ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset I must acknowledge my deep indebtedness to Shri Parama Poojya Sharanabasavappa Appa, President, Shri Sharanabasaveshwara Vidya Vardhaka Sangha, Gulbarga, for having allowed me to pursue the present study. This study was undertaken under the able guidance and direction of Dr. G.R. Mulla, Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, Pune. He always extended to me his unstinted support, scholarly guidance, and timely suggestions. I am immensely grateful to him for all the toil and trouble he had taken for me. And I owe a great deal to Dr. S. Satish, who had been a source of inspiration and offered me all possible help.

I record my deep sense of gratitude to the faculty members at the Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, Pune for their assistance and encouragement, especially to Prof. B.S.R. Rao, who had always been a source of inspiration and encouragement. I am thankful to Shri M.B. Oni, Principal, Shri Sharanabasaveshwara College of Commerce, Gulbarga for granting me necessary leave to complete the course. My thanks are also due to my friends and colleagues at my college who helped me in many ways.

Finally, I wish to express my indebtedness and gratitude to my wife Shantala, who cheerfully bore the unwanted externalities of my study and smilingly suffered my long hours of silence.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to Shri K.P. Limbore, who has neatly typed the manuscript within a short span of time.

PUNE,
