The Honorable the Governor in Council has the highest gratification in republishing for general information the following General Orders issued by the Right Honorable the Governor General of India, under date the 11th instant, and to direct that this General Order and the substance of the despatch annexed, shall be explained to the Troops at all the stations of the Army of this Presidency.

GENERAL ORDERS

BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

Agra, the 11th April 1843.

The Governor General announces to the army, another and a most decisive victory gained by His Excellency Major General Sir Charles Napier, K. C. B. in the vicinity of Hyderabad, over 20,000 Beloochees, led by Meer Shere Mahomed, of Meerpoor, a chief, who, having no ground whatever of complaint against the British Government, preferred the chances of war to the security of peace, and has now no refuge but the desert.

The Major General directed his force with the same consummate ability which characterised his operations at Meeanee, and all the troops, worthy of being so commanded, executed their movements with a precision and steadiness which secured the victory to their impetuous valour.

The army of Scinde has twice beaten the bravest enemy in Asia, under circumstances which would equally have obtained for it the victory over the best troops of Europe.

The Governor General regards with delight the new proofs which the army has given of its pre-eminent qualities in the field, and of its desire to mitigate the necessary calamities of war by mercy to the vanquished.

The ordinary expression of thanks would ill convey the extent of the debt of gratitude which the Governor General feels to be due to His Excellency Major General Sir Charles Napier on the part of the Government, the army, and the people of Hindoostan.

To have punished the treachery of protected princes; to have liberated a nation from its oppressors; to have added a province, fertile as Egypt, to the British empire, and to have effected these great objects by actions in war unsurpassed in brilliancy, whereof a grateful army assigns the success to the ability and valour of its General; these are not ordinary achievements, nor can the ordinary language of praise convey their reward.

The Governor General directs, that the several corps which, by the General Order of the 5th ultimo, were permitted to bear the word "Hyderabad, 1843," upon their appointments, standards and colors, respectively, shall in lieu thereof, bear the word "Meeanee."

The Governor General is pleased to authorize the

- 1st Troop Bombay Horse Artillery;
- 2d Company 1st B. Bombay Artillery;
- 2d Company 2d B. Bombay Artillery;
- 3d Company Golundauze do. do.; and
- C. Company Madras Sappers and Miners.

to bear upon their appointments, and the 3d Regiment of Bombay Light Cavalry, and the 9th Regiment of Bengal, Light Cavalry, the Poonah Horse and the Scinde Horse, upon their standards and appointments, and the 1st Grenadiers, the 8th, 12th, 21st, and 25th Regiments of Bombay Native Infantry, upon their colors and appointments, the word "Hyderabad."

The Governor General having taken into consideration the peculiar merits of the 1st troop of the Bombay Horse Artillery under Major Leslie, which having participated in the distinguished services of the army of Candahar, under His Excellency Major General Sir W. Nott, G. C. B., and having returned to India with the troops from Cabool, marched from the camp of Ferozepore early in January and joined the army of Scinde, in time to decide, in conjunction with H. M.'s 22d Regiment, the battle of Hyderabad, is pleased to direct, that the 1st Troop of the Bombay Horse Artillery shall hereafter for ever be denominated the 1st, or "Leslie's" troop of Horse Artillery, and shall, in addition to all other decorations or inscriptions upon its appointments, bear the "Eagle."

The Governor General directs, that this General Order, and the substance of the despatch annexed, shall be explained to the troops at all the stations of the army, and that at all such stations a salute of 21 guns shall be fired in honor of the victory of Hyderabad.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor-General of India.

J. THOMASON,
Secy. to the Govt. of India,
with the Governor General.

From Major General Sir C. J. NAPIER, K. C. B.,
Commanding in Scinde and Beloochistan.

To the Right Hon'ble LORD ELLENBOROUGH,
Governor General of India,
&c. &c. &c.

Dubba, four miles from Hyderabad, 24th March, 1843.

MY LORD,

The forces under my command marched from Hyderabad this morning at daybreak. About half past 8 o'clock we discovered and attacked the army under the personal command of the Meer Shere Mahomed, consisting of twenty thousand men of all arms, strongly posted behind one of those large nullahs, by which this country is intersected in all directions. After a combat of about three hours, the enemy was wholly defeated with considerable slaughter, and the loss of all his standards and cannon.

His position was nearly a straight line; the nullah was formed by two deep parallel ditches, one 20 feet wide and 8 feet deep, the other 42 feet wide and 17 deep, which had been for a long distance freshly scarped, and a banquet made behind the bank expressly for the occasion.

To ascertain the extent of his line was extremely difficult, as his left did not appear to be satisfactorily defined, but he began moving to his right when he perceived that the British force outflanked him in that direction. Believing that this movement had drawn him from that part of the nullah which had been prepared for defence, I hoped to attack his right with less difficulty, and Major Leslie's troop of Horse Artillery was ordered to move forward and endeavour to rake the nullah. The 9th Light Cavalry and Poona Horse advancing in line, on the left of the artillery, which was supported on the right by H. M. 22d Regiment, the latter being however, at first considerably retired to admit of the oblique fire of Leslie's troop. The whole of the artillery now opened upon the enemy's position, and the British line advanced in echellons from the left, H. M. 22d Regiment leading the attack.

