

THE HISTORY

OF THE
BRITISH EMPIRE IN INDIA.

BY

EDWARD THORNTON, Esq.,

AUTHOR OF "INDIA, ITS STATE AND PROSPECTS," &c. &c.

VOLUME III.

LONDON:
WM. H. ALLEN AND CO.,
7, LEADENHALL STREET.

1842.

Printed by J. L. Cox & Sons, 75, Great Queen Street, Lincoln's-Inn Fields.

C O N T E N T S

OF

VOLUME III.

CHAPTER XV.

Appointment of the Earl of Mornington Governor-general on the retirement of Lord Teignmouth—Position of the British Government in India at this time, its Dangers and Difficulties—Extraordinary Conduct of Tippoo Sultan—Arrival of the Earl of Mornington in India—Apprehended Danger from hostile Designs of Tippoo—Preparations of Governor-general to repel it—Discouraging Communications from Madras—Negotiations at Hyderabad and Poona for counteracting French influence—Treaty with the Nizam—Dissolution of the French Corps in the service of that Prince—Failure of attempts to conclude Treaty of Alliance with the Peishwa—Preparations against Tippoo—Negotiations—Determination of the Governor-general to put the Army of the Carnatic in motion—General Harris appointed to the Command—Army assembled in Malabar under General Stuart—Unexpected Attack on that Army by Tippoo repulsed—General Action between Army of the Carnatic and Tippoo, latter Defeated—General Harris advances on Seringapatam by an unusual Route—Singular Expression of Tippoo—Order issued by the British General—Preparations for Siege—Renewed Negotiation—Siege proceeds—Enemy dislodged from last exterior Entrenchment by Colonel Wellesley—Further attempt of Tippoo to Negotiate—His Despondency—Serlingapatam assaulted and carried under command of General Baird—Doubt as to the Fate of the Sultan—Interview of Major Allen with Tippoo's Sons—Palace surrendered—Discovery of the Body of the Sultan—Circumstances preceding and attending his Death—Surrender of another of Tippoo's Sons—Discoveries illustrative of Tippoo's hatred of the English—Restoration of Tranquillity in Serlingapatam—Settlement of Mysore—Restoration and Enthronement of the Heir of its ancient Rajahs—Partition Treaty with Nizam—Observations on the Earl of Mornington's Policy—Disturbances created by Dhoondia—His flight across the Mahratta Boundary

Pp. 1 to 96

CHAPTER XVI.

Proceedings in Tanjore—Death of the Rajah and Usurpation of his Brother to the prejudice of the Rajah's adopted Son—Restoration of the latter by the Earl of Mornington—Retrospect of British connection with Surat—Assumption by the British Government of the entire Civil and Military Administration—Fresh Disturbances excited by Dhoondia—A Division of his Army surprised and destroyed by Colonel Wellesley—Dhoondia flies, is pursued, defeated, and killed—Observation of Sir Thomas Munro—Governor-general created Marquis Wellesley—Differences between Governor-general and Admiral Rainier—Expedition to Egypt under General Baird—Affairs of the Carnatic; disputes with Omdut-ul-Omrah, Son of Mahomet Ali—Discoveries made in Serlingapatam of the perfidy of Mahomet Ali and Omdut-ul-Omrah—Subsequent investigation—Governor-general determines to assume the Government of the Carnatic for the Company—Death of Omdut-ul-Omrah—Communications between his servants and deputies of the British Government respecting the Succession of Ali Hussein, the late Nabob's reputed Son—Interview of

Lord Clive with Ali Hussein—Vacillation of the latter—Second interview with Lord Clive—Azim-ul-Dowlah, second Son of Mahomet Ali, made Nabob—New Treaty with the Nizam—Its advantages—Honourable course taken by the Governor-general in the course of the Negotiation Pp. 97 to 161

CHAPTER XVII.

Affairs of Oude—Marquis Wellesley's Views—Murder of several Englishmen by Vizier Ali—Intrepid conduct of Mr. Davis—Flight and capture of Vizier Ali—Communications with Nabob Vizier on Military Reform—Delays and evasions of the Vizier—Difficulties of dealing with Subsidiary States—Further communication from Governor-general—Disputes between Vizier and part of his Troops—Determination of the Governor-general to augment the British Force in Oude—Inquiry into the justice of this measure—Vizier expresses desire to abdicate—Retracts the desire—Commences disbanding his disorderly Troops—Evils and abuses in the Civil Administration—Proposal to the Vizier to relinquish the Government or to give Territorial Security for British Claims—Progress of Negotiations—Mr. Henry Wellesley deputed to Oude—Further proceedings—New Treaty concluded—Conduct of Governor-general towards Oude discussed—Governor-general visits Northern Provinces—Interviews with the Vizier—Arrangement with the Nabob of Furuckabad—Settlement of Provinces ceded by Vizier to the British Government, and Departure of Mr. Henry Wellesley ... Pp. 162 to 241

CHAPTER XVIII.

