ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE PANCHAYAT
DEPARTMENT FOR THE YEAR 1977-78

INTRODUCTION

The year under report started with the introduction of the Common service to the Panchayat employees in the State. The employees of Panchayats in the State were clamouring for the constitution of common service for the last 20 years. Common service to panchayat employees for each district was constituted with effect from 1st April 1977 as per G.O. Ms. 84/77/L.A. and S.W.D., dated 23rd March 1977.

2. The basic tax grant under section 67 of the Kerala Panchayat Act, 1960 came into force with effect from 1st January 1978. According to this the Government shall pay annually to each Panchayat in the State a grant, which shall be equal as near as may be to three-fourth of the amount of basic tax collected by the Government in last preceding year from that Panchayat area. The balance amount will be paid in such proportion as may be fixed by the Government having regard to the area, population, available resources and the needs of development of the Panchayats and the cost of the Panchayat administration.

3. The activities of the Panchayats in the State in the various fields especially in the sphere of Public Health, Agriculture, Family Welfare Scheme, Social Welfare and the National Savings Programme were commendable. The various development activities of the Panchayats received recognition from all quarters. The Panchayat could construct 88 Rural Dispensary buildings during the period under report.

4. The commendable performance of the Panchayat and their dedicated service to the rural masses contribute much for the progress of our country. The panchayats engaged in the task of giving a new orientation to development programmes.

5. At the beginning of the year under report there were 993 Panchayats in the State. The effective follow up work of the department the total revenue of Panchayats excluding grants during the report year came to Rs. 12,08,28,232-95 while in the previous year it was only Rs. 11,18,06,790-62. Thus there was a remarkable increase of Rs. 90,21,442-33 in 1977-78. The average income of the Panchayat was Rs. 1,21,925-56 as against Rs. 1,14,909-34 in the previous year.

6. Out of the 994 Panchayats, 688 Panchayats could collect 100 per cent of the demand during the year. Thus 69 per cent of the Panchayats could achieve 100 per cent collection. This is a good record when it is compared to other States in India. Out of the total demand of Rs. 14,34,52,455-68, the Panchayats in the State could collect Rs. 13,41,78,028-96. Thus the Panchayats in the State had collected 93.5 per cent of the demand.

7. The Panchayats spent a total amount of Rs. 3,19,51,668-12 on public works during the year 1977-78. The Panchayats had to incur huge amount for street lighting. They had spent Rs. 1,03,29,506-27 for burning 204,371 electric lights and other things during 1977-78.

8. Consequent on the implementation of the registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1969 and rules framed thereunder registration of Births and Deaths has become one of the main function of Local bodies. The public were made aware of the importance of the registration of Births and Deaths 376,000 Nos. of Births, 2,604 stillbirths and 96,781 Nos. of death events were registered during the year 1977-78.

9. An amount of Rs. 6,65,349-70 has been spent by Panchayats for the implementation of various Mini Industrial Schemes in Panchayat during 1977-78. The rural development board has completed remunerative scheme works costing Rs. 78,33,303-80 such as shopping centre, market stalls and handed over to the Panchayats during the year under report.

10. As a whole the performance of the Panchayats under the effective guidance of the Department secured the good will of the rural public. The Panchayats acquired the status of an accepted effective agency for the implementation of the development schemes in the rural area.

The Panchayat promoted the activities of other libraries incurring an expenditure of Rs. 2,48,523.68 as grant-in-aid to them as against Rs. 2,23,722.60 in the previous year.

Social and Cultural activities

The Panchayat promoted the Social and Cultural activities of voluntary organisations such as sports club, arts clubs, Athletic clubs and Physical education centres in the Panchayats. 114 parks, 36 garden and 163 recreation clubs were maintained by Panchayats for the benefit of the local people. The Panchayats had given grant-in-aid in deserving cases and an amount of Rs. 24,779.91 was spent towards this item during the year. The Panchayat also celebrated the days of national importance such as Independence Day, Republic Day, Flag Day, Children's Day, National Cleanliness etc., in a befitting manner.

Education

Under the management of Panchayats there were 15 High Schools, 27 U.P.S., 66 L.P.S., 51 Nursery Schools during the year under report.

Altogether there were 4t,041 pupils and 1,305 teachers in these institutions. The Panchayat rendered assistance to both private and Government schools by way of supplying furniture, utensils for noon feeding;^ programmes and also constructing school buildings, urinals-cum-latrines, kitchen sheds, etc. Many Panchayats have awarded cash prizes and merit certificate to the students who secured highest marks in schools in the Panchayat area. The details are given in Appendix XXII-

Community listening centres

During the period under report 6,188 listening sets and 804 radio kiosks were under operation in the Panchayats. The maintenance of radio sets was attended to by the radio wing of the Public Works Department. Panchayat also took part in the activities of the Forum organised by the Rural Forum Wing of the All India Radio.

