FORT WILLIAM,

THE 21ST JUNE, 1841.

The following Act passed by the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council on the 21st of June, 1841, is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT No. VIII. OF 1841,

An Act to enable Her Majesty's Supreme Courts within the Territories of the East India Company to give relief against adverse claims made upon persons having no interest in the subject of such claims.

I. Whereas it often happens that a person sued at Law for the recovery of Money or Goods wherein he has no interest, and which are also claimed of him by some third party, has no means of relieving himself from such adverse claims but by a suit in Equity against the Plaintiff and such third party, usually called a Bill of Interpleader, which is attended with expense and delay;

It is hereby enacted, that upon application made by or on the behalf of any defendant sued in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts in any action of Assumpsit, Debt, Detinue, or Trover, such application being made after declaration and before plea by Affidavit or otherwise, showing that such Defendant does not claim any interest in the subject matter of the suit, but that the right thereto is claimed or supposed to belong to some third party who has sued or is expected to sue for the same, and that such Defendant does not in any manner conclude with such third party, but is ready to bring into Court or to pay or dispose of the subject matter of the action in such manner as the Court (or any Judge thereof) may order or direct, it shall be lawful for the Court, or any Judge thereof, to make rules and orders calling upon such third party to appear and to state the nature and particulars of his claim, and maintain or relinquish his claim, and upon such rule or order to hear the allegations as well of such third party as of the Plaintiff, and in the mean time to stay the proceedings in such action, and finally to order such third party to make himself Defendant in the same or some other action, or to proceed to trial on one or more feigned issue or issues, and also to direct which of the parties shall be Plaintiff or Defendant on such trial, or with the consent of the Plaintiff and such third party, their Counsel or Attornies to dispose of the merits of their claims and determine the same in a summary manner, and to make such other rules and orders therein as to costs, and all other matters as may appear to be just and reasonable.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the judgment in any such action or issue as may be directed by the Court or Judge, and the decision of the Court or Judge in a summary manner, shall be final and conclusive against the parties, and all persons claiming by, from, or under them.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that if such third party shall not appear upon such rule or order to maintain or relinquish his claim, being duly served therewith, or shall neglect or refuse to comply with any rule or order to be made after appearance it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to declare such third party, and all persons claiming by, from, or under him to be forever barred from prosecuting his claim against the original Defendant, his Executors or Administrators; saying nevertheless the right or claim of such third party against the Plaintiff; and thereupon to make such order between such Defendant and the Plaintiff, as to costs or other matters, as may appear just and reasonable.

IV. And it is hereby provided, that every order to be made in pursuance of this Act by a single Judge not sitting in open Court, shall be liable to be rescinded or altered by the Court in like manner as other orders made by a single Judge.

V. And it is hereby enacted that, if upon application to a Judge, in the first instance or in any latter stage of the proceedings, he shall think the matter more fit for the decision of the Court, it shall be lawful for him to refer the matter to the Court, and thereupon the Court shall and may hear and dispose of the same, in the same manner as if the proceeding had generally commenced by the Rule of Court instead of the order of a Judge.

VI. And whereas difficulties sometimes arise in the execution of process against Goods and Chattels issued by or under the authority of the said Courts by reason of claims made to such Goods and Chattels by Assignees of Bankrupts and other persons not being the parties against whom such process has issued, whereby Sheriffs and other Officers are exposed to the hazard and expence of actions; and it is reasonable to afford relief and protection in such cases as such Sheriffs and other Officers, it is therefore hereby further enacted, that when any such claim shall be made to any Goods or Chattels taken or intended to be taken in the execution under any such process or to the proceeds or value thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court from which such process, issued upon application of such Sheriff or other Officers made before or after the return of such process, and as well before as after any action brought against such Sheriff or other Officer, to call before them by Rule of Court as well the party issuing such process as the party making such claim, and thereupon to exercise for the adjustment of such claims and the relief and protection of the Sheriff or other Officer, all or any of the powers and authorities hereinbefore contained, and make rules and decisions as shall appear to be just, according to the circumstances of the case, and the costs of all such proceedings shall be in the discretion of the Court.

