliol, i. 408; ii. 45; Dean of Wells, iii. 420
 Jews' Declaration Bill, iii. 508
 Jews' Relief Bill, ii. 145
 Jocelyn, Lord, iii. 337, 344, 464
 Jones, Colonel, ii. 178
 Joyce, Mr., Clerk of the Crown (Ireland), iii. 119
 Jullundhur Doab, iii. 305, 313

 KANE, Sir Robert, iii. 520
 Karslake, E. K., his lines on Peel, iii. 622
 Keith, Lord, i. 182
 Kemble, ii. 223
 Kennedy, Bishop, iii. 129, 130
 Kent, Duchess of, iii. 547
 Kenyon, Lord, ii. 295; iii. 271
 Key, Sir John, ii. 216
 Khyber Pass, ii. 586
 Kielmansegge, Baron, ii. 570
 Kildare, Bishop of, ii. 286
 Kildare conspiracy, i. 149
 Kildare Street Society, ii. 127, 130; iii. 39
 Kilkenny resolutions, i. 116, 135
 King, Charles, President of Columbia College, i. 13
 King's College, Cambridge, ii. 285
 Knatchbull, Sir Edward, ii. 358, 505
 Knighton, Sir William, i. 319, 435, 453; ii. 4, 11, 151
 Knowles, Sheridan, iii. 439

LA FAYETTE

- LA FAYETTE, ii. 156
La Fitte, ii. 156
Labouchere, iii. 466
Labour Rate Act, iii. 465
Lahore, iii. 261, 263, 277; occupied, iii. 310-313; treaty of, iii. 472
Lamb, W. See Melbourne, Lord
Lambert, Mr., iii. 534
Lansdowne, Lord, ii. 3, 5, 12, 21, 35, 247, 255; iii. 241, 245-251, 253, 498
Law, Mr., iii. 176
Lawless, ii. 70, 160
Lawrence, Sir T., ii. 100, 142
Lees, Sir Harcourt, i. 355
Lefevre, G. Shaw, ii. 476; Speaker, ii. 477; his Peel and O'Connell, quoted, iii. 177
Legge, Bishop of Oxford, i. 438 et seq.
Lennox, Lord Arthur, iii. 337
Leopold I., King of the Belgians, ii. 402, 415, 554; iii. 172, 477, 479, 480, 547
Lethbridge, Sir Thomas, iii. 340
Lewis, Mr., iii. 491
Leyden, Mr., i. 106
'Lichfield House Compact', ii. 290, 364
Liddell, Dean, anecdote of Peel, i. 19
Lidwill, i. 190 et seq.; duel with Sir C. Saxton, i. 201
Lieven, Princess, iii. 175, 360, 373, 398, 456, 489, 553
Lifford, Lord, iii. 187
Limerick, Bishop of, ii. 96
Limerick, Dean of, iii. 121
Limerick, Lord, i. 214
Lincoln, Lord, ii. 482; iii. 168, 178, 231, 269, 308, 338, 455; Whig Government in Ireland, iii. 461-463, 465, 469; Scotch Puritan scruples, iii. 488, 489; repeal of Navigation Laws, iii. 503
Lindley, Professor, iii. 226, 280, 522
Lindsay, Lieut.-Colonel, ii. 261
Lingard, Dr., ii. 136
List, Dr. (the Elbing Letter), iii. 459, 460
Littlehales, Sir Edward B., i. 53, 97, 227
Little, Sir John, iii. 298, 299
Littleton, Mr., ii. 23-25, 163, 167, 248

LONDONDERRY

- Liverpool, Lord, Prime Minister, i. 30, 32; appoints Peel Irish Chief Secretary, i. 33; intimacy with Peel, i. 36 et seq.; on Peninsular War, i. 37; Curwen's Bill, i. 38 et seq.; peerages and votes, i. 41, 42; parties in Parliament, i. 44; Canning and Wellesley, i. 44, 45; Catholic question, i. 68; proposed union of Chief Secretary and Chancellor of Exchequer for Ireland, i. 109; Insurrection Act, 149; Ireland a political phenomenon, i. 207; Peel refuses Board of Control, i. 299; appoints Peel Home Secretary, i. 300; Londonderry's death, i. 319, 321; the King and Canning, i. 335; the King and Colonel Stephenson, i. 339, 340; the King and Catholic question, i. 350; Dean Gaisford, i. 362; suspected of popery, i. 371; proposed resignation, i. 372 et seq.; on Wellesley's marriage, i. 378; bishopric of Oxford, i. 443, 445; illness, i. 448; relations between Peel, Canning, and, iii. 358-360
Liverpool, Lord (son of above), ii. 397, 402, 545
Liverpool and Manchester Railway, ii. 162
Livy, quoted, ii. 109
Llandaff, Deanery of, iii. 421
Lloyd, Mr., ii. 126
Lloyd, Dr. Charles, i. 17, 250, 251, 288; Peel on currency, i. 291-294; Peel's help, i. 322-325; Peel's criticisms, i. 385; appointed Bishop of Oxford, i. 438-446; Lord Liverpool's opinion of, i. 443, 445; the King's views, i. 445; Peel's resignation, i. 477 et seq.; Oxford and the Catholic question, i. 479; Peel's wariest counsellor, ii. 1; on Canning and the Catholics, ii. 15; Peel's chief confidant, ii. 30
Loban, ii. 156
Loch, James, iii. 357
Lockhart, J. G., iii. 459
London University, Royal Charter for, ii. 290
Londonderry, Lord, i. 63, 84; Insurrection Act, i. 149; death,

LONDONDERRY

- and burial at Westminster Abbey, i. 319-321
- Londonderry, Lord (son of above), ii. 263; Minister at St. Petersburg, ii. 269, 331; refuses Vienna Embassy, ii. 483; on Ireland and the income tax, ii. 523; his offer to Graham, iii. 495; a Frenchman's tribute to Peel, iii. 554
- Long, Right Hon. C., i. 40
- Lonsdale, Dr., Bishop of Lichfield, iii. 419
- Lonsdale, Lord, ii. 106, 304; iii. 264
- Lopez, Sir Manasseh, ii. 104
- Lorton, Lord, i. 79
- Louis Philippe, King of France, ii. 353, 449; iii. 161, 201, 262, 393, 399, 404-406, 495
- Lovaine, Lord, i. 58
- Low Church party, the, iii. 271
- Low's Life of Sir George Pollock, quoted, ii. 586
- Lowe, Robert (afterwards Lord Sherbrooke), iii. 143
- Lowther, Lord, ii. 476
- Lucas, Mr., Irish Under-Secretary, iii. 48, 53, 112, 116, 182
- Lushington, Dr., ii. 223
- Lushington, S. R., i. 297, 453, 490
- Lyll, Archdeacon, iii. 421
- Lyndhurst, Lady, iii. 362
- Lyndhurst, Lord, his advice to the King, ii. 4, 5, 203; most eminently anti-Whig, ii. 13; 'Protestant Lord Chancellor,' ii. 27, 52; moderate reform, ii. 203; overtures to Peel, ii. 206; amendments, Municipal Reform Bill, ii. 314-317; views on Irish municipal reform, ii. 344; in Peel's Cabinet, ii. 391; the Canadas, ii. 435; Wellington on Canada Bill, ii. 443; Peel on formation of Government, ii. 483; O'Connell's conviction, iii. 124; Peel on English Church Patronage, iii. 422
- Lytelton, Lord, declines Under-Secretaryship of Colonies, iii. 292, 293
- MABERLY, Mr., ii. 21
- Macaulay, Lord, ii. 409, 514; iii. 269

MELBOURNE

- McCulloch, ii. 467
- McHale, Dr., Archbishop of Tuam, ii. 413; iii. 46, 126-128, 130, 132, 177, 494
- McKay, Mr., ii. 99
- McKenna, Mr., iii. 186
- Mackenzie, Forbes, iii. 176
- Macnaghten, Sir W., ii. 581
- MacNaughten, his attempt on the Queen's life, ii. 553
- McNeill, Duncan, Justice-General for Scotland, iii. 77
- Magee, Editor of 'Dublin Evening Post,' i. 104, 116
- Mahmoud, Sultan, ii. 599
- Mahon, Lord (Miscellanies), ii. 198, 225; where should Tories sit? ii. 209; History of England under George I., ii. 226; a natural result, ii. 383; on alienation of France, ii. 455
- Mahon, O'Gorman, ii. 73
- Malt tax, i. 216; ii. 216
- Malta, defence of, iii. 197, 199
- Manchester, expected Chartist riot at, ii. 510; peace and confidence restored, ii. 539
- Manners, Lord, i. 196, 314, 400
- Manners-Sutton (Speaker), i. 332
- Mansell, Mr., ii. 587
- Mansfield, Lord, i. 478; ii. 185, 227, 367
- Manufacturing Distress, Peel's speech on, ii. 556
- Manvers, Lady, ii. 402
- Marie-Amélie, Queen of France, iii. 161, 548
- Martin, R., ii. 62-64
- Martin, Sir Theodore, Life of Prince Consort, iii. 521, 548
- Martineau, Miss, ii. 558; iii. 329, 330
- Massena, i. 170, 172
- Mathew, 'Father,' iii. 424
- Matthew, Montague, i. 106
- Maule, Fox, iii. 87, 91
- Maunsell, Dr., iii. 130
- Maynooth, ii. 127, 129, 131; iii. 66, 101, 108, 173-176, 271, 274, 425, 612
- Meath, Bishop of, iii. 121
- Medway, defences of the, iii. 198
- Melbourne, Lord, ii. 28; Irish Chief Secretary, ii. 33; resigns, ii. 46; Whig ministry patched up under, ii. 245; reasons for his dismissal, ii. 253, 254, 278;

MELBOURNE

Premier, ii. 312; on Corn Laws, ii. 380, iii. 220; the Household question, ii. 402, 456; for dissolution, ii. 463, 464; his tribute to Peel, iii. 222

Melville, Lord, i. 488; ii. 271

Merton, Warden of, ii. 231

Metcalfe, Lord, iii. 23, 216

Methuen, Mr., i. 217

Metropolitan Police, Peel's reform of, i. 432, ii. 39, 111; their efficiency, ii. 168, 540

