thereof, whosoever shall do any of the things hereinbefore contained, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, that so far as the same is essential to the offence of burglary, the night shall be considered, and is hereby declared to commence at nine of the clock in the evening and to conclude at six of the clock in the morning, of the next succeeding day.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall steal any property in any dwelling house, and shall by any menace or threat put any one being therein in bodily fear, or shall steal in any dwelling house any property to the value in the whole of Fifty Company's Rupees or more, or shall break and enter any dwelling house, and steal therein any property, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall rob any person, and at the time of, or immediately before, or immediately after such robbery shall stab, cut or wound any person, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer death.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall, being armed with any offensive weapon or instruments, rob or assault, with intent to rob any person, or shall together with one or more person or persons rob or assault with intent to rob any person, or shall beat, strike, or use any other personal violence to any person, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall accuse or threaten to accuse any person of the abominable crime of buggery committed either with mankind or with beast, or of any assault with intent to commit the said abominable crime, or of any attempt or endeavour to commit the said abominable crime, or of making or offering any solicitation, persuasion, promise, or threat to any person whereby to move or induce such person to commit or permit the said abominable crime, with a view or intent, in any of the cases aforesaid, to extort or gain from such person, and shall by intimidating such person by such accusation or threat, extort or gain from such person any property, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall plunder or steal any part of any ship or vessel which shall be in distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on shore, or any goods, merchandize or articles of any kind belonging to such ship or vessel, and be convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall rob any person, or shall steal any property from the person of another, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct, for any term not exceeding fifteen years, nor less than ten years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three years.

XVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall assault any person with intent to rob, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three years.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall with menaces or by force demand any property of any person with intent to steal the same, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three years.

XX. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any dwelling house, any person being therein, shall be guilty of felony and being convicted thereof, shall suffer death.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any church or chapel or other public place of religious worship whatsoever, or shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any house, stable, coach-house, out-house, ware-house, office, shop, mill, barn, or granary, or to any building or erection used in carrying on any trade or manufacture, or any branch thereof, whether the same or any of them respectively shall then be in the possession of the offender, or in the possession of any other person, with intent thereby to injure or defraud any person, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XXII. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to, cast away, or in anywise destroy any ship or vessel, either with intent to murder any person, or whereby the life of any person shall be endangered, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer death.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall unlawfully exhibit any false light or signal with intent to bring any ship or vessel into danger, or shall unlawfully and maliciously do any thing tending to the immediate loss or destruction of any ship or vessel in distress, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer death.

XXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to, or in anywise destroy any ship or vessel, whether the same be complete or in an unfinished state, or shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to, cast away, or in any wise destroy any ship or vessel, with intent thereby to prejudice any owner or part-owner of such ship or vessel, or of any goods on board the same, or any person that hath underwritten or shall underwrite any policy of insurance upon such ship or vessel, or on the freight thereof, or upon any goods on board the same, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall by force prevent or impede any person endeavouring to save his life from any ship or vessel which shall be in distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on shore (whether he shall be on board or shall have quitted the same) shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XXVI. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall unlawfully and maliciously destroy any part of any ship or vessel which shall be in distress, or wrecked, stranded, or cast on shore, or any goods, merchandize or articles of any kind belonging to such ship or vessel, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall direct for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XXVII. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any mine of coal, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall think fit for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that whosoever shall unlawfully and maliciously set fire to any stack of rice, corn or other grain, pulse, or sugar cane, straw, hay, or wood, or to any crop of rice, corn or other grain or pulse, or sugar cane whether standing or cut down, or to any part of a wood, coppice or plantation of trees or valuable plants, or to any grass, fern, or other like ground produce, wheresoever the same may be growing, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be transported to such place as the Court shall think fit for life, or for any term of years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years.

XXIX. And it is hereby enacted, that if any person shall steal the whole or any part of any growing tree, sapling or shrub, or any underwood, or of any pale, post or stile, or any growing cultivated plant, root, fruit, or vegetable production, or shall unlawfully and maliciously commit any damage, injury, or spoil to, or upon any real or personal property whatsoever, either of a public or private nature, every such offender being convicted before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall, for the first offence, forfeit and pay, over and above the amount of the injury done, such sum of money, not exceeding Fifty Rupees as to the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall seem meet; and if any person so convicted shall afterwards be guilty of any of the said offences, and shall be convicted thereof in like manner, every such offender shall, for such second offence, be imprisoned with or without hard labor, for such term not exceeding six calendar months as the convicting Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall think fit. Provided always, that nothing in this Section contained concerning the stealing of any property or malicious damage, injury or spoil to, or upon any real property of a private nature shall extend to the settlements of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, or Malacca.

