NOTIFICATION.

Bombay Castle, 4th August 1831.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council having sanctioned the publication of a weekly paper, to be styled the "BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE," notice is hereby given, that after this day all advertisements and other public papers of the Government will be printed in the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE only: and all orders or other public notices appearing in that paper, under the signature of the Secretaries, or other public officers of the Government, are hereby ordered and directed to be conformed to and obeyed accordingly.

Bombay Castle, 18th January 1832.

When official notifications from the Government are inserted in the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, no communication on the same subject will be made in writing to any department concerned; but all public officers are required to take notice of such official notifications in the same manner as if they had been directly communicated to them by letter from the Secretary's office, and as heads of offices alone will be furnished by Government with the BOMBAY GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, they will be expected to communicate to their subordinate officers all orders which may in any manner concern them.

The Bombay Government Gazettes furnished by Government to public offices are to be lodged with the records, and are not to be removed from the office.

Published by order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council,
JOHN BAX, Secy. to Govt.

NOTICE.

The Government Printing and Lithographing Departments having been transferred to the BOMBAY EDUCATION SOCIETY, all Printing and Lithographing required by any Department should be sent to the Office at Bycullah.

Legislative Council.

23rd February 1856.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 22nd February 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. V. OF 1856.

An Act to give effect to Act XXIII. of 1854 from the time of its promulgation in the District of Malabar, and to extend the application thereof in future.

Whereas by a proclamation published in the Fort St. George Gazette, under date the 18th September

Preamble.

1855, the Governor in Council of Fort St. George declared the whole of the District of Malabar to be subject to the operation of all the provisions of Act XXIII. of 1854; and whereas long prior to such publication, namely, before the 1st of March 1855, the said Act had been published and promulgated throughout the District of Malabar, and was believed by the class of persons therein described as Moplas, and by all other classes of the inhabitants, to be immediately operative; and it is expedient that the said Act should have effect according to the general belief and understanding in that respect; and whereas it is expedient to extend the application of the said Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I. Act XXIII. of 1854 shall be deemed to have been in force for all purposes from the 1st March 1855 in the same manner as if the said proclamation had been published on that date.

Act XXIII. of 1854 to be deemed to have been in force from the 1st of March 1855.

II. From and after the passing of this Act, the provisions of Act XXIII. of 1854 shall apply to any Mopla who murders or attempts dors, &c. committed by Moplas, to murder any person; and to any Mopla who takes part in any outrage directed by Moplas against any person, wherein murder is committed or attempted to be committed or is likely to be committed, and to any person who shall procure or promote the commission of any such crime as aforesaid, or shall incite or encourage any other person or persons to commit the same, or who, after having committed or having been accessory to any such crime as aforesaid, shall forcibly resist any person or persons having lawful authority to apprehend him, or who shall join or assist, or incite or encourage other persons to join or assist in such resistance.

III. The said Act XXIII. of 1854 and this Act shall be read and construed together as one Act.

Construction of Act.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

29th February 1856.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General on the 28th February 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. VI. OF 1856.

An Act for granting exclusive Privileges to Inventors.

Whereas it is expedient for the encouragement of inventors of new manufactures, that certain exclusive privileges in their inventions should be granted to them in India; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. The inventor of any new manufacture may petition the Governor General of India in Council for leave to file a specification thereof.

Inventor may petition for leave to file specification.

Every such petition shall be in writing in the form or to the effect mentioned in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and shall be signed by the petitioner, or, in case the petitioner shall be absent from India, by an authorised agent, and shall state the name, addition, and place of residence of the petitioner, and the nature of the invention.

II. Upon such petition, the Governor General of India in Council may make an order authorising the petitioner to file a specification of the invention.

III. Before making such order, the Governor General of India in Council may refer the petition to any person or persons for inquiry and report, and such person or persons shall be entitled to a reasonable fee for such inquiry and report, to be paid by the petitioner; the amount of such fee, in case of dispute, to be settled by a Judge of one of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature in a summary manner.