VII. And it is hereby enacted, that all Rules, Orders, Matters and Decisions to be made and done in pursuance of this Act except only the Affidavits to be filed, may together with the declaration in the cause if any, be entered of record with a note in the margin, expressing the true date of such entry, to the end that the same may be evidence in future times if required, and to secure and enforce the payment of costs directed by any such Rule or Order and every such Rule or Order so entered shall have the force and effect of a judgment except only as to becoming a charge on any lands, Tenements or Hereditaments; and in case any costs shall not be paid within fifteen days after notice of the taxation and amount thereof given to the party ordered to pay the same, his Agent or Attorney, execution may issue for the same by Fieri Facias, or Capias ad satisfaciendum, adapted to the case, together with the costs of such entry, and of the execution if by Fieri Facias, and such Writ or Writs may bear Teste on the day of issuing the same, whether in term or vacation, and the Sheriff or other Officer executing any such Writ shall be entitled to the same fees, and no more as upon any similar Writ grounded upon a judgment of the Court.

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

ACT No. 1 of 1841 is re-published with certain clerical errors corrected.

By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council,

T. H. MADDOCK,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

FORT WILLIAM, 28th June, 1841.

Passed by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council on the 12th of April 1841.

An Act for facilitating the collection of the Revenue of Government and defining the interest intended to be conveyed by public sales for the realization of arrears of the Public Revenue in Putteedarree Estates.

I. The Regulations in force aforesaid authorize the application of duress for enforcing the payment of arrears of the public Revenue only against the person and property of the Contracting Lumberdar, leaving him to proceed against the Putteedars by suit or distraint. But with reference to the peculiar nature of these Coparcenaries the existing enactments appear to be insufficient on the one hand for the protection of the rights of the Putteedars and on the other hand for the punctual realization of the dues of Government. The Regulations are also deficient in not authorizing with sufficient distinctness the sale or transfer of the Puttees of defaulting Putteedars in Putteedarree Estates, and in not defining the interest intended to be conveyed by public sales of such Estates.

II. A Putteedarree Estate in this Act is held to be an Estate which consists of two or more separate portions or Puttees, or of which there may be proprietors, possessed of separate properties and holding direct of the Government, but not parties in their own names to the contract with the Government for payment of the public revenue. The proprietor who is a party in his own name is called a Lumberdar, and the proprietor who is not a party in his own name is called a Putteedar.

III. It is hereby enacted, that the following modes of duress may be enforced against all Putteedars whose tenure and interest may have been defined by a Settlement formed according to Regulation VII. of 1822 as modified by Regulation IX. of 1833, whether every such Putteedar be in sole occupation of his Puttee, or hold it in common with others.

1st. Issue of Disticks in the same manner, and under the same limitation, as authorized by the rules in force for Lumberdars.

2d. Arrest, detention, imprisonment, distraint and sale of personal property as now authorized to be enforced against Lumberdars.

3d. Transfer of the defaulting Puttee in perpetuity to the members of any other Puttee which may not be in arrear.

4th. Annulment of the Settlement as regards the defaulting Puttee, and lease thereof to the members of any other Puttee which may not be in arrear, or to a stranger for any term not exceeding fifteen years.

5th. Sale of the defaulting Puttee by public auction in which case the members of the remaining Puttees who may not be in arrear are authorized to bid.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that on occasion of the sale by public auction of any Puttee, if the lot shall have been knocked down to a stranger, any Putteedar or other member of the coparcenary not being himself in arrear may claim to take the said Puttee at the sum last bid, provided that the said demand of pre-emption be made on the day of sale and before the Collector shall have left the office, and provided that the claimant fulfil all the other conditions of the sale.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that the above methods be employed by the Collector or other

No. 449 of 1841—The Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to direct, that the following Extract of a Despatch dated the 2nd June last (No. 33) conveying the sentiments and orders of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, in relation—1st, to the gallant conduct of Major Clibborn and the Detachment under his command, whilst employed in the endeavour to relieve the Garrison of Kahou in August 1840;—2nd, to the proceedings of the Court of Enquiry appointed on the occasion, and—3rd, to the breach of Official confidence committed by Major General Brooks, the President of the Court, be published for the general information of the Army.

“ Extract ; Para. 2.—We have perused with the greatest interest the narrative given by Major Clibborn, of his march from Sukkur to the entrance of the Pass of Nuffoosk ; of his Action at this spot with the Mountaineers, and of his retreat to Poolajee. The accuracy of this narrative is vouched for by all the Survivors of the European Officers present, whose evidence was taken by the Court of Enquiry, and no Evidence of any kind is adduced to prove it's want of fidelity in any one respect. This narrative has impressed us with sentiments of the highest admiration of the intrepid, collected and soldierlike conduct of Major Clibborn, of the persevering gallantry of the Officers under his Command, whose names are mentioned in the margin, and of the patience, fortitude and bravery of the Native Officers and Men of the detachment.

