

THE TEACHER'S GUIDE

TO THE

GOVERNMENT TEMPERANCE SYLLABUS.

BY

H. MAJOR, B.A., B.Sc.

(FIRST CLASS HONOURS, SOUTH KENSINGTON AND LONDON UNIVERSITY IN ANIMAL PHYSIOLOGY),

Author of "Science Manuals, Elementary and Advanced, in Animal Physiology," "Little Mothers," "Young Nurses," "Housewifery," "Domestic Economy" (Blackie), etc.

SENIOR INSPECTOR, LEICESTER EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

LONDON:
UNION PUBLISHING HOUSE,
59 & 60, OLD BAILEY, E.C.

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Introduction	5
SECTION I.
The Body : Preliminary Sketch	10
Model Lesson : Water	17
Do. Properties of Water	18
Do. Uses of Water	19
Do. Non-Alcoholic Beverages	20
Do. Alcoholic Beverages	21
Do. Properties of Alcohol	22
Alcohol in the Body	23
Alcoholic Liquors contrasted with Food	24
SECTION II.
Model Lesson : Proportion of Alcohol in Beers, Wines and Spirits	27
Effects of Alcohol on the Human Body	29
Digestion	33
Influence of Alcohol upon Digestion	36
The Interpretation of Tables	37
SECTION III.
Social and Moral Effects of Alcohol	39
Model Lesson : Alcohol and the Mind	40
Do. The Question of Cost	41
Do. The Social Side of the Question	43
Appendix I	45
Appendix II	52

TEMPERANCE TEACHING.

Article 2 (9) Code, 1909. Curriculum, Syllabus and Time Table. "Hygiene, including instruction, adapted to the ages and sexes of the scholars, in the elementary rules of personal health, particularly in respect of food and drink (including Alcohol). Lessons on 'Temperance,' when given, should be in conformity with the official Syllabus dated 1st June, 1909."