

Bombay.

Report of the state dairy development and coordination committee on the improvement of dairying in the state of Bombay.

X9 (A311:7).231.N48t
J3
064437

X9(A311:7).231.N48t
J3
064437

	PAGE.
(4) Schemes to help large-scale dairy farmers	58
(5) Help to small-scale dairy farmers	59
(6) Position in villages	59
(7) Co-operative dairying and cattle breeding	60
(8) Municipal control of quality of milk ...	61
(9) Utilisation of fluid milk and butter, ghee and other products	63
(10) Per capita production and consumption of milk	64

CHAPTER VI.

LINES OF FUTURE DEVELOPMENT.

(1) Scope	65
(2) Target	66
(3) Lines of development	66
(i) Milk-cum-Bull Production Farms	66
(ii) Small Holder Milk Production Farms	66
(iii) Artificial Insemination	67
(iv) Colonies of dislodged City cattle	67
(v) Cross-breeding of animal	67
(vi) Co-operative Milk Unions	68
(vii) Co-operative Rural Creameries	68
(viii) Production of green fodder and silage	69
(4) Local organization required at each places of development, viz., 30 cities and 170 Taluka Head Quarters.	69
(5) Improvement of grass lands and conservation of fodder and grass	70
(6) Grading of grass	71
(7) Notification of areas	71
(8) Breeding policy to be followed in the "Notified" areas	72
(9) Transport arrangements need to be improved	72
(10) Better distribution arrangements needed	73
(11) Technical education to be provided for	74
(12) Need for conserving fresh milk supply for essential uses	75
(13) Policy regarding export of butter	75
(14) Advisory work needs expansion	77
(15) Legislation and its enforcement	77
(16) Financial and other assistance to be given in the areas of development ..	80

CHAPTER VII.

(1) Recommendations	83
(2) Organization required for carrying out dairy development work in the State ..	89
(3) Concluding remarks	90
Minute of Dissent on the Report on the Dairy Development and Co-ordination Committee.	91