Agricultural Activities

With the co-operation of panchayats the Agricultural Department introduced improved methods of agricultural piactices. The main aim was to produce more agricultural commodities in the Panchayat areas. The Panchayats had to give assistance to minor irrigation works executed by the Public Works Department and the block authorities. An amount of Rs. 13,51,334 85 was given to the Panchayats as grant for M. I. works while Rs. 13,35,952 29 was the corresponding figure during the previous year. 10,056 M. I. works were maintamed by the Panchayats benefitting an area of 540,533.040 acres of land in the year under report. The details of M. I. works are given in Appendix XXV.

Family Planning

To control the rapid growth of population, the Governmeat have introduced various methods of family planning. The Panchryats have played an important role in the activities of family planning with the co-operafion of the Health Services Department. Family Planning camps, film shows, drama on family planning etc , were conducted in the Panchayats. Ii' all these camps the Panchayats have actively co-operated by meeting the expenses from their funds.

Plau bchemes

As usual there were three plan schemes implemented by this department during the period under report, fhey are (a) "Loans to Panchayats for the creation of remunerative community assets" (b) Publication of Panchayrit Raj Journal (c) Training Institute of Local Administration,

(a) Loans to Panchayats

The purpose of this scheme is to give loans to Panchayats for the creation of remunerative community assets like construction of Panchayat office buildings, improvement of public markets, purchase of land for shopping centre, etc.

Due to the implementation of the above scheme the Panchayats were in a better position to fulfill urgent needs of the locality by increasing their income without seeking aids from Government.

The plan provision for the loan scheme was Rs. 5,97,850 and this amount was fully utilised by the Panchayats for the creation of the remunerative assets. The details of loan received by Panchayats are given in Appendix XXII.

(b) Publication of Panchayat Raj Journal

The Panchayat Raj a departmental monthly publication and it has a wide circulation among rural mass. In propagating the idea of democratic decentralisation among the village people, development through people's participation, this journal has played a prominent part. Proper coverage is given in the Journal for all the important programmes and activities at the Panchayat level as to make it more educative and informative to the rural people. This plan provision for this item during 1977-78 was Rs. 80,548. 114,000 copies of Panchayat Raj were printed and published during the year under report.

Other Activities

Kerala Panchayat Journal.—The publication of Kerala Panchayat Journal both in Malayalam and English by the department continued this year. For the purpose of information and guidance of Panchayats and the departmental officers, important orders and circular instructions of Government and the department of general nature and important extracts of judgment relating to matters connected with Panchayat administration etc., have been published in the Journal. The publication continued to be very helpful to Panchayats. During the period under reference 19,280 copies of Panchayat Journal were printed and published and an amount of Rs. 21,322.30 spent towards this Item.

Conference and Training.—As usual Director of Panchayats attended various conferences held within the State under the auspices of Government and other bodies during the year under report. Various departmental conferences were conducted to discuss matters, like Panchayat administration, registration of births and deaths, evasion of tax, land cess etc., and very important decisions were taken in such cases. The District Panchayat Officers and Panchayat Inspectors had also conducted periodical meetings at their level to discuss important matters and problems relating to the Panchayat administration.

The Director of Panchayats participated in the conference on the Panchayat Raj Institutions held in the Vignanabhavan, New Delhi on 10th January 1978 and 17th January 1978 and attended the official level discussion with the VII Finance Commission on the forecast of revenue expenditure at New Delhi on 18th January 1978 as ordered by the Government. He was also deputed for Regional Seminar on Panchayat Raj Institutions held at Hyderabad from 13th March 1978 to 20th March 1978.

CONCLUSION

Great progress could be made by co-ordinating the activities of the Panchayats. There have been greater co-operation and participation by the village people for rural development. The progress achieved through their co-operation has given greater confidence, for implementing bigger developmental schemes.

The Director of Panchayats visited many Panchayats in the State during the period under report for conducting enquiries, surprise inspection and also in connection with certain special functions arranged by the Panchayats. Other departmental officers also made such visits in Panchayats.

The Director of Panchayats also made periodical broadcast through All India Radio on various subjects connected with the administration of the Panchayats and the developmental activities.

The Director of Panchayats and the Departmental Officers rendered maximum assistance co-operation and guidance to the Panchayat for their better, efficient and proper functioning. There was a considerable progress in the general standard of the work of the Panchayat. The relation between the Panchayats and the department was quite cordial.