Metropolitan Police Bill, ii. 111

Metternich, Prince, ii. 483; iii. 363

Mildmay, Sir H., i. 227

Milford Haven, defences of, iii. 203

Militia, Wellington's organisation of, iii. 205

Mills, Mr., 148

Milnes, R. M. (Lord Houghton), iii. 431, 440

Milton, Sir John, iii. 330

Minto, Lord, ii. 349; iii. 493-495

'Mirror of Parliament,' iii. 356

Moffatt, Mr., iii. 340

Molesworth, Sir William, ii. 358, 361, 367, 369

Molyneux, Mr., ii. 266

Monaco, Prince of, i. 170

Moncreiff, Lord, iii. 71

Montagu, Lord, iii. 113

Monteagle, Lord (Spring Rice), ii. 36, 162, 247, 255, 363; iii. 463, 512, 516

Montefiore, Sir Moses, iii. 435

Montgomery, Sir Henry, i. 101

Moore, Judge, i. 249

Morgan, Lady, ii. 74

Morley's Cobden, cited, ii. 522, 524; iii. 330

'Morning Advertiser,' ii. 516

'Morning Chronicle,' ii. 32, 183, 398; iii. 387

'Morning Herald,' iii. 123

'Morning Post,' ii. 96

Morpeth, Lord, ii. 349; iii. 110, 128

Mount Edgecombe, Lord, i. 254

Mountjoy, Lord, i. 221

Municipal Reform Bill, ii. 312-317; (Ireland) ii. 336-347, 434, 438, 440, 445

Munro, Colonel, ii. 412

Mur Nassur Khan, iii. 32

Murchison, Sir Roderick, iii. 446

NOVA

Mure, Colonel, ii. 473

Murray, Archbishop, iii. 126, 127, 132, 174

Murray, John, ii. 330; iii. 544

Murray, Sir George, ii. 32, 166, 167, 188, 482, 484; iii. 23, 210, 218, 321

Musgrave, Sir Richard, i. 249

NAPIER, Sir Charles, iii. 2, 9, 14, 17, 200, 211, 263, 272, 299, 314, 315

National Debt, reduction of interest on, iii. 147

National defence, iii. 195-219

National Gallery, iii. 181

National University for Ireland, iii. 519-521

Naval defence, Commission on, iii. 196; progress of steam navigation, iii. 199; navy estimates, iii. 210

Navarino, ii. 34, 38

Navigation Laws, repeal of, iii. 503

Nesselrode, Count, iii. 149, 261, 373

New Brunswick, iii. 389

New Zealand, iii. 205

Newcastle, Duke of, i. 314, 330; ii. 189, 293; ii. 338, 559

Newport, Sir John, i. 116, 141, 150, 210, 213, 257, 285; iii. 437, 438

Nicholas, Emperor of Russia, iii. 161, 258, 261, 276, 331, 373, 549

Nicolls, Sir Jasper, ii. 585

Non-Intrusionists, iii. 82, 84, 95, 98

Norbury, Lord, i. 79, 129, 166

Norfolk, Duke of, i. 313

Normanby, Lady, ii. 403, 456, 458, 463

Normanby, Lord, ii. 395, 405, 461

North, Governor of Ceylon, i. 158

North America, ii. 356, 462

Northcote, Sir Stafford, iii. 169

Northumberland, Duchess of, iii. 352

Northumberland, Duke of, ii. 143, 146, 151

Norway, iii. 373

Nott, General, ii. 586, 588, 589, 591-594, 597, 600; iii. 5, 257

Nottingham, Reform riots at, ii. 189

Nova Scotia, iii. 389

O'CONNELL

- O'CONNELL, Daniel, i. 133; quarrel with Peel, i. 185 et seq.; Roman Catholic Association, i. 345, 390; prosecuted by Government, i. 354, 367; Cobbett, i. 356; Catholic Relief Bill, i. 372; Derry, i. 391; policy in Ireland, i. 417; elected for Clare, ii. 47; his insolent firman, ii. 65; Peel on, ii. 85, 213; Grattan's and Peel's Bills, ii. 105; his falling popularity, ii. 132; Sheil and, ii. 161; Althorp and, ii. 248; allied with Whigs, ii. 291, 298, 373; his reception in Liverpool, ii. 326; Repeal threats, ii. 364; Repeal Wardens, ii. 453, iii. 46; Repeal agitation, iii. 34, 47, 49; Howley Third Serjeant, iii. 60; his proposed trial, iii. 68; Peel mistaken for, iii. 108; federalism, iii. 121; his conviction quashed, iii. 124, 125; Charitable Trusts Act, iii. 126; his embarrassment, iii. 132; Maynooth Bill, iii. 174; v. Academical Institutions Bill, iii. 177; in praise of Russell, iii. 351; alarmed at distress in Ireland, iii. 464; greedy of patronage, iii. 466; and Peel, iii. 614
- O'Connor, Feargus, ii. 510
- Ogle, Colonel, i. 43
- O'Gorman, i. 103
- Orange societies, i. 122, 158, 159, 368
- Orangemen, ii. 118; iii. 182, 186
- Oregon question, the, iii. 318, 324, 371, 451
- Oriel, Lord, i. 410
- Orleans, Ferdinand Philippe, Duke of, ii. 352, 353
- Orloff, Count, iii. 261
- Outram, Sir James, iii. 1
- Overstone, Lord, iii. 352
- Owen, Professor, iii. 162, 433, 445, 447
- Oxford University, Peel resigns seat for, ii. 88, 101; Wellington Chancellor of, ii. 227-231; Chancellorship offered to Peel, ii. 228
- POER, Lord, i. 173
- Paisley, distress at, ii. 532
- Palmer, Horsley, iii. 139
- Palmerston, Lord, i. 168, 256, 357;

PEEL

- Secretary at War, ii. 28, 32; resigns, ii. 46; Whig overtures, ii. 163, 165; Peel v., ii. 176; a torrent of abuse, ii. 378; Graham on, ii. 492; steam navigation, iii. 203, 211; England defenceless, iii. 207, 214; Grey's objection to, iii. 284; the Boundary question, iii. 387; advocates reciprocity (Navigation Laws), iii. 504; Free Trade policy in corn, iii. 524; Peel on his foreign policy, iii. 534, 542; and Aberdeen, iii. 535; his coercion of Greece: alienation of France and Russia, iii. 541; Peel's last speech, iii. 542
- Paris, Allies in, i. 128; outbreaks at, ii. 156
- Parke, Judge, iii. 124, 126
- Parliamentary Reform, ii. 164, 167, 173
- Parnell, Sir Henry, i. 140, 150, 187, 228; iii. 220
- Pastorini's Prophecy, i. 340, 342
- Paterson, Mrs. (Lady Wellesey), i. 378
- 'Patriot,' the, i. 116, 353
- Patronage, ii. 139; Irish Church, iii. 414; Scottish Church, iii. 415; English Church, iii. 416-422; 'Peel's Act,' iii. 422; Peel's first academical appointment, iii. 422; civil appointments, iii. 424; Scottish judicial appointments, iii. 428; Royal Bounty (Pensions), iii. 436-444; rewards for science, iii. 444; for artists, iii. 448
- Patterson, Mr., ii. 99
- Peel, Edmund, i. 484; ii. 263; iii. 358
- Peel, Miss Eliza, iii. 558
- Peel, Frederick (son), iii. 270; a brilliant maiden speech, iii. 507; letters on his father's death from:—Walpole, iii. 550; Dean of Lincoln, iii. 552; Londonderry, iii. 554; Karslake's tribute, iii. 622
- Peel, Rev. John, i. 254 (brother), Dean of Worcester, iii. 420
- Peel, John (son), iii. 270
- Peel (General), Jonathan, i. 406
- Peel, Miss Julia, ii. 251, 263, 277, 352
- Peel, Lawrence, i. 293

PEEL

- Peel, Sir Lawrence, i. 6-8
 Peel, Robert (grandfather), i. 3, 5
 Peel, Sir Robert (father), i. 5, 6;
 M.P. for Tamworth, supporter of Pitt, i. 7; baronet, ibid.; on National Debt, i. 8; Robert's first speech, i. 27; his thanks to Perceval, i. 28; Robert's honorary degree at Oxford, i. 179; Factory Bill, i. 259, et seq.; Tamworth election, i. 269; on commercial crisis—Exchequer bills and l. notes, i. 380; on commercial distress, i. 398; Jonathan's election for Norwich, i. 406; Robert's retirement, i. 475; his congratulations to his son, ii. 33; his son's explanations, ii. 92-94; his son's position, ii. 110; his death, ii.
 151
 Peel, Lady (wife), i. 301; ii. 34, 251,
 277, 352, 554, iii. 275, 316, 472,
 507; Sir Robert's death, iii. 545;
 sympathetic letters from:—
 Queen of France, iii. 548;
 Emperor of Russia: Grand Duke of Saxony, iii. 549; Sir John Russell, 551; Aberdeen, iii. 556; Graham, iii. 557; Lord Townshend, iii. 558; the Queen's offering to, iii. 558; the Duke of Newcastle's and Mr. Gladstone's tribute, iii. 559, 560; her letter to Lord Aberdeen, iii. 555; her gratitude to the Queen, iii. 559 Peel, Sir Robert:
 1788-1811. Ancestry &c., i.
 3; birth, 8; devoted by father to country, 9; remarkable memory, 10, 15; pupil of Rev.
 J. Hargreaves at Bury, 10; school at Tamworth, 11; sensitiveness, ibid.; at Harrow with Byron, 12, 13; passion for field sports, 14; attendance in House of Commons, 16; pupil of Rev. R. Bridge, 17;
 at Christ Church, Oxford, 20;
 a double-first, 22; visits Scotland, 24; M.P. for Cashel, ibid.; enters Lincoln's Inn, ibid.; seconds address, 25; Dr. Jackson's advice, 28, 29; second speech on Walcheren Expedition, 29; Under-Secretary for War and Colonies, 30; speech on Peninsular War, 31

