An Act for the better Protection of the Property of Merchants and others, who may hereafter enter into Contracts or Agreements in relation to Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, intrusted to Factors or Agents. (18th July, 1823.)

"Whereas it has been found that the Law, as it now stands, relating to Goods shipped in the names of persons who are not the actual Proprietors thereof and to the deposit or pledge of Goods affords great facility to fraud, produces frequent litigation, and proves, in its effects, highly injurious to the interests of Commerce in general; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act, any person or persons intrusted, for the purpose of sale, with any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, and by whom such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be shipped, in his, her or their own name or names, or in whose name or names any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be shipped by other person or persons, shall be deemed and taken to be the true Owner or Owners thereof, so far as to entitle the Consignee or Consignees of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize to a lien thereon, in respect of any money or negotiable security or securities advanced, or given by such Consignee or Consignees to or for the use of the person or persons in whose name or names such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be shipped, or in respect of any money or negotiable security or securities received by him, her, or them, to the use of such Consignee or Consignees, in the like manner to all intents and purposes as if such person or persons was or were the true Owner or Owners of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize; provided such Consignee or Consignees shall not have notice, by the Bill of Lading for the delivery of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize or otherwise, at or before the time of any advance of such money or negotiable security, or of such receipt of money or negotiable security in respect of which such lien is claimed, that such person or persons so shipping in his, her, or their own name or names, or in whose name or names any Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall be shipped by any person or persons, is or are not the actual and bona fide Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Goods, Wares and Merchandize so shipped as aforesaid, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: Provided also, that the person or persons in whose name or names any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize are so shipped as aforesaid, shall be taken for the purposes of this Act to have been intrusted therewith, unless the contrary thereof shall appear or be shown in evidence by any person disputing such fact.

Persons, in whose names Goods shall be shipped, shall be deemed the Owners, so as to entitle consignees to a lien thereon as herein mentioned.

II. And be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful to and for any person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, to accept and take any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or the Bill or Bills of Lading for the delivery thereof, in deposit or pledge from any Consignee or Consignees thereof; but then and in that case such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, shall acquire no further or other right, title or interest, in or upon, or to the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or any Bill of Lading for the delivery thereof than was possessed, or could or might have been enforced by the said Consignee or Consignees at the time of such deposit or pledge as a security as aforesaid: but such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, shall and may acquire, possess, and enforce such right, title, or interest as was possessed and might have been enforced, by such Consignee or Consignees at the time of such deposit or pledge as aforesaid, any rule of law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed, construed, or taken to deprive or prevent the true Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, from demanding and recovering the same from his, her, or their Factor or Factors, Agent or Agents, before the same shall have been so deposited or pledged, or from the Assignee or Assignees of such Factor or Factors, Agent or Agents, in the event of his, her, or their Bankruptcy; nor to prevent any such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, from demanding or recovering of, and from any person or persons, or of or from the Assignees of any person or persons in case of his or her Bankruptcy, or of or from any body or bodies, politic or corporate such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize so consigned, deposited, or pledged, upon repayment of the money or on restoration of the negotiable security or securities, or on payment of a sum of money equal to the amount of such security or securities, for which money or negotiable security or securities such person or persons, his, her or their Assignee or Assignees or such body or bodies, politic or corporate, may be entitled to any lien upon such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, nor to prevent the said Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors from recovering of, and from such person or persons, body or bodies, politic or corporate, any balance or sum of money remaining in his, her, or their hands as the produce of the sale of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize after deducting thereout the amount of the money or negotiable security or securities, so advanced or given upon the security thereof as aforesaid. Provided always, that in case of the Bankruptcy of such Factor or Agent, the Owner of the Goods so pledged and redeemed as aforesaid, shall be held to have discharged pro tanto the debt due by him to the Bankrupt's estate.

XIV. shall be extended to the Territories of the East India Company; provided always, that this Act shall not be construed to affect any case, which would not have been governed by the Law of England before the passing of the aforesaid Statute, if this Act had not passed, or to extend or alter the jurisdiction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Justice.

The Statute hereby extended to the Territories of the East India Company is as follows, (the sum of £10 mentioned therein to be deemed 100) Rupees in the application of the Statute to the aforesaid Territories.)

