ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I thank sincerely the Director of the Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, Pune, who enabled me to stay for a year in this institute and imbibe the spirit of scientific pursuit.

I considered it my fortune that I was given the opportunity to study under the inspiring guidance of Dr. A. S. Nadkarni. I have no hesitation in saying that all that is good in the dissertation belongs to his objective and keen eye. I shall be grateful to him forever.

I owe a great deal to Dr. J. F. Patil, Reader, Department of Economics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, who went through all the drafts of the dissertation and made valuable suggestions and gave me time for discussion whenever required.

I must express my sincere gratitude to Shri J. P. Gaikwad, Principal of Vivekanand Arts & Sardar Dalipsingh Commerce College, Aurangabad without whose academic guidance and encouragement, this work would have not been completed.

I sincerely record my thanks to the staff of the library of the Gokhale Institute of Politics & Economics for prompt and efficient cooperation. I also thank Shri S. K. Athale who has neatly typed and given it to me in time.
