

THE
Letters of Horace Walpole

VOLUME III.

THE LETTERS
OF
HORACE WALPOLE

FOURTH EARL OF ORFORD

EDITED BY PETER CUNNINGHAM

STAIRCASE AT STRAWBERRY HILL

WITH SIXTY-FOUR STEEL PORTRAITS

VOL. III.

Edinburgh
JOHN GRANT

1906

LADY MARY WORTLEY MONTAGU.

FROM AN ORIGINAL MINIATURE.

IN THE POSSESSION (1844) OF THE EARL OF HARRINGTON.

CONTENTS.

LETTERS.

1756-1762.

[The Letters now first published or collected are marked N.]

LETTER	PAGE
460. To Mann, March 18.—Progress of the armaments—Danger for Port-Mahon—Naïveté of Lady Coventry	1
461. To Conway, March 25.—Mr. Pitt's gout—The plate tax—Projected invasion signified to Parliament—Paddington road-bill—Lady Lincoln's assembly
462. To the same, April 16.—Paddington road-bill struggle—Militia-bill—Death of Sir William Lowther—Lord Shelburne's speech—Fulke Greville's 'Maxims and Characters'	4
463. To Mann, April 18.—War of the turnpike-bill—Deaths of Lady Drumlanrig and Sir William Lowther	6
464. To Montagu, April 20.—Death of Lady Essex—Sir William Lowther's will—Lady Coventry—Billy and Bully—The new Morocco ambassador and Lady Petersham—Coat-of-arms for the clubs at White's	8
465. To the same, May 12	11
466. To Mann, May 16.—Defenceless state of Minorca—The "Pucelle"	11
467. To Montagu, May 19.—The King and the Hanoverian troops—Lord Denbigh's bon-mot on his own marriage	12
468. To Mann, May 27.—His uncle Horatio Walpole created a peer—Death of Chief Justice Ryder—Opera contest	13
469. To the Earl of Strafford, June 6.—Frightful catastrophe—Madame Maintenon's new Letters and Memoirs—Consternation on the behaviour of Byng	15
470. To Chute, June 8.—Council of war at Gibraltar—The Prince of Wales declines living at Kensington—His uncle Horatio's motto and supporters—Visit to Lady Allen with Lord and Lady Bath—General Wall's motto	17
471. To Mann, June 14.—Admiral Byng's letters—Prince of Wales's establishment	18
472. To Montagu, June 18	21
473. To Mann, July 11.—Public rage against Byng	21

LETTER

PA

474. To Montagu, July 12.—Military preparations
475. To Mann, July 24.—Clamour against Byng—Public hopes in Boscawen—Lady Pomfret at Oxford University
476. To Montagu, Aug. 28
477. To Mann, Aug. 29.—Loss of Minorca—League of Cambray—Unpopularity of Byng
478. To Bentley, Aug.—Tour in the North—Bugden Palace—Newark Castle—Wentworth Castle—Old Wortley Montagu—Pomfret—Ledstone—Kippax Park—Kirkstall Abbey—Chapel on Wakefield bridge—Worksop—Kiverton—Welbeck
479. To Mann, Sept. 19.—Byng's quarrels with the admiralty and ministry—Rage of addresses
480. To Montagu, Oct. 14.—Mode of passing his time—Magna Charta—Garrick's temple to Shakspeare
481. To the same, Oct.
482. To Mann, Oct. 17.—Successes of the King of Prussia—Battle of Lowositz—Peace between Kensington and Kew—Lord Bute groom of the stole to the Prince—Lords Rockingham and Orford's match—The Irish Speaker at Newmarket
483. To Montagu, Oct. 28.—Mutability of the world—The Duke of Newcastle's resignation
484. To Mann, Nov. 4.—The Duke of Newcastle's resignation—Unsuccessful attempts to form a new ministry
485. To Montagu, Nov. 6.—Mr. Pitt made secretary of state—New ministry—The three factions
486. To Mann, Nov. 13.—Mr. Pitt appointed secretary of state—State of parties
487. To Montagu, Nov. 25.—The new ministry and opposition
488. To Mann, Nov. 29.—Mr. Pitt's gout—The new ministry—List of the changes—The Duke of Newcastle's disinterestedness—Benedict XIV.
489. To the same, Dec. 8.—Proceedings in Parliament—Voltaire's epigram
490. To the same, Dec. 16.—Illness of Sir Horace's brother—The Hessian troops—Breach between Fox and Pitt
491. To the same, Dec. 23.—Death of Sir Horace's brother
492. To the same, Jan. 6.—Party squabbles—The "Test" and "Contest"—Dr. Shebbeare's "Monitor"—Death of Theodore, King of Corsica
493. To the same, Jan. 17.—The King and Mr. Pitt—Damien's attempt on the King of France—King Theodore's death—Byng's trial—Miss Elizabeth Villiers Pitt
494. To the same, Jan. 30.—Admiral Byng's trial—Voltaire's letter in his behalf—Death of Fontenelle—Brumoy's 'Aristophanes'—Lady Essex and Prince Edward