3. It is clear to us that every possible exertion was made by Major Clibborn and his Detachment to overcome the obstacles in the way of their march to Kahou, that every precaution in his power was taken by him to guard against failure, and that the disasters which ensued were attributable chiefly to the want of water, a want which could not have been guarded against, and of which he could gain no certain information until he had arrived at the spot where the supply was required.

4. With these sentiments as arising out of the evidence and statements laid before the Commission appointed by you to investigate most fully and minutely into the Military conduct of Major Clibborn and the Detachment under his Command, we could not fail to participate in the surprise you have expressed on finding that in the opinion of the Commission, Major Clibborn fell into the fatal, but too common error of holding his Enemy in contempt, that his plan of attack was most injudicious—that had he turned the position, making at the same time a false attack in front, to be converted into a real one when he saw our Troops crowning the height, there can be no doubt the Pass of Nuffoosk would have been carried with comparatively little loss, that he did not sufficiently reconnoitre in search of water but trusted too much to the report of others, there being trees and herbage within 300 yards of his position which in such a desolate region, ought to have attracted his notice, and that had he searched, it is now known, he would have found water on the spot.

5. You very naturally called upon the Commander in Chief to cause the Court of Enquiry to be reassembled for the purpose of revising their proceedings, and of stating on what evidence or information they came to the conclusions above mentioned, and others which were not only unsupported by, but in some instances at variance with, the evidence recorded on the proceedings.

6. It then appeared that the Court of Enquiry had no actual knowledge of water being on the spot, but that their statements were founded inferentially on the season of the year, on the prevalence of thunder storms at that time, and on the fact, of water having been found at the spot, by Major Brown, a month afterwards, further that they were immediately led to the opinion they at first recorded from a Sketch of the ground made by Dr. Kirk “ in which trees and green herbage are represented as “ therein stated.”

7. It is a melancholy reflection that Officers of rank and station in the Army to whom you had confided an enquiry involving most deeply the honor and reputation of a Brother Officer, instead of taking a generous view of the difficulties in which he was placed, and of relying upon his own statements and the other complete and uncontradicted evidence, of the means he took to provide for the pressing wants of his Men, should in this manner injure his character as an efficient and trustworthy Officer. No Commanding Officer who unhappily met with a reverse could be safe if those who were to enquire into his conduct, should thus trifle with the evidence ; adopt the most unfavorable construction and transform an hypothesis into a fact within their knowledge.

8. Major Clibborn himself had stated in his narrative laid before the Court of Enquiry, that he did send an Officer with a Company of Sepoy's in search of water, and that a small supply was found in the vicinity of his position which was however speedily exhausted. This statement should either have led the Court of Enquiry immediately to dismiss from their minds the suspicion that Major Clibborn had neglected the most obvious and most pressing duty of searching for water or they should have made further enquiries when they could readily have been satisfied that the suspicion was utterly without foundation.

9. It appeared from copy of an Order issued on the 1st day after the Detachment entered the Mountains, vizt. the 24th of August, that Major Clibborn had taken all the usual precautions to guard against surprise, and had besides issued the following directions. "One half only of the Men of each Company will be allowed to undress and cook; and until further orders, all Troops will lie down at night with their Accoutrements and Arms by them in readiness to meet any attack of the Enemy." Nevertheless the Court of Enquiry recorded it as their opinion that Major Clibborn fell into the fatal error of holding his Enemy in contempt. When called upon to explain this opinion, they state that it has reference to his not having attempted to turn the Pass, an operation, the possibility of which they say he acknowledges. This we observe is not the fact. Major Clibborn distinctly states that the magnitude of his Convoy reaching full five miles, did not admit of his detaching any of his small body for this purpose. We quite concur in the opinion you have expressed that the inference drawn by the Commission, of his having held the Enemy in contempt, is "a conclusion not warranted either in reason or justice."

10. The Court of Enquiry in either of their opinions relating to Major Clibborn's conduct fell into grievous error. In stating that he ought to have taken the Deyrah, instead of the Nuffoosk road, they overlook the additional distance of 50 Miles by the Deyrah road, that it had two marches (19 and 29 miles each, without water, and that there was a narrow gorge to be passed as defensible as that at Nuffoosk. Further it appeared that they were partly guided by Drawings prepared by Dr. Kirk, which, as they ought to have known, were not in existence at the time when the advance on Nuffoosk took place, and could not in consequence have formed any guide for Major Clibborn.

