MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 5th October 1843.

No. 117 of 1843.—The following Extract, paras. 1 to 3 of a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, No. 47, dated the 2nd August 1843, is published for information.

Letter No. 113, dated 16th October 1842, paras. 18 to 21.

Letter No. 135, dated 28th November, paras. 2 to 10.

Para. 1. Extracts (as specified in the margin) from your Letters to the Secret Committee, reporting the loss of the Steamer Ariadne, and the consequent suspension from the active duties of his profession of her late Commander, Lieutenant John Roberts of the Indian Navy, respecting whose conduct generally, as well as on this particular occasion, very unfavorable reports are current, have been communicated to us, and together with your Marine Letter No. 18 of the 1st March 1843, on the same subject, have received our serious consideration.

2nd. The manner in which the disastrous occurrence took place is described as follows by Admiral Sir William Parker. "The Ariadne having been laid on shore at Chusan for the purpose of repairing some extensive damages she had sustained by striking on a Sunken Rock off the entrance of the Yang tse-Keang, was imprudently got afloat by her Commander, Lieutenant Roberts, on the night of the 23rd June, when she slid off a mud bank and sunk in 10 fathoms water, whence it appears, that it has been impracticable to raise the wreck, and that the Vessel is irrecoverably lost."

3. The loss of so valuable a Vessel from causes which ordinary precautions might apparently have sufficed to prevent, is a source of much concern to us, and we regard with great dissatisfaction the heedlessness and rashness on the part of Lieutenant Roberts, to which it is attributed, as however it has not been found practicable to submit that Officer's conduct in this instance to the examination of a Court Martial, the proper tribunal for trying a case involving so many technical details, we will not undertake to decide on the extent of punishment which has been justly incurred, but we must guard against a recurrence of each mismanagement. Lieutenant Roberts may, on the receipt of this Despatch, be permitted to return to his duty, and to resume his rank in the Indian Navy, but we cannot allow him to have the Command of a Vessel, or to be employed otherwise than in a subordinate situation, until by a sufficient period of uniform good conduct, he has recovered the character for ability and zeal in his profession which he appears till lately to have borne.

Bombay Castle, 7th October 1843.

No. 118 of 1843.—Assistant Surgeon R. Dent is allowed leave of absence until the 4th Proximo, to proceed to Khandalla, for the benefit of his health.

Bombay Castle, 10th October 1843.

No. 119 of 1843.—Assistant Surgeon J. P. Morier is appointed Marine and Port Surgeon.
