PREFACE.

THE articles dealing with the district of Fyzabad and its various subdivisions, towns and villages in the old Gazetteer of the Province of Oudh, were taken almost wholly from the valuable and diffuse Settlement Report of Mr. A. F. Millett, which embodied a large proportion of the remarkable notes and reports of Mr. Patrick Carnegy and the late Sir John Woodburn. These contained much that is now obsolete and still more of a purely traditional and speculative character. In compiling the present volume I have found this work of great assistance, but I am far more deeply indebted to Mr. J. W. Hose, I. C. S., for the unsparing labour he has devoted to the collection of fresh material and to his valuable corrections and criticisms. The ancient history of the district has been furnished by Mr. R. Burn, I. C. S., and the rest I have collated from the various available sources.

NOTE.—This table is taken from the Census Report and is incorrect. The figures for Thana Ajodhya (3) are merely those of the pilgrims at the wela, while the actual population of Ajodhya has been wrongly included in Kotwali (7). Several circles, too, have been altered since 1901.
