

- C O N T E N T S -

CHAPTER I

Physical features - characteristics of the District.

The Survey Centre - Layout.

Housing.

CHAPTER II

Caste and occupations of the three villages - Income structure - Education - the village panchayat - system of services for customary payments in kind or Balutedari -

Labour structure - population and demographic features - earner pattern and vocational grouping

CHAPTER III

Land utilisation - soil types - bunding - Crops and crop pattern of the villages - Cultivation practices, costs and yields as returned by the sample survey of cultivators - livestock economy - cash aspect of farming - income in cultivation -

CHAPTER IV

Non-agricultural occupations - operational studies of occupational groups - weaving,
quarrying, processing of food stuffs, tailoring,
carpentry, blacksmithy, cobbling, barbers, washermen, potters, goldsmithy, building and construction, basket making etc.

CHAPTER V.

General - the regulated market - adat business - trading in grains and groceries - tea shops - trading in cloth - pan-bidi shops - sale of mutton - small trading etc.

Transport - carting - mechanical transport - families engaged in railway services etc.