

GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY

R E P O R T

OF THE

COURT OF INQUIRY

1 9 2 9.

Government of Bombay

Report
of the
Court of Inquiry

1929

[Price—As. 3 or 4d.]

BOMBAY
PRINTED AT THE GOVERNMENT CENTRAL PRESS
1929

Obtainable from the Superintendent, Government Printing and Stationery,
Bombay, or through the High Commissioner for India, 42 Grosvenor
Gardens, S.W.1, London, or through any recognized Bookseller

P R E F A C E

A mass of evidence was led before us, and we have thought it fit to discuss it at considerable length. The points which we were required to adjudicate upon are given in paragraph 1, and our conclusions thereon appear at paragraphs 71, 72, 73 as regards the first two points of Reference, and at paragraphs 88 and 89 with regard to the third and fourth points of Reference.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER I.

Introductory.

	Paragraphs
Appointment of the Court of Inquiry ..	1
Proceedings of the Court	2
Parties present before the Court	3
Examination of parties and witnesses ..	4
Application to examine Mr. Dange and others ..	5
Allegation of Communism against some officials of the Girni Kamgar Union.	6

CHAPTER II.

Preliminary.

Nature and scope of the Court's Inquiry ..	7
The General Strike of 1925 and its causes ..	8—10
Appointment and suggestions of the Tariff Board and attempt by certain Mills to give effect to the suggestions.	11—12
The General Strike of 1928	13—14, 16—17
Recognition of Trade Unions by the Millowners and registration of Unions.	15
Question of the admissibility of the articles in the Kranti .	18
Strike Fund Ticket	21
Grievances of workers prior to the strike of 1928 .	25
Strikes during October 1928 to April 1929 ..	26
The Girni Kamgar Union and its constitution ..	15, 19—21, 27, 28
How the Mill Committees were actually functioning.	29
Result of Mill Committee's interference ..	32
Agreement of November 1928 with the Wadia Group of Mills not to go on lightning strikes.	33
Agreement of November 1928 with Messrs. E. D. Sassoon and Co., Ltd.	35
Protest of the Management of the Currimbhoy Group of Mills against the Girni Kamgar Union.	35
Murder of Mill Official and comments in the Kranti .	35—36
General observations on Mill Committees ..	37

CHAPTER III.

The First and Second Terms of Reference.

	Paragraphs.
Disputes in Textile Mills during March and April 1929.	39
Strike in the Spring Mill—Dhondu Bhau's case. .	41—45
Strike in the Textile Mill	46—47
Strike in the Morarji Goculdas Mill	48
Strikes in other Mills during March-April 1929 ..	49—51
Summary of events from 6th to 26th April—events preceding the General Strike.	53—60
Girni Kamgar Union's four demands	54
Articles in the Kranti of the 17th and 21st April.	55
Girni Kamgar Union's insistence that all cases of victimisation should be examined.	58
Mr. Bakhale's suggestion of a Sub-Committee ..	58
Alleged victimisation	63—65
Further cases of alleged victimisation ..	66 App. "E"
Reinstatement of strikers in the Wadia Group of Mills	68
Collections in Mills	70
Findings on the First and Second points of Reference.	71—73

The Third and Fourth Terms of Reference.

Prolongation of the Strike	74—76
Intimidation of workers and acts of violence ..	77
Aggressive propaganda of the Girni Kamgar Union.	78
Undercurrent of discontent amongst the workers.	80
Cut of 7½ per cent. in wages	81
The efficiency scheme	82
April wages	84
Absence of technical expert	85
Absence of machinery to bring parties together ..	86
Mediation Rules of the Fawcett Committee ..	87
Findings on the 3rd and 4th points of Reference.	88—89

CONTENTS

iii

APPENDICES.

35

Representatives who appeared before the Court . .	Appendix A.
Summary of Strikes during October 1928 to April 1929.	Appendix B.
Rules of the Girni Kamgar Union	Appendix C.
Extract from evidence of witness Jilloo Bhiwa, President of a Mill Committee.	Appendix D.
Findings on further cases of alleged victimisation.	Appendix E.
Some extracts from the Kranti and Girni Kamgar Union's leaflets.	Appendix F.