IV. If, within the space of six calendar months from the date of such order, the petitioner cause a specification of his invention to be filed in manner herein-after mentioned, the petitioner, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall be entitled to the sole and exclusive privilege of making, selling, and using the said invention in India, and of authorising others so to do for the term of 14 years from the time of filing such specification; and for such further term, if any, not exceeding 14 years from the expiration of the first 14 years, as the Governor General of India in Council may think fit to direct, upon petition to be presented by such inventor, at any period not more than one year, and not less than six calendar months, before the expiration of the exclusive privilege hereby granted.

V. An order authorising the filing of a specification, or for extending the term of such exclusive privilege as aforesaid, may be made subject to any such conditions and restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council may think expedient.

VI. Every specification of an invention filed under this Act shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the petitioner, and shall particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the said invention and in what manner the same is to be performed.

VII. Every petition for leave to file a specification, and every specification filed under this Act, shall be left with the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department, and every petition and specification shall be accompanied by a declaration in writing signed by the petitioner in the form or to the effect hereunto annexed, marked A and B respectively; and if the inventor be absent from India, the petition and specification shall also be accompanied by a declaration signed by the agent who shall present or file the same, to the effect that he verily believes that the declaration purporting to be the declaration of the inventor was signed by him, and that the contents thereof are true, which declaration shall be in the form hereunto annexed, marked C. The date of the delivery of every such petition and specification shall be endorsed on the same respectively, and shall also be recorded at the office of the said Secretary.

VIII. If any person, who shall make a declaration under this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against and upon conviction punished accordingly.

IX. No specification, shall be filed until the petitioner shall have paid all fees payable under this Act, including the fees, if any, of the person or persons to whom the petition shall have been referred for inquiry and report.

X. At the time of delivering the specification for the purpose of being filed, the petitioner shall cause to be delivered to the said Secretary five copies thereof, of which One shall be sent to and filed by one of the Secretaries to the Government of Bengal, One shall be sent to and filed by one of the Secretaries to the Government of Fort St. George, One shall be sent to and filed by one of the Secretaries to the Government of Bombay, and One shall be sent to and filed by one of the Secretaries to the Government of the North-Western Provinces.

A copy of such specification shall be open at all reasonable times at the office of each of the said Secretaries to public inspection, upon payment of a fee of one rupee.

XI. A book shall be kept in the office of the said Secretary to the Government of India wherein shall be entered and recorded every such petition and specification, and every order made upon such petition or relating to the invention therein mentioned. Every specification shall be numbered according to the order in which it is entered in such book; and a reference shall be made in such book, in the margin of the entry of each specification, to every order relating to the invention.

XII. Such book, or a copy thereof, shall be open at all convenient times for the inspection of any person upon payment of a fee of one rupee; and the said Secretary shall cause a copy of any entry therein, certified under his hand, to be given to any person requiring the same, on payment of the expense of copying.

XIII. Every such certified copy shall be prima facie evidence of the document of which it purports to be a copy.

XIV. No person shall be entitled to any exclusive privilege under the provisions of this Act—

If the invention, at the time of presenting the petition for leave to file the specification, was not a new invention, If the petitioner is not the inventor thereof, or If the specification filed does not particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the invention and in what manner the same is to be performed.

XV. Every exclusive privilege under this Act shall cease if the Governor General of India in Council shall declare that the same, or the mode in which it is exercised, is mischievous to the State, or generally prejudicial to the public; or if a breach of any special condition shall be extended, shall be proved to the satisfaction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature, and if the Governor General of India shall thereupon declare that such exclusive privilege shall cease.

XVI. The importer into India of a new invention shall be deemed an inventor within the meaning of this Act. Provided that the exclusive privilege under this Act shall cease unless he or his executors, administrators, or assigns shall, within two years from the date of the petition, put his invention into practice in India, and shall either continue to use the same or grant licenses upon reasonable terms to such persons as shall be willing to put the same into practice.

