A FABIAN COLONIAL BUREAU
PAMPHLET

THE AUTHOR

MARJORIE NICHOLSON has been Assistant Secretary of the Fabian Colonial Bureau since 1945 and is the author of the pamphlet Self-government and the Communal Problem and of numerous articles on colonial affairs. In 1949 she visited Nigeria to conduct classes in the Eastern Provinces for adult students, working on behalf of the University of Oxford Delegacy for Extra-Mural Studies. Since 1934 she has followed Indian developments closely, particularly the building of the national movement and the events preceding the transfer of power in 1947. She says, with reference to this pamphlet, that it is impossible for one person to write a satisfactory pamphlet on West Africa, but there is something to be said for attempting to express a single view.

NOTE This pamphlet, like all publications of the FABIAN SOCIETY, represents not the collective view of the Society, but only the view of the writer. The responsibility of the Fabian Society is limited to approving the publications which it issues as embodying facts and opinions worthy of consideration within the Labour Movement. It is the aim of the Society to encourage among socialists a high standard of free and independent research.