LETTER	PAGE
495. To the same, Feb. 30.—Progress of Admiral Byng's trial—Death of his uncle Horatio, Lord Walpole—Prince Edward and Lady Essex at Lady Rochford's ball	61
496. To Chute, Feb. 27.—Admiral Byng's court-martial	63
497. To Mann, March 3.—Admiral Byng's sentence—Applications of the court-martial for mercy—German subsidy—French symptoms	64
498. To the same, March 17.—Completion of Admiral Byng's tragedy—Mr. Pitt's health—Fears for Hanover	66
499. To the same, April 7.—Dismissal of the ministry—Inter-ministerium—Court changes	67
500. To the same, April 20.—Inquiries into the naval miscarriages—Freedoms in gold boxes to Mr. Pitt and Mr. Legge—Damien's execution	69
501. To the same, May 5.—Result of the naval inquiries—Epigrams	73
502. To George Grenville, May 13.—With letter from Xo Ho. N.	75
503. To Mann, May 19.—Inter-ministerium—King of Prussia's victory—Battle of Prague—Xo Ho's letter	76
504. To Montagu, May 27.—Xo Ho's letter	77
505. To Mann, June 1.—Ministerial negotiations—King of Prussia's victories	78
506. To Montagu, June 2.—Projected ministry	80
507. To Mann, June 9.—Ministerial arrangements—Lord Waldegrave first lord of the Treasury	81
508. To the same, June 14.—New ministerial revolution—The three factions—Scramble for power	81
509. To the same, June 20.—Mr. Pitt accepts the seals—The new ministry—Inscription for a bas-relief in wax of Benedict XIV.	83
510. To the same, July 3.—Settlement of the ministry	85
511. To the Earl of Strafford, July 4.—New volumes of Voltaire's 'Universal History'	87
512. To Chute, July 12.—Gray's 'Odes' to be printed at Strawberry Hill	89
513. To Montagu, July 16.—Lord Halifax—His Printing Press	90
514. To the same, July 17	90
515. To Mann, July 25.—Secret expedition	91
516. To Chute, July 26.—Picture of Ninon de l'Enclos—Mrs. Clive's legacy	92
517. To Mann, Aug. 4.—Disasters in Flanders—Gray's 'Odes'—His printer's letter to a friend in Ireland	93
518. To Montagu, Aug. 4.—Defeat of the Duke of Cumberland at Hastenbeck	95
519. To Conway, Aug. 14.—Cause of the defeat at Hastenbeck	95
520. To Lord Lyttelton, Aug. 25.—Gray's 'Odes'—Lord Lyttelton's Henry II. N.	96
521. To Montagu, Aug. 25.—Of Gray's 'Odes'—His printing-office	99
522. To Conway, Sept. 2.—Charles Townshend—Lord Chesterfield and Lord Bath	101

LETTER	PA
474. To Montagu, July 12.—Military preparations
475. To Mann, July 24.—Clamour against Byng—Public hopes in Boscawen—Lady Pomfret at Oxford University
476. To Montagu, Aug. 23
477. To Mann, Aug. 29.—Loss of Minorca—League of Cambray—Unpopularity of Byng
478. To Bentley, Aug.—Tour in the North—Bugden Palace—Newark Castle—Wentworth Castle—Old Wortley Montagu—Pomfret—Ledstone—Kippax Park—Kirkstall Abbey—Chapel on Wakefield bridge—Worksop—Kiveton—Welbeck
479. To Mann, Sept. 19.—Byng's quarrels with the admiralty and ministry—Rage of addresses
480. To Montagu, Oct. 14.—Mode of passing his time—Magna Charta—Garrick's temple to Shakspeare
481. To the same, Oct.
482. To Mann, Oct. 17.—Successes of the King of Prussia—Battle of Lowositz—Peace between Kensington and Kew—Lord Bute groom of the stole to the Prince—Lords Rockingham and Orford's match—The Irish Speaker at Newmarket
483. To Montagu, Oct. 28.—Mutability of the world—The Duke of Newcastle's resignation
484. To Mann, Nov. 4.—The Duke of Newcastle's resignation—Unsuccessful attempts to form a new ministry
485. To Montagu, Nov. 6.—Mr. Pitt made secretary of state—New ministry—The three factions
486. To Mann, Nov. 13.—Mr. Pitt appointed secretary of state—State of parties
487. To Montagu, Nov. 25.—The new ministry and opposition
488. To Mann, Nov. 29.—Mr. Pitt's gout—The new ministry—List of the changes—The Duke of Newcastle's disinterestedness—Benedict XIV.
489. To the same, Dec. 8.—Proceedings in Parliament—Voltaire's epigram
490. To the same, Dec. 16.—Illness of Sir Horace's brother—The Hessian troops—Breach between Fox and Pitt
491. To the same, Dec. 23.—Death of Sir Horace's brother
492. To the same, Jan. 6.—Party squabbles—The "Test" and "Contest"—Dr. Shebbeare's "Monitor"—Death of Theodore, King of Corsica
493. To the same, Jan. 17.—The King and Mr. Pitt—Damien's attempt on the King of France—King Theodore's death—Byng's trial—Miss Elizabeth Villiers Pitt
494. To the same, Jan. 30.—Admiral Byng's trial—Voltaire's letter in his behalf—Death of Fontenelle—Brumoy's 'Aristophanes'—Lady Essex and Prince Edward

LETTER	PAGE
495. To the same, Feb. 30.—Progress of Admiral Byng's trial—Death of his uncle Horatio, Lord Walpole—Prince Edward and Lady Essex at Lady Rochford's ball	61
496. To Chute, Feb. 27.—Admiral Byng's court-martial	63
497. To Mann, March 3.—Admiral Byng's sentence—Applications of the court-martial for mercy—German subsidy—French symptoms	64
498. To the same, March 17.—Completion of Admiral Byng's tragedy—Mr. Pitt's health—Fears for Hanover	66
499. To the same, April 7.—Dismissal of the ministry—Inter-ministerium—Court changes	67
500. To the same, April 20.—Inquiries into the naval miscarriages—Freedoms in gold boxes to Mr. Pitt and Mr. Legge—Damien's execution	69
501. To the same, May 5.—Result of the naval inquiries—Epigrams	73
502. To George Grenville, May 13.—With letter from Xo Ho. N.	75
503. To Mann, May 19.—Inter-ministerium—King of Prussia's victory—Battle of Prague—Xo Ho's letter	76
504. To Montagu, May 27.—Xo Ho's letter	77
505. To Mann, June 1.—Ministerial negotiations—King of Prussia's victories	78
506. To Montagu, June 2.—Projected ministry	80
507. To Mann, June 9.—Ministerial arrangements—Lord Waldegrave first lord of the Treasury	81
508. To the same, June 14.—New ministerial revolution—The three factions—Scramble for power	81
509. To the same, June 20.—Mr. Pitt accepts the seals—The new ministry—Inscription for a bas-relief in wax of Benedict XIV.	83
510. To the same, July 3.—Settlement of the ministry	85
511. To the Earl of Strafford, July 4.—New volumes of Voltaire's 'Universal History'	87
512. To Chute, July 12.—Gray's 'Odes' to be printed at Strawberry Hill	89
513. To Montagu, July 16.—Lord Halifax—His Printing Press	90
514. To the same, July 17	90
515. To Mann, July 25.—Secret expedition	91
516. To Chute, July 26.—Picture of Ninon de l'Enclos—Mrs. Clive's legacy	92
517. To Mann, Aug. 4.—Disasters in Flanders—Gray's 'Odes'—His printer's letter to a friend in Ireland	93
518. To Montagu, Aug. 4.—Defeat of the Duke of Cumberland at Hastenbeck	95
519. To Conway, Aug. 14.—Cause of the defeat at Hastenbeck	95
520. To Lord Lyttelton, Aug. 25.—Gray's 'Odes'—Lord Lyttelton's Henry II. N.	96
521. To Montagu, Aug. 25.—Of Gray's 'Odes'—His printing-office	99
522. To Conway, Sept. 2.—Charles Townshend—Lord Chesterfield and Lord Bath	101

