[2] The brackets, words and figures " (other than landlords' privileged lands as defined in section 118) " were omitted by ibid, s. 8(2).

[3] This section was substituted for the original section 20, by ibid, s. 9.

(Sec. 20.)

(2) If the occupancy-right in land is transferred to a person jointly interested in the land as proprietor or permanent tenure-holder such person shall hold the land as proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, as the case may be, and shall not hold it by any subordinate right whatsoever. Such transferee shall pay to his co-sharers a fair and equitable sum for the use and occupation of the land, and if he sub-lets the land to a third person, such third person shall be deemed to be a tenure-holder or a raiyat, as the case may be, in respect thereof.

Illustration.—A, a co-sharer landlord, purchases the occupancy holding of a raiyat X. A sub-lets the land to Y who takes it for the purpose of establishing tenants on it; Y becomes a tenure-holder in respect of the land. Or, A sub-lets it to Z, who takes it for the purpose of cultivating it himself; Z becomes a raiyat in respect of the land.

In determining from time to time what is a fair and equitable sum under this sub-section, regard shall be had to the rent payable by the occupancy-raiyat at the time of the transfer, and to the principles of this Act regulating the enhancement or reduction of the rents of occupancy-raiyats.

(3) A person interested in any estate, tenure, village or land, whether solely or jointly with others, as a temporary tenure-holder, ijaradar, or farmer of rents, or as a mortgagee in possession, shall not, during the period of his lease or mortgage, acquire by purchase or otherwise a right to hold any land comprised in his lease or mortgage in any other capacity than as such lessee or mortgagee, and every interest acquired by him in such land during the period of his lease or mortgage, shall upon the termination of such lease or mortgage, cease to exist: provided that if he has settled the land with a third person as a tenure-holder or a raiyat, not being prohibited from so doing by the terms of his lease or mortgage, the rights of such third person shall not be affected by the mere termination of the lease, but such third person shall be deemed to be a tenure-holder or a raiyat, as the case may be, in respect of that land.

(4) This section does not prohibit and shall be deemed never to have prohibited the acquisition of a right of occupancy in a parcel of land—

- (a) by a village-headman if by local custom or usage he has a right to acquire a right of occupancy in land of the class to which that parcel belongs, or
- (b) by a temporary tenure-holder who, before becoming such, was himself a resident cultivator of the village, if such parcel has been converted by him into korkar or has been acquired by him by succession or inheritance.

Explanation.—A person having a right of occupancy in land does not lose it by subsequently becoming jointly interested in the land as a proprietor or permanent tenure-holder or by subsequently holding the land in ijara or farm, or as a temporary tenure-holder or mortgagee.]

Provided that in any case in which, under the law of inheritance to which the raiyat is subject, his other property goes to the Crown, his right of occupancy shall be extinguished.

Registration of certain transfers of
holdings.

[1][23A. (1) When an occupancy-holding or any portion thereof is transferred in any way authorized by law, by succession, inheritance or sale, the transferee or his successor in title may cause the transfer to be registered in the office of the landlord to whom the rent of the holding or portion thereof, as the case may be, is payable.

(2) The landlord shall, in the absence of sufficient reason to the contrary, allow the registration of all such transfers, and shall not be entitled to levy any registration fee.

(3) If any landlord refuses to allow the registration of any such transfer as is mentioned in sub-section (1), the transferee or his successor in title may make an application to the Deputy Commissioner, and the Deputy Commissioner shall thereupon, after causing notice to be served on the landlord, make such inquiry as he considers necessary, and if no sufficient grounds are shown for the refusal, shall pass an order declaring that the transfer shall be deemed to be registered, and may also pass such order as he thinks fit in respect of the costs of any such inquiry.]

26. When the rent of an occupancy-raiyat whose rent is liable to enhancement has been enhanced before the commencement of this Act, otherwise than under section 24 of the [1]Chota Nagpur Landlord and Tenant Procedure Act, [2][1879,] such enhanced rent shall be deemed to be lawfully payable—

Confirmation of rents enhanced prior to commencement of this Act.

(a) if it has been actually paid continuously for seven years before the commencement of this Act; and

(b) if it is not proved to be unfair and inequitable :

Provided that, where the rent lawfully payable by an occupancy-raiyat for his holding has been made an issue in any suit for arrears of rent, and the Court has arrived at a finding on that issue, the rent so found shall be deemed to be lawfully payable by the raiyat for the holding.

27. (1) From and after the commencement of this Act,—

Contents of application to Deputy Commissioner for enhancement.

- (f) the grounds on which the applicant considers that he is entitled to the enhancement claimed.

