FOREWORD.

The figures set out in this volume have been tabulated from the returns made at the Census held on the 26th February 1931.

The statistics have been examined in Part I of the Report and anything which appears unusual in them has been discussed there.

Owing to the masses of material involved, printing errors have occurred in some of the tables. Officials and others are therefore advised to refer to the errata, and to correct in manuscript any mistakes shown therein to have been made in the following pages, before using the figures for any purpose.

W. H. SHOUBERT,

*Superintendent of Census Operations,
Central Provinces and Berar.*