11. It is not our intention to enter on a detailed notice of the other parts of the report of the Court of Enquiry relating to further points in which they find fault with Major Clibborn's conduct, none of which have been substantiated on sufficient evidence or to those parts in which without in our opinion, any justification whatever they attempt to cast blame on their late distinguished Commander in Chief, Lieutenant General Lord Keane, on the late lamented Lieutenant Colonel Stevenson, G. B. and on Major D. Forbes.

12. One point however calls for our particular notice and reprobation. When desired to state on what ground certain statements are made which are wholly unwarranted by the evidence, the Court of Enquiry observe that, such a Court "is differently constituted from a Court Martial. The latter having to pass sentence as well as to give an opinion are bound to confine themselves strictly to the evidence that appears before them but a Court of Enquiry they consider has a right to draw inferences and express an opinion upon what is known to the Members to be facts arising from the circumstances under investigation." In making this remark the Court have shewn great ignorance of a professional duty. It is well understood and ought to have been known by them that in a Court of Enquiry as well as on a Court Martial, evidence if required from any Member is given by him as a witness, so that it may be recorded on his individual responsibility; and that no fact connected with the enquiry is ever assumed on the knowledge of the Members unless it has thus been placed upon record.

13. We now proceed to notice the extraordinary breach of official confidence as reported by you, on the part of Major General Brooks, the President of the Court of Enquiry.

14. The "Finding" of the Court of Enquiry was published in a Bombay Newspaper on the 16th December "even before" as you observe, "the authorities for whom" alone it was intended, had time to take the same into consideration." You were then ignorant of the party who had communicated the Copy to that Journal, but you very properly resolved that Major General Brooks should be held responsible for the act, and that it would be for him to clear himself and the Officers associated with him as Members of the Court of Enquiry from all concern in it. A communication to this effect was made by the Commander in Chief to Major General Brooks in a letter dated on the 26th December, who in reply on the 16th January 1841, admitted that the strong interest felt and expressed for Major Clibborn had induced him (General Brooks) to furnish a Copy of the Finding to a most intimate friend at Poona, although he was assured and firmly believed that this was not the channel through which it reached the Newspapers.

15. It must be well known to every Officer of any experience that a Court of Enquiry is a preliminary and confidential inquest for the purpose of collecting information, and if required, of giving opinions to enable the Commander in Chief to decide as to the ulterior proceedings which should be taken to maintain the honor of the Army, and the Character of the service.

16. For the President or any Member of such a Court to communicate the Proceedings or the Finding to any other than the Commander in Chief, is to commit a breach of confidence which marks the individual guilt of it as unworthy to continue in a situation of responsibility, this is the view you appear to have taken of Major General Brooks's conduct, for you announced to him that "by this highly reprehensible act he had subjected himself to the severest displeasure of Government, and had rendered himself justly liable to a Court Martial, or to a removal from his present high Command in Scinde, or to a severe reprimand for his conduct in General Orders." You nevertheless out of consideration for the supposed interests of the Public Service at that particular period, resolved to limit the punishment for his (as justly described by you) gross and glaring violation of Official confidence and propriety to a reprimand couched indeed in very strong language, but still only a reprimand expressed to him in a letter from the Adjutant General of the Army.

17. Had the Finding been one of entire acquittal and altogether satisfactory to the feelings and character of Major Clibborn, we should have been disposed to give credit to the alleged motive for furnishing the Copy, vizt. the strong interest felt and expressed for Major Clibborn, and some allowance might have been made for a fault committed under what might be considered the laudable anxiety to relieve the Friends of that Officer from apprehension on his account. But when we observe that the Finding is calculated to inflict injury on this Officer, whose previous character was unsullied and that his name is not even mentioned in it as the Commanding Officer when expressing praise of the conduct of the Detachment, we are under the necessity of observing, that the motive alleged for this unprecedented breach of Official confidence, cannot be sustained.

18. Having given to the whole of this matter our most particular attention, we must decline to approve of the lenient course which you thought it prudent to adopt. We are of opinion that nothing less than Major General Brooks' removal from his Command will meet the calls of justice. We accordingly direct that he be removed from his Command as soon after the receipt of this letter as circumstances will permit.