PEEL

1812. Chief Secretary for Ireland, i. 32; new ruler of Ireland, 35; intimacy with Lord
 Liverpool, 36 et seq.; gives up Cashel, 39; M.P. for Chippenham, 40; peerages and votes,
 41, 42; success and popularity,
 42; parliamentary parties, 43;
 Canning and Lord Wellesley,
 44, 45; Croker and Down, 48;
 dealings with Government patronage, 50, 51; Croker and patronage, 54 et seq.; impressions of new Parliament, 64;
 Catholic question, 71 1813. Favours bartered for political support, i. 58, 59; attitude on Catholic question, 73;
 Grattan's Committee and Bill,
 73, 74, 76-85; Irish members' support, 74; on Pole's speech,
 76; Roman Catholic amended
 Bill, 85; Protestant ascendancy,
 87; Irish education, 87-93;
 business capacity, 94; rebukes official negligence, 95, 96;
 frauds and defalcations, 97;
 Grand Canal Company, 98;
 Skibbereen Report, Pension
 Fund, 100; political patronage, 101; Lord Whitworth as Viceroy, ibid.; Prince Regent, 102; battle of Vittoria, ibid.; O'Connell at Magee's trial, 104; on Pole, 105; new viceroy and the press, ibid.; official responsibilities, 108, 126; proposed union of Chief Secretary and Chancellor of Exchequer, 108-
 113; control of navy in Ireland, 113; Irish press—forgery and libel, 114-118; Catholic Board, 118; Irish dependence on the Castle, 119; murderous outrages—lawlessness and disaffection in Ireland, 120 et seq.;
 Protestants and Catholics,
 Orange men and Ribbonmen,
 122; Catholic bishops, 123;
 Insurrection Act, 125
 1814. Fears of peace with France, i. 127, et seq.; on Crown Prince of Sweden, 128; Périgord, 130; fresh outrages in Ireland, 131; soldiers as police,
 132, et seq.; Catholic Board,
 134, 138 et seq.; 'Kilkenny

PEEL

resolutions, 135; Michael Burke, ibid.; Police Act, Insurrection Act, 143-151; on Plunket, i. 146; Irish police, chief magistrate, &c., 151, 152; Judge Fletcher's charge, 153, 154; Police Act, 154 et seq.; Orangemen, 158, 159; anonymous threats, 160; troubles of patronage, 160-163; special magistrates, 162; peerages and appointments, 164

1815. Lords Justices in Ireland, i. 166; effects of peace on price of corn, 167; Corn Bill, 167, 169; advocates protective duties, ibid.; Corn Law riots—Palmerston's precautions, 168; effect in Ireland of Bonaparte's success, 171; troops in Ireland, 172; fears about Irish militia: yeomanry a neutral force, 174; withdrawal of troops from Ireland, 175; militia embodied, 178; refuses Insurrection Act: D.C.L. degree at Oxford, 179; battle of Waterloo, 180; Duke of Cumberland's allowance, 180, 181; visits Paris and Brussels, 182; Catholic petition, 184, 185, 188; quarrel and intended duel with O'Connell, 185-204; serious outrages in Ireland—Insurrection Act enforced, 199

1816. Peace without prosperity: outbreaks of crime, i. 205; Insurrection Act, 205, 206; perjury and crime in Ireland, 206; retrenchment and reform, 208; Irish military estimates, 208, 217; Medical Board, 209; property tax, 210, 216; sinecures in Ireland, 212; dangers of proposed Irish inquiry, 213-223; difficulty of managing business in House of Commons, 215; malt tax, 216; rigid economy, 218; Irish magistracy, 218, 221; affray at Roscrea, 223; Irish debate, ibid.; Catholic schism, 225; debate on Catholic question, 226; a vice-treasurer for Ireland, 227; intends to resign, 228; Englishmen should govern Ireland, 229; Lord Talbot viceroy, 230; revolting outrages, 231; Irish policy, 232 et seq.; Irish emigration, 233; English riots, 234; state of Ireland, 236

PEEL

1817. Disaffection in England—Habeas Corpus Act suspended, i. 237; secret committee and reform societies, 239; Bill to abolish sinecures, ibid.; impending famine in Ireland, 239-245; distillation and export of potatoes, 240 et seq.; Poor Relief Bill, 244; speech on Catholic claims, 246; requested by Dublin Corporation to sit for portrait, 247; friends' congratulations, 248 et seq.; election for Oxford University, 250-253; his brothers William and John, 254; address from Irish members, 255; distress in Ireland promotes peace, 257; peace establishment in Ireland, 258; complimentary memorial, ibid.

1818. Factory Bill, i. 259, 262; the Warrington cotton spinners, 259; grants to Royal Family, 262; a severe economist, 263; support of Irish children, 264; works of public charity: fever committee, 265; farewell to Ireland, 265 et seq.; remarks on his successor, 266; hints as to premiership, 268; dissolution of Parliament: Irish elections, 269; dearth of patronage, 270 et seq.; payments for political support, 273; refuses to bargain, 274; expects strict integrity in public servants, 278; Sir John Newport, 285; last letters from Dublin Castle, 286; in Scotland, 287; Dr. Lloyd and Lincoln's Inn preachship, 288

1819-1821. Proposes Manners-Sutton as Speaker, i. 289; grant for royal establishment, ibid.; views on 'Currency,' 289-295; chairman of secret committees, 290; 'Currency' debate: 'Peel's Act,' 295; Catholic question, 296; death of George III., 297; marriage, 301; declines presidency of Board of Control, 298; Queen Caroline, ibid.; resists Catholic claims, 298, 299; Home Secretary, 300, 305

PEEL

1822. Lord Wellesley, i. 305; sympathy with Saurin, 307; treason in Ireland, 310, 311; Canning's proposal to admit Catholics to House of Lords, 312, 314; personal relations with George IV.: prerogative of mercy, 315-317; attends King to Scotland, 318; Sir Walter Scott, ibid.; Sir William Knighton, 319; Lord Londonderry's death, 319-321; Dr. Lloyd, 322 et seq.; Primacy of Ireland, 324; Drury's congratulations, 325; leadership of House of Commons, 327 et seq.

1823. The King and 'Sunday Times,' 338; King's Property Bill, ibid.; the King and Colonel Stephenson, 339, 340; urges Protestant forbearance, 341; an impartial government of Ireland, 343

1824. Religious education in Ireland, i. 344; Roman Catholic Association, 345 et seq.; Wellington fears civil war in Ireland, 348; the King and Roman Catholics, 349; Irish yeomanry and militia, 352 et seq.; Plunket and Orangemen, 355; O'Connell's prosecution, 356; Bill for suppression of Roman Catholic Association, 357; Roman Catholic barristers, 359; plots against Wellington in Paris, ibid.; Lord Eldon's gratitude, 360; patron of literature and art, 362; Lord Liverpool and Dean Gaistord, ibid.; Sir H. Davy and proposed Natural History Museum, 363-365; Scott's portrait, 365

1825. Failure of O'Connell prosecution: Wellington's views, i. 367, 368; Catholic Convention: State payment of Roman Catholic clergy, 369; the King and Catholics, 370; Lord Liverpool's supposed conversion to popery, 371; Catholic Relief Bill: proposed resignation, 372-376; Roman Catholic Irish noblemen's address to King, 373; Bill for preventing frivolous writs, 377; Royal Commission on Scottish universities, ibid.; Roman Catholic bishops in pontificalibus, 379; Combination Laws, ibid.; commercial crisis and the banking system, 380 et seq.; Exchequer bills and tl. notes, 381; founds gold medal at Harrow, 386; the King and Royal Society medals, 387; Rev. M. Drury, 388; application to Lord Liverpool for Dawson and his brother John, 388; Act for suppression of Irish societies, 390

PEEL

1826. Extension of College accommodation at Oxford, 385; on sins and repentance, ibid.; proceedings at Derry: rebukes Dawson, 391, 392; Catholic prelates and Irish education, 393; Exchequer bills: small-note currency: bimetalism, 394 et seq.; Spitalfields weavers, 398; criminal law, 399 et seq.; on transportation, 401; agricultural labourers, 404; general elections, 406; his brother Jonathan and Norwich, 407; Sievrae: Sir John Sinclair, 408; Waterford and Louth elections, 409 et seq.; religious animosities in Ireland, activity of priests, 410; Protestant processions, 412; difficulties in Ireland, 414; threatening aspect of foreign affairs, 415; Irish priests and party animosities, 417 et seq.; military forces in Ireland, 420, 428; securities against Catholic domination, 422; the Roman Catholic Association and concessions, 426; Irish law officers and Roman Catholic Association, 428-431; reform of Metropolitan Police, 432, 433; Duke of York's death, 433; Wellington as Commander-in-Chief, 433-437; Dr. Lloyd and Bishopric of Oxford, 437-446; Captain Anstruther, 447

1827. Lord Liverpool's illness, 448; reconstruction of Government, 451-462; Canning's, Wellington's, and his own claims, 452 et seq.; at Windsor, 457; refuses peerage, 459; reasons for resigning, 460, 466, 484, 486; Canning Prime Minister, 463; friendship with Canning, 464,

PEEL

487, 493; Croker's explanations, 468-474; father and Lord Goderich on his retirement, 475; Dr. Lloyd's advice, 477; feeling in country and House of Commons: colleagues condemned, 481, 482; Wellington's resignation and the press, 483; vindication in Parliament, 487; Canning's opinion of, 487, 490; his colleagues' resignation, 488; Canning and the Whigs, 491; leads House of Commons on Canning's death, 493; Canning's natural successor, ii. 1; mistrusts the King, 2; on Wellington and command-in-chief, 8; the Catholic question—his exclusion from office, 9; correspondence with Dr. Lloyd, 14-17; on the King and Whigs, 18, 22; and Huskisson, 25

1828. His relations with and support of Wellington, ii. 27, 57; takes office under Wellington, 28; his chief confidant, 30; Home Secretary, 32; regrets losing Lord Eldon, 33; his father's congratulations, 33; hints for the address, 34; Home Office work, 35; on Hobhouse's retirement, 36; proposed reforms, 37; Finance and Foreign affairs, 38; London police, 39; Hunton the Quaker—the King's interference, 42; Burke and Hare, 44; Chaplain-General Gleig, 45; Roman Catholic Relief, 46; Clare election, 47; Ireland, 48, 56, 69; transfer of political power, 49; intends resigning, 54, 57, 69; a choice of evils, 55; the Roman Catholic question—his idea of a settlement, 59; prospects in Galway, 63; troops for Ireland, 65; the King's approval, 66; advises Anglesey's recall, 67

1829. Roman Catholic Relief—difficulties with the King, ii. 76-78, 82; will retain office if necessary, 79; measures for Ireland, 84, 116, 122-139; explains to Gregory, 86; to Lord Hotham, 90; to his father, 92; to Colonel Yates, 94; to Sir Walter Scott, 99; reasons for

PEEL

resigning Oxford, 101-103; the Disfranchisement Bill, 104; M.P. for Westbury, 104; on Roman Catholic Relief Bill, 105; his motives, 107; Metropolitan Police Bill, 111-115; Orangemen v. Catholics, 117, 120; on patronage, 139