LETTER	PAGE
523. To Mann, Sept. 3.—Visit to Linton—Urn to the memory of Sir Horace's brother—Lord Loudon abandons the design on Louisbourg	101
524. To Montagu, Sept. 8	104
525. To Lady Hervey, Sept. 13.—Ninon de l'Enclos's picture	104
526. To Mann, Sept. 29.—Convention of Closter-Severn—Disturbances occasioned by the Militia-bill—Inscription to the memory of King Theodore	105
527. To Conway, Oct. 8.—Expedition to Rochfort	108
528. To the Earl of Strafford, Oct. 11.—Return of the expedition to Rochfort—Militia-bill	110
529. To Mann, Oct. 12.—Rochfort expedition—Return of the Duke of Cumberland	111
530. To Conway, Oct. 13.—Inquiry into the failure of the Rochfort expedition	112
531. To Montagu, Oct. 18.—Resignation of the Duke of Cumberland	113
532. To Mann, Oct. 24.—Duke of Cumberland's Resignation—Failure at Rochfort	113
533. To the same, Nov. 20.—King of Prussia's victory at Rosbach—General dissatisfaction—Troubles in Ireland—Inquiry into the Failure at Rochfort—Characteristic traits of Mr. Conway—Richard the First's poetry—Bonnet of Lord Tyrawley	114
534. To Grosvenor Bedford, Nov.—With stanzas 'To Major-General H. C.' N.	118
535. To Montagu	119
536. To the same, Dec. 23.—Death of Mr. Mann	120
537. To Dr. Ducarel, Dec. 25.—'Dictes and sayings of the Philosophers'	120
538. To Mann, Jan. 11.—Court-martial on Sir John Mordaunt—Death of Princess Caroline—And of Sir Benjamin Keene	121
539. To Dr. Ducarel, Jan. 12	123
540. To Mann, Feb. 9.—Politics gone into winter quarters—Duke of Richelieu's banishment—Rage of expense in our pleasures	124
541. To the same, Feb. 10.—Opening of the campaign—Fame—Saying of one of the Duke of Marlborough's generals—New secret expedition—Debate on the Habeas Corpus extension bill—Sir Luke Schaub's pictures—Swift's 'Four last Years of Queen Anne'—Dr. Lucas	126
542. To the same, Feb. 23.—Acquittal of General Mordaunt—Death of Dr. Cocchi—Richard the First's poems	128
543. To the same, March 21.—The East Indian hero, Clive—Hanover retaken—George Grenville's Navy-bill—Sir Charles Williams's return from Russia, and mental indisposition—Frantic conduct of Lord Ferrers—Swift's 'Four last Years'	129
544. To the same, April 14.—Convention with Prussia—Sir Charles Williams—Lord Bristol appointed ambassador to Spain	131
545. To Dr. Birch, May 4.—Soliciting observations on his 'Royal and Noble Authors'	133
546. To Montagu, May 4.—Flattering reception of his 'Royal and Noble Authors'—Story of Dr. Brown and Sir Charles Williams	133

LETTER	PAGE
547. To Mann, May 31.—Expedition to St. Maloes—Extension of the Habeas Corpus Act	135
548. To Conway, June 4.—Debates on the Habeas Corpus Extension-bill—Expedition to St. Maloes—Ninon de l'Enclos's portrait	137
549. To Dr. Ducarel, June.—Thanks for his remarks on the 'Noble Authors'	139
550. To Mann, June 11.—Departure of the expedition to St. Maloes—Prince Ferdinand's passage of the Rhine	139
551. To Conway, June 16.—Return of the expedition to St. Maloes	141
552. To the Earl of Strafford, June 16.—Failure of the expedition against St. Maloes	142
553. To Mann, June 18.—Expedition to St. Maloes	143
554. To Lord Lyttelton, June 20.—Lord Lyttelton's Henry II. N.	145
555. To Sir David Dalrymple, June 29.—Thanks for his approbation of the 'Noble Authors'—Queen Elizabeth's fondness for praise—Pope's 'Bufo' and 'Bubb'—Lord Orrery's 'Parthenissa'	145
556. To Chute, June 29.—Prince Ferdinand's victory	146
557. To Montagu, July 6	147
558. To Dr. Birch, July 8.—Lord Mountjoy	147
559. To Conway, July 8.—Dedication to him of the 'Fugitive Pieces'—Fate of our expeditions	148
560. To Mann, July 8.—Prince Ferdinand's victory at Crevelt—Return of our armada from St. Maloes	149
561. To David Hume, July 15.—Sir Philip Sidney, Lord Falkland, Savile, Lord Halifax. N.	150
562. To Conway, July 21.—Appointment of General Blighe—Fate of the expeditions	154
563. To the Rev. Henry Zouch, Aug. 3.—Thanks for his remarks on the 'Royal and Noble Authors,' and for his information	156
564. To the same, Aug. 12.—Thoresby's Museum	159
565. To Mann, Aug. 12.—Expedition against Cherbourg	160
566. To Montagu, Aug. 20.—Visit to the Grange—Ragley—The Conway Papers	161
567. To Chute, Aug. 22.—Account of the Conway papers	164
568. To Mann, Aug. 24.—Expedition against Cherbourg—Taking of Cape Breton—Failure of the attack on Crown-point—Death of Lord Howe—Defeat at Ticonderoga	165
569. To Grosvenor Bedford, Aug. 29.—Portrait by Jameson of Cecil, Lord Wimbledon. N.	166
570. To Conway, Sept. 2.—Defeat of the Russians at Zorndorf—Repulse of General Abercrombie at Ticonderoga	166
571. To David Mallet, Sept. 8.—Lord Bolingbroke's 'Reflections concerning Innate Moral Principles.' N.	167