(2) Sections 146 to 149 shall apply to every application made under this section.

Procedure on receipt of such application.

29. (1) When any such application has been received, the Deputy Commissioner—

- (a) shall forthwith give notice of the contents thereof to the raiyat, and
- (b) may, if he thinks fit, order a measurement of the land, and
- (c) may, upon consideration of all the circumstances set forth in the application, and after hearing any objection advanced by the raiyat, by order, fix such enhanced rent, or otherwise vary the rent for the said land, as to him may seem fair and reasonable :

Provided that no enhancement shall be ordered except on one or more of the following grounds, namely,—

- (i) that the rate of rent paid by the raiyat is below the prevailing rate paid by occupancy-raiyats for land of similar quality and with similar advantages [1][in the same village or in the neighbouring villages, and that there is no sufficient reason for his holding at so low a rate;]

[1] These words were inserted by the Chota Nagpur Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1920 (B. & O. Act 6 of 1920), s. 11.

(Secs. 30-31.)

Provided also that no enhancement shall be ordered which is, under the circumstances of the case, unfair or inequitable :

Provided, further, that all enhancements shall be limited in the prescribed manner (if any).

(2) The rent as fixed or varied under sub-section (1) shall be payable by the said raiyat from the commencement of the agricultural year following the year in which the order is passed, and may be recovered in any suit instituted against him for arrears of rent.

30. Where the Deputy Commissioner considers that the immediate enforcement of the full enhancement ordered under section 29 is likely to be attended with hardship, he may direct that the enhancement shall be gradual; that is to say, that the rent shall increase yearly by degrees, for any number of years not exceeding five, until the limit of the full enhancement has been reached.

Increase of Rent in respect of Excess Area.

31. (1) Where land is held by an occupancy-raiyat in excess of the area for which rent has previously been paid by him, no increase shall be made to the rent payable by him except by order of a Revenue officer passed under Chapter XII or by order of the Deputy Commissioner passed on an application made to him by the landlord.

- (d) may, upon consideration of all the circumstances set forth in the application, and after hearing any objection advanced by the raiyat and making such further inquiry as the Deputy Commissioner may think necessary, order such an increase, whether progressive or otherwise, as he may consider to be fair and reasonable:

Provided that, if the landlord proves that, at the time when the measurement on which the claim is based was made, there existed in the estate or tenure or part thereof in which the holding is situate, a practice of measuring land before settling rents, the Deputy Commissioner may presume that the area of the holding as entered in any lease or counterpart engagement or (where there is an entry of area in a counterfoil receipt corresponding to the entry in the rent-roll) in the rent-roll relating to the holding was so entered after measurement:

Provided also that an increase of rent shall not be ordered where it would contravene any local custom or usage prohibiting an increase of rent in respect of the increase in area of a holding.

(2) When any increase has been so ordered, it shall be payable from the commencement of the agricultural year following that in which the order is passed, and may be recovered from the raiyat in any suit instituted against him for arrears of rent.

(Secs. 33-35.)

33. Nothing in sections 31 and 32 shall prohibit a landlord from Savings, realizing—

- (a) increased rents from a raiyat for separate parcels of land settled with him in any manner authorized by law, or
- (b) rents on land converted from upland into korkar in accordance with local custom or usage.

CHAPTER VI.

NON-OCCUPANCY-RAIYATS.

41. A non-occupancy-raiyat shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be liable to ejection on one or more of the following grounds, and not otherwise, namely:—

- (a) on the ground that he has failed to pay an arrear of rent;
- (b) on the ground that he has used the land comprised in his holding in a manner which is not authorized by local custom or usage, or which materially impairs the value of the land or renders it unfit for the purposes of the tenancy;
- (c) on the ground that he has broken a condition, consistent with this Act, on breach of which he is, under the terms of a contract between himself and his landlord, liable to be ejected;

Conditions of ejection on ground of refusal to agree to pay a fair and equitable rent.

42. (1) A suit for ejection on the ground of refusal to agree to pay a fair and equitable rent shall not be instituted against a non-occupancy-raiyat, unless the landlord has tendered to the raiyat an agreement to pay the rent which he demands, and the raiyat has, within six months before the institution of the suit, refused to execute the agreement.

(2) A landlord desiring to tender an agreement to a raiyat under this section, may either—

(a) file it in the office of the Deputy Commissioner, for service on the raiyat; or

(8) If a raiyat refuses to execute an agreement tendered to him under this section, and the landlord thereupon institutes a suit to eject him, the Deputy Commissioner shall determine what rent is fair and equitable for the holding.

