

ASPECTS OF THE THEORY OF
INTERNATIONAL CAPITAL MOVEMENTS

BY

CARL IVERSEN

1936

LEVIN & MUNKSGAARD
EJNAR MUNKSGAARD
COPENHAGEN

HUMPHREY MILFORD
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
LONDON

First edition 1935
Second edition 1936

Printed in Denmark — Copyright by Levin & Munksgaard
ATELIER ELEKTRA

CONTENTS

PART I

ESSENTIALS OF INTERNATIONAL CAPITAL MOVEMENTS

INTRODUCTION	1
--------------------	---

CHAPTER I

The nature of international capital movements.

1. The capital concept	20
2. The balance of trade, the balance of payments, and the balance of indebtedness	31
3. International transfers of capital	44
4. The interdependence of international economic transactions ..	62
5. Direct linking of capital export and commodity export	81

CHAPTER II

The causes of international capital movements.

1. Introductory remarks	93
2. The obstacles to international capital movements	94
3. Changes in the costs of capital transfer	117
4. Changes in the international differences in interest rates	127
5. Other factors influencing international capital movements ..	144

CHAPTER III

The effects of international capital movements.

1. Introductory remarks	152
2. Effects on prices and incomes	156
3. Effects on the structure of production	175
4. The interrelation of different factor movements	177
5. Effects on volume of foreign trade	181
6. Reactions of domestic factor supply	183

7. Effects on outside countries	187
8. Government control of international capital movements	188

PART II

MECHANISM OF INTERNATIONAL CAPITAL MOVEMENTS

A: THEORIES

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS	197
----------------------------	-----

CHAPTER IV

Two alternative explanations.

1. The classical theory	199
2. The modern theory	202
3. Comparison	206

CHAPTER V

The forerunners.

1. Thornton	209
2. Ricardo	212

CHAPTER VI

Later refinements.

1. The classical theory	218
2. The modern theory	243

CHAPTER VII

The reparation discussion.

1. Introductory remarks	259
2. Preliminary attempts; 1919—24	261
3. The German contributions; 1924—29	264
4. Later polemics; 1929—34	278

CHAPTER VIII

The mechanism under a paper standard.

1. The classical theory	301
2. The modern theory	312

B: FACTS

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS	327
1. Deduction and induction	327
2. Development and extent of international capital movements..	330
3. Barter terms of trade	337

CHAPTER IX

Creditor countries.

1. France	343
2. Great Britain	360
3. The United States	369

CHAPTER X

Debtor countries.

1. Canada	380
2. Australia	400
3. The United States	418

CHAPTER XI

Paper-standard countries.

1. The Argentine	424
2. The United States	438

C: CONCLUSIONS

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS	451
----------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XII

The transfer process.

1. The transfer of buying power	454
2. Sectional price levels	472
3. Outside countries	488
4. Elasticity of demand and supply	489
5. The terms of trade	510

CHAPTER XIII

The media of international payment.

1. Gold	512
2. Short-term credits	518

BIBLIOGRAPHY	526
--------------------	-----