LETTER	PAGE
572. To Mann, Sept. 9.—Battle of Zorndorf—Marriage of his niece Laura to Dr. Frederick Keppel	163
573. To Zouch, Sept. 14.—Soliciting information for a new edition of his 'Noble Authors'	169
574. To Conway, Sept. 19.—On the failure of the late expeditions to the coast of France	172
575. To Mann, Sept. 22.—Failure of the expedition against Cherbourg	175
576. To Montagu, Oct. 3.—Disappointment and loss at St. Cas	177
577. To Zouch, Oct. 5.—Progress of the new edition of 'Noble Authors'—Discovery of the Conway papers	177
578. To Lady Hervey, Oct. 17.—Emourred assassination of the King of Portugal—Epigram on the Chevalier Taylor	180
579. To Conway, Oct. 17.—On the general's not being employed by Mr. Pitt	181
580. To Zouch, Oct. 21.—Thanks for further information—Lord Clarendon and Polybius—Dr. Jortin's 'Rasmus'—Reasons for not writing the life of his father	184
581. To Montagu, Oct. 24.—Reasons for leaving off authorship	187
582. To Mann, Oct. 24.—On sending a drawing of his monument to the memory of Sir Horace's brother. Reported assassination of the King of Portugal. The Duc d'Aiguillon's amiable behaviour to our prisoners	189
583. To Montagu, Nov. 26	191
584. To Mann, Nov. 27.—Illness of the King—Harmony of the Parliament—Death of the Duke of Marlborough	191
585. To Zouch, Dec. 9.—On sending the second edition of 'Noble Authors'—Lucan and Virgil—Helvetius de l'Esprit	193
586. To Mann, Dec. 25.—Prospects of a Dutch war—Enormous supplies—Unanimity of Parliament—Fall of Cardinal de Bernis	194
587. To Montagu, Dec. 26.—Intended marriage of Colonel Yorke	197
588. To Zouch, Jan. 12.—Mallett and Lord Suffolk—Lucan—Purchase of Vertue's MS. collections	197
589. To Dr. Robertson, Jan. 8.—Robertson's 'History of Scotland.' N.	200
590. To Conway, Jan. 19.—State of the House of Commons	200
591. To Dr. Robertson.—Robertson's 'History of Scotland.' N.	202
592. To Conway, Jan. 28.—Match between Colonel Campbell and the Duchess of Hamilton—Prussian and Hessian treaties	203
593. To Chute, Feb. 1.—The Opera—Prussian cantata—Gothic antiquities	204
594. To the same, Feb. 22.—Spence's Comparison of Magliabechi and Hill—Story of Carr's Cousin	205
595. To Grosvenor Bedford, Feb. 3.—His fortune and disinterestedness. N.	206
596. To Mann, Feb. 9.—Quebec expedition	207
597. To Gray, Feb. 15.—Literary Queries—Critical Review	208
598. To Lady Hervey, Feb. 20	209

LETTER	PAGE
599. To Sir David Dalrymple, Feb. 25.—Robertson's History of Scotland—Ramsay the Painter	210
600. To Dr. Robertson, March 4.—History of Charles V.—History of Learning. N.	211
601. To Mann, March 4.—Projects a History of the House of Medici	213
602. To Chute, March 13.—Fears for his health—Recommends him to leave the Vine, lest he should die of mildew	215
603. To Zouch, March 15.—Vertue's MSS.—Hume's History	215
604. To Sir David Dalrymple, March 25.—House of Medici—Leo the Tenth	216
605. To Mann, April 11.—Marriage of his niece Maria to Lord Waldegrave—Prince Ferdinand's victory over the Austrians	217
606. To Montagu, April 26.—His niece's marriage to Lord Waldegrave—Ball at Bedford House	219
607. To Mann, May 10.—General Hobson—Canada—House of Medici	222
608. To Grosvenor Bedford.—With Inscription for M'Ardell's Engraving of his Portrait by Sir Joshua Reynolds. N.	223
609. To Zouch, May 14.—Vertue's MSS.—Hume and Smollett's Histories	223
610. To Montagu, May 16.—His niece's marriage—Judges' salaries—Charles Townshend's bon-mot	225
611. To Mann, June 1.—The comet—King of Prussia's victories—Fame	227
612. To Montagu, June 2.—The invasion—Mason's 'Caractacus'	229
613. To Mann, June 8.	230
614. To the Earl of Strafford, June 12	231
615. To Mann, June 22.—Invasion—Militia—Quebec—Death of Lady Murray	231
616. To Montagu, June 23	233
617. To Mann, July 8.—Rumours of invasion	234
618. To Sir David Dalrymple, July 11.—Mary, Queen of Scots—Hume's History—Christina of Sweden	235
619. To Montagu, July 19.—Review of the militia—Butler's 'Remains'	237
620. To the same, July 26.—Visit to Navestock	238
621. To Mann, Aug. 1.—Invasion—Militia	239
622. To the same, Aug. 8.—Battle of Minden—Mrs. Leneve	241
623. To Montagu, Aug. 9.—Battle of Minden	243
624. To the Earl of Strafford, Aug. 9.—Battle of Minden	244
625. To Conway, Aug. 14.—Battle of Minden—Prince Ferdinand and Lord George Sackville	245
626. To Mann, Aug. 29.—Minden—Illuminations—Lord George Sackville	246
627. To the same, Sept. 13.—Death of the Princess Elizabeth—Lord George Sackville	248
628. To the Earl of Strafford, Sept. 13.—Our victories	250
629. To the Hon. H. S. Conway, Sept. 13.—Lord George Sackville	251
630. To Montagu, Oct. 11.—Epigram on Madame Pompadour	252

