Editor's Preface to Third Volume.

It had been my intention to prefix to this third and last volume a sketch of the career of Sir Thomas Munro. In view, however, of the very low rate at which it is hoped that this work may remain on sale, and in view also of the fact that Dr. John Bradshaw has contributed to the "Rulers of India" series an admirable sketch of Sir Thomas' work in the Madras Presidency, I have thought it best to remain content with a simple reference to Dr. Bradshaw's book.

"The Historical Tables concerning the Presidency of Fort St. George" were published as a pamphlet several years ago at Madras, and are the work of a member of the Civil Service at that Presidency.

Mr. William Thackeray so often mentioned in the present volume, was the eldest of six sons of William Makepeace Thackeray, Collector of Sylhet, who died at Hadley, Herts, 1883, aged 64 years. The second of these sons was Richmond Thackeray, of the Bengal Civil Service, the father of the Novelist. Richmond died in Calcutta in 1816, aged 35 years. Webb Thackeray, the third son, of the Madras Civil Service, died in 1809, aged 19 years, as he was being carried down ill to Madras. Thomas Thackeray of the Bengal Army, was killed in action in Nepal in 1814, aged 25 years. St. John Thackeray, of the Madras Civil Service, fell in action at the Kittlur Fort, Belgaum District, in 1824, aged 33 years. The last son, Charles, barrister and journalist, died in Calcutta, 1846, aged 22 years.

Before laying down my pen, I will take this opportunity of expressing my gratitude to the Publishers for their pluck and public spirit in placing a trustworthy edition of the Fifth Report on sale at a price at which it can be purchased by a student whose power to purchase books is restricted. I myself, for instance, was never before able to enjoy the possession of a copy of my own, and I have therefore been glad to place my free services as Editor at the disposal of the publishers. I will conclude by saying that there are other Reports, for instance the Touchet Report, the republication of which would be a public service, and I hope that some day a public demand will be felt sufficient to induce Messrs. Cambray & Co. to make yet another venture.

WALTER K. FIRMINGER.

CORRIGENDUM.

			Sq. MILES	Rs.
1639 ...	Madraspatam, Original Settlement of	(1.) 1st March—Grant for a station and for the erection of a fort by Sri Ranga Ráyulu (descendant of the Vijayanagar Kings) reigning at Chandragiri, about ninety miles north-west of Madras; obtained for the Company by the local Governor or Naick, Dámarla Venkatá dri (ancestor of the present Raja of Kálahasti, c.s.1) who desired that the station (which was selected "as better calculated for the protection of trade than Armagon") might be styled Chennappa-patnam, after his father Kari Chennappa, which was done; although the Royal grant enjoins the use of the name "Sri Ranga Raya palnam." Mr. Francis Day, one of the Council at Masulipatam, and the head of the factory at Armagon, was the officer who negotiated the affair. The grant covered a space roughly estimated as five miles in length by one mile in breadth (Bruce i, 368; Wilks i, 163; Mill iii, 52).	6.74	19,879
1645-46	...	(2.) The Hindu State of Chandragiri being subverted about this time (Wilks i, 163) by the Mussulman King of Golconda, the Agent and Council at Fort St. George send a deputation, with a present to Golconda, to obtain a confirmation of their privileges (Bruce i, 415). The same authority (i, 455) under the year 1650-51 speaks of the grant having been obtained; but the formal document was not delivered till 1683 [vide (4) infra].
1671-72	...	(3.) Local Records, dated 11th April—It is agreed to pay the King of Golconda 1,200 pagodas (4 800 rupees) per annum, as rent for the settlement which is to be free from any other imposition for ever; and to pay 11,000 pagodas in full of all demands for the time past.
1683 ...	...	(4.) Local Records, 12th November—The Golconda farmán formally delivered to Mr. William Gyfford, Governor. Note —Golconda fell under the arms of Aurangzeb in 1687, and the rent then became an asset of the Mogul Empire.

No. VII—(Concluded).