His privilege to cease unless invention be put into practice in India within two years.

shall either continue to use the same or grant licenses upon reasonable terms to such persons as shall be willing to put the same into practice.

XVII. A foreigner, whether resident abroad or not, may petition for leave to file a specification under this Act.

Foreign inventor.

XVIII. An invention shall be deemed a new invention within the meaning of this Act if it shall not, before the time of applying for leave to file the specification, have been publicly used in India or been made publicly known there by means of a printed publication. The public use or knowledge of an invention prior to the application for leave to file a specification, shall not be deemed a public use or knowledge within the meaning of this Section if the knowledge shall have been obtained surreptitiously or in fraud of the actual inventor, or shall have been communicated to the public in fraud of the actual inventor, or in breach of confidence. Provided the inventor shall, within six calendar months after the commencement of such public use, apply for leave to file his specification, and shall not previously have acquiesced in such public use. Provided also, that the use of an invention in public by the actual inventor thereof, or by his servants or agents, or by any other person by his license in writing, shall not be deemed a public use thereof within the meaning of this Act.

Knowledge of invention fraudulently acquired.

Proviso.

Public use by actual inventor.

XIX. If an actual inventor who, prior to the time of applying for leave to file a specification of an invention under this Act, shall have obtained Her Majesty's Letters Patent for the exclusive use of such invention in any part of the United Kingdom, shall, within twelve calendar months from the passing of this Act, or within six calendar months from the date of such Letters Patent, petition the Governor General of India in Council for leave to file a specification of such invention, the invention shall be deemed a new invention within the meaning of this Act, if it was not publicly known or used in India at the date of the petition for such Letters Patent, notwithstanding it may have been publicly known or used in India before the time of his petitioning, under this Act, for leave to file the specification; and if the actual inventor shall obtain an exclusive privilege, any privilege obtained by an importer shall cease.

Actual inventor having obtained English Letters Patent to petition within 12 months from the passing of this Act, or within 6 months from the date of the letters patent.

Invention, if not publicly known or used in India at the time of applying for such Letters Patent, to be deemed new.

That the petitioner was not the inventor thereof, and, in addition thereto, either that the applicant was the inventor or that the inventor has dedicated or made known the invention to the public, or has acquiesced in the public use thereof, or That the specification filed does not particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the invention or in what manner the same is to be performed, or privilege previously obtained by an importer of such invention shall thereupon cease. Provided the petition for leave to file the specification shall state that such Letters Patent have been granted, and shall also state the date thereof, and the term during which the same are to continue in force.

What to be stated in such petition.

XX. No exclusive privilege obtained under this Act shall entitle the owner of such privilege to exclude any person from using the invention, who, prior to the 7th day of July 1855, used the same in India.

Saving of rights of persons who used invention before 7th of July 1855.

XXI. An action may be maintained by an inventor against any person who, during the continuance of any exclusive privilege granted by this Act, shall, without the license of the said inventor, make, use, sell, or put in practice the said invention, or who shall counterfeited or imitate the same. Provided that no such action shall be maintained in any of the Courts of the East India Company other than the principal Court of original jurisdiction in civil cases within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the cause of action shall accrue or the defendant shall reside as a fixed inhabitant.

XXII. No such action shall be defended upon the ground of any defect or insufficiency of the specification of the invention, nor shall any such action be defended upon the ground of a misdescription of the invention in the petition; nor upon the ground that the Plaintiff was not the inventor, unless the defendant shall show that he is the actual inventor or derives title from him. Any such action may be defended upon the ground that the invention was not new, if the person making the defence, or some person through whom he claims, shall, before the date of the petition for leave to file the specification, have publicly or actually used in India the invention, or that part of it of which the infringement shall be proved; but not otherwise.

Defect in specification or petition, or want of novelty in invention, &c., no defence to action for infringement.