1830. The King and the Royal Academy, ii. 142, 143; the King's health, 145, 152; Jews' Relief Bill, 146; abuse of prerogative of mercy, 147, 150; his father's death, 151; accession of William IV., 153; the King's speech, 155; French Revolution, 157; revolt in Belgium, 159; the demons of Tipperary, 160; working the press, 161; declines Liverpool seat, 162; Whig overtures, 163-166; efficiency of new police, 168; the Ultra-Tories, 170

1831. Parliamentary Reform, ii. 173 et seq.; Chatham's, Pitt's, Canning's, and his own views, 174; speech on Reform Bill, 176; his views on Reform, 180, 181, 186, 187, 194, 196; M.P. for Tamworth, 182; 'The Waverers,' 185; reckless example of Ultra-Tories, 186; two sections of Conservatives, 187; second Reform Bill rejected by Lords, 188; popular violence, 189; on counter-associations, 190; wholly unfettered, 194; Hildyard's Bill, 196

1832. His reply to Lord Harrowby, ii. 199; counsels rejection of Reform, 201; strenuous effort to mitigate Reform, 203; Wellington for extensive Reform—Peel against, 205

1833. New rules of political conduct, ii. 209; where should Tories sit? 211; his general line of policy, 212; making the Reform Bill work, 215; malt tax, 216; Irish Church Bill, 217, 220-224; the Coronation Oath, 219; Irish tithes, 220; Whig dissensions, 223; on amendments to the address, 224; supports House of Lords, 225; on Walpole's character, 225, 226

1834. Proposed for Chan-

PEEL

cellorship of Oxford, ii. 228-231; Wellington elected, 231; abated intercourse with Wellington, 232-239; the Duke's declaration, 241; Irish Church Funds—Ward's motion, 243; no union with Radicals, 247; proposed Tithe Commutation Bill, 248; his friends at Blackburn, 250; called from Rome by the King, 251; Premier, 256; overtures to Stanley and Graham, 257-259; 'only the Duke's old Cabinet,' 261; letters as to appointments, 262-268; the Church of Scotland—'The Ten Years' Conflict,' iii. 69

1835. Lord Londonderry at St. Petersburg, ii. 269; his brother's claims, 271; promotions to the Bench, 273; a bold policy of Conservative Reform, 274; Dissenter's marriages, 275; correspondence with the King, 276, 278; the Whigs and the address—Stanley's 'vision,' 278; defends Melbourne's dismissal, 278; Stanley's position, 279; Church Reform, 282-286; second Reformed Parliament—the King's attitude, 287; Lichfield House Compact, 290; calls Hume to account, 290, 291; six defeats in six weeks, 292; governing with a minority, 293; stern unbending Tories, 295; not a reformer at all, 296; Irish tithes, 299-301; resigns office, 303; offers royal bounty to Wordsworth, 304; to Mrs. Hemans, 306; to Professor Airy, 307; to Mrs. Somerville, 308; to James Hogg, 309; to Southey, 310; Municipal Reform Bill, 313-317; Lyndhurst's amendments, 316

1836. On importance of timely consultation, ii. 318; increased intercourse with Wellington, 319, 321; Graham and Stanley, 322; Irish municipal reform, 322; Duke of Cumberland's Orangeism, 324; recess studies, 325; his election and reception as Lord Rector of Glasgow University, 327

PEEL

1837. His address to Glasgow students, ii. 330; congratulations from Mr. Murray, ibid.; from Lord Londonderry and Miss Edgeworth, 331; from Mr. Everett, 333; joint generalship, 335; Irish Municipal Bill, 336, 340, 344, 347; Conservatives and Ultra-Tories, 337; faction irreconcilable with Conservative opposition, 338; Irish tithes and Poor Laws, 345; re-elected for Tamworth, 350; an insult and apology, ibid.; Duke of Orleans, 352; King of Hanover, 353

1838. Revolt in Canada, ii. 355; Molesworth's motion, 356-363, 367; confers with Wellington, 365; registration of voters, 368; Lord Durham and the Whigs, 369; Government and the ballot, 370; a specimen of Irish human nature, 371

1839. At Belvoir Castle, ii. 373; the Duke of Cumberland, 374; Croker and Brougham, 374, 395; keeping the party together, 375; Corn Laws and Canada, 378-382; Irish crime, 383; Lord Roden's motion, 384; Wellington on 'Followers,' 385; Jamaica, 387; sent for by the Queen, 387, 390; timely feminine counsel, 389; forming a Cabinet, 391; the Household question, 392, 396-399, 402, 407; Radical violence, 401; the Queen and the Tories, 405; the great Offices of the Court, 406; the Queen and Prince Albert, 408, 414; suggestions for the coming session, 410; a policy of deficits, 411; cathedral reform, ibid.; Wellington's health, 412; party prospects, 415; Wellington's forecast, 417; Graham's views, 421, 427; questions for decision, 424; Wellington's doubts, 426; the Church of Scotland, 430

1840. Wellington counsels delay, ii. 431; Grant for Prince Albert, 432; differences with Wellington, 433; Irish Municipal Bill, 434, 438, 445; the union of the Canadas—his own and the Duke's views, 435-445; in close alliance with Wellington, 447; France and Louis Philippe, 449; 'my boy William,' 451; Dr. Chalmers' suggestion, iii. 73

PEEL

1841. France and the peace of Europe, ii. 454, 455; the Household question, 456-460, 463; Wellington's advice and unconditional support, 460-462; his censure of the Whig ministry: Parliament dissolved, 464, 465; the language of thousands, 466; electioneering: verdict of the constituencies, 467, 475; Church of Scotland, 468-474; the Puseyites, 475; Speaker's election, 477; Disraeli, 478, 486-488; an amendment to the address, 479; his second ministry, 481; disappointments were many, 483; Londonderry dissatisfied, 484; Stratford Canning, 485; financial reform, 489-510; inherited deficits, 489; income tax, 490, 491, 501, 502, 506; retrenchment, 492-494; Commission on Revenue Departments, 495; tariff, 496; sugar and coffee, 498; a property tax, 499; revision of Corn Law, ibid.; Gladstone on income tax, 502, 503; the timber duties, 504; house tax, 505; Herries on income tax, 506; Fine Arts Commission, 509; Feargus O'Connor's reception at Manchester, 510; birth of Prince of Wales, 511; Lord Clare for Jamaica, 512; Gladstone's apologia, 513, 514; Lord Ellenborough Governor-General of India, 575; 'far the most fit person,' 577; Fitzgerald at the Board of Control, 578; O'Connell and Repeal, iii. 34, 45; supports national education in Ireland, 35; the tone of Eliot's letter, 36; Sir George Sinclair, 74-79; Hope's extreme opinion, 76; Lord Aberdeen's Bill (Church of Scotland), 78, 79; the liberum arbitrium, 79; Dr. Cook's advice, 80; on Church patronage in Ireland, 414; Graham on Church patronage in Scotland, 416; Professor Whewell: Dr. C. Wordsworth, 422, 423; his practice in the bestowal of honours, 426-430

PEEL

1842. Sport in Windsor Park with Prince Albert, ii. 518; Protectionist resignations, 520, 521; rancour of the populace, 522; Cobden on his financial policy—clamour, hostility, and obstruction, 524; reduced protection, 527; his Free Trade convictions, 529; our Ultra friends, 532; education reform, 533, 547; mining reform, 534; Wellington Commander-in-Chief, 535; the Queen's visit to Scotland, 537-545; manufacturing disorders, 540; recess correspondence with Home Secretary, 546-551; activity of Chartists, 546; employment of pensioners, ibid.; Ecclesiastical Commission, 547-549; Stipendiary Chairmen, 549; Church Extension, 550; the next change in the Corn Laws, 551; the heavy burden of Indian affairs, 579; the North-West frontier, 580; Macnaghten's murder at Cabul, 581; Afghanistan—his and Wellington's advice to Ellenborough, 583; Ellenborough's hasty action, 586; correspondence with Fitzgerald on Ellenborough, 589-598, 600; General Noté, 591, 592, 594, 600; East India Company v. Ellenborough, 596; the Gates of Somnath, 597-600; congratulates Ellenborough, 600; Ameers of Soinde, iii. 1; a class of Alarmists, 37; Dr. Elrington, 38; mischief of a rupture between Viceroy and Chief Secretary, 40-43; Church of Scotland, 82-90; a policy of reserve, 82-87; the Patronage question, 83-85; Non-Intrusionists, 86; Sir George Sinclair, 87, 89; Convocation of Scottish Ministers—their memorial to, 89; the Queen and the General Assembly, 96; on Bagot's policy in Canada, 380-386; Wellington on Bagot, 382-385; Boundary and other questions with America, 386-

PEEL

390; the entente cordiale with France, 390-392; Goulburn's son, and Croker, on Wilberforce, 416; 'Father Mathew,' 424; his practice in bestowing honours, 431; pensions and the royal bounty, 436; Wordsworth's claim, 437, 438; scientific claims: Forbes, Owen, 445

1843. Drummond's assassination: the Queen's sympathy, ii. 552-555; his speech on manufacturing distress, 556; denounced by Cobden, 557; his reply, 558; Nonconformist hostility, 560; Ashley on 'united education,' 561; Church Extension, 563; his gift to Ecclesiastical Commissioners, 566; Radical obstruction, 568; Custom House frauds, 569; the City election, 570; military expenditure, 572-574; forbids Fitzgerald's resignation, iii. 4; Ellenborough's complaints, 5, 17; Ripon for the Board of Control, 6; Indian questions in Parliament, 7; uneasiness about Scinde, 9; the East India Company v. Ellenborough, 10, 11; annexation of Scinde confirmed, 14; Repeal agitation, 46-48; maintenance of the Union, 48; Sugden and Irish magistrates, 51; Lucas, 53, 55; Roman Catholics for office in Ireland, 54, 56-59; de Grey and Eliot, 60; police patronage in Ireland, 61; Irish law officers, 62; Wellington for Ireland (?), 63; force no permanent remedy for Ireland, 65; payment of the priests, 67; revision of Irish county franchise, 68; memorial from Moderator of the General Assembly, 89-91; on Scottish Church patronage, 91; terms offered by the Crown, 94; the Free Church and the Old Church, 99; the Queen's visit to France, 393; official patronage, a public trust, 421; Disraeli's shabbiness, 425; pensions for Robert Brown, Lady Bell, Sir William Hamilton, 447

