DADABHAI NAOROJI'S BOOK.

AS a compendium and reprint of all that the author has uttered on this and on kindred subjects during a long and busy life. These consist of a paper read before the East India Association in 1875; correspondence with the India Office, 1883; a memorandum on the moral poverty of India of 1880; papers of 1887 refuting articles by Sir Mountstuart Grant Duff; the author's speeches in the House of Commons in 1894 and 1895; contributions written in 1895 to the Royal Commission on Indian Expenditure; a paper on the Simultaneous Examination Question; his statements submitted to the Indian Currency Committee in 1898; selections from his addresses, and a paper on the State and Government of India under its Native rulers.

It is the book which exposes clearly and boldly how "The Drain of India" takes place.

FURTHER REDUCTION.

If any subscriber of the "Indian Review" purchases two copies, he will be charged only Rs. 2-8 per copy; four copies at a time at Rs. 2 each. When ordering for the book, please note that you are a subscriber to the Review.