XXX. And it is hereby enacted, that every sum of money which shall be forfeited for the amount of any injury done (such amount in each case to be assessed by the convicting Magistrate or Justice of the Peace) shall be paid to the party aggrieved, if known, except when such party shall have been examined in proof of the offence, and that in every case of a summary conviction under this Act when the sum which shall be forfeited for the amount of the injury done, or which shall be imposed as a penalty by the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall not be paid either immediately after the conviction or within such period as the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall at the time of conviction appoint, it shall be lawful for the convicting Magistrate or Justice of the Peace to commit the offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned with hard labor according to the discretion of the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the sum forfeited, or of the penalty imposed, or of both, (as the case may be) together with the costs, shall not exceed Fifty Rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months when the amount with costs shall not exceed One Hundred Rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case, the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount and costs.

XXXI. Provided always, that where several persons shall join in the commission of the same offence and shall, upon conviction thereof, each be adjudged to forfeit a sum equivalent to the amount of the injury done, in every such case no further sum shall be paid to the party aggrieved than that which shall be forfeited by one of such offenders only.

XXXII. And it is hereby enacted, that in case any person convicted of any offence punishable upon summary conviction by virtue of this Act shall have paid the sum adjudged to be paid together with costs under such conviction, or shall have suffered the imprisonment awarded for non-payment thereof, every such person shall be released from all further or other proceedings for the same cause.

XXXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that every punishment and forfeiture by this Act imposed on any person maliciously committing any offence shall equally apply and be enforced whether the offence shall have been committed from malice conceived against the owner of the property in respect of which it shall be committed or otherwise.

XXXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall not be necessary in any proceeding, either for theft or for malicious injury, spoil, or damage to, or upon any property dedicated to public use or ornament, to allege the same to be the property of any person.

XXXV. And it is hereby enacted, that the word "property" shall throughout this Act be deemed to include every thing included under the words "chattel, money, or valuable security" in the said Statute made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the 4th aforesaid—and that the term dwelling house shall have the same construction as in the said Statute.

XXXVI. And it is hereby enacted, that in the case of every felony punishable under this Act, every principal in the second degree and every accessory before the fact, shall be punishable with death, or otherwise in the same manner as the principal in the first degree is by this Act punishable. And every accessory after the fact to any felony punishable under this Act, (except only a receiver of stolen property) shall on conviction, be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years.

XXXVII. And it is hereby enacted, that where any person shall be convicted under this Act for any offence punishable under this Act for which imprisonment may be awarded, it shall be lawful for the Court to sentence the offender to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, and also to direct that the prisoner be kept in solitary confinement for such a period or periods of the imprisonment as to the Court in its discretion shall seem meet, not exceeding one month at a time, or three months in any one year.

XXXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, and provided, that it shall not be lawful for any Court under the authority of this Act, to order the transportation of any person being a native of the East Indies, and not born of European parents, to the Eastern Coast of New South Wales, or any of the Islands adjacent thereto.

J. P. GRANT,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Notice

Is hereby given, that verbal tenders will be received at this office, from 2 till 3 o'clock p. m. on Tuesday the 15th January next, for the supply of any quantity of good cleaned Gram, that may be required at Poonah and Kirkee, for the term of one year, from the 1st February 1839.

The bidding to be in the Company's rupee, and no person will be allowed to bid who has not previously deposited the sum of rupees (500) five hundred, in that currency, to be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion or refusal to execute the necessary deed of contract.

The Gram to be unexceptionable and of the quality and description generally used by the mounted corps at Poonah and Kirkee, and to be delivered free of all expense to Government, on account of carriage &c. at the Commissariat Stores at those stations; and in case of any dispute, the opinion of a Committee to decide the point and to be final.

A supply of at least one month's consumption during the fair season and of three months during the monsoon, to be constantly kept up at the Commissariat Stores abovementioned.

To prevent disputes hereafter, it is to be distinctly borne in mind, that the provisions of the contract, are only intended to extend to the demands made at Poonah and Kirkee; but in the event of any of the Cavalry marching, it will be optional with the Commissariat Officer, to take one month's supply of Gram or not for their use while on march, and the contractor will not be liable for any greater demand.

The contractor will be held personally bound for the due fulfilment of his contract in the penal sum of Company's rupees, (1000) one thousand, and must also furnish unexceptionable bonded security to the amount of (10,000) ten thousand Company's rupees on the same account.

Payment for supplies according to the quantity issued in the preceding month, will be made in the following month, on the requisite vouchers being produced.

No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

Further particulars will be made known on application at this office, every day, from 10 till 4 o'clock, Sundays excepted.