The actual use of an invention in India before date of petition a defence to such action.

XXIII. It shall be lawful for any person to apply by motion to any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature for a rule to show cause why the Court should not declare that an exclusive privilege in respect of an invention has not been acquired under the provisions of this Act by reason of all or any of the objections following (to be specified in the rule), that is to say—

That the said invention was not, at the time of presenting the petition for leave to file the specification, a new invention, or

That the petitioner was not the inventor thereof, and, in addition thereto, either that the applicant was the inventor or that the inventor has dedicated or made known the invention to the public, or has acquiesced in the public use thereof, or

That the specification filed does not particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the invention or in what manner the same is to be performed, or Invention not described in specification.

That the petitioner has fraudulently included in the petition or specification, as part of his invention, something which was not new or Fraud in petition or specification.

whereof he was not the inventor, or That the petitioner has wilfully made a false statement in his petition, or False statement in petition.

That some part of the invention, or the manner in which that part is to be performed as described in the said specification, is not thereby sufficiently described and ascertained, and that such defect or insufficiency was fraudulent, and is injurious to the public.

Fraudulent misdescription of part of invention in specification.

XXIV. Any person may, in like manner, apply to any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature for a rule to show cause why the Like application as to part of an invention.

Court should not declare that an exclusive privilege has not been acquired under the provisions of this Act in any part of the invention to be specified in the rule by reason of all or any of the objections following (to be specified in the rule), that is to say—

That such part of the invention was not new at the date of the petition for leave to file the specification,

That the petitioner was not the inventor of that part of the invention, and, in addition thereto, either that the applicant was the inventor of that part, or that the inventor has dedicated or made known the same to the public, or has acquiesced in the public use thereof, or

That that part of the invention, and the manner in which it is to be performed, is not sufficiently described and ascertained in the specification, and that such defect or insufficiency is injurious to the public.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Advocate General of the East India Company at any of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, or any other person, by order of the Governor General in Council, to apply to any of the said Courts of Judicature for a rule calling upon the petitioner, his executors, administrators, or assigns, to show cause why the question of the breach of any special condition upon which the leave to file a specification has been granted, or any other question of fact on which the revocation of the exclusive privilege by the Governor General in Council under the power hereinbefore reserved may, in the judgment of the said Governor General in Council depend, should not be tried in the form of an issue directed by the said Court; and, if the rule be made absolute, the Court, unless the breach or other matter of fact be admitted, may thereupon direct such issue to be tried, and certify the result of such trial to the Governor General in Council. The costs of such trial, and also the costs of any proceedings in any of the said Courts of Judicature under the provisions of this Act, shall be in the discretion of the Court.

XXVI. Notice of any rule obtained or proceeding taken under either of the last three preceding Sections shall be served on all persons appearing to be proprietors or to have shares or interests in the exclusive privilege under the provisions of Section XXXIV. of this Act, and it shall not be necessary to serve such notice on any other persons.

Service of proceedings on all persons interested.

XXVII. Any of the said Courts of Judicature, if it think fit, may direct an issue for the trial, before the same Court or any other Court of Her Majesty or any principal Court of original jurisdiction in civil cases of the East India Company, of any question of fact arising upon an application under Sections XXIII. XXIV. or XXV. of this Act, and such issue shall be tried accordingly in a summary manner, and, if the issue be directed to another Court, the finding shall be certified by the Court before which the same was tried, to the Court directing the issue. If the issue be directed to any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature, the Court by which the issue is tried may, before the finding is certified, direct a new trial of such issue according to the usual course and practice of such Court. If the issue be directed to a Court of the East India Company, the finding shall not be subject to appeal to any other

Supreme Court may direct any issue for trial to other Courts.

New trial.

Court of the said Company, but the evidence taken upon the trial shall be recorded, and a copy thereof, certified by the Judge, shall be transmitted, together with any remarks he may think fit to make thereon, to the Court by which the issue was directed; and such Court may either act upon the decision of the Court which tried the issue, or direct a new trial if it shall appear necessary.

