Letter dated 7th August 1841 (No. 87.)

Transmit a Memorial from Lieutenant Colonel Griffith, Commandant of Artillery, praying that the Artillery quartered in the Garrison of Bombay, may be placed under his command and control, and that he may be considered a Garrison Officer and entitled to succeed to the Command of the Troops composing it.

3. Referring to the communication made to you in our Military Letter of the 25th August 1841, we have to observe that the Commandant of Artillery, equally with the Chief Engineer, is entitled to be Commandant of the Garrison of Bombay, when the Senior Officer present, but without receiving any additional allowance on that account. The application of the Commandant of Artillery to be allowed executive charge of the Detachment of Artillery serving in the Fort, is opposed to the Regulations as established in Bengal, and cannot be complied with.

Letter dated 17th August 1841, (No. 95.)

Transmit a Memorial from Lieutenant Colonel Griffith, Commandant of Artillery, soliciting that the title of Brigadier may be conferred on him, state the circumstances under which a similar application has been repeatedly preferred by Lieutenant Colonel Griffith, and hitherto negatived by the Government of India, and requests the Court to pass a conclusive decision which shall set the matter finally at rest.

14. The designation of Brigadier cannot be appropriately conferred on the Commandant of Artillery, at your Presidency, whatever may be his Regimental Rank, unless like the Officers holding similar Commands at Dum Dum and St. Thomas Mount, he has under personal Command the Head Quarters of two or more Battalions, in this case the designation will carry with it no additional allowance.

Letter dated 25th August 1841, (No. 103.)

Recommending Mrs. E. T. Rebenack, for admission to the benefits of Lord Clive's Fund.

58. Mrs. Rebenack's claim being supported by the prescribed documents, her admission to the benefits of Lord Clive's Fund, from the date of Captain Rebenack's decease, is confirmed.

Letter dated 1st September 1841, (No. 109.)

Para. 1. In our letter No. 19, in this Department dated the 3rd March 1841, we apprise you that Mr. Edward Haycock Williams therein described as at Sea, had been appointed Volunteer for the Indian Navy, upon certain specified conditions, and in conformity with our practice in similar cases, Mr. Williams was ranked from the 4th March 1841, the date of despatch from London per Mediterranean mail, via Marsoilles, of our letter above noticed, but it has recently been represented to us that he actually proceeded hence to your Presidency on board the ship Sarah, which did not sail from Gravesend until the 6th June 1841, and the fact being corroborated by the terms of the General Order*

* Bombay General Order. Marine Department, No. 122, dated 1st October 1841, published in the Bombay Government Gazette of the 7th October 1841, announcing the arrival of Mr. Williams at Bombay from England by the Sarah, and also by a letter from the Owner of that ship dated the 1st February 1842, it has become necessary that his order of Rank in the service should be revised.

2nd. We have therefore cancelled the order of Rank assigned to Mr. Edward Heycock Williams as a Volunteer for the Indian Navy by the List No. 3 of 1841, and we direct that in accordance with the Regulations, Mr. Williams be now ranked next below Mr. George Trevisis Holt, from the 6th June 1841, the date of the sailing from Gravesend of the ship Sarah, on which they were both embarked for your Presidency.

LEGISLATIVE ENACTMENTS,

FORT WILLIAM, LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT, THE 1ST FEBRUARY, 1842.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 1st February, 1842.

ACT NO. — OF 1842.

An Act for regulating the service of Hereditary Officers under the Presidency of Bombay.

Whereas it has been found, that the provisions of Regulation XVI. 1827, of the Bombay Code, are insufficient to secure the efficient discharge of the duties of Hereditary Officers.