1844. Ellenborough's complaints, iii. 18-20; the East

PEEL

India Company, 22, 21, 24; Ellenborough recalled, 21; choice of a successor, 23; the Crown and the East India Company, 24, 27; Sir Henry Hardinge, Governor-General, 25, 27, 256; rewards for Ellenborough: the Queen's approval, 28, 33; Ireland, 101-133; Maynooth, 101; education of the priests, 102; Roman Catholic barristers, 104; the warnings of the past, 105; conciliation for Ireland, 106; the Queen's approval of his Irish policy, 108; mistaken for O'Connell, ibid.; Wellington uneasy about a lower franchise, 109; on Elliot's proposal to abolish Chief Secretaryship, 111; Fremantle Secretary at War, 113; Lucas resigns; Heytesbury succeeds de Grey, ibid.; correspondence with Heytesbury, 114-133; weaning Ireland from repeal, 114; national education, 115, 118; trial by jury, 116-118, 124; patronage and Church preferment, 118-121; deaneries of Killala and Limerick, 121; O'Connell and Repeal: federalism, 122; Mr. Butt, 123; O'Connell's conviction quashed, 124, 125; Charitable Trusts Act, 126-133; our Roman Catholic allies, 133; Bank Charter Act, 134, 143; Disraeli's party allegiance, 144-146; reduction of interest on National Debt, 147; Factory Act, ibid.; Baron Brunow, 149; an unambitious budget, 150; sugar duties, 153; Lord Ashley misunderstood, 153, 154; Disraeli's rebellion, 154; Stanley called to the Upper House, 155, 158; Wellington retains lead of House of Lords, 157; Gladstone resigns Board of Trade, 160; on royal guests at Windsor, 162; his guests at Drayton Manor, ibid.; defence of Canada, 195; Naval Defence Commission, 196; effect of steam navigation, 199; the royal yacht, 200; Hardinge, G.C.B., 257; Ellenborough's forecast, 258; Hardinge on the

PEEL

Punjab, 261, 263; home news for Hardinge, 264; the entente cordiale with France, 394; French violence in Tahiti, 394, 395; French in Algeria, 395; an Irish bishop's claims, 415; on cathedral preferment, 418; a gross Irish job, 425; sparing in the grant of civil honours, 431; help for Thomas Hood, 442-444

1845. Gladstone's reasons for resigning, iii. 163-169; re-arranges his Government, 168; his second Free Trade Budget, 169-171; King Leopold on, 172; Maynooth Bill, 173-176, 179; Inglis on Academical Institutions (Ireland) Bill, 177; Tenants' Compensation (Ireland) Bill, ibid.; Fremantle Irish Chief Secretary, 178; Bright on Game Laws, 179; reliance on the ordinary law, 180, 181; a National Gallery, 181; a Roman Catholic Under-Secretary, 183; a Roman Catholic Chief Clerk, 185; Orange demonstrations, 186; Lord Roden's indiscretion, 187; the mania of railway speculation, 188; Wellington urges force for Ireland, 190-192; Croker, Brougham, and Adam Smith, 193, 194; national defence—Wellington's official protest, and Peel's reply, 201-216; his health threatened, 218; the Corn Law question—his changed opinions, 220; growth of his Free Trade principles, 221; a well-timed tribute from Lord Melbourne, 222; potato famine in Ireland, 223; Playfair's and Lindley's reports, 225-227; proposes suspension of Corn Laws, 227 et seq.; aid for Ireland, 229; his colleagues' dissent, 231; Lord Lincoln's advice, ibid.; correspondence with the Queen and Prince Albert, 234-254; Stanley's opposition, 236, 240; the Queen's appeal to, 239; his resignation, 240-243; farewell to the Queen, 242; Wellington retains command-in-chief, 244; Russell's attempts to form a Government, 245, 246, 248-251; Russell accepts and rejects office, 253, 283, 289, 295; the Queen's kindness to, 255; Graham on Hardinge, 266; the Sikh States, 267, 274, 277, 312; more home news for Hardinge, 269, 308; his financial and Irish policy, 271; false conservatism and true, 272, 273; the quiet and repose of Drayton, 273; Hardinge's Punjab policy, 275, 277-279; the Lahore Government, 277, 279; gives Hardinge his reasons for resigning and resuming office, 280, 295; his resumption of office, 283; Stanley persists in resigning, 284; the Queen's confidence in, 285; Gladstone and Stanley, 286; Ellenborough at the Admiralty, 288; Whigs in Council, 289; reconstructs Government, 291; Gladstone's plea for Lord Lyttelton, 292, 293; orders for a complete Free Trade Budget, 294; Hardinge on the Sikh campaign, 296-300; Aberdeen's formal protest against Wellington's scheme of national defence, 396-398; probability of war with France, 399, 400; Aberdeen's proposed resignation condemned by Wellington, Graham, and, 401-407; Wellington on France and England, 405, 408; Guizot's thesis, 409-411; the Queen's misgivings, 412; the Deanery of Westminster, 417; a reply to Gladstone no Church patronage, 418; deaneries of Peterborough, Carlisle, Wells, Worcester, and Llandaff, 429-421; Charles Buller, 426; Tennyson's pension, 439-442; Roderick Murchison knighted, 446; his letter to King Leopold, 477

PEEL

1846. His congratulations to Hardinge, iii. 301; Ellenborough's cry of mismanagement: critics at home, 302; Lady Sale's tribute, 303; a vote of thanks to Hardinge, ibid.; Sikh overtures, 304; Sobraon, 305; honours for Hardinge and Gough, 307, 308; Lahore, 310-313; Hardinge's summary of results, 313; universal approval of Hardinge's policy—Peel's tribute to, 318; Hardinge's gratitude, 319; praise and dispraise, 321; Lord Francis Egerton to move the address, 322; disclosures of his policy, 324; confident of success, 326; the Queen's great satisfaction, ibid.; Buclench and Stanley resign, 327; the rancour of Cobden, 328-330; Miss Martineau makes peace, 330-332; a great statesman, 333; Rops' defeat, 334; regrettable resignations, 335-338; the Queen's tribute to, 338; his speech on second reading of Corn Bill, 339-343; the Assassination Bill, 344; Russell and the Irish Protection for Life Bill, 345, 346; third reading of Corn Bill: Disraeli's onslaught on, 347; the Queen's warm congratulations, 348; organised revenge, 349; the Whigs' dilemma, 352; Lord Hardinge's Bill, 353; Brougham on Protection Bill, 355; the Bentinck episode, 355, 356, 358; Stanley swallows a 'fact' too easily, 357; true relations between Liverpool, Canning, and, 358, 359; Princess Lieven, 360; loss of support in House of Commons, 361; Lady de Grey's canard, 362; a forecast—Wellington's answer, 363, 365; Wellington for dissolution, 367; his reply to Cobden's advice, 367-369; Brougham's counsel, 369; his last speech in office, 370; his tribute to Cobden, 371; quod dixi, dixi, 372; European opinion, 373; the final struggle to maintain the Corn Laws—Stanley, Bentinck, Disraeli, and Croker, 374; Dean Stanley on his speech, 374; his reasons and explanations, 375; Carlyle's tribute to, 377; Chief Justice Bushe's application, 426; a baronetcy declined by Hallam, 432; baronetcy accepted by John Gladstone, 434; by Moses Montefiore, 435; Faraday, 447; help for Haydon, 448; pension for Sir M. A. Shee, 449; withdraws to Drayton: the

PEEL

PEEL

Queen's letter, and his reply, 451, 452; Hume's regrets, 453; Rev. Dr. Edgar, 454; Whig overtures declined, 455; a successful career concluded with honour, 456; Wellington and command-in-chief, 457; the Elbing Letter, 459; Whig government of Ireland, 461, 464; Irish gratitude, 463; Whig policy of public works, 465; Graham predicts worse famine for Ireland, 467; Irish expenditure will be frightful, 469; home news for Hardinge, 471-474; his letter to King Leopold, 477

1847. Hardinge's Punjab settlement, iii. 475; the Government as weak as water, 476; another letter to King Leopold, 479; the King's reply, 480; famine in Ireland, 481; his advice to the Whigs, 482; on the administration of justice in Scotland, 483; his son William, 484; declines to stand for City, 485; his Tamworth letter, 486; Peelite successes, 488

1848. New Year wishes from Prince Albert, 490; reviewing the past with Graham, 491; declines Presidency of Royal Society, 492; Sidney Herbert on diplomatic relations with Rome, 493; his generous offer to Louis Philippe, 495; records of Cabinet Councils, 496

1849. Whig overtures to Graham, iii. 500; distress in Ireland, 502, 509; repeal of the Navigation Laws, 503; his aid invoked, 504; defends Lord Gough, 505; his sympathy with German aspirations, 505-507; his son Frederick's brilliant maiden speech, 508; his latest counsels for Ireland: proposed Commission, 509, 513; Encumbered Estates Act, 515; Mr. Caird and Irish agriculture, 517; a National University for Ireland, 519-521; Disraeli's protectionist motion, 522; protection or no protection, 523; reaction against Free Trade, 525

1850. His letter to the Drayton tenants, iii. 528; rack rents,

PEEL

- 529; 'What a cutting rebuke to protection!' 531; debate on agricultural distress: Disraeli's motion, 532; his private declaration against protection, 534; Palmerston's and Aberdeen's foreign policy, 535-540; Palmerston's coercion of Greece, and its result, 541; his last speech, on Palmerston's diplomacy, 542; his fatal accident, 544; and death, 545; tributes of sorrow in Lords and Commons, 546; the Queen's and Prince Albert's grief, 547; letters of condolence from Prince Albert, Queen of France, Emperor of Russia, and others, 548-559; the Queen's offering to Lady Peel, 558; a summary of his life by his grandson, Hon. George Peel, 561-621; Karslake's lines on, 622
- Peel, William (brother), ii. 23, 24, 106, 152, 271; iii. 337
- Peel, William, i. 8, 10, 12, 16, 21, 26, 194; M.P. for Tamworth, i. 269; seconds address, i. 303; declines Under-Secretaryship of State, ibid.
- Peel, William (son), ii. 451, 452; iii. 483
- Peerages and baronetcies, Peel's practice and motives in bestowing, iii. 426-435
- Pemberton, Mr., iii. 481
- Pennefather, Mr., iii. 62, 184
- Pensions and royal bounty, i. 100, 275; iii. 436-444
- Pepys, Dr. Henry, Bishop of Worcester, iii. 420
- Perceval, Mr., i. 28; makes Peel Under-Secretary for War and Colonies, i. 30; assassinated, i. 31, ii. 219
- Périgord, i. 130
- Persiani, Madame, ii. 569
- Peshawur, importation of, iii. 274; Sikh garrison at, iii. 312
- Philip VII. of France, ii. 158
- Phillips, Peel's Under-Secretary, ii. 37
- Phillipotts, Dr., Bishop of Exeter, ii. 265; iii. 422
- Pitt, and Parliamentary Reform, ii. 174
- Pitt, Miss, ii. 403
- Pittacus' letter to the 'Times,' ii. 478

