FORT WILLIAM,

THE 16th SEPTEMBER, 1839.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 16th September, 1839.

ACT No. --- OF 1839,

An Act for preventing Affrays concerning the possession of land, and for providing relief in cases of forcible dispossession:

I. Whereas it is expedient to remove doubts which have arisen upon the interpretation of Regulation XV of 1824, and to incorporate in a Legislative Declaration various Judicial constructions connected therewith, and to amend the said Regulation, and to extend it to certain cases not hitherto provided for, and to afford relief in cases of forcible dispossession committed by or against persons of every class and description:

It is hereby enacted, that Section 5, Regulation VI of 1813, and Regulation XV of 1824 of the Beugal Code, be repealed.

II. And it is hereby, enacted, that whenever any Magistrate or other Officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate may be certified that a dispute likely to induce a breach of the peace exists concerning any land, premises, water, crops, fisheries or other profits of land, within the limits of his jurisdiction, he shall record a Proceeding, stating the grounds of his being so certified, and shall call on all parties concerned in such dispute (whether Proprietors, dependent Talookdars, Farmers, under Farmers, Ryots or other persons) to attend his Court in person, or by agent, within a reasonable time, and to give in a written statement of their respective claims as respects the fact of actual possession of the subject of dispute. And the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid shall, without reference to the merits of the claims of any party to a right of possession, proceed to enquire what party was in possession of the subject in dispute when the dispute arose, and after satisfying himself upon that point shall record a proceeding declaring the party whom he may decide to have been in such possession to be entitled to retain possession, until ousted by due course of Law, and forbidding all disturbance of possession until such time; and if necessary the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid, shall put such party in possession, and maintain him in possession, until the rights of the parties disputing be determined by a competent Court.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that if the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid shall be unable to satisfy himself as to what party was in possession of the subject of dispute when the dispute arose, he may attach the subject of dispute until the rights of the parties be determined by a competent Court, and the provisions of Regulation V of 1827 regarding attachment by order of a Zillah or City Court shall apply to attachments by order of a Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid made under this Section.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that if any party shall prove to the satisfaction of a Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid, after due enquiry, that he has been without authority of Law forcibly dispossessed of any land, premises, water, crops, fisheries, or other profits of land within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid, whether the same were possessed by such party as Proprietor, dependent Talookdar, Farmer, under Farmer, Ryot or otherwise, the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid shall record a Proceeding, stating the grounds of his award, and shall order such party to be put back in possession and maintained in possession until his right to possession be determined by a competent Court, provided that no such order shall be passed unless the party complaining of having been so dispossessed prefer his claim within one month from the time of such dispossession.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that if a dispute arises concerning the right of use of any land or water, the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid within whose jurisdiction the subject of dispute lies, may enquire into the matter, and if it shall appear to him that the subject of dispute was open to the use of the public, or of any person, or of any class of persons, the said Magistrate or other Officer may order that possession thereof shall not be taken or retained by any party to the exclusion of the public, or of such person, or of such class of persons, until the party claiming such possession shall obtain the decision of a competent Court adjudging him to be entitled to such exclusive possession. Provided that the Magistrate or other Officer as aforesaid shall not pass any such order as aforesaid, if the matter be such that the right of use is capable of being exercised at all seasons of the year, unless that right shall have been ordinarily exercised within one month from the date of the institution of the enquiry, or in cases where the right of use exists at particular seasons, unless such right has been exercised without discontinuance before the dispossession of which complaint is made.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that any person opposing by force the execution of an order for possession or use, given under this Act, or refusing obedience thereto, or knowingly contravening the same, as long as it shall remain in legal force, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate or other Officer with the powers of a Magistrate, to be sentenced to fine not exceeding Rs. — or to simple imprisonment for a term not exceeding — months, or to both.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that all orders passed under this Act shall be appealable in the usual manner under the Regulations and Laws that are or may be enforced relating to appeals from the orders of Magistrates or other Officers exercising the powers of Magistrates, notwithstanding the party or parties be a British subject or subjects, or otherwise not amenable to any such Regulation or Law.

VIII. And it is hereby provided, that this Act shall not extend to any place beyond the limits of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, or to the Settlements of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, or Malacca, or to any place situated within the local limits of the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Court at Calcutta.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India, after the 16th day of November next.
