WHEREAS many Suits for several years past have been commenced by, and against the Natives and others, within the Jurisdiction of this Court on Claims of very long standing To the great disquiet of the Inhabitants of the place; The Issue of many of which have been, That the Court have laid under a necessity to determine the same on presumptive and circumstantial proofs, when earlier applications wou'd have let the matters in clearer lights, and consequently enabled them to judge thereof with much greater certainty. And WHEREAS it is the Opinion of this Court That such Causes as draw their Originals from so Obsolete times, are often by the Complainants rather prosecuted from a spirit of Prejudice or Revenge than a just Right : And probably, nay it's feared, have and may be attended with ill consequences to Young Branches of Familys among the Natives, Who have been and now are frequently sued for Debts and Contract entered into by their ancestors, even before any of the Defendants were Born, and when all the Witnesses that were privy to the Transactions are Dead, WHEREFORE as this Court is empower'd by the Royal Charter to frame such Rules of Practice, and to do all such other things as shall be found necessary for the Administration of Justice and the due Execution of all or any of the Powers given them by the said Charter; And as by Act of Parliament all Actions on Specialties [sic] are limited to twenty Years from the time the cause of Action commenced (Except as therein and hereinafter is excepted) And as this Court cannot determine whether the Cadjans and Papers, made use of by the Natives, commonly called Bonds, ought to be deemed Specialties [sic] or Simple Contracts, as they are without any certain Form: And as it is apprehended the restraining them to a Medium Term for the prosecution of their actions, rather than any of those prescribed by the Statute of Limitations, will be more Beneficial, and better adapted to the Constitution of this place, This Court Doth therefore order and direct, That no Suit, Action, Bill or Plaint shall be commenced or received in this Court from and after the Twentieth day of November which shall be in the year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Forty Six, Unless the same shall be prosecuted within Ten Years from and after the Cause of such suit or Action has arisen or shall arise. PROVIDED nevertheless That Nothing herein contained, shall be Deemed, construed accepted or taken to Debar any Infant under the age of Twenty one Years, Persons of unsound mind, imprisoned or beyond the Seas, from their Actions: so as they do take the Same, within the time before limited, after their being of full age, of Sound memory, at large, and returned from beyond the Seas, as other persons, having no such Impediment should have done.
