NOTIFICATION.

Bombay Castle, 4th August 1831.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council having sanctioned the publication of a weekly paper to be styled the "BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE," notice is hereby given, that after this day all advertisements and other public notices of the government, will be printed in the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE only; and all orders or other public notices, appearing in that paper, under the signature of the secretaries, or other public officers of the government, are hereby ordered and directed to be conform'd to and obeyed accordingly. It is not intended that public intelligence, or private advertisements, and notifications should be inserted in the government gazette.

Bombay Castle, 18th January 1832.

When official notifications from the government are inserted in the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, no communication on the same subject will be made in writing to any department concerned; but all public officers are required to take notice of such official notifications in the same manner as if they had been directly communicated to them by letter from the secretary's office, and as heads of offices alone will be furnished by government with the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, they will be expected to communicate to their subordinate officers all orders which may in any manner concern them.

The Bombay Government Gazettes furnished by government to public offices are to be lodged with the records, and are not to be removed from the office.

Published by order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council
JOHN BAX, Secy. to Govt.

Notice

Is hereby given, that verbal proposals will be received at this Office, from 11 till 12 o'clock on Monday the 27th instant, for the supply of Wines, Spirits &c. to the several Hospitals of this division, both civil and military, for the term of (2) two years from the 1st of April next.

A list of the articles required and every other information, will be afforded, on application to this office every day, Sundays excepted, from 10 till 4 o'clock.

Persons desirous of obtaining the contract, must bid a per-centage, in the Ankoosee currency below the prices exhibited in the list above alluded to; and on the understanding, that the Liquors, are to be delivered free of all further expence to the Departments requiring them at Poona and Kirkee, and those required for the Outstations of the Division, are to be delivered securely packed and ready for transmission at the Commissariat Stores, Poona. Payments will be made in the Company's Rupee or any other coin issued from the Public Treasuries to this Department, and at the Government rate of exchange between it and the Ankoosee Rupee.

All articles to be furnished agreeably to approved musters lodged in this Office, or of the usual kind, quality and description used by the departments requiring them: on no account are demands to be questioned, but immediately complied with, and in case of dispute the opinion of a committee to decide the point and to be final.

No person will be permitted to bid, or be present at the time of bidding, who has not previously deposited the sum of (200) two hundred Rupees, to be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion or refusal, to execute the necessary deed of contract, and the person whose offer may be approved of, must be prepared to furnish bonded security to the amount of Rupees (399) three hundred and ninety nine, which, together with the above deposit, will be held as security for the due fulfilment of every part of the agreement.

The sale will commence at the time above mentioned, and no reason will be assigned for the rejection of any tender.

No. 137 of 1837.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to publish the following Rules regarding the appointment of Medical Officers to the Indian Navy branch of the service, in modification of those established by General Order dated the 13th May last, No. 235.

1st. All Assistant Surgeons who have served not less than one, nor more than four years, should be eligible for duty in the Indian Navy.

Second. Such Assistant Surgeons shall be called on to serve in the Indian Navy, according to their standing, commencing with the Juniors.

Third. The period of the service in the Navy is not to exceed two years, unless at the desire of the party, but an Assistant Surgeon completing four years service while attached to the Indian Navy, should be relieved as soon after as possible, provided he wishes it, and shall have served one year on board a Cruiser.

2nd. In the event of the number of Assistant Surgeons of from one to four years service being insufficient to admit of the strict application of the above Regulations, the following deviations, in the order in which they are mentioned, should be allowed, it being understood that recourse shall on no account be had to them, except when the exigencies of the service may render it necessary.

First. Assistant Surgeons who may be on duty in the Indian Navy, at the expiration of four years service, shall be continued in that duty until the period of service on board Ship shall have amounted to two years.

Second. Assistant Surgeons of six months service, shall be eligible for duty in the Indian Navy, commencing with those who have most nearly completed a service of one year.

Third. Assistant Surgeons of more than four years Service may be called upon in the order of their standing, commencing with the juniors; but to such Officers should be granted the option of resuming any permanent appointment which they may have held at the time of being required to serve in the Indian Navy.

3rd. The operation of the new rules is to extend to all Medical Officers now serving, or warned for duty in the Indian Navy; that is, if any of those Officers would not have been called on, had these rules been previously in operation, they will be relieved as soon as opportunity may offer, provided they desire it, while those who would have been called on under these rules, will have the benefit of the third clause of the 1st paragraph, in the same way with others who may be appointed hereafter.

No. 133 of 1837.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to notify, that all persons who may be desirous to pitch Tents, or to erect temporary Bungalows at the Convalescent Station at Mahabuleshwur, are required to apply for permission to the Superintendent of the Station, and to attend to his directions in respect to the site they may be allowed to occupy.