The enemy was now perceived to move from his centre in considerable bodies to his left, apparently retreating, unable to sustain the cross fire of the British Artillery; on seeing which Major Stack, at the head of the 3d Cavalry, under command of Captain Delamain, and the Scinde Horse, under command of Captain Jacob, made a brilliant charge upon the enemy's left flank, crossing the nullah and cutting down the retreating enemy for several miles. While this was passing on the right, H. M. 22d Regiment gallantly led by Major Poole, who commanded the brigade, and Captain George who commanded the corps, attacked the nullah on the left with great gallantry, and I regret to add, with considerable loss. This brave battalion marched up to the nullah under a heavy fire of matchlocks, without returning a shot till within 40 paces of the intrenchment, and then stormed it like British soldiers. The intrepid Lieutenant Cooté first mounted the rampart, seized one of the enemy's standards, and was severely wounded while waving it and cheering on his Men. Meanwhile the Poona Horse, under Captain Tait, and the 9th Cavalry, under Major Story, turned the enemy's right flank, pursuing and cutting down the fugitives for several miles. H. M. 22d Regiment was well supported by the batteries commanded by Captains Willoughby and Hutt, which crossed their fire with that of Major Leslie. Then came the 2d Brigade under command of Major Woodburn, bearing down into action with excellent coolness. It consisted of the 25th, 21st & 12th Regiments under the command of Captains Jackson, Stevens and Fisher, respectively: these regiments were strongly sustained by the fire of Captain Whitley's battery, on the right of which were the 8th and 1st Regiments, under Majors Browne, & Clibborne: these two corps advanced with the regularity of a review up to the intrenchments, their commanders, with considerable exertion, stopping their fire, on seeing that a portion of the Scinde Horse and 3d Cavalry in charging the enemy had got in front of the Brigade. The battle was decided by the troop of Horse Artillery and H. M. 22d Regiment.

To Lieutenant Colonel Pattle, as second in command, I am indebted for his zealous activity and readiness to execute any duties confided to his charge.

To my personal Staff, and to the general Staff of the division, my thanks are due for their zealous assistance.

I beg to recommend my acting Aid-de-camp, Lieutenant Thompson, to your Lordship's protection.

The long experience of my Military Secretary, Major McPherson, was of much assistance to me in the field.

To my extra Aid-de-camp, Lieutenant Brown, I have also to return my best thanks, especially for his assistance in examining the position of the enemy.

Captain Tucker, Lieutenants Rathbourne, Hill, North, and Battersby, all did good service in the fight.

To Lieutenant Pelly, acting Assistant Adjutant General, I am indebted for his zealous exertions in that department.

Of Lieutenant McMurdo's abilities, as acting Assistant Quarter Master General, I cannot speak too highly, and regret to say, he has received a sabre wound from a Beloochee, the third that he cut down in single combat during the day.

To Major Lloyd, who commanded the Artillery, the service is indebted for the arrangements made for that arm, ably seconded by Major Leslie, Captains Willoughby, Whitley and Hutt.

To the Commanders of Brigades and Regiments, and the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates under their command, I have to return my thanks for their valiant bearing in the action.

Major Waddington rendered me the most important aid in examining the enemy's position, with that cool courage which he possesses in so eminent a degree; nor must I omit to mention the labours of Captain Henderson and Lieutenants Outlaw and Boileau, with their hardy little band of Sappers, whose labours enabled the heavy 8-inch howitzers to come up into action.

To Captain Blenkins, the service is indebted for the ablest arrangements in the Commissariat department.

The exertions of the Officers of the Medical department under Inspecting Surgeon Bell, were very laudable.

Lieutenant Leeson well arranged the baggage close up to the line, and merits thanks, for the duty of a Baggage Master, with an Indian army, is Herculean.

I will not close the list of those to whom I am indebted, without mentioning that brave and indefatigable Arab gentleman Ally Ackbar, to whose ability and activity I am much indebted.

Many, my Lord, have been the acts of individual valour performed by Officers and Private Soldiers (both European and native), and the account of them shall hereafter be laid before your Lordship.

The Beloochee Infantry, and Artillery fought well: their Cavalry made no stand and 5,000 disciplined soldiers were not to be long resisted by a barbarian force, even though that force were nearly 5 to 1.

From the accounts which have come in since writing the above, there is reason to believe, that the loss of the enemy has been very great: about 500 bodies have been counted upon the field of battle, and it is said, that the neighbouring villages are filled with dead and wounded men. Eleven pieces of cannon were taken in position on the nullah, and seventeen standards.

It gives me great satisfaction to say, that some prisoners have been taken, and though the number is small, it is still some advance towards a civilized mode of warfare, for I cannot help thinking that the desperate resistance generally made by wounded Beloochees has arisen from their own system of warfare, which admits of no quarter being given in action.

We are at present employed in collecting the wounded Beloochees within our reach, in order to render them medical assistance.

I have deeply to regret the loss of the brave and excellent Captain Garrett, of the 9th Light Cavalry, who fell honorably in the battle and also the fall of Lieutenant Smith, of the Bombay Artillery. With unsurpassed and desperate valour he galloped in front of his battery, and rode up upon the top of the nullah (filled with enemies) to see where his guns could bear with greatest effect—Here this hero fell. Many of the Scindian people (who are all in great delight at the destruction of their Beloochee oppressors) have come into camp from different parts, and bring assurances that the Beloochee force is wholly dispersed, and that Meer Shere Mahomed has fled into the desert with his family and about 40 followers, but, as Emaum Ghur has been destroyed, the heat will soon force him to quit this temporary refuge where there is no protection from the sun. He will therefore probably endeavour to reach Moultan. I have written to his Highness Ali Morad to arrest his progress in that direction, if possible, and to make him prisoner.

Three Beloochee chiefs fell in the action; one of them was the great promoter of the war, Hoche Mahomed Saedee, and I have every reason to believe that not another shot will be fired in Scinde.

I have, &c.

(Signed)

C. J. NAPIER, Major General,
Commanding in Scinde and Beloochistan.