E. WHICHELO, Lieut.
Asst. Commy. Genl.

Notice

Is hereby given, that persons desirous of entering into a contract, for supplying good wholesome Fresh Meat to the Crews of the Honorable Company's Ships and other Vessels of War, and to Troops proceeding to the Deccan, during the march, also to furnish the Indian Naval Store Keeper's department, with Raw Hides, for two years, from the 16th of January 1839, may, on application at this office, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily, (Sundays excepted) obtain a statement of the game, with the rates affixed, and such other information as they may require.

Verbal offers for the contract will be received at 12 o'clock on Tuesday the 8th proximo, when persons will be required to bid a per-centage below the rates specified in the list above adverted to, at which they will undertake to furnish at all times the best Raw Hides, and Fresh Meat (Beef and Mutton) second sort, of approved quality.

The contractor will also be bound to furnish Fresh Meat to the Commissariat Department at the Presidency whenever required, at the same rate at which it is supplied to the Indian Navy.

The Fresh Meat for the Hon'ble Company's Ships and Vessels of War, is to be supplied daily, at the water side, by seven o'clock in the morning, in such quantity as may be required, and the Raw Hides are to be furnished to such person or persons, and at such times and places as shall be specified in, or by any order in writing, signed either by the Naval Store Keeper, or the Deputy Commissary General, should this not be done, the articles, or such others as may be required in their behalf, will be procured at the risk and loss of the contractor, and in all such cases a fine of ten per cent upon the amount of expenses incurred, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract as often as the same may occur.

No person will be allowed to offer for the contract unless he previously deposits in this office rupees (100) one hundred, which will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal to execute the deed of contract should his tender be accepted, in which case, he will be required to deposit the further sum of two hundred rupees as security for the due and punctual performance of the engagement.

All further particulars will be communicated at the time of bidding, and no reason will be assigned for rejecting any offer.

Notice

Is hereby given, that persons desirous of entering into a contract, for supplying provisions &c. to the Commissariat and Indian Naval Departments, and to the House of Correction and County Gaol, and for such other purposes as may be required for "two years" from the 31st proximo, may, on application at this office from 10 A. M. till 5 P. M. daily, sundays excepted, obtain a list thereof, with the prices affixed, and such other information relating thereto as they may require.

Verbal offers for the contract will be received at this office at 12 o'clock on Saturday the 19th proximo, when persons will be required to bid a per centage below the prices specified in the list above adverted to, at which they will undertake to furnish the whole of the articles embraced therein, in such numbers, or quantity, as may from time to time be demanded, on the understanding, that the provisions are all to be supplied in a clean state, free from refuse, sediment, or dirt of any kind; and that the whole of the articles are to be of the best description of the sort or kind demanded, and further, that they are to be delivered as follows, vizt.

Supplies for the Commissariat at any of the Commissariat Godowns, or at any other place which may be indicated, within the fort.

Supplies for the Indian Navy at the waters edge, either in the Indian Naval or Dock Yards, or at the Custom House or Apollo Bunder.

Supplies for the House of Correction and County Gaol, at those places respectively.

The contractor will be required to comply immediately, with all emergent demands for the articles alluded to, and others less urgent, must be completed within the period stated in the supply notes; or, in failing to do so, the articles or such others as may be required in their behalf, will be purchased at his risk and loss, and in all such cases a fine of 10 per cent upon the amount of expenses incurred, including costs and charges, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract, as often as the same may occur.

No person will be allowed to tender for the contract, unless he previously deposits in this office Rupees (1,000) one thousand in cash, which will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal to execute the necessary deed of contract should his offer be accepted, in which case, he must be prepared to furnish unexceptionable bonded security for Rupees (2,000) two thousand, which, together with the above deposit, will be held as security for the due performance of the engagement, and will be liable to be forfeited in the event of any breach thereof.

All further particulars will be communicated at the time of bidding, and no reason will be assigned for rejecting any offer.

Notice

Is hereby given, that sealed Tenders will be received at this office, until 12 o'clock on Friday next the 4th Proximo, for supplying Country Craft, to the extent of 1000 Candies, more or less, for the conveyance of Provisions &c. to Karrack.

The Tenders are required to shew the rate per Candy, at which sound Buglas properly found in Stores and perfectly sea-worthy, will be furnished, on an understanding that the Vessels are to be surveyed and rejected if reported defective or incomplete in Stores or Crew.

The person whose tender is accepted, will be required to attend at the Commissariat Stores, or to depute a responsible person on his behalf, to see the whole of the Provisions intended for shipment weighed in Gross, for which he will be required to pass an acknowledgment, and in the event of any short delivery at Karrack, beyond a certain allowance for wastage, he will be held accountable for the same.

Payment of the freight agreed upon will be made as follows, vizt.

One half on the whole of the Stores being embarked, and the remaining moiety on the production of a receipt for them from the Commissariat Agent at Karrack, subject to a deduction of the cost of any deficiency which may be reported.