PUSEYITES

- Pius IX., Pope, iii. 493
- Planta, Canning's Under-Secretary, i. 491-493; Secretary to Treasury, ii. 139, iii. 359
- Playfair, Lord (Dr. Lyon), iii. 162, 225, 226, 280
- Plunket, Mr., i. 75, 138, 223, 298; Attorney-General for Ireland, i. 302, 354, 355; prosecutions, i. 368; Catholic Relief Bill, i. 372
- Plymouth, defences of, iii. 203, 400
- Pole, Hon. W. Wellesley, i. 76 et seq., 89, 277
- Police Act (Ireland), i. 143 et seq.
- Police, Irish, ii. 121; iii. 61
- Police, London, i. 432; Peel's reform of, ii. 39, 111; their efficiency, ii. 168, 540
- Pollock, General Sir George, ii. 586, 588, 593, 597, 599, 601, 602; iii. 125, 257
- Pomare, Queen of Tahiti, iii. 394
- Ponsonby, William, ii. 176
- Poor Law Commission, ii. 545, 548
- Poor Laws, Ireland, ii. 116, 162, 345; iii. 502
- Poor Relief Act, i. 244
- Porter, Thomas C., ii. 162
- Portsmouth, defences of, iii. 198, 203, 400
- Potato famine in Ireland, iii. 223, 280
- Pottinger, Sir Henry, iii. 23
- Pozzo, ii. 377
- Preston, Chartists at, ii. 538
- Pringle, Alexander, ii. 495; iii. 86, 425
- Fritchard, Consul-missionary, iii. 263, 394
- Property tax, i. 210, 216; ii. 499-502, 506
- Protection of Life (Ireland) Bill, iii. 344, 345, 348, 349, 351, 614
- Protectionists, ii. 476, 559; iii. 169, 171, 218, 220, 222, 345, 347, 348, 351, 357, 367, 464, 471-473, 479, 488, 523, 526, 532, 534
- 'Protest and Declaration of Right' (Scottish Church), iii. 89-96
- Protestant Charter schools, i. 263
- Protestants v. Tractarians, ii. 474
- Punjab, the, iii. 258-260, 274, 278, 279, 311, 312, 475
- Pusey, Dr., ii. 561; iii. 162, 418
- Puseyites, ii. 475, 561; iii. 271

QUARTERLY

QUARTERLY REVIEW, ii. 409

- RAB, Sir William, Lord Advocate,
Scotland, ii. 267; iii. 76, 428
- Railway speculation, iii. 188
- Rajpoots, iii. 263, 305, 313
- Redesdale, Lord, i. 221, 224; iii. 124
- Reform Bill (England), ii. 180, 182, 188, 196, 208
- Reform Bill (Ireland), ii. 180
- Reform riots, ii. 189
- Regent, Prince. See George IV.
- Registration of voters, ii. 368
- Repeal of the Union, agitation for,
ii. 161, 453; iii. 34, 46, 47, 49,
272
- Reynolds, Sir Joshua, ii. 142
- Ricardo, Mr., iii. 220
- Richards, Captain ('Pelorus'), ii.
38
- Richmond, Duke of, Viceroy of Ireland, i. 33; Catholic question,
i. 71, 75, 82; Pole's speech, i.
78; Irish education, i. 93;
Pension Fund and patronage, i.
100, 101; retires from Lord-
Lieutenancy, i. 101; Sir H.
Montgomery's attack on, ibid.;
Prince Regent, i. 106, 107; Peel and Catholic question, i. 248; resigns, ii. 247; declines Privy Seal,
ii. 519
- Ripon, Lord, ii. 47, 247, 394;
Board of Trade, ii. 482; on Revenue deficit, ii. 496; Peel on finance, ii. 498; Corn Laws, ii.
505; timber duties, ibid.;
Gladstone on Corn Laws, ii. 520; on Ellenborough, ii. 577; Board of Control, iii. 6; the Scinde
Ameers, iii. 9, 10; the East India Company and Ellenborough, iii. 10-13, 15, 17, 20-24, 26; Peel's instructions, iii. 19, 21;
Hardinge Governor-General, iii.
24-26; Peel on Crown and East India Company, iii. 24;
Ellenborough's vindication, iii.
262; Ellenborough's attack on Board of Control, iii. 265; state of Ireland, iii. 480; repeal of Navigation Laws, iii. 504
- Robinson, Hon. F. See Goderich,
Lord
- Roden, Lord, ii. 384
- Roebuck, Mr., ii. 363, 530

ROYAL

- Rogers, Samuel, iii. 433, 440
- Roman Catholic Association, i.
345 et seq., 357, 410, 416, 424,
429; Wellington's views on, ii.
71, 74; Peel for suppression of,
ii. 82, 103
- Roman Catholic Board, i. 118, 134
et seq.
- Roman Catholic Emancipation
(the Catholic question), i. 66;
Canning's views, i. 67; Lords
Liverpool and Wellesley on, i.
68, 69; Duke of Richmond and Peel, i. 71, 72; Grattan's Bill,
i. 73, 76-85; proposed securities,
i. 84, 422; amended Bill and priests, i. 85; proposed interference of Spain and Portugal, i.
103; petition rejected, i. 184 et seq.; Catholic schism, i. 224 et seq.; the King's views, i. 349,
370; convention, i. 369; Relief
Bill, i. 372, 451; Duke of York on, i. 373; Derry proceedings,
i. 391; religious animosities in Ireland, i. 410; Irish priests, i.
416, 418 et seq.; its probable consequences, i. 422
- Roman Catholic question, iii. 563-567
- Roman Catholic Relief, ii. 46 et seq., 579, iii. 563-567; Peel's idea of a settlement, ii. 59;
opposed by King and Church, ii.
76, 77; Bill passed, ii. 104-106;
its good effects, ii. 144
- Roman Catholics and Orangemen, ii. 118; support Repeal, iii. 46;
their claims for Crown patronage,
iii. 53 et seq.; their objects in Ireland, iii. 119; Charitable Trusts Act, iii. 126-133; Peel zealous for, iii. 182, 183
- Romilly, Sir S., i. 150
- Rosslyn, Lord, ii. 29, 263, 482
- Rothschild, Baron, ii. 570
- Rothschild, Lionel, ii. 571
- Rothschild, Mrs., ii. 570, 571
- Rothschild, Mrs. Lionel, ii. 571
- Round, Mr., iii. 337
- Roundell, Mr., i. 14, 17
- Rous, Admiral, iii. 308, 334
- Royal Academy, the King's proposed reform of, ii. 142
- Royal bounty and pensions, i.
100, 275; ii. 304-310; iii. 436-
444

ROYAL

Royal Exchange, opened by the Queen, iii. 264
 Royal Society, the, i. 387; Peel declines Presidency of, iii. 492
 Runjeet Singh, iii. 259, 314
 Russell, Lady John, iii. 344, 347
 Russell, Lord John, the Catholic claims, ii. 52; his objection to Reform, ii. 176, 381, 385; Peel's retort, ii. 195; for alienation, ii. 223; Irish Church revenues, ii. 242, 247, 254, 246, 291; Lichfield House Compact, ii. 291; Home Office, ii. 312; v. ballot, ii. 360, 370; concession to a majority, ii. 363; Corn Laws, ii. 380, 489, iii. 220, 281; state of Ireland, ii. 383; the Bedchamber question, ii. 399-401; for Peel's protection, ii. 401; terms of his resignation, ii. 422; defence of the Government, ii. 465; fixed duty on corn, ii. 467; tries to force Peel's hand, ii. 489; obstructs direct taxation, and adjustment of Corn Laws, ii. 524, 525; censures Ellenborough, iii. 6; the Crown and East India Company, iii. 31; a commission for Ireland, iii. 104; votes for income tax, iii. 169; sent for by the Queen: attempts to form Government, iii. 241, 245, 246; Wellington and the command-in-chief, iii. 243; interview with Graham, iii. 244; his scruples, iii. 248-251; accepts and rejects office, iii. 253, 283, 289, 295; on Ellenborough's recall, iii. 269; losing ground, iii. 308; 'in simple toga,' iii. 334; on Irish Protection Bill, iii. 344, 349, 351; O'Connell's praise of, iii. 352; Villiers on, iii. 352; Lady Lyndhurst's canard, iii. 362; overtures to Wellington, iii. 454; his new Cabinet, iii. 455; advises postponement of Royal visit to Ireland, iii. 463; Graham on, iii. 463; Jew Bill, iii. 485; his overtures to Graham, iii. 500; Frederick Peel's maiden speech, iii. 508; his Irish policy, iii. 511; Poor Law charges for Ireland, iii. 516; the economical ague, iii. 516; Irish education, iii. 520; rumours about, iii. 523;

SCOTLAND

and Palmerston, iii. 534; Lady Peel declines his offer of a peerage, iii. 551
 Russia, Emperor Alexander of, i. 129
 Russia, in Central Asia, iii. 258; relations between England and iii. 261; jealousy of our Punjab policy, iii. 276; Palmerston's abuse of, iii. 378
 Rutland, Duke of, ii. 6, 20
 St. GERMAN, Earl (Lord Eliot), Irish Chief Secretary, iii. 34, 36; on Dr. Elrington's promotion, iii. 38; v. Solicitor-General Jackson, iii. 39; his relations with de Grey, iii. 40-44; Peel on Lord Lieutenant and Chief Secretary, iii. 41; Repeal agitation, iii. 48; Lucas' resignation, iii. 111; declines Secretaryship at War, iii. 112; v. O'Connell, iii. 123; the Roman Catholic hierarchy, iii. 132; Peel's tribute to, iii. 178; Postmaster-General, iii. 288; Peel on Sugden, iii. 428; Peel on Sir W. Hamilton, iii. 447; Navigation Laws debate, iii. 505
 Ste.-Aulaire, iii. 392
 Sale, Lady, ii. 583, 592; iii. 303
 Sale, Sir Robert, ii. 584, 586
 Salisbury, Lord, his creation of peers, iii. 426
 Salomons, Sir David, iii. 508
 Sandford, Sir Daniel, ii. 327
 Sandon, Lord, ii. 531; iii. 150
 Saunders, Mr., ii. 549
 Saurin, Right Hon. William H., Attorney-General for Ireland, i. 45; Catholic claims, i. 72; Catholic Board, i. 139; Irish law officers, i. 164; Peel and O'Connell, i. 195; removed from office, i. 307; treason in Ireland, i. 308; Peel's explanation, ii. 88
 Saxton, Sir Charles, i. 37, 41, 46, 189; Peel and O'Connell, i. 190, 198; duel with Lidwill, i. 201
 Scinde, annexation of, iii. 1, 7, 14; the Ameers deposed, iii. 2, 19; Peel on, iii. 17; Ellenborough's forecast, iii. 259; Hardinge on, iii. 274
 Scotland, Church question in, ii.

