NOTIFICATION.

Bombay Castle, 4th August 1831.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council having sanctioned the publication of a weekly paper to be styled the "BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE," notice is hereby given, that after this day all advertisements and other public papers of the government will be printed in the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE only: and all orders or other public notices, appearing in that paper, under the signature of the secretaries, or other public officers of the government, are hereby ordered and directed to be conformed to and obeyed accordingly.

Bombay Castle, 18th January 1832.

When official notifications from the government are inserted in the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, no communication on the same subject will be made in writing to any department concerned; but all public officers are required to take notice of such official notifications in the same manner as if they had been directly communicated to them by letter from the secretary's office, and as heads of offices alone will be furnished by government with the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, they will be expected to communicate to their subordinate officers all orders which may in any manner concern them.

The Bombay Government Gazettes furnished by government to public offices are to be lodged with the records, and are not to be removed from the office.

TRINITY HOUSE LONDON,

THE following Notice having been communicated to this Corporation by direction of the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the same is reprinted by Order of this Board for the general information of Mariners.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty,

Notice to Mariners. TORRES STRAIT.

Beacon on the Great Barrier Reef.

HER Majesty's Government having directed that a lofty and substantial Beacon of Stone should be built on one of the rocks of the Great Barrier Reef, for the guidance of Vessels bound through Torres Strait; and Captain Blackwood, of H. M. S. Fly, having selected Raine Island for that purpose, and having recently reported that the Beacon had been completed, the following notice of it is now published for the benefit of seamen.

The Beacon is of a circular form, 30 feet in diameter at the base, and 27 feet at the top; the building is 64 feet in height, and at low water it stands 75 feet above the level of the sea. It is painted with alternate red and white vertical stripes; and in clear weather it is visible from a ship's deck at the distance of 8 or 9 miles, but from the mast head, at 12 or 13 miles. Its lat. is $11^{\circ} 35' S.$ and long, $144^{\circ} 6' E.$ of Greenwich.

Raine Island is in the middle of an opening, of about 8 miles in breadth, through the outer Barrier Reef; no bottom is found with 125 fathoms in any part of this opening, nor close up to the island, which is a low and narrow coral rock about a quarter of a mile in length,

Though without water, it carries a coarse green vegetation, while Pandora Islet, which is 8 miles farther to the northward, in lat. $11^{\circ} 27' S.$ is a bare bank of sand.

The extreme points of the reefs which form the above opening bear from the Beacon N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. and S. S. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. by compass. The time of high water at full and changes is 10 o'clock; the rise at ordinary springs about 10 feet; and the strength of the tide sometimes amounts to 2 knots. The flood comes in from the eastward and there is a general current of about a knot, setting to the northward, (or to leeward) along the face of the reef. The variation of the compass is $4^{\circ} 30' E.$

A vessel coming from the southward, and intending to penetrate the Barrier by Raine Island, should be pretty certain of her latitude; and when running in to the westward towards the reefs she should so shape her course as to make the Beacon well on the starboard bow, in order to allow for the northerly current.

When the Beacon is clearly made out the island will soon be seen and may be passed on either hand, as both channels are $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles wide. The southern channel will be the most convenient, but the reef, which projects a good mile from the S. E. end of the island, must be avoided.

When the island is passed, a S. W. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. course by compass will lead through a wide opening in the second line of reefs, and the Hardy Islands will soon be seen, as their distance from Raine Island is but 40 miles. Some scattered coral heads will however have to be passed, for which a good look out should be kept; and it is recommended to all vessels, which have to run to the westward among these coral patches, to do so in the morning, before the sun passes much to the westward of the meridian, as the patches may then be distinctly seen from the mast head, or from the fore yard, at both of which places a careful look out man should be stationed.

HOME DEPARTMENT,

LEGISLATIVE,

THE 28TH JUNE, 1845.

The following Act, passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 28th June, is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XIII. OF 1845.

An Act for extending the power of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay in regard to the admission and enrolment of persons to act as Attorneys of the said Court.

Whereas the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras is by Her Majesty's Charter authorized and empowered to admit and enrol such persons having been admitted Attorneys or Solicitors in one of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, or being otherwise capable, to act in the character of Attorneys in the said Court:

And whereas the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay is by Her Majesty's Charter authorized and empowered to admit and enrol only such persons having been admitted Attorneys or Solicitors in one of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster to act in the character of Attorneys of the said Court, and is not by the said Charter authorized and empowered to admit and enrol persons otherwise capable, to act in the character aforesaid:

And whereas it is expedient that the Supreme Court of Judicature of Bombay should have as large a discretion in regard to the persons to be admitted as Attorneys as the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras:

It is therefore hereby enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay is authorized and empowered to admit and enrol persons having been admitted as Attorneys in any of Her Majesty's Courts at Westminster, and also persons being otherwise capable, to act as Attorneys of the said Supreme Court of Bombay.

United Service List.

In the Press and will be ready for delivery "between the 15th and 20th July next, the BOMBAY UNITED SERVICE LIST." This work has been compiled with much care, and will contain complete lists of the MILITARY, NAVAL, MEDICAL, and CIVIL SERVICES of the Bombay Establishment; the whole corrected up to the 3rd Proximo:—The military portion has been arranged upon an entirely different principal to any hitherto published in this Presidency, and will exhibit, REGIMENTALLY, the dates of each Officer's several Commissions; It will likewise possess the advantage of shewing their Christian names in full (with but few exceptions,) instead of the mere initial letters.
