PREFACE.

The present sketch of the life and work of the late Mr. Gopal Krishna Gokhale is reprinted verbatim from the July number of the Fergusson College Magazine for which it was originally written. The College magazine reaches the hands of only a few outside the student world and it was suggested to me that a reprint in this form will make it available to the large Indian public that is interested in Gokhale. A complete biography of Gokhale is one of the needs of the Indian political world and we are glad that it is being arranged for; but, until it appears, sketches like the present may perhaps be found not altogether without their use.