9th GEO. IV. CAP. XIV.

An Act for rendering a written memorandum necessary to the validity of certain Promises and Engagements.

9th May, 1828.

Whereas by an Act, English Act 21, passed in England in the Jas. 1, C. 16. twenty-first year of the reign of King James the

First, it was, among other things, enacted, that all actions of account and upon the case, other than such accounts as concern the trade of merchandize between Merchant and Merchant, their Factors or Servants, all actions of debt grounded upon any lending or contract without speciality, and all actions of debt for arrearages of rent, should be commenced within three years after the end of the then present session of Parliament or within six years next after the cause of such actions or suit, and not after. And whereas a similar Enactment is contained in an Act passed in Ireland in the tenth year of the reign of King Charles the First and whereas various questions have arisen in actions founded on simple contract, as to the proof and effect of acknowledgments and promises offered in evidence for the purpose of taking cases out of the operation of the said Enactments; and it is expedient to prevent such questions and to make provision for giving effect to the said Enactments and to the intention thereof, as it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same. That in actions of debt or upon the case grounded upon any simple contract no acknowledgment

In actions of debt or upon the case, no grounded upon any simple contract no acknowledg-

acknowledgment shall be deemed sufficient unless it be in writing or by part payment. ment or promise by words only shall be deemed sufficient evidence of a new or continuing contract, whereby to take any case out of the operation of the said Enactments, or either of them, or to deprive any party of the benefit thereof, unless such acknowledgment or promise shall be made or contained by or in some writing to be signed by the party chargeable thereby, and that where there shall be two or more Joint Contractors or no such Joint Contractor, Executor, or Administrator shall lose the benefit of the said Enactments, or either of them, so as to be chargeable in respect or by reason only by any written acknowledgment or promise made and signed by any other or others of them. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall alter or take away or lessen the effect of any payment of any principal or interest made by any person whatsoever. Provided Proviso for the case of also that in actions to be Joint Contractors. commenced against two or more such Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators, if it shall appear at the trial or otherwise, that the Plaintiff, though barred by either of the said recited Acts or this Act, as to one or more of such Joint Contractors, or Executors or Administrators, shall nevertheless be entitled to recover against any other or others of the Defendants, by virtue of a new acknowledgment or promise, or otherwise, judgment may be given and costs allowed for the Plaintiff as to such Defendant or Defendants against whom he shall recover, and for the other Defendant or Defendants against the Plaintiff.

II. And be it further enacted, that if any Defendant or Defendants in

Pleas in Abatement. any action on any simple contract shall plead any matter in abatement, to the effect that any other person or persons ought to be jointly sued and issue be joined on such Plea, and it shall appear at the trial that the action could not, by reason of the said recited Acts, or this Act, or of either of them, be maintained against the other person or persons named in such plea, or any of them, the issue joined on such plea shall be found against the party pleading the same.

III. And be it further enacted, that no indorsement or Memorandum of any payment written or made after the time appointed for this Act to take effect, upon any Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, or other writing by, or on the behalf of the party to whom such payment shall be made, shall be deemed sufficient proof of such payment so as to take the case out of the operation of either of the said Statutes.

IV. And be it further enacted, that the said Simple Contract debts recited Acts and this Act shall be deemed and taken to apply to the case of any debt on simple contract alleged by way of set-off on the part of any Defendant, either by plea, notice, or otherwise.

V. And be it further enacted, that no Confirmation of promises made by Infants. tion shall be maintained whereby to charge any person upon any promise made after full age to pay any debt contracted during infancy, or upon any ratification after full age of any promise or simple contract made during infancy, unless such promise or ratification shall be made by some writing signed by the party to be charged therewith.

VI. And be it further enacted, that no action shall be brought whereby to charge any person upon or, by reason of any representation or assurance made or given, concerning or relating to the character, conduct, credit, ability, trade or dealings of any other person, to the intent or purpose that such other person may obtain credit, money, or goods upon, unless such representation or assurance be made in writing, signed by the party to be charged therewith.

