GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

The attention of all Government Officers is directed to the following Rules, relating to the transmission of Service Messages by the Electric Telegraph:—

"VIII.—The Officer who signs the Message will be responsible for the necessity of sending it by the Telegraph, and if, on the periodical inspection of the Station Books, it shall be discovered that Messages of a trifling nature have been despatched, the Officer who authorised them will be made to pay for them.

"IX.—Officers, whose signatures will authorise Messages to be sent free, are bound in honour not to send private communications under cover of that authority.

"X.—All Service Messages must be conveyed in as few and as short words as possible."

2. The above Rules are among those passed by the Government of India in 1855; but, from instances lately brought to the notice of the Governor in Council, appear to have been frequently lost sight of in this Presidency.

3. The Superintendent of Electric Telegraphs in India has now been requested, by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, to enforce the strict observance of these Regulations, which, under present circumstances, is more than ever necessary. This he will do by instructing the Auditor of the Department to which any Officer who may frank Messages in contravention of them belongs, to recover from his salary the charge due upon any Message, or any number of words improperly or needlessly telegraphed under his order.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council,

W. HART,

Secretary to Government.