SCOTLAND

- 418, 423, 429, 430, 467-474, iii.
54, 69-100; the Queen's visit to, ii. 537-545; law reform in,
ii. 572; the Patronage question,
iii. 69, 72, 85, 415; relations of Church and State, iii. 69-71;
Dr. Chalmers on the 'call,' iii.
70; General Assembly, iii. 71,
72, 80, 84, 85, 91; Convocation of Ministers, iii. 88, 90-98;
Free Church and Old Church,
iii. 99; Peel on administration of justice in, iii. 483
Scott, Sir Walter, i. 318; Peel's portrait, i. 365; small notes in Scotland, i. 398; congratulates Peel, ii. 97; his lines on Pitt, quoted iii. 546
Scott, Sir William, i. 226, 250
Scottish 'Confession of Faith,' iii.
70
Scully, i. 133, 134
Seaton, Lord, ii. 437, 441
Sepoys, iii. 268, 314, 320
Seymour, Dr., iii. 541
Shaftesbury, Lord, his Life, cited,
ii. 474
Shah Soojah, ii. 580, 583; iii. 1
Shannon, Lord, i. 58
Shaw, Charles, ii. 385, 510
Shea, Sir George, ii. 62
Shee, Sir Martin Archer, ii. 143;
iii. 449
Sheerness, defences of, iii. 198, 203
Shell, i. 345, 427; ii. 161; iii. 39, 46, 52
Shere Singh, iii. 270
Short, Rev. Thomas, i. 22, 24
Shuttleworth, Dr. Kay, ii. 541
Sicily, King of, iii. 372
Sidmouth, Lord, i. 34, 36, 87, 132;
ii. 227
Sievrac, i. 407, 408
Sikhs, the, iii. 263, 266, 267, 270,
274, 277-279, 296, 310, 474
Simla Proclamation, the, ii. 601
Sinclair, Sir George, iii. 73-79, 87
Sinclair, Sir John, i. 408
Singleton, Archdeacon, ii. 351
Skelmersdale, Lord, ii. 277
Small Debts Bill, ii. 35
Smith, Adam, ii. 556; iii. 193
Smith, Goldwin, i. 23
Smith, Mr., of Deanston, iii. 162
Smith, Sir Culling, iii. 494
Smith, Rev. Sydney, i. 400, 402;
ii. 21

STANLEY

- Somerset, Lord Fitzroy, ii. 72, 184
Somerset, Lord Granville, ii. 330,
366, 495; iii. 327
Somerville, Mrs., ii. 308
Somerville, Sir William, ii. 355
Somnauth Gates, ii. 597-600; iii.
3, 6
Southey, Robert, Madoc, ii. 97;
his portrait, ii. 100, iii. 433;
offer of baronetcy to, ii. 304;
his gratitude to Peel, ii. 310
Spain, protective for prohibitory duties, iii. 373; Peel's counsel to, iii. 390, 391
'Spectator,' the, ii. 399
Spencer, Lord, ii. 26, 103, 176, 216,
222, 246-249, 252, 253, 506; iii.
170
Spring Rice, Thos. See Monteagle,
Lord
Stafford, Lord and Lady, ii. 165
'Standard,' ii. 96, 218, 260
Stanley, Dean, iii. 374
Stanley, Mr., ii. 180
Stanley, Lord, Whig overtures, ii.
163, 165; Whig disunion, ii. 221,
223, 337; and Lord Althorp, ii.
246; resigns, ii. 247; Irish Church revenues, ii. 242; Peel's overtures to, ii. 257-259, 274; the old leaven (?), ii. 266; on Lord Londonderry, ii. 269; visions of the helm, ii. 277, 280; supports Peel, ii. 289, 298, 322, 400; on municipal reform, ii. 312; on Peel, Lord Rector of Glasgow, ii. 327; an extraordinary conversation, ii. 335; a non-content,
ii. 337; the Government and Canada, ii. 355; on Molesworth's motion, ii. 358; Brougham, ii.
360; 'cautious abstinence is best,' ii. 362; Lord Durham and Canada, ii. 370; on Peel's Cabinet, ii. 392, 394, 482; a word for Ripon, ii. 394; concurs with Wellington, ii. 425; iii.
155; Peel on Stratford Canning,
ii. 485; v. income tax, ii. 493;
the Revenue Commission, ii.
495; Peel on Lord Clare's appointment, ii. 512; increase of army, ii. 573; Irish national education, iii. 35; conciliation to Catholics, iii. 60; the Maynooth grant, iii. 66; education of Catholics in Ireland, iii. 107;

STANLEY

- called to the Upper House, iii. 154-159; and Wellington, iii. 155; on Peel's Budget speech, iii. 170; Tenants' Compensation Bill, iii. 177; Peel on national defence, iii. 195, 196; Wellington on national defence, iii. 202, 206, 207, 216; Lord Metcalfe's despatch, iii. 216; opposes Peel's Corn Law proposals, iii. 231, 236, 240, 327; his loss felt in House of Commons, iii. 269; persists in resigning, iii. 284; on Gladstone and Buccleuch, iii. 287; Peel on his position, iii. 309; too credulous, iii. 357; Peel's advice on Canada, iii. 379, 383; Wellington's comments, iii. 382-384
- Stanmore, Lord. See Gordon, Sir Arthur
- Steel, Mr., ii. 70, 73
- Stephenson, Colonel, i. 339, 340
- Stephenson, George, iii. 162
- Stewart, Patrick, ii. 473
- Stipendiary Chairmen, proposed appointment of, ii. 549
- Stockmar, Baron, ii. 281; iii. 329, 547
- Stopford, Mr., iii. 39
- Stowell, Lord, ii. 139
- Strafford, Lord, ii. 226; iii. 504
- Strahlenheim, Baron de, ii. 353
- Strangford, Lord, ii. 268
- Strathbogie Presbytery, iii. 71, 75, 82, 85
- Stuart, Lord, ii. 156, 157
- Sturt, Mr., iii. 335, 337
- Sugar duties, ii. 497, 498, 503; iii. 150, 153, 171, 270
- Sugden, Sir Edward, Irish Lord Chancellor, iii. 34, 48-51, 53, 55, 187
- Sumner, Holme, i. 334
- 'Sunday Times,' i. 336
- Suppression Bill (Ireland), ii. 103
- Sussex, Duke of, ii. 101
- Sutlej river, the, iii. 258, 259, 267, 274, 297, 305, 307
- Sweden, iii. 373
- Sweden, Crown Prince of, i. 128
- Switzerland, iii. 69
- Symonds, Sir W., iii. 200
- TAHITI, iii. 218; French violence to British consul-missionary, iii. 394

ULTRA

- Talbot, Lord, Irish Viceroy, i' 266, 383; ii. 193, 197, 217, 227' 541, 549; iii. 41
- Tamworth manifesto, ii. 274
- Tavistock, Lady, ii. 460
- Tavistock, Lord, ii. 244, 247
- Taylor, Mr., ii. 43, 44
- Taylor, Sir Herbert, i. 435; ii. 3, 153, 155, 179, 279-282; iii. 497, 498
- Templemore, Lord, ii. 321
- 'Ten Years' Conflict,' iii. 70, 94
- Tenants' Compensation Bill (Ireland), iii. 177
- Tennent, Emerson, ii. 394
- Tennyson, Alfred, iii. 439-442
- Thames, defences of, iii. 193, 201
- Thiers, M., iii. 408
- Thompson, Poulett, ii. 441
- Thornhill, Rev. Bache, i. 20
- Thursfield, J. R., his Peel, quoted, iii. 139
- Tierney, i. 64, 289; ii. 3, 12, 20
- Tillotson, Dr., Sermons, ii. 43, 44
- Timber duties, ii. 505
- 'Times,' the, ii. 478; iii. 356
- Tindal, Chief Justice, iii. 124
- Tipperary, state of, ii. 64, 125, 132, iii. 190; the demons of, ii. 160
- Tithe Bill (Ireland), ii. 220, 299-301, 345
- Tithe Commutation Bill (England), ii. 248
- Tocqueville, M. de, ii. 333
- Tollemache, ii. 409
- Tomlinson, Dr., Bishop of Gibraltar, iii. 545
- Tone, T. Wolfe, i. 82
- Townsend, Lord John, i. 269
- Townshend, Captain, R.N., ii. 350
- Townshend, Lord, iii. 558
- Tractarians v. Protestants, ii. 474
- Trench, Hon. and Rev. C. Le P., i. 232
- Trevelyan, Sir Charles, iii. 469, 481, 482, 512
- Trial by jury in Ireland, iii. 161, 124, 272
- Trinity College, Cambridge, ii. 283
- Tucker, Mr., Director East India Company, ii. 580; iii. 11
- Turkey, and Greece, ii. 34
- Turton, Dr., Dean of Westminster, iii. 417
- ULSTER Presbyterians, ii. 67
- Ultra-Protectionists, iii. 193