Desire of the Governor-general to Resign—Causes of the desire—Requested to prolong his stay, and consents—Duplicity of the Peishwa—His difficulties dispose him to receive a British Subsidiary Force—Renewed Negotiations—Advance of Holkar upon Poona—Peishwa quits the

City—Undertakes to form a Defensive Alliance with the Company—Defeat of the Army of the Peishwa and Scindia by Holkar—Flight of the Peishwa to Bassein—British Resident leaves Poona—Treaty of Defensive Alliance concluded—A British Force under General Wellesley advances upon Poona—Enters the City—The Peishwa Restored—Communications with Scindia—Mission of Colonel Collins to that Chief—Junction of Scindia and the Rajah of Berar—Communications of Colonel Collins with both—Departure of the British Resident from Scindia's Camp—General Wellesley marches from Poona—Fall of Ahmednuggur and Broach—Opening of Campaign by the Army of Bengal—Notices of Perron, of De Boigne, and of the origin of the French Corps—Lord Lake attacks and disperses Perron's Force—Takes possession of Coel—Alyghur taken by Storm—Perron quits the service of Scindia—Part of his Force under Louis Boigne defeated near Delhi—Evacuation of Delhi by the French—Reception of the British Commander by the Emperor—Colonel Ochterlony left Resident at Delhi—Progress of General Wellesley in the Deccan—Battle of Assye—Agra surrenders to General Lake—Cuttack occupied by Colonel Harcourt—General Lake marches from Agra in pursuit of a Mahratta Force—Battle of Laswarce—Activity of General Wellesley—Negotiations with Agents of Scindia—Suspension of Arms with that Chief agreed upon—General Wellesley advances towards a Force belonging to the Rajah of Berar—Battle of Argaum—Gawilghur besieged and taken—Peace concluded with the Rajah of Berar; and with Scindia—Defeat of Banditti by General Campbell—Occupation of Bundelcund—Eight Supplemental Articles added to the Treaty of Bassein—Attack upon a French Squadron by a Fleet of Company's Ships—Treaty of Defensive Alliance concluded with Scindia—Treaties with minor Chiefs—Proposed objects of the Governor-general attained

CHAPTER XIX.

Affairs of Ceylon—Inexpediency of Separating that Island from the General Government of British India—Proceedings of British Government in Ceylon with regard to the Kingdom of Candy—War commenced—The Capital of Candy occupied by the English—Convention concluded with the Enemy—Further Negotiations—The English in the City of Candy attacked, and surrender on terms—The terms violated, and the party murdered—Subsequent events—Further remarks on the impolicy of constituting the British Possessions in Ceylon a separate Government

Pp. 388 to 419

CHAPTER XX.

Proceedings of Holkar—Capture of Tonk Rampoorah by the English—Further Successes—Temporary Success of Ameer Khan in Bundelcund—Movements of Colonel Monson and of Colonel Murray—Disastrous Retreat of the former—Remarks—Preparations for resuming offensive Operations—Holkar appears before Delhi—Brave Defence of the City by Colonel Burns—Gallant Resistance made by Colonel Burns at Shamlec—General Frazer marches in pursuit of part of Holkar's Force—Battle of Deeg—Attack by General Lake on Holkar's Camp—Deeg taken by the English—Proceedings of the Army in the Deccan—Capture of Chandore and other places—General Lake lays Siege to Bhurtpore—Repeated and unsuccessful Attacks on that place—Negotiation commenced with the Rajah—Captain Royle defeats a body of Scindia's Cavalry, and subsequently a body of Holkar's Infantry—Treaty of Peace concluded with Rajah of Bhurtpore—Suspicious conduct of Scindia—Claim set up by that Chief to the restoration of Gwalior and Gohud discussed—Proceedings in Scindia's Camp—Arrival of Shirzee Rao Ghatgay there—Sketch of his History—Scindia entirely

under his influence—Scindia marches towards Hoshcing-abad—Remonstrances of Mr. Webbe, the British Resident —Apprehensions entertained with regard to the Rajah of Berar—Death of Mr. Webbe, whose duties thereby develop on Mr. Jenkins—Movements of Scindia—Attempt of the British acting Resident to induce him to act in accordance with his engagements—Camp of the British Residency attacked and plundered—Letter from Scindia to Governor-general delivered after extraordinary delay—Communications of like character made to Colonel Close at Nagpore—Governor-general answers Scindia's Letter
 —Extensive preparations made for counteracting Scindia's views—Sir Arthur Wellesley quits India—Shirzee Rao dispatched by Scindia to Bhurtpore—Colonel Martindell approaches Scindia's Camp—Scindia requests his withdrawal to a greater distance, which is refused—Ameer
 Khan arrives in Scindia's Camp, and Holkar—Ambajee Inglia seized by Holkar, and a Contribution extorted from him—Correspondence between Scindia and Lord Lake—Orders of the Governor-general for extensive preparations for War countermanded—Causes of the change—Mr.
 Jenkins prevented from quitting Scindia's Camp—Amba-jee Inglia received into favour by Scindia—Arrival of the Marquis Cornwallis, and Departure of the Marquis Wellesley—Observations on the Policy of the latter—Notice of the Death of the Marquis Wellesley, and Remarks on his Character Pp. 420 to 575