EDITOR'S PREFACE.

THE extensive popularity which this little book enjoys is a clear proof of the desire of the public to become acquainted with the system of government under which they live. "How we are Governed" sets forth in a brief and lively style the leading features of our Constitution, and how that great engine, the State, is put in motion, and what its machinery and power consist of. To those about to exercise the right of the franchise for the first time, the information contained in these pages will prove neither superfluous nor unwelcome.

Since the last issue of this work various alterations have taken place in our constitution and system of administration. In the present edition these changes have been fully represented, Acts formerly omitted by the author have been inserted, and the general information has been greatly enlarged, and in all cases revised and brought down to the present time. A chapter on the Civil Service has also been added.

TOWNSEND'S MANUAL OF DATES.

In this completely NEW EDITION the number of distinct Alphabetical Articles has been increased from 7388 to 11,045, the whole Work remodelled, every date verified, and every subject re-examined from the original authorities.

In comparison with the latest edition of the hitherto considered best work on the subject, "Townsend's Dates" now contain nearly double the number of distinct Alphabetical Articles.

"The second and revised edition of this useful work is so increased in bulk as almost to pass beyond the convenient definition of a manual, being now a very copious book of reference."—Daily Telegraph.

"The arrangement for condensation in Mr. Townsend's volume is certainly most ingenious and systematic, and the amount of labour which must have been expended in preparing the copy must be something alarming to contemplate."—Advertiser.

"In a work of this nature, type and arrangement are two great essentials to its perfectness; we can state that in both points the present manual is excellent, and does every credit to its editor, publishers, and printers."—Globe.

"A work such as this can never be made quite correct, but some trouble in examination induces us to think that it is amongst the best of its kind."—The Builder.

"No scholar should be without this Manual, inasmuch as it will serve every one well and worthily at every turn whenever it is consulted."—Bell's Weekly Messenger.

"We have, on more than one occasion, found in the first edition of 'The Manual of Dates' information that we have sought for in vain in other quarters. The new edition will be found more complete, and consequently more useful, even in an increased proportion to its increased size. 'The Manual of Dates' is clearly destined to take a prominent place among our most useful Books of Reference."—Notes and Queries.

HALF-HOURS WITH THE BEST AUTHORS.

A LIBRARY EDITION.

Remodelled by its original Editor, CHARLES KNIGHT, with selections from authors added, whose works have placed them amongst the "Best Authors" since the publication of the first Edition.

* * This book contains 320 Extracts of the best efforts of our great standard authors, whether they be poets or historians, essayists or divines, travellers or philosophers, arranged so as to form half-an-hour's reading for every day of the year. The student finds a taste of every quality, and a specimen of every style. Should he grow weary of one author, he can turn to another; and if inclined to be critical, he can weigh the merits of one writer against those of his fellow. It gives us a glimpse of the celebrities assembled within its portals. At a glance the student can obtain some idea of the subject. Such books are the true foundations of that knowledge which renders men celebrated and famous.

In 2 vols. demy 8vo, price 10s. cloth; 12s. with gilt edges; or half calf extra, 16s.

THE-PEOPLE'S EDITION OF

or half-calf extra, 8s.

HALF-HOURS OF ENGLISH HISTORY.

Selected and arranged by CHARLES KNIGHT.

A Companion Volume to the "Half-Hours with the Best Authors."

Contains the Choicest Historical Extracts from upwards of fifty Standard Authors, including Burke, Palgrave, Guizot, Sheridan Knowles, Thierry, H. Taylor, Rev. James White, Charles Knight, G. L. Craik, Landor, Hume, Keats, Hallam, Southey, Shakespeare, Froissart, Sir Walter Scott, Hall, Barante, Lord Bacon, Cavendish, Bishop Burnet, Rev. H. H. Milman, Wordsworth, Lord Macaulay, with a General Index.

The articles are chiefly selected so as to afford a succession of graphic parts of English History, chronologically arranged, from the consideration that the portions of history upon which general readers delight to dwell are those which tell some story which is complete in itself, or furnish some illustration which has a separate as well as a general interest.