XXVIII. If it shall appear to any of the said

Judgment.

Courts of Judicature at the hearing of any application under the provisions of Sections XXIII. or XXIV. of this Act that, by reason of any of the objections there mentioned, the said exclusive privilege in the invention or in any part thereof has not been acquired, the Court shall give judgment accordingly, and shall make of his invention in the petition or specification, included something which at the date of the petition was not new or whereof he was not the inventor, or that the specification is in any particular defective or insufficient, but that the error, defect, or insufficiency was not fraudulently intended, the Court may adjudge the said exclusive privilege to have been acquired and to be valid save as to the part thereof affected by such error, defect, or insufficiency, or, if the Court shall think that the error, defect, or insufficiency can be amended without injury to the public, they may adjudge the exclusive privilege in the whole of the invention to be valid, and may, upon such terms as shall appear reasonable, order the specification to be amended in any of the said particulars; and thereupon the petitioner, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall, within the time limited by the said Court for the purpose, file a specification amended according to such order.

XXX. An exclusive privilege shall not be defeated upon the ground that there is any misdescription of the invention in the petition, unless such misdescription was fraudulent.

Misdescription in the petition, if not fraudulent, not to defeat the privilege.

XXXI. Whenever it shall be adjudged by any of the said Courts of Judicature that an exclusive privilege as to the whole or any part of an invention has not been acquired, the said Secretary to the Government of India shall, upon the production of the judgment or order, cause an entry thereof to be made in the said book, hereinbefore directed to be kept, and shall cause a reference to such entry to be made in the margin of the entry of the specification contained in such book.

XXXII. If, upon proceedings instituted within two years from the date of a petition to file a specification, the actual inventor shall prove to the satisfaction of any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature, or of the principal Court of the East India Company having jurisdiction in civil cases, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the defendant shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, that the petitioner was not the actual inventor, and that, at the time of the petition, he knew or had good reason to believe that the knowledge of the invention was obtained by himself or by some other person surreptitiously or in fraud of the actual inventor, or by means of a communication made in confidence by the actual inventor to him or to any person through whom he derived such knowledge, the Court may compel the petitioner to assign to the actual inventor any exclusive privilege obtained under this Act, and to account for and pay over the profits thereof.

In what case actual inventor entitled to assignment of an exclusive privilege fraudulently obtained.

XXXIII. In any action for the infringement of Particulars to be delivered. such exclusive privilege, the plaintiff shall deliver with his plaint particulars of the breaches complained of in the said action, and the defendant, in pleading thereto, shall deliver with his pleas particulars of the grounds (if any) upon which he means to contend that the plaintiff is not entitled to an exclusive privilege in the invention. In like manner, upon any application to any of the said Courts of Judicature under Sections XXIII. XXIV. or XXV. of this Act, the applicant shall deliver particulars of the objections on which he means to rely. At the trial of any such action or issue no evidence shall be allowed to be given in support of any alleged infringement or of any objection impeaching the validity of such exclusive privilege which shall not be contained in the particulars delivered as aforesaid. If it be alleged that the invention was publicly known or used prior to the date of the petition for leave to file such specification, the places where and the manner in which the invention was so publicly known or used shall be stated in such particulars. Provided, always, that it shall be lawful for any Court in which the action or proceeding is pending, or in which the issue is tried, to allow the plaintiff or defendant respectively to amend the particulars delivered as aforesaid upon such terms as shall seem fit.

