7. The observations of the Committee with regard to the principal changes in the Bill are detailed in the succeeding paragraphs

8. Clauses 4 and 5.—The Committee are of the opinion that the persons appointed as a Judge or Additional Judge of a Court of Small Causes should be a Civil Judge. Necessary amendments have accordingly been made in these two clauses.

9. Schedule (1) Article 20.—The committee consider that all suits to set aside attachment of both movable and immovable properties should be excluded from the jurisdiction of Courts of Small Causes. The word “immovable” has therefore been deleted in this Article.

(2). Articles 36 and 37 (Original Articles).—The suits contemplated by these Articles do not normally arise. These articles have therefore been deleted.

10. The other amendments made in the Bill are either consequential or intended to improve the wording.

- (b) for a review of judgment on grounds other than a mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, shall, at the time of presenting his application, either deposit in the Court the amount due from him under the decree or in pursuance of the judgment, or give such security for the performance of the decree or compliance with the judgment as the Court may, on a previous application made by him in this behalf have directed.

(2) Where a person has become liable as surety under the proviso to sub-section (1), the security may be realised in the manner provided by section 145 of the Code.

11. Trial of suits by Registrar.—(1) Suits cognizable by the Registrar under sub-sections (3) and (4) of Section 6 shall be tried by him and decrees passed therein shall be executed by him, in like manner in all respects as the Judge might try the suits, and execute the decrees, respectively.

12. Admission, return and rejection of plaints by Registrar.—(1) When the Judge is absent and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, the Registrar, may admit a plaint, or return or reject a plaint for any reason for which the Judge might return or reject it.

Provided that, where a party applies for return or rejection or admission of a plaint under this sub-section, and his application is not made at the first sitting of the Judge, after the day on which the Registrar admitted, or returned or rejected, the plaint, the Judge shall dismiss the application unless the applicant satisfies him that there was sufficient cause for not making the application at that sitting.

13. Passing of decrees by Registrar on admission.—(1) If, before the date appointed for the hearing of the suit the defendant or his agent duly authorised in that behalf, appears before the Registrar and admits the plaintiff's claim, the Registrar may, if the Judge is absent, and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, pass against the defendant upon the admission, a decree which shall have the same effect as a decree passed by the Judge.

(2) Where a decree has been passed by the Registrar under sub-section (1), the Judge may grant on application for review of judgment and rehear the suit, on the same conditions, on the same grounds, and in the same manner as if the decree had been passed by himself.

(2) The Judge, in the case of any decree or order with respect to execution of which the Registrar has made the order under sub-section (1), or the Additional Judge, in the case of any such decree or order, which has been made by himself and with respect to which proceedings have not been taken by the Judge under this sub-section, may, on his own motion or on the application made by the party within fifteen days from the date of the order of the Registrar, or of the execution of any process issued in pursuance of that order, reverse or modify the order.

(3) The period of fifteen days mentioned in sub-section (2) shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (Central Act IX of 1908), as though the application of the party were an application for review of judgment.

15. Adjournment of cases by chief ministerial officer.—When the Judge is absent and an Additional Judge has not been appointed or, having been appointed, is also absent, the Registrar or other chief ministerial officer of the Court may exercise from time to time the power which the Court possesses of adjourning the hearing of any suit or other proceeding and fix a date for further hearing thereof.

16. Return of plaint in suits involving question of title.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this Act, when the right of a plaintiff and the relief claimed by him in a Court of Small Causes, depend upon the proof or disproof of a title to immovable property or other title which such a Court cannot finally determine, the Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, return the plaint to be presented to a Court having jurisdiction to determine the title.

(2) When a Court returns the plaint under sub-section (1), it shall comply with the provisions of sub-rule (2) of rule 10 of Order

VII of the Code, and make such order with respect to costs as it deems just and the Court shall, for the purposes of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, be deemed to have been unable to entertain the suit by reason of a cause of a nature like to that of defect of jurisdiction.

17. Appeal from certain orders of Courts of Small Causes.—Where an order under section 35-A or an order under section 95 of the Code is made by a Court of Small Causes, an appeal therefrom shall lie to the District Court on any ground on which an appeal from such order would lie under section 104 of the Code.

18. Revision of decrees and orders of Courts of Small Causes.—The High Court, for the purpose of satisfying itself, that a decree or order made in any case decided by a Court of Small Causes was according to law, may call for the case and pass such orders with respect thereto, as it thinks fit.

19. Finality of decrees or orders.—Save as provided by this Act, a decree or order made under the foregoing provisions of this Act by a Court of Small Causes shall be final.

24. Saving of power to appoint Judge of Court of Small Causes to other office.—(1) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the appointment of a person who is a Judge or Additional Judge of a Court of Small Causes, to be also a Judge in any other Civil Court or to be a Magistrate of any class.

(2) When a Judge or Additional Judge is so appointed, the ministerial officers of his Court shall subject to any rules which the High Court may with the approval of the State Government, make in this behalf, be deemed to be ministerial officers appointed to aid him in the discharge of his duties of the other office

- b) the exclusion of the jurisdiction of other Courts in those suits,
- c) the practice and procedure of Courts of Small Causes,
- (d) appeal from certain orders of those Courts and revision of cases decided by them, and
- (e) the finality of their decrees and orders subject to such appeal and revision as are provided by this Act, applies to Courts invested by or under any law for the time being in force, with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, so far as regards the exercise of that jurisdiction by those Courts.

26. Application of Act and Code to Courts so invested as to two Courts.—A Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes with respect to the exercise of that jurisdiction and the same Court with respect to the exercise of its jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes, shall, for the purposes of this Act, and the Code, be deemed to be different Courts.

27. Modification of Code as so applied.—Notwithstanding anything in section 25 or section 26—

(a) when in exercise of the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, a Court invested with that jurisdiction sends a decree for execution to itself as a Court having jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature, which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes, or

(b) when a Court in the exercise of its jurisdiction in suits of a civil nature, which are not cognizable by a Court of Small Causes sends a decree for execution to itself as a Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes, the documents mentioned in rule 6 of Order 21 of the Code shall not be sent with the decree, unless in any case the Court, by order in writing, requires them to be sent.

28. Continuance of proceedings of abolished Courts.—(1) Where a Court of Small Causes or a Court invested with the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes has from any cause ceased to have jurisdiction with respect to any case, any proceeding in relation to the case, whether before or after decree which, if the Court had not ceased to have jurisdiction, might have been had therein, may be had in the Court which, if the suit out of which the proceeding has arisen were about to be instituted, would have jurisdiction to try the suit.

(2) Nothing in this section applies to cases for which special provision is made in the Code as extended to Courts of Small Causes or in any other law for the time being in force.
