

NOTES

on

INDIAN AFFAIRS:

BY J. D.

HONOR PREVIRE is JOHN SHORE.

THE AUTHOR OF "INDIAN AFFAIRS" IS JOHN SHORE.
THE PUBLISHER IS JOHN SHORE.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

VOLUME II.

PRINTED FOR THE AUTHOR BY J. D.

LONDON:

JOHN W. PARKER - WEST STRAND

1850

ONE CROWN 80

CONTENTS

of

THE SECOND VOLUME.

CONTENTS.

Number	Page
XXXV. On the Injustices of compelling the People of India to adopt a Foreign Language and Character	1
XXXVI. On the Proceedings of the Civil Courts	7
XXXVII. On the Prospects of English Servants	26
XXXVIII. On the Necessity for a Commercial Code	57
XXXIX. On the Policy of Interference in the Internal Administration of the Native Powers	71
XL. On the Interruptions between the English and the Natives	106
XLI. On the Character of the People.—General Observations	121
XLII. Same subject continued.—Falsehood,—Forgery,—Perjury	150
XLIII. Same subject continued.—Frigidness,—Lugitation, &c.	187
XLIV. A slight Sketch of the Administration of Lord William Bentinck	216
XLV. Suggestions for the New Government.—Qualifications of a Governor-General	223
XLVI. Suggestions for the New Government	245
XLVII. Present State and Future Prospects of Oude	260
XLVIII. On the Mode of Administering the Government of Oude, when it shall fall into the Possession of the English	280
XLIX. On the Usury Laws	290
L. On the Ruin to Trade caused by the existing System of British-Indian Customs	296
LI. Character of the People.—Ingratitude,—Domestic Servants	310
LII. Same subject continued.—Honesty,—Morality	321
LIII. Same subject continued.—Miscellaneous Observations	335
LIV. On the Landed Estates, and Expediency of introducing a modified Law of Primogeniture among the People	352

CONTENTS.

Foreword	1
LV. On the Thugs in India	1
LVI. On the Police	1
LVII. Propriety of Interfering with some of the Native Customs	1
LVIII. On the Native Army	1
LIX. Wakils, or Native Lawyers	1
LX. On the Conversion of the People	1
LXI. On Caste	1
LXII. Intercourse between the English and the Natives	1
LXIII. Miscellaneous Observations	1
Conclusion	1

APPENDIX.

A. Narrative of Peer Buksh	1
B. Character of a Commissioner	1
C. Occurrences regarding the Temple of Snigrampoor	1
D. The Noozed Affair	1