Security will be required for the due performance of the engagement, and no reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

Notice is hereby given, that sealed tenders will be received at the office of the Secretary to Government in the Military Department, on Tuesday the 8th instant, at or before 11 o'clock A. M. for the conveyance of Invalid Troops &c. of Her Majesty's Service, in number from about thirty five to forty five Men and an Officer in charge from Cannanore, and a dismissed Officer from Bombay, to Blackwall, on the River Thames.

The tenders must express the rate per head in Sterling money, for the diet and accommodation of the Troops for the whole voyage, also the date by which it is engaged to dispatch the vessel, and be made out agreeably to a form, which will be furnished on application at the office of the Superintendent of the Indian Navy.

Payment will be made only for the number that may actually embark.

Two thirds of the passage money will be paid in India, at the rate of 1s. 11d. the rupee, and the remainder in England after the arrival of the ship, and the landing of the Troops at their destination.

Parties tendering are required to apply to the Superintendent of the Indian Navy, to have the Ship surveyed, before the tenders are sent in.

The tenders are to be endorsed "Tenders of Tonnage for Invalid Troops."

The Hon'ble the Governor in Council reserves to himself the right of rejecting any tender without assigning any cause.

*By order of the Hon'ble
 the Governor in Council.*

 Secy. to Govt.

Bombay Castle, 1st January 1839.

Notification.

Notice is hereby given, that a Garden in Poonah, called Nana Furneevese's Garden will be put up for sale by public auction, at the Collector's Cutchery, on Thursday the 10th day of January next.

The Garden will be put up on a 10 or 20 years lease, and the sum offered will be subject to the sanction of Government. Further particulars may be known on application at the Collector's Cutchery at Poonah.

R. MILLS,
 Collector.

Poonah, 28th December 1838.

Notice

Is hereby given, that sealed tenders will be received by the Commissariat Officer at Sholapur, on the 20th of January next, for the supply of any quantity of Gram that may be required for the Mounted Corps, for the term of one year from the 10th of February 1839.

The bidding to be in the Company's Rupee, and the measurement to be of 400 marcals to the garce, but if desired by the contractor the Gram would be received by weight or any prevailing local measurement, and to prevent disputes, the weights and measures will be furnished by the department of supply, and the weighing or measuring-man by the contractor.

The Gram to be delivered free of all expense to Government at the Commissariat Stores, to be immediately received by the servants in charge, and the opinion of a committee to decide any point which may arise in dispute, to be final.

One month's supply to be constantly kept up, but two months supply will be received at any time from the contractor in lieu of securities.

Payment will be made on delivery of any quantity not less than one garce at a time, on the receipt of the servant in charge.

No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

Persons residing in the neighbourhood of Dharwar, Kulladghee or Belgaum desirous of bidding for this supply, may address their tenders to either the Commissariat Officer at Belgaum or Sholapur as may be to them on this occasion most convenient.

Bombay Castle, 1st January 1839.

No. 1 of 1839.—The Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to republish the following extract from the Honorable Court's letter in the Military Department, dated the 16th December 1807.

4. The frequent applications that have been made to us, by officers of our several Military Establishments in India, when in Europe, for advances of money on loan, under the plea of their being otherwise unable to return to their duty, have not only caused much trouble and inconvenience, but in some instances the Company have sustained loss by the death of the parties to whom such advances have occasionally been made, and this practice has of late years increased.

5. As under the Regulations of 1796, the Military officers are allowed to come home, on furlough, and to receive their pay, and in regard to subalterns, are further indulged with passage money home, their situation have been considerably improved, and they cannot reasonably expect any additional indulgence of the nature above-mentioned, to prevent therefore, all expectation of the like in future, we direct that you publish in General Orders to the Army, that we have been under the necessity of coming to the resolution of declaring, that officers at home, are not hereafter to expect that applications for advances of money, beyond what they are allowed by the existing regulations of the service, will be attended to.

6. This Regulation is to be considered as extending to the Marine officers of your establishment.

Bombay Castle, 2nd January 1839.

No. 2 of 1839.—Ensign J. Hoare, 13th Regiment Native Infantry, is appointed Aid-de-camp to the Honorable the Governor, from the 30th ultimo.

No. 3 of 1839.—Mr. Conductor, McKenzie delivered over charge of the Ordnance Store Department at Sholapoor to the Madras authorities on the 15th ultimo.

No. 4 of 1839.—Major General E. H. Bellasis, is permitted to return to Europe on furlough, agreeably to the Regulations.

No. 5 of 1839.—With the view of assimilating the practice under this Presidency with that in Bengal and Madras, the Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to cancel the Government General Order dated 15th June 1807, Military Code Page 62, and directs that in future Tent allowance and House Rent shall be granted to Officers who may obtain back Rank by Casualties in Europe from the date of their Commissions.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council,