XXXIV. A book shall be kept in the Office of the Secretary to the Government of India in the Home Department (such book to be open to inspection without fee) wherein every person filing a specification under this Act shall cause to be stated, under a number corresponding with the number of the specification, some place in India where service of any rule or proceedings for the purpose of cancelling or revoking his exclusive privilege may be made. All persons, partnerships, or Companies from time to time being proprietors of, or having shares or interests in, such exclusive privilege, shall cause to be entered in such book, under such number as aforesaid, their names, together with the name of some place for the service of such proceedings as aforesaid. All such rules and proceedings as aforesaid shall be deemed sufficiently served on any such person, partnership, or Company if a copy thereof be left at the place entered in such book, or (if any other place be substituted for the same by entry in the said book) at the place last substituted, by delivering the same to any person resident at, or in charge of, such place; or if there be no person resident at, or in charge of such place, or if such place be not within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, by causing such rule or proceeding to be sent by Post by a registered letter directed to such person, partnership, or Company at such place; and if any such person, partnership, or Company shall neglect to make or cause to be made such entry, then service of such rule or proceeding may be effected by affixing a copy thereof to some conspicuous part of the Court House, or in such other manner as the Court may direct.

XXXV. Nothing herein contained shall abridge or affect the prerogative of the Crown in relation to the grant of any Letters Patent for inventions or otherwise, or affect or interfere with any Letters Patent for an invention heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted by the Crown.

XXXVI. Every petition for leave to file a specification under the provisions of this Act, or for the extension of the term of an exclusive privilege, shall be written or printed on stamped paper of the value of one hundred rupees.

XXXVII. In the construction of this Act, the following words and expressions shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction :—

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

of the process; but any Magistrate illegally or improperly issuing the same shall be liable for any act in pursuance of the endorsement in the same manner, and to the same extent only, as if the process had been executed within his own jurisdiction.

III. The provisions of Act No. VII. of 1854, and Provisions of Act VII. 1854, and of this Act, applicable to process executed within limits of Supreme Court.

of this Act, do and shall extend and apply to any warrant or other process of any Magistrate having jurisdiction in the territories beyond the local limits of the Supreme Courts of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, which shall be executed within those limits.

Provido.

Provided that, if a Magistrate having jurisdiction within those limits shall object to endorse any warrant or other process on account of any apparent defect therein or for any other cause, he shall refer such warrant or other process to a Judge of the Supreme Court, who shall deal therewith according to the provisions of Act No. XXIII. of 1840.

IV. The word "Magistrate," as used in this Act,

A. H. LEITH,

In charge of Mortuary Returns.

Bombay, 19th March 1856.

Notice.

Whereas by Act I. of 1856 it is provided that whoever in any Shop, Bazar, Street, Thoroughfare, Highroad, or other place of public resort, wilfully exhibits to public view any obscene Book, Paper, Print, Drawing, Painting or Representation; or sings, recites, or utters any obscene Song, Ballad, or Words to the annoyance of others, shall be liable to a fine of 100 Rupees, or to imprisonment for three months; it is hereby notified for general information, that during the approaching Hoolie Festival, the above Law will be rigidly carried into effect by the Police, who will take into Custody all persons whom they may find committing a breach thereof, as well as all persons found throwing Red Dust or other filthy matter in any of the Public Streets or Thoroughfares; and all well disposed persons are hereby enjoined to aid and assist the Police in the maintenance of good order during the Festival aforesaid, by seizing and handing over to the nearest Police Officer any person found in the act of committing any of the offences aforesaid.

Given under my hand, at Bombay, this 7th day of March 1856,

W. CRAWFORD,
Senior Magistrate of Police.

Bombay Post Master General's Office, 25th February 1856.

NOTICE.

The following Rules, which, under the orders of the Government of India, have been issued for the guidance of the Officers of the Post Office, are published for general information :—

I. Letters arriving at the Presidency towns by Mail Steamers will be immediately sorted for delivery, without any reference to instructions which may have been received regarding change of address. Such changes will be left to be discovered by the Delivery Officers, and be corrected in the Forward and Unclaimed Departments of the Office.

II. A separate instruction will be required for every change of address, and no instruction will be attended to for more than three months after its receipt.