Year	Territory	How acquired, and District now representing it	Approximate Area	Land Revenue
1702 ...	Madraspatam— (Concluded)	(5.) and July—Described in the list of the Dead Stock of the two East India Companies, as "Fort St. George, with the castle and fortifications, and territory thereto belonging: upon which a large city is built, consisting of—houses, which are held of and pay rent to the said Governor and Company, together with the said city and its dependencies."
1746 ...	...	(6.) September 10th—Surrendered to the French arms under Labourdonnais, Ransom fixed by him at 11 lakhs of pagodas (44 lakhs of rupees or 440,000 pounds sterling); but the stipulation disregarded by Dupleix (Orme).
1749 ...	...	(7.) August 15th—Delivered up by the French under the operation of the treaty of Aix la Chapelle, dated October 7th, 1748 (Orme).
1752 ...	...	(8.) Local Records, 31st August—Mahomed Ali (Wallajah), Nawáb of Arcot, remits by farmán the 1,200 pagodas (4,800 rupees) per annum, the rent heretofore paid for the settlement [vide Note (3) supra].
1765 ...	...	(9.) August 12th—Possession confirmed by a farmán from the Mogul by way of inám or free gift.

No. VIII.

1768 ...	The Circars of Chicacole, Rajahmundry, Ellore, Mustafanagar, and Murtizanagar	26th February - On this date there were ceded by the Nizam in treaty with the Government of Fort St. George, subject to an annual payment (since commuted) of 7 lakhs of rupees the Circars of (1) Murtizanagar alias Guntúr alias Kondavídu; (2) Mustafanagar alias Kondapilli; (3) Ellore; (4) Rajahmundry; (5) Chicacole alias Kalinga. This cession, together with the cession of 14th May 1759 (vide Acquisition No. XXXI) and the taluka of Bhadrachalam and Rakapalli (vide Acquisition No. XLVIII) comprises the whole of what is now known as the "Northern Circars" or the four extensive Madras Districts of Ganjam Vizagapatam, Godáviri, and Kistna: the two last mentioned having been formed out of the three old districts styled Rajahmundry, Guntúr, and Masulipatam in 1859. NOTE—The above date, 26th February 1768, is generally reckoned as that of the actual cession of these territories, and was so recognised by law—vide Section II (late) Madras Regulation XXXI, 1802: and rightly so, because the Sanad of the Mogul Emperor, dated 12th August 1765, assigning this territory to his Sepoy Sirdars, the English Company, by way of inám or free gift; and the treaty with the Nizam, of 12th November 1766, by which he ceded the same provinces, had no substantial operation. In regard to the Circar of Murtizanagar, the Government of Fort St. George agreed, out of friendship for the Nizam, to permit his brother, Bazalut Jang, to enjoy it as a Jágir for life. The tenant died on the 5th October 1782; and, some difficulties delaying prompter action on the part of the Company, the Nizam's Amildars retained the country till a formal Sanad for its being delivered up was procured by Lord Cornwallis on the 18th September 1788. 1800 ...	All the territories acquired by the Nizam under the treaty of Seringapatam (1792) and all the territories acquired by him under the treaty of Mysore (1799) except any districts situate to the north of the river Tanguahdra, in lieu of which the Nizam ceded the district of Adoni and all other his territory to the south of that river or to the Kistna below the junction of these two rivers.	Ceded by the Nizam in perpetuity by treaty dated 12th October "for the regular payment of the expense of the augmented subsidiary force." The districts now representing this cession are Bellary (except the feudatory Native State of Sandúr, vide Acq. No. XLV), Cuddapah, the feudatory Native State of Banganapalli and Kurnool. ¹³ The expression not unfrequently used in official correspondence of "the Ceded Districts and Kurnool" as if Bellary and Cuddapah were ceded to the British Government at one time, and Kurnool at another, is erroneous.	Sq. MILES 26,592	Rs 57,50,000

No. XLIV.

	The Carnatic below Ghauts, Greater portion of	The whole of the Carnatic, Payen Ghaut, not included in previous grants: viz. , the present Nellore District, North Arcot (except Kangundi and Punganúr), South Arcot (except previous grants), Trichinopoly, Madura (except Dindigul and Pulney Taluks) and Tinnevely; also the feudatory State of Pudukóta.	35,732.	145,50,000
1801 ...		July 31st.—Ceded to the Company by His Highness Azim-úl Daula, Nawáb Subahdar of the Carnatic (Aitchison v. p. 248).

¹³ The district of Kurnool yielded to the Nizam and afterwards (up to 1839) to the British Government a land revenue of Pagodas 66,666, or Rupees 2,44,431 only (subsequently reduced to 1,00,000 rupees) being the peshkash payable by the hereditary Pathán Nawábs of Kurnool. In 1839, the Nawáb was deposed and the country brought under direct administration. Subsequently the district has been enlarged by the addition of taluks taken from Bellary and Cuddapah.