I. It is hereby enacted, that Sections XVII and XVIII, of Regulation XVI, of 1827 of the Bombay Code, be rescinded.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that all Hereditary Officers of whatever denomination, belonging to, or employed in the management of the Land Revenue, or of the Customs or Town Duties, or Excise or other Revenue, or in the Police, or in the Civil Administration of the country, shall render the usual services of their respective Offices, as far as the same may be required by the Collector, or other Officer under whose control they may be placed by usage or the orders of Government.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that when the duties of an Hereditary Office fall in more than one Department, it shall be competent to the Governor in Council of Bombay to prescribe what Officer shall be vested with the control of such Office.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Collector or other Officer to whom the duties of an Hereditary Office are, as provided in Clause II., to be rendered, when the performance of those duties is claimed in rotation by different sharers, to require that the sharers in the watan shall nominate a fit and proper person from among their number, who shall hold the Office as the Representative of the family either during life, or for such term, not being less in each instance than (five) 5 years, as the Collector or Controlling Officer shall determine with the sanction of the Governor in Council, and in the event of the sharers not so nominating one or more, if required of their number within a reasonable period to be fixed by the Collector or Controlling Officer, the latter shall himself exercise the power of selection, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be competent to the Collector or Controlling Officer to refuse to confirm the nomination by the sharers of any individual, if he shall have reason to think, that from age or personal disqualification the duties of the Office will not be properly performed by him, or if from character and past conduct the person nominated be considered unworthy of trust, provided that the grounds of such refusal shall be recorded in writing and that an appeal from such decision shall lie to the Governor in Council, whose order thereon shall be final.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that the Collector or Controlling Officer shall have power to punish Officiating Hereditary Officers for misconduct or neglect of duty by suspension from office, pay and emolument, or by fine not exceeding the computed official emolument of their offices for three months, and to levy the said fine in the mode authorized for realizing Revenue demands.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted, that the Collector or Controlling Officer, in cases of misconduct, or incompetency on the part of an Officiating Hereditary Officer, shall have power to dismiss such Officer from his employment; but no such dismissal shall take place, except on an investigation recorded in writing, which shall be submitted for the approval and sanction of the Governor in Council.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that, in conducting the investigation prescribed in the preceding Section, the Collector or Controlling Officer shall have the same authority as a Magistrate in compelling the attendance of parties and witnesses, and the production of papers, and in taking evidence.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, that if fraud or malversation, or any criminal offence in the conduct of the duties of the Office is proved in a competent Court against an Officiating Hereditary Officer, it shall be lawful for the said Governor in Council, on the report of the Collector or Controlling Officer, to direct the attachment and confiscation of the entire watan, either wholly or in part, or for a term of years, and during such attachment and confiscation the duties of the office shall be performed, and the proceeds of the watan disposed of, in such a manner as the said Governor in Council may direct.

X. And it is hereby enacted, that no female shall perform in person the duties of any hereditary office.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that if any Hereditary Officer is incapable of personally discharging the duties of his or her office by reason of sex, minority, mental or bodily infirmity, or manifest incapacity, it shall be lawful for the Collector or the Controlling Officer to call upon him or her, or his or her Guardians to appoint a Deputy, subject to his approval; and on the party or parties failing to appoint a fit deputy within a reasonable period, the appointment shall be made by the said Collector or Controlling Officer.

XII. And it is hereby enacted, that all deputies appointed to perform the Duties of Hereditary Offices under this Act, and under Section IV. Regulation V. 1833, of the Bombay Code, shall be subject to the same rules and penalties as the Principals;—and the watan of the office shall also be liable to attachment and confiscation for misconduct of the Deputy, when appointed by the Hereditary Officers in the same manner as it would be, if the Hereditary Officer himself were the offender.

XIII. And it is hereby enacted, that nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to debar the right of any sharer to participate in the rents and profits of any Hereditary Office so held and filled as above provided, after provision shall have been made therefrom for the fit maintenance of the Officiating Hereditary Officer; for which purpose it shall be competent to the Collector or Controlling Officer to fix and assign a specific portion of such rents and emoluments, leaving the remainder only, subject to the claims of the other sharers;—and further that the portion of the rents and emoluments so fixed and assigned shall be the official remuneration of the Officiating Hereditary Officer, and shall not be liable to Civil process of any Court of Law.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever it may be necessary, as above provided, that the Collector or Controlling Officer shall appoint a Deputy to conduct the duties of an Hereditary Office, it shall be lawful for him to assign to such Deputy a fit remuneration from the rents and profits of the said office.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that the terms "Hereditary District or Village Office or Officers" or "Hereditary District or Village Revenue Office or Officers " used in Regulation XVI 1827 and Regulation V 1833. of the Bombay Code, shall be held to apply to all descriptions of Hereditary Offices and Officers.

