THE 2D MARCH, 1840.

The following Act passed by the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council on the 2d of March 1840, is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT No. VI. OF 1840.

An Act for the Amendment of the Law concerning the negotiation of Bills of Exchange.

I. Whereas it is expedient to extend to the Territories under the Government of the East India Company the amendments of the Law respecting Bills of Exchange contained in the Statutes 58 Geo. 3 Cap 93—1 and 2 Geo. 4. C. 78—6 and 7 W. 4. C. 59—2 and 3 W. 4. C. 98;

It is hereby enacted, that from and after the first day of May, in the year of our Lord 1840, if any person shall accept a Bill of Exchange payable at any other place than at his own place of residence without further expression in his acceptance, such acceptance shall be deemed and taken to be to all intents and purposes a general acceptance. But if the acceptor shall, in his acceptance, express that he accepts the Bill payable at such other place only, and not otherwise or elsewhere, such acceptance shall be deemed and taken to be to all intents and purposes, a qualified acceptance of such Bill, and the acceptor shall not be liable to pay such Bill except in default of payment when such payment shall have been duly demanded at such other place.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that after the day and year aforesaid no acceptance of any Bill of Exchange drawn within the Territories of the East India Company, shall be sufficient to charge any person unless such acceptance be in writing on such Bill, or, if there be more than one part of such Bill on one of the said parts.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall not be necessary to present Bills of Exchange accepted supra protest for honor, or having a reference thereon in case of need to the acceptor or acceptors for honor, or to the referee or referees, until the day following the day on which such Bills of Exchange shall become due, and if the place of address on any such Bill of Exchange of such acceptor or acceptors for honor, or of such referee or referees be other than where such Bill shall therein be made payable, then it shall not be necessary to forward such Bill of Exchange for presentment for payment to such acceptor or acceptors for honor, or referee or referees, until the day following the day on which such Bill of Exchange shall become due.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that all Bills of Exchange wherein the drawer or drawers thereof shall have expressed that such Bills of Exchange are to be payable in any place other than the place by him or them therein mentioned to be the place of residence of the drawee or drawees thereof, and which shall not on the presentment thereof be accepted, shall or may be, without further presentment to the drawee or drawees protested for non-payment in the place in which such Bills of Exchange shall have been by the drawer or drawers expressed to be payable, unless the amount owing upon such Bills of Exchange shall have been paid to the holder or holders thereof on the day on which such Bill would have become payable had the same been duly accepted.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that no Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note that shall be drawn or made after the passing of this Act shall, though it may have been given for a usurious consideration, or upon a usurious contract, be void in the hands of an Indorsee for valuable consideration, unless such Indorsee had, at the time of discounting or paying such consideration for the same, actual notice that such Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note had been originally given for a usurious consideration, or upon a usurious contract.

VI. And it is hereby provided, that this Act shall not be construed to extend to affect Bills of Exchange of Promissory Notes, in any case which, but for the passing of this Act, would not be governed by the law of England, or to extend or alter the jurisdiction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Justice.

No. 261 of 1840.—The Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to publish for general information the following arrangement concluded with Her Majesty's Board of Ordnance by the Hon'ble the Court of Directors in the year 1832, together with the orders necessary for carrying the same into effect, which are to be strictly attended to by all parties concerned whenever occasion may arise.

Whenever Queen's Troops are placed on the Indian Establishment, the Hon'ble Court pay to Her Majesty's Government the value of the Serviceable Arms and Equipments then in the possession of the Men, excepting such as are found by the Colonels. The Arms, thus paid for, are taken to India and used by the Men, so long as they continue Serviceable, and when they become Unserviceable, they are delivered into Store and broken up, and the materials disposed of for the Company's benefit.

It is a condition of this arrangement, that upon the return from India of any of the Queen's Forces, all Arms they may bring Home with them, are to be delivered into the Company's Stores in England.

In order to ensure the fulfilment of this condition, the Military Board will issue particular instructions to the Commanding Officers of Queen's Troops about to embark for England, to deliver into the Company's possession on arrival, all Arms and Equipments they may take with them (except such as are provided by the Colonels out of their Off-reckoning assignments) an inventory of the same, being invariably furnished to the Military Board, to be laid before Government for transmission to the Hon'ble Court by the Ships on which the Soldiers return. With a view to avoid expense, the Military Board will be careful that the number of Arms &c. so taken, is restricted with the narrowest limit consistent with Military usage.

In the event of any of Her Majesty's Regiments or Detachments, being withdrawn from India for the service of other Colonies, the value of the Arms and Equipments they may take with them will be ascertained by a Committee composed, whenever practicable, of an equal number of Queen's and Company's Officers, and an account of such valuation will be immediately submitted to Government by the Military Board for the Hon'ble Court's information, in order that the amount may be recovered from the public.

No. 262 of 1840.—The Government of Fort St. George, having been pleased to sanction the adoption of arrangements under that Presidency, for the payment of Remittances made by the European Officers of Her Majesty's and the Hon'ble Company's Army in the Bombay Presidency to their Families at the Neilgherries, the Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to direct, in all case in which Officers may desire to avail themselves of this indulgence, that Quarter Masters of Corps deliver into the Pay Office, at the commencement of every month, a Remittance List similar to that now transmitted when a Remittance is made by a Sepoy. The Pay Master will then forward the Remittance List to the Military Accountant at the Presidency, for transmission to the Military Accountant at Fort St. George, who will issue the necessary instructions for payment being made to the party on the Neilgherries for whom the Remittance is intended.