LETTER	PAGE
631. To Conway, Oct. 14.—The invasion getting out of fashion—Lord George Sackville	253
632. To Mann, Oct. 16.—Quebec—East India conquests	254
633. To Conway, Oct. 18.—Quebec—Death of General Wolfe	255
634. To Mann, Oct. 19.—Conquest of Quebec	257
635. To Montagu, Oct. 21.—Public rejoicings for the conquest of Quebec	258
636. To the Earl of Strafford, Oct. 30.—Quebec	259
637. To Lady Hervey, Nov. 3.—Poor Robin's Almanac—High Life Below Stairs	261
638. To Montagu, Nov. 8.—French bankruptcy—Mrs. Montagu and Lord Lyttelton	261
639. To Mann, Nov. 16.—Lord George Sackville—Lord Temple's resignation of the privy-seal on being refused the Garter	263
640. To Montagu, Nov. 17.—Lord Temple's resignation of the privy seal—Lady Carlisle's marriage with Sir William Musgrave	265
641. To the Right Hon. William Pitt, Nov. 19.—Congratulations on the lustre of his administration	267
642. To Mann, Nov. 30.—Sir Edward Hawke's victory over Confians—Lord Kinoul's mission to Portugal	268
643. To the same, Dec. 13.—Regretting his own ignorance of mathematics and common figures—Victory of Prince Henry	269
644. To Montagu, Dec. 23.—Tumults in Ireland—Marriages—Story of Lord Lyttelton and Mr. Shelley	271
645. To Zouch, Dec. 23.—'Life of Lord Clarendon'—'Lucan'	273
646. To Montagu, Jan. 7.—Visit to Princess Emily—Commotions in Ireland	274
647. To Lady Hervey, Jan. 12.—Apologising for an unintentional offence	276
648. To Montagu, Jan. 14.—Severity of the weather—Military preparations—Prince Edward's party—Edwards's 'History of Birds'	277
649. To Mann, Jan. 20.—Severity of the winter—Death of Lady Besborough—Ward's drops	279
650. To Montagu, Jan. 28.—Death of Lady Besborough—Lord Ferrers's murder of his steward—Visit to the Magdalen—Dr. Dodd	281
651. To Sir David Dalrymple, Feb. 3.—Macpherson's fragments of Erse poetry—Mary, Queen of Scots—Dyer's 'Fleece'—Pepys's collection of ballads—Faction	284
652. To Mann, Feb. 3.—Caserta—Character of Mr. Thomas Pitt—Death of the Duchess of Bolton—Lord George Sackville's court-martial—Lord Charles Hay—Lord Ferrers's murder of his steward—Dutch mudquake	285
653. To Zouch, Feb. 4.—'Anecdotes of Painting'—Character of Dr. Hurd—Warburton's 'Shakspeare'—Edwards's 'Canons of Criticism'	289
654. To Mann, Feb. 28.—M. Thurot's expedition—Siege of Carrickfergus—Lord Ferrers	290
655. To the same, March 4.—M. Thurot's expedition—Duke of Bedford's Irish administration—General Flobert and Mr. Mallet—Ward's drops	293

LETTER	PAGE
656. To Mann, March 26.—Lord George Sackville's court-martial	295
657. To Montagu, March 27.—Lord George Sackville's court-martial—Miss Chudleigh's public breakfast	296
658. To Sir David Dalrymple, April 4.—Erse poetry—Gray's queries concerning Macpherson—Home's 'Siege of Aquileia'—'Tristram Shandy'	297
659. To Montagu, April 12.—Lord George Sackville's sentence—Lord Ferrers's trial—Duel between the Duke of Bolton and Mr. Stewart	299
660. To Mann, April 20.—Lord George Sackville's sentence—Trial of Lord Ferrers	301
661. To Zouch, May 3.—Lord Bath's 'Rhapsody'—'Anecdotes of Painting'	303
662. To Montagu, May 6.—Execution of Lord Ferrers	303
663. To Mann, May 7.—Execution of Lord Ferrers—Lady Huntingdon—Death of Lord Charles Hay—King of Prussia's poems—General Clive	304
664. To Sir David Dalrymple, May 15.—Erse poetry—Lord Lyttelton's 'Dialogues of the Dead'—King of Prussia's poems	312
665. To Mann, May 24.—Lord Lyttelton's 'Dialogues of the Dead'—Anecdotes of Lord Ferrers	313
666. To the Earl of Strafford, June 7.—Description of Miss Chudleigh's ball—Death of Lady Anson	315
667. To Mann, June 20.—Siege of Quebec—The house of Fuentes—Pope's house and garden	317
668. To Sir David Dalrymple, June 20.—Authenticity of the Erse poems—Lord Lyttelton's 'Dialogues of the Dead'—Isaac Walton's 'Complete Angler'	319
669. To Conway, June 21.—Story of Sir Robert Walpole and his man John—George Townshend's absurdities—'Tant mieux pour Elle'	320
670. To the same, June 28.—Siege of Quebec raised—Lady Stormont	322
671. To Montagu, July 4.—Visit to Chalfont—Gray's taciturnity	324
672. To Mann, July 7.—Siege of Quebec raised	325
673. To Montagu, July 19.—Visit to Oxford—Holbein's portraits—Blenheim—Ditchley—Rousham	326
674. To the same, July 20.—Drayton in Northamptonshire	327
675. To Mann, Aug. 1.—Wolfe's tomb—Death of Lady Lincoln—Arrival of General Clive	328
676. To the Earl of Strafford, Aug. 7.—Fit of the gout	330
677. To Conway, Aug. 7.—Fit of the gout	331
678. To Montagu, Aug. 12.—Reflections on his illness	332
679. To the Countess of Ailesbury, Aug. 23.—Visit to Whichnovre—Advises her ladyship to claim the flitch of bacon	333
680. To Mann, Aug. 23.—Duke of Cumberland's illness	334
681. To Montagu, Sept. 1.—Account of his tour to the north—Whichnovre—Lichfield cathedral—Sheffield—Chatsworth—Hardwicke—Bess of Hardwicke—Newstead Abbey	335