III. Under Section XXIII. of Act XVII. of 1854, Forward Postage will be charged, in addition to all other Postage due or paid thereon, upon every letter without exception which may be re-directed in any Post Office. For example, if a letter posted in Calcutta, and addressed to Hooghly, is, under instructions which may have been received from the addressee, re-directed in the Calcutta Post Office, and sent to Barrackpore, Forward Postage will be charged in addition to the Postage which would have been due had the letter been despatched to Hooghly according to its original address.

IV. The practice of giving instructions to the Officers of the Post Office to intercept and re-direct letters not only imposes much labour upon them, but, in large Offices, seriously retards the delivery and despatch of the Mails. A Register of instructions regarding changes of address will be kept in every Post Office, but it must be understood that it is impossible to guarantee that they shall be attended to, except in the case of letters received for delivery.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL,

11th March 1856.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the Assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 11th March 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. VII. OF 1856.

To enable the Bombay Government to provide for a due supply of Water for Public Use in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba.

Whereas it is necessary to prevent the waste of drinking water in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, and to empower the Government to prevent the consumption of such water otherwise than as drinking water, and to make an economical disposition of the drinking water in wells and tanks, in order to provide for a due supply of such water for the public during the present year ; It is enacted as follows :—

I. It shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council, in case he shall deem the same to be absolutely necessary for the public safety, at any time before the first of August next, to direct the Police to take possession of all or any of the tanks and wells, whether private property or not, throughout the said Town and Islands, containing drinking water, not being tanks or wells in or under an occupied house, and to deepen and improve the same, and to retain possession thereof until the said first of August, and during such period to prevent the consumption of the water thereof otherwise than as drinking water, and to superintend the distribution of the water thereof under the orders of Government, or of Officers appointed by Government ; and it shall be lawful for the Police, when so ordered, to enter upon the premises in which any such tank or well ordered to be taken possession of by them is situate, and to take possession of the same, and to prevent the consumption of the water thereof otherwise than as drinking water, and to distribute the water thereof in such manner, and in such quantities, and on such conditions as shall from time to time be ordered by Government.

II. It shall also be lawful for the said Governor in Council to direct by proclamation the removal of any Cattle from any part of the said Islands situate to the south of a line drawn from Love Grove on the west to Chinchpooglee on the east shore, and to authorise the Police to enforce the same by seizing and conveying to a public pound any Cattle found to the south of the said line; and the Cattle so seized and the owners thereof shall be dealt with according to the law for the time being in force for the seizure and sale of stray Cattle and the punishment of the owners.

III. Whoever impedes or obstructs the Police in the discharge of their duty under this Act, or prevents the public or any individual from coming on premises in which any private tank or well ordered to be taken possession of by the Police is situate, for the purpose of taking such water therefrom as shall be allowed by the Police, or prevents the public or any individual from taking and removing such water; and whoever wilfully does any act whereby the water of such well or tank shall be rendered unfit for drinking, or takes water in excess of the quantity allowed, or makes use of the water in any manner contrary to such orders of Government as shall be publicly notified—shall be liable, on conviction in a summary manner before a single Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees or imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days.

IV. Every owner or tenant of any private tank or well, taken for the use of the public under this Act, and every person who shall sustain loss or injury by reason of any interference with a private right under the provisions of this Act, shall be entitled to claim compensation from the Municipal Fund of Bombay. In case of any such claim, amount of such compensation shall be in the first place fixed and tendered by a Committee appointed by the Governor in Council; and in case of the right to compensation being denied, or of no such tender being made, or of the party or parties claiming compensation being dissatisfied with the amount tendered, such party or parties shall be at liberty to sue the Board of Conservancy in the name of their Clerk for compensation in the Supreme Court or the Court of Small Causes in Bombay as the case may be, and the costs of every such suit shall be in the discretion of the Court trying the same; and any sum of money recovered in any such suit shall be paid out of the Municipal Fund.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Crown.
