The technical experts, who are senior officials of the financial administrations of Belgium, France, Great Britain, Italy, Holland, Switzerland and Czechoslovakia, were requested by the Financial Committee of the League of Nations to study the problems of double taxation and tax evasion from the administrative and practical points of view. The present report to the Financial Committee contains the "Resolutions" of these experts, together with a commentary.

This pamphlet contains the results of the first attempts to deal with the problem of fiscal evasion by a body of international experts. On the question of double taxation, it also contains definite proposals and takes into account all the previous work done on the subject. (International Chamber of Commerce. — Report of MM. Brulns, Einaudi, Seligman and Sir Josiah Stamp to the Financial Committee.)

2. A fuller, partially documented, order should include the Monthly Summary, the "Report to the Assembly on the Work of the Council" (1925, priced at $1.75); and the "Resolutions and Recommendations adopted by the Assembly" (60 cents). $3.35 and postage.

3. A still more documented record would include the Monthly Summary ($1.00); Minutes of the Sessions of the Council (four numbers of the Official Journal, averaging about $2.00 each); and the Records of the Plenary Meetings of the Assembly (1924, $3.00). Say $12.00.

2/- $0.50

This document contains reports from a large number of Governments illustrating the world situation in regard to the question of the licensed brothel system. It probably embodies the fullest collection yet published of official documents relating to a question which has on several occasions been considered by the Assembly of the League, and which is of very great interest to a large number of private organisations.

The Minutes of the sixth session of the Advisory Committee on Traffic in Women and Children were given the number 1927. IV. 3 by the Publications Department. The Publications Committee has now decided that these Minutes are not to be put on sale. There will therefore be a gap in the numbering of the documents published by the Social Section in 1927. Meanwhile, the Publications Department is authorised to supply this document on request to global subscribers.

As, however, there has been some delay in publication, this volume has become a 1928 document, and will be numbered 1928, IX. 1.

There will consequently be a gap in the numbering of the documents published by the Disarmament Section in 1927.

| ECONOMIC COMMITTEE. INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE STATISTICS. Preparatory documents. (C.S.O.1.1928.II.6.) 101 pp. | | 4/- | $1.00 |
|---|--|-----|--------|

This document contains the agenda of the proposed Diplomatic Conference on Economic Statistics. The agenda deals, in the first place, with the question of the scope of economic statistics, the field of economic activity which it is desirable that national statistics should normally cover; and, in the second place, with the methods to be applied in the compilation of international trade statistics, censuses of industrial production, mining and metallurgical statistics, indices of industrial activity, and fishery statistics.

The Conference represents the first attempt which has yet been made to reach a definite international agreement of a comprehensive character concerning the scope of economic statistics and the methods to be applied in the compilation of certain of the more important categories of these statistics.

(C.174.M.53.1928.II.14.) 38 pp. 1/6 $0.40

The draft Convention has been drawn up by the Economic Committee and, with the approval of the Council, has been submitted to the States Members of the League for their observations. The draft also contains explicit clauses granting to the trade and property of nationals of the contracting parties, even when they do not reside in foreign territory, treatment similar to that granted to nationals of the country in question.

This pamphlet will in future appear annually. It covers the period between two Assemblies of the League. This period has been chosen because it is round the Assembly that all the work centres, and also because it is the Assembly which every year lays down the programme of work for most of the League's organisations. The present pamphlet contains particulars from official documents, records, reports, etc., on all the League's activities and on every important question dealt with by the League's organs.

POLITICAL ACTIVITIES, Vol. I. (Pamphlet of the Information Section.) 130 pp. 6d. $0.15

In the course of its existence the League of Nations has dealt with and, in a number of cases, settled various political questions. The first of these volumes provides information on most of these questions, such as the Aaland Islands affair, the Polish-Lithuanian dispute regarding Vilna, the Upper Silesian question, etc.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AND THE PRESS.
International Press Exhibition, Cologne, May to October 1928. 65 pp. 1/- $0.25

The principle of publicity on which the work of the League of Nations is based has brought it into closer touch than ever with the Press.

This pamphlet, prepared by the Secretariat of the League of Nations for the International Press Exhibition at Cologne, gives a complete account of the relations of the League of Nations with the Press. It shows how information on the League is prepared and circulated, and how the seat of the League has gradually become a great international news centre.

During the summer months, the Monthly List of Publications will only appear every two months; the next list, giving the titles of documents published during June and July, will be distributed towards the middle of August.

This pamphlet shows the various aspects of the problem of the reduction of armaments and its influence on international affairs. After an introduction dealing with the character and scope of the work accomplished in this field, the pamphlet explains how the various organs of the League of Nations have attempted to draw up a general scheme for the reduction and limitation of armaments. It deals with the Treaty of Mutual Assistance, the Protocol of 1924, the Locarno Agreements, the steps taken to prepare for a Disarmament Conference, etc.

The second part of the pamphlet deals with various special questions closely allied to the problem of disarmament, such as the supervision of the international trade in arms, the private manufacture of arms, chemical warfare, and the League's right of investigation in respect of certain countries.