VII. And whereas by an Act passed in England in the twenty-

29 Car. 2, C. 3. ninth year of the reign of King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for the prevention of Frauds and Perjuries, it is, among other things enacted, that from and after the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand six hundred and seventy-seven, no contract for the sale of any goods, wares and merchandizes, for the price of ten pounds sterling or upwards, shall be allowed to be good, except the buyer shall accept part of the goods so sold, and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the bargain, or in part of payment; or that some note or memorandum in writing of the said bargain be made and signed by the parties to be charged by such contract, or their

Irish Act 7. W. 3. Agents thereunto lawfully authorized. And whereas

C. 12. a similar Enactment is contained in an Act passed in Ireland in the seventh year of the reign of King William the Third. And whereas it has been held, that the said recited Enactments do not extend to certain executory contracts for the sale of goods, which nevertheless are within the mischief thereby intended to be remedied; and it is expedient to extend the said Enactments to such executory contracts; be it enacted, Powers of recited that the said Enactments Acts extended to contracts for Goods of 10£ or upwards although the delivery be not made.

to be delivered at some future time, or may not at the time of such contract be actually made, procured or provided, or fit or ready for delivery, or some Act may be requisite for the making or completing thereof, or rendering the same fit for delivery.

VIII. And be it further enacted, that no memorandum or other writing made necessary by this Memorandum exemplified from Stamps. Act shall be deemed to be an agreement within the meaning of any Statute relating to the duties of Stamps.

An Act for the better prevention of Local Nuisances.

I. It is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for any Magistrate when the public benefit and comfort are in question, to cause obstructions and nuisances to be removed from thoroughfares and public places, and to suppress or cause to be removed to a different place, trades or occupations injurious to the health or comfort of the community, and to prevent such construction of buildings and such disposal of combustible substances as may appear to him likely to occasion conflagration, and to cause the removal of buildings in such state of weakness, as by the probability of their falling may appear to him to expose individuals to danger.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that in exercising the authority conferred by the above section the Magistrate shall commence by issuing an injunction, which, if practicable shall be served personally on the parties concerned; but if such service shall be impracticable or very inconvenient, the injunction shall be notified by oral proclamation and a written notice thereof shall be set up at such place or places as may be best adapted for conveying information to the parties concerned. And in case such injunction be not obeyed, the Magistrate may compel observance thereof by force, and punish disobedience by fine not exceeding 200 Rupees or by imprisonment without labor for any period not exceeding one month, and if the Magistrate finds it necessary to incur expence in removing noxious or dangerous articles or buildings, it shall be lawful for him to sell the same or their materials by public auction in order to defray the charge, delivering any surplus that may remain to the owner.

III. And it is hereby provided, and declared, that it shall be lawful for any person affected by such injunction or written notice as is above described, if he shall object thereto to claim by written petition to be presented to the Magistrate within the period of one day from the receipt of such injunction or of three days from the publication of such notice, that a Jury or Panchayat may be appointed to try and decide the question, and the Magistrate shall, on receiving such petition pass order thereupon for the appointment of a Jury or Panchayet, which shall consist of not less than five persons, whereof the President and one-half of the other Members shall be reminated by the Magistrate from the residents in the vicinity, and the remaining Members shall be nominated by the party petitioning. And the Magistrate shall suspend the further execution of the injunction or order pending such enquiry, and be guided by the decision of the said Jury which shall be according to the opinion of the majority. Provided however, that if the petitioner shall by neglect or in any other way prevent the appointment of such Jury or Panchayet, or if, from any cause the Jury so appointed shall not decide and report within the time fixed in the order for their appointment, their functions shall cease from the date of the expiration of such period unless they be continued by special order of the Magistrate, and if from any of the above cause no decision be made by a Jury or Panchayet, the Magistrate's order shall take effect as if not opposed.

IV. And it is hereby provided, that all the proceedings of Magistrates under the authority of this Act shall be subject to the like appeal as other orders of Magistrates according to the Regulations of the respective Presidencies.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that this Act shall not be applicable within the local limits of Her Majesty's Courts of Justice.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 6th day of October next.

A question having arisen whether in an action for the recovery of free lands subject to a Salamié or quit rent to Government, the value of the land should be computed according to Clause 1st or Clause 2nd of Regulation XII. of 1830, it was held, that the value of the land referred to, should be estimated according to the principle laid down in the 1st Clause of the Section quoted, that is, "that the value should be assumed at the annual assessment amount."