(9) If the raiyat agrees to pay the rent so determined, he shall be entitled to remain in occupation of his holding at that rent for a term of five years from the date of the agreement, but on the expiration of that term shall be liable to ejection on the second ground mentioned in clause (c) of section 41, unless he has acquired a right of occupancy.

(10) If the raiyat does not agree to pay the rent so determined, the Deputy Commissioner shall pass a decree for ejection.

(11) In determining what rent is fair and equitable, the Deputy Commissioner shall have regard to the rents generally paid by non-occupancy-raiyats for land of a similar description and with like advantages in the same village and (if the Deputy Commissioner thinks fit) in adjoining villages.

(2) Such application may be made notwithstanding that a person is in possession of the land of the tenancy, or part thereof, under the authority or with the consent of the landlord.

(3) On receiving such application the Deputy Commissioner shall, after giving notice in the prescribed manner to the landlord, the person, if any, referred to in sub-section (2), the heirs of the last village-headman, the tenants and such other persons, if any, as he considers should be parties to the proceeding, make such inquiry as appears necessary, and determine the person who in accordance with custom should be village-headman entitled to hold the tenancy, and shall place such person in possession of the tenancy, if such person is not already in possession thereof.

(4) In every such inquiry the Deputy Commissioner shall have regard to the entries in a record-of-rights finally published under this Act or under any law in force before the commencement of this Act, and to the suitability of a person in respect of tribe or caste, membership of the village family or of the late village headman's family (if it be not the village-family), residence, character and other matters, to be the village-headman of the particular village or group of villages comprised in the tenancy.

(5) No suit or application shall be entertained in any Court concerning any matter which is the subject of an application under sub-section (1), or which has been determined under sub-section (3), except a title suit in the Civil Court, instituted within one year from the date of the order passed by the Deputy Commissioner under sub-section (3), to establish the right of the plaintiff to succeed to the tenancy and to recover possession thereof from the person determined by the Deputy Commissioner to be the village-headman entitled to hold the tenancy.

or if any tenant, having received notice of the intended measurement of land held or cultivated by him, which is liable to such measurement, refuses to attend and point out such land, the landlord may present an application to the Deputy Commissioner.

(3) On receipt of such application the Deputy Commissioner shall, after taking such evidence and making such inquiry as he considers necessary, pass an order either allowing or disallowing the measurement, and, if the case so requires, enjoining or excusing the attendance of any tenant.

(4) If any tenant, after the issue of an order enjoining his attendance, refuses or neglects to attend, any map or other record of the boundaries and measurements of the land, prepared under the direction of the landlord at the time when the tenant was directed to attend, shall be presumed to be correct until the contrary is shown.

Provided that the amount payable in commutation shall be so fixed that the total annual rent of the land, including such amount as aforesaid, shall not exceed the sum which would, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, be a fair and reasonable rent if the land were not held subject to any prædial conditions.

(2) The property shall be sold by public auction, in one or more lots as the officer executing the warrant may think advisable; and if the judgment-debt, and the costs of the execution and sale, are realized by the sale of a portion of the property, the execution shall immediately be withdrawn with respect to the remainder.

203. If, on the property being put up for sale, no price which the officer executing the warrant considers fair is offered for it, and the owner of the property, or some person authorized to act on his behalf, applies to have the sale postponed until the next day, or the next market day if a market be held at the place of sale or in the vicinity, the sale shall be postponed until such day, and shall then be completed at whatever price may be offered for the property.

(2) The Deputy Commissioner shall, after taking evidence, adjudicate upon such claim, and shall make such order thereupon as he thinks fit.

(Secs. 207-208.)

(4) The party against whom any order is passed by the Deputy Commissioner under this section may, at any time within one year from the date of the order, bring a suit in the Civil Court to establish his right :

Provided that, if the property has been sold, the suit shall not be for the recovery of the property, but for damages against the judgment-creditor by whom the property was brought to sale.

207. No irregularity in publishing or conducting a sale of movable property under a warrant of execution issued under this Chapter shall vitiate such sale; but nothing contained in this section shall bar any person who sustains damage by reason of any such irregularity from recovering damages by suit in the Civil Court, if instituted within one year from the date of the sale.

Irregularities not to vitiate sale.

208. (1) When a decree passed by the Deputy Commissioner under this Act is for an arrear of rent due in respect of a tenure or holding, the decree-holder may apply for the sale of such tenure or holding, and the tenure or holding may thereupon be brought to sale, in execution of the decree, according to the provisions for the sale of under-tenures contained in the Bengal Rent Recovery (Under-tenures) Act, 1865; and all the provisions of that Act, except sections 12, 13, 14 and 15 thereof, shall, as far as may be, apply to such sale :