LETTER	PAGE
682. To the Earl of Strafford, Sept. 4.—Visit to Hardwicke—Newstead—Althorpe —Mad dogs—An adventure	340
683. To Conway, Sept. 19	342
684. To the same, Sept. 30.	343
685. To Montagu, Oct. 2.—Marriage of his niece Charlotte to Lord Huntingtower.	343
686. To Mann, Oct. 5.—Capture of Montreal—Projected expedition—Lord Dysart—His niece's marriage—Death of Lady Coventry	344
687. To Montagu, Oct. 14.—Duke of York's visit to Strawberry Hill—Intended expedition	347
688. To the same, Oct. 25.—Death of George the Second	350
689. To the Earl of Strafford, Oct. 26.—Death of George the Second	351
690. To Montagu, Oct. 28.—The new court—Manners of the young King—Capture of Berlin	352
691. To Mann, Oct. 28.—Death of George the Second—Capitulation of Berlin— Political movements	353
692. To Montagu, Oct. 31.—Conduct of the young King	355
693. To Mann, Nov. 1.—State of the Ministry—Characteristics of the young King—His love of medals and antiques—First stone of Blackfriars Bridge —Inscription in honour of Mr. Pitt—The late King's will—The Duchess of Hamilton—Lady Coventry's vanity, when dying	356
694. To Montagu, Nov. 4.—Bequests of the late King—Court and ministerial changes—George Townshend's challenge to Lord Albemarle	358
695. To the same, Nov. 13.—Personal conduct of the new King—Funeral of George the Second—King of Prussia's victory over Marshal Daun	360
696. To the same, Nov. 22.—Appointment of the King's household	362
697. To Mann, Nov. 14.—Capture of a packet-boat by the French—Mr. Mackenzie—Slight changes in the Household—Rejoicings for the victory of the King of Prussia over Marshal Daun	363
698. To Montagu, Nov. 24.—The King's first visit to the theatre—Seditious papers—'Anecdotes of Painting'—Foote's 'Minor'—Voltaire's 'Peter the Great'	364
699. To Zouch, Nov. 27.—'Lucan'—'Anecdotes of Painting'	366
700. To Mann, Dec. 5.—Samples of brocadella—Stosch, Elisi, and Paganina— Bon-mot of Mrs. Hardinge—Increase of Lords and Grooms of the Bed- chamber—Accident to the King—Strange the engraver—Altar for the bust of Vespasian—The secret expedition	367
701. To Montagu, Dec. 11.—State of the ministry—Threatened resignations	369
702. To Mann, Jan. 2.—Detention of the packets—State of parties—Foreign policy—Death of Lord Downe—The Duchess of Hamilton—Hawkins's 'History of Music'—Portrait of Cardinal York	370
703. To Zouch, January 3.—State of the arts—Booksellers—Dr. Hill's works— Architects	372

LETTER	PAGE
704. To Montagu, Jan. 22.—A party at Northumberland House—Account of a play performed at Holland House	373
705. To Mann, Jan. 27.—Marshal Botta's furniture—Decorations at Strawberry Hill—Mr. Mackenzie named Plenipotentiary—Books, &c., despatched to Florence—Lady Mary Wortley Montagu, her husband, and Lady Bute—Taaffe and Wortley Montagu—Anecdote of Lady Mary—The Primate of Ireland	374
706. To Montagu, Feb. 7.—Ball at Carlton-house—Death of Wortley Montagu—Miss Ford's letter to Lord Jersey	377
707. To Conway, Feb.—Mr. Conway's speech on the Qualification-bill	378
708. To Mann, March 3.—Insipidity of the new reign—Lord Bute and Mr. Pitt—Parliamentary candidates—Audacity of corruption—Sir Nathaniel Curzon—Irish affairs—The Duke of Bedford, Lord Kildare, Lord Temple, and Lord Halifax—Mr. Conway—The new Peerages—Absurdity of Voltaire—Droll print about Miss Chudleigh	379
709. To Montagu, March 7.—On Mr. Montagu's being appointed usher of the black rod in Ireland—Prospect of peace—Rumours of the King's marriage—Lord Pembroke's 'Treatise on Horsemanship'	381
710. To Zouch, March 7.—Voltaire's letter to Lord Lyttelton—Colman's 'Jealous Wife'—'Tristram Shandy'—Voltaire's 'Tancred'	381
711. To Mann, March 17.—Great changes in the Ministry—New Peers—Jesuitical war at Rome—Riots by the Northumberland colliers	383
712. To Montagu, March 17.—Changes in the King's household	385
713. To the same, March 19.—Ministerial resignations and changes—Militia disturbances—Lord Hardwicke's verses to Lord Lyttelton—Death of Lady Gower	386
714. To the same, March 21.—Speaker Onslow's retirement	388
715. To the same, March 25.—Feelings and reflections occasioned by a visit to Houghton—Electioneering at Lynn—Aunt Hammond	388
716. To Mann, April 10.—Rinuncini's brocadella—Cousin Boothby—The King's love of the arts—Prospect of peace—Mr. Pitt—Close of the elections	391
717. To Conway, April 10.—Prospect of Peace—Death of Sir Harry Bellendine	393
718. To Sir David Dalrymple, April 14.—Macpherson's 'Fingal.'	394
719. To the Countess of Suffolk, April.—Election arrangements	395
720. To Montagu, April 16.—Lord Middlesex's Anacreontic upon Sir Harry Bellendine	396
721. To the same, April 28.—Lady Suffolk—Account of a fire near Sackville Street	397
722. To the same, May 5.—Death of Sir William Williams—Gray and Mason at Strawberry Hill—Conversation with Hogarth	398
723. To Mann, May 14.—Negociations for peace—The Abbé de Bussy and Mr. Stanley—Irish arrangement—The Belleisle expedition—Lord Huntingdon—Lord Melcombe's vanity—Lord Northampton—Mr. Pitt of Bococonck—The Duchess of Grafton—Theatrical amusements—Death of Lord Edgcombe—Melancholy reflections	401