FORT WILLIAM,
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,
THE 21ST MARCH 1842.

An Act concerning the acquirement and extinction of rights by prescription in the territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, without the local jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts, at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and in the Straits Settlements; and for the limitation, of Suits in the Courts of the East India Company.

Prescription Section I It is hereby enacted that subject to the exception hereinafter mentioned, a title by prescription shall be acquired in respect of property, moveable and immoveable, and hereditary offices, by uninterrupted possession, mediate or immediate, as proprietor, for six years, in the case of moveable property, and for twelve years in the case of immoveable property and hereditary offices; provided that if any other title be proved, the possession shall have been adverse thereto—and provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any right arising from possession of moveable property now recognized by Law.

Section II. And it is hereby enacted, that in the case of any benefits, liberties, or privileges, derived out of, or affecting any immoveable property which shall have been enjoyed without interruption for twelve years, a right to the enjoyment thereof against the owner of the property shall be acquired by prescription, subject to the exceptions hereinafter mentioned, unless such benefits, liberties, or privileges shall have been enjoyed by some consent or agreement expressly given or made for that purpose, by some Deed or writing.

Section III. And it is hereby enacted, that when a right to any such benefits, liberties, or privileges, as aforesaid, whether acquired by prescription or otherwise, shall have been disused for twelve years, the right shall be extinguished.

Section IV. And it is hereby enacted, that when a party shall have been forcibly dispossessed of immoveable property, or shall have been prevented from enjoying some benefit, liberty or privilege, derived out of, or affecting immoveable property, and shall have applied within the time limited by any law now in force, or within one month, to the proper authority, for assistance to recover the possession or the use thereof, and shall have recovered the same—the period during which his possession or enjoyment was interrupted in such manner shall not be considered an interruption within the meaning of this Act.

Section V. And it is hereby enacted, that when the possession upon which a title by prescription is claimed shall have been acquired by the deprivation of another party who was previously in possession, or in opposition to a title which had accrued but upon which possession had not been taken, or having been taken had been previously interrupted, it shall be deemed adverse in respect of the party so deprived of possession, and of any one claiming in the same right, or in respect of the parties interested in the said title, as the case may be from the time at which the possession actually commenced; and that when an adverse title shall have accrued after the possession was acquired, the possession shall be deemed adverse to the parties interested therein from the time at which such title accrued.

Section VI. And it is hereby enacted, that possession acquired by a bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration from a Trustee, or from a Depository or Mortgagee, shall be deemed adverse to the Mortgagor, or Depositor, or Beneficial Owner under the Trust, from the time of the acquisition by purchase.

Section VII. And it is hereby enacted, that a title by prescription shall be acquired by possession by or through a Depository or Mortgagee which shall have continued without interruption, for thirty years in the case of moveable property, and sixty years in the case of immoveable property, unless in the mean time an acknowledgment of the title of the Mortgagor or Depositor, or of his right of redemption, shall have been given to him or some person claiming his interest, in writing signed by the Mortgagee or Depository or the person claiming through him, in which case prescription shall not take effect until possession shall have been had without interruption for 30, or 60 years, as the property may be moveable or immoveable, from the date of such acknowledgment.

Section VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that in the case of a concealed fraud by which a party shall have been deprived of any property, the possession thereof shall not be deemed adverse to the party entitled until the time at which such fraud shall or with reasonable diligence might have been first known by him, except when it shall have been acquired by a bona fide purchaser for a valuable consideration, or when a party shall have succeeded to it by inheritance or devise; in the former case adverse possession shall be deemed to have commenced from the time that the party entitled was deprived of the property by means of such fraud—in the latter from the time of the succession—provided it shall not appear that the party to whom the possession devolved assisted in the commission of the fraud, or at the time he entered into possession knew, or had reason to believe that the fraud had been committed.

