PREFACE

The Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel Lectures were instituted by All India Radio in 1955 as an annual feature. Each year's lectures are given by an eminent authority and are designed to stimulate interest in contemporary problems.

Shri C. Rajagopalachari inaugurated the series in 1955. His address has been published by the Publications Division under the title "The Good Administrator".

The second year's lectures, delivered by Dr. K. S. Krishnan in October, 1956, have been brought together in the present book.