LETTERS	PAGE
724. To Montagu, May 14.—Jemmy Lumley's battle with Mrs. Mackenzy—Party at Bedford House—Anecdotes	403
725. To the Countess of Ailesbury, June 13.—Thanks for a snuff-box—New opera—Murphy's 'All in the Wrong'—Lines on the Duchess of Grafton	405
726. To Montagu, June 18.—Mr. Bentley's play of 'The Wishes, or Harlequin's Mouth Opened'	407
727. To the same, July 5	408
728. To the Earl of Strafford, July 5.—Anecdote of Whitfield and Lady Huntingdon	409
729. To Mann, July 9.—Capture of Belleisle—Approaching marriage of the King—Anecdote of Monsieur de Souvré—Voltaire's new works—Strawberry Hill expenses—Lord Northumberland's sons	410
730. To Conway, July 14.—Apologises for not having written—Approaching marriage of the King	412
731. To Montagu, July 16.—The King's approaching marriage—The Queen's household	414
732. To Grosvenor Bedford, July 19.—With 'The Garland,' a poem on the King. N.	415
733. To the Countess of Ailesbury, July 20.—Thanks for a present of some china—Congratulations on Mr. Conway's escape at the battle of Kirkdenckirk	416
734. To the Earl of Strafford, July 22.—Battle of Kirkdenckirk	418
735. To Montagu, July 22.—The King's marriage—Victories—Single-speech Hamilton—"Young Mr. Burke"	419
736. To Mann, July 23.—Glorious victories—The royal bride—Sir Richard Lyttelton and Mr. Thomas Pitt—The new Queen's household—Increasing importance of England—The defeat of Broglio and Soubise not so decided as was said	421
737. To Conway, July 23.—Congratulations on the successes of the army—Taking of Pondicherry	423
738. To Montagu, July 23.—First night of Mr. Bentley's play—singular instance of modesty	424
739. To Conway.—Tomb of the Earl of Pembroke—Wolfe's monument—Rapacity of the Chapter of Westminster	425
740. To Mann, Aug. 17.—Royal wedding anticipations—Our terms for peace rejected by France—Marriage of Sir James Lowther to Lord Bute's daughter—Lord Bute's good fortune	428
741. To Montagu, Aug. 20.—Offer of a seat at the Coronation—The Queen's arrival	429
742. To the Earl of Strafford, Aug. 21.—Arrival of the Queen—Tripoline ambassador—Disputes about rank and precedence	430
743. To Conway, Sept. 9.—Arrival of the Queen—her person and manners	431

LETTER	PAGE
744. To Mann, Sept. 10.—Arrival of the Queen elect—Anecdotes—The Royal marriage—Description of the new Queen—Her bridesmaids—Lord Hardwicke's pleasantry—Lord Orford's bet with Mr. Rigby—Court ceremonies—Anecdote of Lord Westmoreland and Lady Sarah Lenox—Kitty Dashwood	433
745. To Grosvenor Bedford, Sept. 23.—Thanks for his attention. N.	436
746. To Montagu, Sept. 24.—Description of the Coronation	436
747. To Conway, Sept. 25.—Delays in the treaty of peace—the Coronation	439
748. To the Countess of Ailesbury, Sept. 27.—Pedigrees—The Coronation—The treaty broken off	441
749. To Mann, Sept. 28.—The Coronation—Anecdotes—Rise of extravagance in England—War with Spain	444
750. To the same, Oct. 6.—Resignation of Mr. Pitt, and anticipation of disastrous consequences	446
751. To Montagu, Oct. 8.—Resignation of Mr. Pitt	447
752. To Mann, Oct. 8.—News from Spain—Great offers to conciliate Mr. Pitt—Proposed mourning on his resignation—Lord Egremont—Lady Denbigh's blunder—Lord Talbot's advice to the Duke of Newcastle	448
753. To the same, Oct. 10.—Mr. Pitt's covetousness—Changes in the Ministry—Quick intelligence	449
754. To Montagu, Oct. 10.—Mr. Pitt's pension and peerage	450
755. To the Countess of Ailesbury, Oct. 10.—Mr. Pitt's resignation, pension, and peerage	451
756. To Conway, Oct. 12.—Mr. Pitt's pension and peerage—Ministerial changes	453
757. To Montagu, Oct. 24.—City address to Mr. Pitt—Glover's 'Medea'	454
758. To Conway, Oct. 26.—Civic agitations—London address to Mr. Pitt—Differences in the cabinet—State of parties	456
759. To Montagu, Nov. 7.—Sir John Cust's nose—Caricature by Hogarth	458
760. To Mann, Nov. 14.—Folly of Statesmen—Mr. Pitt and the Common Council of London—Negotiations for peace published in France—Opening of Parliament—Lord Temple's proposal—The King, Queen, and Royal Family dine with the Lord Mayor—Reception in the Guildhall of Mr. Pitt—Reflections on his conduct—George Pitt and his lovely wife—Expected return of Lord Bristol—The German war—Mr. Pitt and the City politicians	459
761. To Montagu, Nov. 28.—Private ball at Court—Marriages—Political changes	461
762. To the Countess of Ailesbury, Nov. 28.—Politics—Opera—Burlettas—Private ball at Court—Pamphlets on Mr. Pitt—Gray's 'Thyrsis, when we parted'	462
763. To Sir David Dalrymple, Nov. 30.—The best picture of an age found in genuine letters—One from Anne of Denmark to the Marquis of Buckingham—Hume's 'History'—'Hau Kiou Choan'; a Chinese history	464