ULTRA

Ultra-Tories, ii. 170, 186, 337, 532
 United States. See America

VAN MILDEBT, Dr., Bishop of Durham, i. 20; ii. 77

Vandeleur, Right Hon. J. O., i. 279

Vansittart, Mr., i. 211, 216, 251, 290; Chancellor of Exchequer, i. 336

Veto Act, iii. 71, 92, 94

Victoria, Queen, her accession to the throne, ii. 348; sends for Wellington and Peel, ii. 388, 390; the Household question, ii. 392, 396, 456, 485; her opinion of the Tories, ii. 405; her engagement, ii. 408, 414; her letter to Lady Tavistock, ii. 460; yields to Melbourne, ii. 464; birth of Prince of Wales, ii. 511; business in Parliament, ii. 525; visit to Scotland, ii. 537-545; on the recent tumults, ii. 541; Drummond's assassination, ii. 552, 559; on obstruction in House of Commons, ii. 568; her relations with Peel, ii. 584; Peel defends Ellenborough, iii. 5; Ellenborough appeals to, iii. 16; on Ellenborough's recall, iii. 22; on Hardinge's appointment, iii. 26; determined to prevent Repeal, iii. 50, 51; Church in Scotland, iii. 96; praises Peel's Irish policy, iii. 109; Peel on finance, and on Factory Act, iii. 147; the Budget of 1844, iii. 150; the sugar duties, iii. 153; on Stanley, iii. 159; her Royal guests, iii. 161, 162; second Free Trade Budget, iii. 171; King of Belgians on Peel, iii. 172; Maynooth Bill, iii. 173, 176; proposed visit to Ireland, iii. 181; correspondence with Peel on his resignation, iii. 234-254; Wellington and the command-in-chief, iii. 243; Peel's farewell to, iii. 243, 253; Russell's proposals, iii. 245; opens Royal Exchange, iii. 264; on Hardinge, iii. 266, 273; Peel Premier, iii. 283, 284; her cordial letter to Peel, iii. 285; honours for Hardinge and Gough, iii. 307;

WELLINGTON

satisfied with, and confident in, Peel's Free Trade policy, iii. 326, 338, 339; Peel's Corn Bill speech, iii. 340; analysis of the division, iii. 342; Sir R. Inglis, iii. 343; visits France, iii. 392, 393; her misgivings about Wellington and Ellenborough, iii. 412; Wilberforce, Dean of Westminster, iii. 417; John Peel, Dean of Worcester, iii. 420; her deep concern at losing Peel's services, iii. 451; Peel's gratitude, iii. 452; grants Peel's request, iii. 453; on Peel's death, iii. 547; her offering to Lady Peel, iii. 558
 'Victoria and Albert,' royal yacht, iii. 200
 Villiers, Charles, ii. 382; iii. 221, 336, 352, 371
 Vyvyan, Sir R., ii. 170

WADE, Marshal, iii. 514

Wakefield, Gibbon, iii. 44

Waldemar, Prince, iii. 298, 314

Wales, Prince of, ii. 511; iii. 431, 452

Walpole, Spencer H., iii. 550

Walpole's History, ii. 189, 214, 226

Ward, Mr., ii. 242, 244, 247; iii. 173

Warren, Mr., iii. 43

Warrender, Sir George, i. 295

Watson, Sir Frederick, ii. 147

'Waverers,' the, ii. 185

Webber, Mr., i. 226, 246

Webber, Rev. James, i. 18

Wellesley, Marquis of, i. 44, 45
 Catholic question, i. 69; Irish Viceroy, i. 302; on Peel as Home Secretary, i. 306; treason in Ireland, i. 310; at issue with Goulburn, i. 354; marriage, i. 378; Catholic Association, i. 431; Insurrection Act and Orange processions, i. 495 et seq.; his esteem for Peel, ii. 32; his Commission of Captain-General, ii. 578; iii. 301

Wellington, Duke of, Catholic question, i. 83; Vittoria, i. 102; Waterloo, i. 180; advice to Canning, i. 336; fears civil war in Ireland, i. 348; the King and

WELLINGTON

Catholic question, i. 350; plots in Paris, i. 359; O'Connell's prosecution, i. 368; Roman Catholic bishops in pontificalibus, i. 378; bimetalism and small-note currency, i. 394, 395; Irish affairs, i. 417; Commander-in-Chief, i. 433-437; claim on premiership, i. 452 et seq.; resigns command-in-chief, i. 482, 492, ii. 2, 32; on the press, i. 484; King's attitude towards, ii. 4, 6; resumes command-in-chief, ii. 7, 534-537; at Windsor, ii. 18, 26, 70; his relations with Peel, ii. 27, 186, 232 et seq., 317, 319, 321, 365-367, 387, 433, 442, 448, 460, iii. 291; forms Cabinet, ii. 29; on King and Duke of Clarence, ii. 42; the Galway election, ii. 62, 63; Lord Anglesey's recall, ii. 66, 68, 70; on Roman Catholic Association, ii. 71, 74; on O'Connell, ii. 74, 462; urges Peel to keep office, ii. 80; Metropolitan Police Bill, ii. 115; on Duke of Cumberland, ii. 118, 323; Roman Catholic aggression, ii. 119; strong measures for Ireland, ii. 121; Government patronage in Ireland, ii. 139, 140; Jewish disabilities, ii. 145; on the King's illness, ii. 149, 153; Reform, ii. 166, 185, 203, 207; Reform riots, ii. 169; resigns, ii. 170; Peel's Reform speech, ii. 177; Irish Church Bill, ii. 218; Chancellor of Oxford, ii. 227-231; his Speeches, quoted, ii. 235; a locum tenens, ii. 252; Peel on diplomatic appointments, ii. 268; on retrenchment, ii. 275; on Peel's position, ii. 296; the Government defeats, ii. 302; municipal reform, ii. 313; Irish Municipal Bill, ii. 338-344; Peel on Canada, ii. 355; no concert with Radicals, ii. 358; Molesworth's motion, ii. 363; Brougham, ii. 369; Lord Durham, ii. 370; Lord Grey, ii. 375; Croker, ii. 376, 412, 414; Corn Laws and Canada, ii. 378-383, 443, 444; Lord Roden's motion, ii. 384; on 'followers,' ii. 385; sent for by Queen, ii. 388; accepts

WELLINGTON

Foreign Office, ii. 391; the Queen's Household, ii. 397, 417; Radical threats, ii. 401; Irish representative peerage, ii. 413; party prospects—a forecast, ii. 415-419; questions for decision—navy and army, Ireland, Scotland, education, ii. 418, 419; the address, ii. 425; doubts and difficulties, ii. 426; Scottish Church, ii. 429, iii. 90; a deficient revenue, ii. 431; a doubtful supporter, ii. 444, 445; his deafness, ii. 450; the Government in difficulties, ii. 451; his advice to young William Peel, ii. 452, iii. 483; France and the peace of Europe, ii. 454; the approaching crisis, ii. 461; Aberdeen's Scottish Church Bill, ii. 468; Peel on election of Speaker, ii. 476; Fine Arts Commission, ii. 510; on Hardwicke and Buckingham, ii. 521; the Queen's visit to Scotland, ii. 539; increase of army, ii. 573; Ellenborough, ii. 576, 582, 594, 599, iii. 23; military measures in Afghanistan, ii. 582; Scinde, iii. 14; v. repeal, iii. 47; a Commission for Ireland, iii. 63, 64; Irish franchise, iii. 109; Stanley's removal to the Lords, iii. 156; Gladstone's retirement from Board of Trade, iii. 168; Tenants' Compensation Bill, iii. 178; force for Ireland, iii. 190; on arming merchant ships, iii. 196; national defence—his official protest, iii. 198, 201-207; progress of steam navigation, 'bridges across the Channel,' iii. 199, 203; Peel's reply, iii. 207-215; potato crop in Ireland, iii. 225; supports Peel's Corn Law proposals, iii. 236; retains command-in-chief by the Queen's desire, iii. 243; Peel's resumption of office, iii. 285; zealous for Peel, iii. 291; Peel's Free Trade policy, iii. 326, 522; Assassination Bill, iii. 352, 353; Hardinge's Annuity Bill, iii. 353; the cabal against Peel, iii. 361; his comments on Peel's forecast, iii. 364, 365;

WELLINGTON

resignation of Government, iii. 367; Bago's Canadian policy, iii. 382, 385, 386; our relations with France, iii. 390, 404-408; Aberdeen's protest, iii. 397, 404; his creation of peers, iii. 426, 427; on Royal Bounty, iii. 436; Russell and the Whig overtures, iii. 454; for repeal of Navigation Laws, iii. 504; Peel's powerful and able speech on Free Trade, iii. 522; his tribute in House of Lords to Peel's memory, iii. 546

Welsh, Dr., iii. 95

Wemyss, Earl of (Hon. F. Charteris), iii. 337

Wesleyan Methodists, iii. 271

Wesleyans, ii. 560

West Indies, ii. 497, 503

Westbury, Peel M.P. for, ii. 104

Westmeath, Lord, iii. 510

Westmorland, Lady, iii. 351

Wetherall, Attorney-General, ii. 106

Wharnccliffe, Lord, ii. 185, 191, 193, 194, 576; iii. 287, 508

Whately, Dr., Archbishop of Dublin, ii. 101

Wheatstone, Professor, iii. 162

Whewell, Dr., Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, iii. 422, 423

Whigs, weakness of, ii. 373; the Jamaica question—fall of the ministry, ii. 388; their policy of deficits, ii. 410; alliance with O'Connell, ii. 454; v. Peel, ii. 524; their failure to govern Ireland, iii. 461-470, 501

Whitworth, Lord, i. 57; Viceroy of Ireland, i. 101, 128, iii. 41; Catholic Board, i. 138; Peel and O'Connell, i. 189, 195

Wilcox, chief magistrate (Ireland), i. 152, 419

YOUNG

Wilkie, Sir David, ii. 143

William I., of Germany, iii. 505-507

William IV., his accession, ii. 153; his impromptu speech, ii. 154; approves Peel's police scheme, ii. 169; on Reform Bill, ii. 178, 203; on dissolution, ii. 193; sends for Lyndhurst, ii. 203; limits of Coronation Oath, ii. 218; sends for Peel, ii. 251; dismisses Melbourne, ii. 253; Peel Prime Minister, ii. 256, 263, 264

Willoughby, Sir H., ii. 222

Wilson, Sir Robert, ii. 449

Wilton, Lord, ii. 313

Winchelsea, Lord, iii. 271

Wintle, Mr., ii. 229

'Witness,' the, ii. 470

Wood, Ellis, i. 11

Wood, R., Hardinge's A.D.C., iii. 299

Wood, Mr., ii. 266

Wood, Sir Charles, iii. 481, 504, 507, 526

Wordsworth, Dr. Christopher, iii. 423

Wordsworth, William, ii. 304; iii. 433, 437, 438

Württemberg, King of, iii. 373

Wynn, Hon. C. W. W., i. 342

Wynn, Mr., ii. 483

Wynne, Charles, ii. 185

Wynne, John, iii. 510

Wyse, Thomas S., iii. 110

YARMOUTH, Earl of. See Hertford, Marquis of Yates, Colonel, i. 287, 326; ii. 94

Yeomanry Cavalry, ii. 540

York, Duke of, i. 373, 433

Yorke, Right Hon. C., i. 247

Young, John, iii. 464, 480, 481, 525, 532