Section IX. And it is hereby enacted, that when a party having a right to any Estate or interest in reversion or remainder shall have become entitled to the same in possession by reason of any forfeiture or breach of condition, but shall have waived his action to recover thereupon, possession shall not be deemed adverse to him or any party claiming in the same right until the determination of the previous right.

Section X And it is hereby enacted, that suits other than for property and rights to which the above rules are applicable shall not be admitted in the Courts of Judicature of the East India Company except as hereinafter provided, unless they are instituted respectively within the period specified in the following Section.

FORT WILLIAM,
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT,

THE 21ST MARCH, 1842.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 21st March, 1842:

ACT NO. — OF 1842.

An Act for extending the Statute Ch. XXI 4th and 5th of Queen Victoria in certain cases to the Territories of the East India Company.

1. It is hereby enacted, that the Statute Ch. XXI. of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act for rendering a Release as effectual for the conveyance of Freehold Estates as a Lease and Release by the same parties," shall be extended to the territories of the East India Company from the 1st day of July next; provided always that this Act shall not be construed to affect any case which would not have been governed by the Law of England before the passing of the aforesaid Statute, if this Act had not passed.

An Act for rendering a Release as effectual for the conveyance of Freehold Estates as a Lease and Release by the same Parties.

[18TH MAY, 1841.]

"Whereas it is expedient to lessen the expense of conveying Freehold estates." Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, That every Deed or Instrument of Release of a Freehold Estate, or Deed or Instrument purporting or intended to be a Deed or Instrument of Release of a Freehold Estate, which shall be executed on or after the 15th day of May 1841, and shall be expressed to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall be as effectual for the purposes therein expressed, and shall take effect as a conveyance to uses or otherwise, and shall operate in all respects both at Law and Equity as if the releasing party or parties who shall have executed the same had also executed in due form a Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or lease for a year for giving effect to such Release although no such Deed or Instrument of Bargain and sale or lease for a year shall be executed, provided that every such deed or instrument so taking effect under this Act shall be chargeable with the same amount of Stamp Duty as any Bargain and Sale or lease for a year would have been chargeable with (except progressive Duty) if executed to give effect to such deed or instrument, in addition to the Stamp Duties which such deed or Instrument shall be chargeable with as a Release or otherwise under any Act or Acts relating to Stamp Duties.

11. "And whereas many Deeds or Instruments of Bargain and Sale or Leases for a year, to give effect to Deeds or Instruments of Release of Freehold Estates heretofore executed, have been lost or mislaid;" be it enacted. That where, in or by any Deed or Instrument of Release of Freehold Estates executed before the 15th day of May 1841, any Deed or Instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year for giving effect to such Deed or Instrument of Release shall be recited, or by any mention thereof in such Deed or Instrument of Release appear to have been made or executed, such recital or mention thereof shall be deemed and taken to be conclusive Evidence of the deed or instrument of Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year so recited or mentioned having been made and executed; and such Deed or Instrument of Release shall also have the like effect as if the same had been executed after the 15th day of May 1841, whether such deed or instrument of bargain and Sale or Lease for a year shall or shall not have been lost or mislaid, or may or may not be produced: Provided always, that this Act shall not prejudice or affect any proceedings at Law or in Equity pending at the time of the passing of this Act, in which the validity of any Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year shall be in question between the party claiming under such bargain and Sale or Lease for a year and the party claiming adversely thereto, and such bargain and Sale or Lease for a year if the result of such proceedings shall invalidate the same, shall not be rendered valid by this Act.

111. And be it enacted, that in the construction of this Act the word "Freehold" shall have not only its usual signification, but shall extend to all Lands and Hereditaments for the conveyance of which, if this Act had not been passed, a Bargain and Sale or Lease for a year, as well as a Release, would have been used.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 21st day of June next.