LETTERS.	PAGE
764. To Montagu, Dec. 8.—Hume's 'History'—'Fingal'—Doubts of its authenticity—'Cymbeline'	455
765. To Mann, Dec. 12.—Schemes of the new Opposition—Perpetual militia—The war in Germany—Mr. Pitt's defeat in calling for the memorials between England and Spain—English dames at Naples—Mr. Conway—Portraits of the King and Queen	457
766. To Sir David Dalrymple, Dec. 21.—Complaints of printers—Difficulties of literature	463
767. To Montagu, Dec. 23.—Irish revivification—Effects of age—Mistakes of life—Tricks of his printer—Mrs. Dunch's auction—Losings at loo—Death of Lady Pomfret—Bon-mot of M. de Choiseul—Lines on Lady Mary Coke's having St. Anthony's fire in her cheek	469
768. To Mann, Dec. 23.—Revolutions in Ministries—Expected restoration of Mr. Pitt—The gallery at Strawberry Hill—Insecurity of the Stocks—Bulls, Bears, and Lame Ducks—The King of Spain's declaration—Portugal threatened by Spain—Death of Lady Pomfret	471
769. To Montagu, Dec. 30.—Indifference to politics—Progress of 'Anecdotes of Painting'—Death of Jemmy Pelham	473
770. To Mann, Jan. 4.—War with Spain—Cargo from Florence—Etrurian vases—Zanetti's gems—Lady Pomfret—Conjectures	475
771. To Montagu, Jan. 26.—Upbraidings for not writing	477
772. To Mann, Jan. 29.—Death of the Czarina Elizabeth—Defeated hopes—Diplomacy in Italy—A mighty expedition on the point of sailing—The Cock-lane Ghost—Interview with Lady Mary Wortley Montagu—Natural son of the King of France	479
773. To Montagu, Feb. 2.—Arrival of Lady Mary Wortley Montagu—Her dress and personal appearance—Mr. Macnaughten's murder of Miss Knox—Visit to the Cock-lane Ghost	480
774. To the same, Feb. 6.—Effects of Hamilton's eloquence	482
775. To the Rev. William Cole, Feb. 7.—Anecdotes of polite literature	483
776. To Zouch, Feb. 13.—Lamentations on the tediousness of engravers, and tricks of printers	483
777. To the Earl of Bute, Feb. 15.—On the Earl's suggesting to him a work similar to Montaucon's 'Monumens de la Monarchie Française'	484
778. To Montagu, Feb. 22.—Violent storm—Elopement of Lord Pembroke and Kitty Hunter	486
779. To Dr. Ducarel, Feb. 24.—English Montaucon—Medals—Errors in Vertue and others	487
780. To Mann, Feb. 25.—Expeditions—Odd kind of parliamentary opposition—Young Bumbury—The Queen's brother—The Ghost detected—Designs by Inigo Jones for buildings at Leghorn—Lord Pembroke and Kitty Hunter—'Anecdotes of Painting in England'	489
781. To Montagu, Feb. 25.—Lely's picture of Madame Grammont—Harris's 'Eibernica'—The recent elopement	491

LETTER.	PAGE
782. To the Countess of Ailesbury, March 5.—Prospect of peace—Court dresses	492
783. To Montagu, March 9.—Epitaph for Lord Cutts	493
784. To Zouch, March 20.—‘Anecdotes of Painting’—Advice to antiquaries—Bishop of Imola—Resemblance between Tiberius and Charles II.—Caution on the care of his eye-sight	494
785. To Mann, March 22.—Conquest of Martinico—Lord Pembroke—Dangerous illness of Lord Egremont—Mrs. Goldsworthy—Lady Mary Wortley—The charming Duchess—Enthusiasm in fashion—Gallery and Tribune at Strawberry Hill	496
786. To Montagu, March 22.—Capture of Martinico—Fatal accident at a concert at Rome	497
787. To Mann, April 13.—End of the Session of Parliament—Portugal requiring help—Grumbings in Ireland—Regiments sent against the Irish—Particulars of Sir Robert Walpole’s life, for Italian readers—Lord Pembroke’s meanness and absurdity—Tariff between Horace Walpole and Sir Horace Mann	499
788. To Montagu, April 29.—Death of Lady Charlotte Johnstone—Efficacy of James’s powders—New batch of peers	502
789. To Mann, April 30.—Divisions in the Ministry—New cargo of peers—Disturbances in Ireland checked—Narrow escape of the French squadron—Lord Anson—Lord Granville—Lord Egremont—Lady Pembroke	503
790. To Montagu, May 14.—Attack of the gout—Visit to Audley Inn	505
791. To the Rev. William Cole, May 20.—‘Anecdotes of Painting’—Knavery of his printer	506
792. To Montagu, May 25.—Duke of Newcastle’s resignation—Ministerial changes	507
793. To Mann, May 26.—Resignation of the Duke of Newcastle—Lord Bute First Lord of the Treasury—Other changes—Probable peace with France—Siege of Miranda—The Duchess of Grafton—Anxiety for peace—Beckford’s idea of patriotism	509
794. To Montagu, June 1.—Lord Melcomb—Lady Mary Wortley Montagu—The Cherokee Indian chiefs—Anecdotes and bon-mots	511
795. To the same, June 8.—Account of Lady Northumberland’s festino—Bon-mots—Death of Lord Anson	511

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS.

	PAGE
I. LADY MARY WORTLEY MONTAGU. From an original miniature, in the possession (1844) of the Earl of Harrington . . . Frontispiece
II. GEORGE MONTAGU, ESQ. From the original, formerly at Strawberry Hill	22
III. MARIA, COUNTESS OF COVENTRY (MISS GUNNING). From the original by C. Read	43
IV. JAMES RADCLIFFE, EARL OF DERWENTWATER. From the original by Sir Godfrey Kneller	89
V. MARIA, COUNTESS OF WALDEGRAVE, AFTERWARDS DUCHESS OF GLOUCESTER (HORACE WALPOLE'S NIECE.) From the original, formerly at Strawberry Hill	170
VI. MAJOR-GENERAL WOLFE. From a scarce contemporary print . . .	207
VII. GEORGE SELWYN, THE HON. RICHARD EDGECUMBE, AND GILLY WILLIAMS. From the Strawberry Hill picture, afterwards in the possession of the Right Hon. Henry Labouchere	475