POST OFFICE NOTICES.

The following Rules approved of by Government respecting the Posting of Palkee Bearers are published for the information of the Public, and for the guidance of the several Post Masters under this Presidency :

I. Travellers may be furnished with Dawk Bearers on application at the different Post Offices, where they will obtain all the requisite information as to the estimated distances between known Stations, to which only Dawk Bearers can be laid by any Post Master.

II. A set of Dawk Bearers comprizes twelve, and one Mussalchee, for which is charged, payable in advance, at the rate of eight annas per Mile; but as in many instances, owing to the delay caused by Travellers remaining longer on the road than the stipulated time, this sum is found unequal to the expense, a further sum of four annas per Mile is required to be paid as a deposit to cover any eventual expense or demurrage caused by delay on the part of the Traveller. Should none occur, the full amount of the sum deposited is refunded, upon the Traveller furnishing a certificate from the Deputy Post Master at the place where his journey finished, that he arrived there without having incurred demurrage. It is the duty of the Deputy Post Masters to furnish Travellers with certificates specifying according to circumstances whether or otherwise they have come on demurrage;—such certificate however, it must be understood, is only applicable to the Deputy Post Master's Division who grants it, for it sometimes happens that a Traveller having incurred demurrage on part of the road, by travelling subsequently during those hours originally appointed for halting, reaches the last Division within the given time.

N. B. It is to be particularly observed, that in some Districts, Bearers are with difficulty procured, and where they have to be sent a considerable distance to take up the Traveller, and in like manner to return home, for time so occupied they are paid additionally, and in all such cases Post Masters are authorized to charge the actual cost for the Traveller's Bearers.

When Demurrage is incurred adjustment of expenses deferred.

Form to be provided to Travellers to insure their complaints being brought to notice.

III. When it is reported that a Traveller comes on demurrage on any part of the road, the adjustment of the amount deposited to cover such expenses will be postponed until the receipt of the Bills for the Dak from all the Post Masters through whose Divisions the Traveller may have passed.

IV. Travellers, whether proceeding from the Presidency or from Outstations, are provided with a Form, in which they are requested particularly to requested particularly to note any cause of dissatisfaction they may meet with on their journey, and the places where they meet with obstructions or irregularities on the part of the Bearers or subordinate Post Office Servants; this Form being affixed to the certificate which the Traveller has to present for signature, secures its being noticed.

When Bearers are withdrawn from their Posts by directions of the Traveller, adjustment of account how deferred. V. When a Dak has been ordered and circumstances may render it expedient for the Traveller to postpone his journey, or to withdraw the Bearers entirely, he will of course be held liable for any expense which may have been incurred on his account. The amount paid for the Dak, and the amount deposited to cover demurrage, will therefore remain unadjusted until reports are received from the General Post Master on the line of route upon which the Dak was ordered.

Weight of Travellers' Bagghies limited

Weight of Travellers' Bagghies limited. VI. Travellers' Baggage must not exceed for each Bagghy Burdar, twenty-four seers, and this must be divided into two Parcels, or Pattarals, of such dimensions as to render them conveniently portable when slung as Bagghies.

Terms upon which a Traveller avails himself of the Post Office to lay Daks.

Terms upon which a Traveller avails himself of the Post Office to lay Daks. VII. It is to be generally understood, that although Government permits their servants to lay Dak Bearers for the convenience of the Public, the State derives no benefit from this source, and that neither Government nor any of their Officers are in any degree responsible to the Traveller for the misfortunes and disappointments which are inseparable from Dak travelling; thus every Traveller travels at his own risk, and is liable to the losses and increased expenses incidental to delays and accidents, and that Government can in no instance be considered liable to make good any losses whatever.

Post Master General will investigate complaints.

Post Master General will investigate complaints. VIII. When irregularities and consequent inconvenience occur to Travellers, the Post Master General on being applied to, will immediately investigate the complaint brought to his notice; but this can only be done in the same manner, and to the same end, as a superior in any other Department would interfere to enquire into complaints preferred against his subordinates.

In case of surcharge or unjust charges, Post Master General will investigate with a view to a refund. IX. In case of surcharge alone, or charges which to the Parties complaining might appear unjust because arising out of some positive neglect or error on the part of the Deputy Post Master who lays the Dak, it would be the duty of the Post Master General to investigate the matter with a view to afford pecuniary redress.

Penalty for refusing payments on account of Dak Bearers.

Penalty for refusing payments on account of Dak Bearers. X. In every case of refusal to make good demands on account of laying Dak Bearers, Post Masters are authorized to detain all Letters, Parcels, &c. for the person from whom demands are due in the same manner as they are authorized to act under Clause IX of the General Rules.

Post Master General's decision final.

Post Master General's decision final. XI. Any decision pronounced by the Post Master General in all references relative to Dak Bearers, to be considered final.

The following Section (XXXIII.) of the Post Office Rules of 30th August 1837, is published for general information:—

"SECTION XXXIII. In order to obviate as far as practicable all delay or mistakes in the delivery of letters, it is particularly recommended that all persons arriving at or quitting any station, or changing their residence at the same, will send to the Post Office a notification thereof in writing."

Many parties resorting to the Presidency do not attend to the above rule, and delay in the delivery of their letters, owing to the difficulty of finding out their residence, is the unavoidable consequence.

Bombay, Genl. Post Office, 3rd March 1849.

The Post Master General requests the particular attention of the public to the following Extract from Section XXIII. of the Post Office Rules of 30th August 1837:—

"SECTION XXIII. The delivering Peons are prohibited from delivering Letters, Papers, or Parcels, out of the usual course, and without immediate payment of the exact amount of postage."

This rule is constantly violated by many residents in Bombay; who, under various pretexts, haggle and dispute about payment of postages (which is sometimes absolutely refused) with the delivery peons, thus causing detention and delay in the delivery of letters to other parties, and entailing undeserved blame upon the Postal Department. Parties imagining that they have been overcharged, are requested to complain immediately to the Post Master General, or his Deputy, forwarding the cover of the letter or paper, and mentioning the number of the delivery peon, as prescribed in Section XXIV.

Letters for parties refusing payment of postage will be detained in the Post Office, without further notice.

Bombay, Genl. Post Office, 5th March 1849.

The subjoined Extract from Section XVI. of the Post Office Rules of 30th August 1837, is republished for general information.

"SECTION XVI. Persons not belonging to the (Postal) Department, cannot be admitted into the interior, &c."

Parties coming to the General Post Office, seeking for Letters, or for redress of grievances, are requested to apply to the Post Master General, or his Deputy (who will give immediate attention to their wishes or complaints), instead of forcing their way into the interior of the Office, to apply to irresponsible subordinates.

IX. All such receipts and payments shall be entered in a book, and all entries in the said book shall be authenticated by the Registrar under his signature, or the signature of his Assistant, and the said book shall be at all times open to the inspection of the parties concerned.

For the purpose of preventing any Seaman from being shipped on board of any Vessel in any Port of Registry, contrary to the provisions of this Act, the Registrar of the port by himself, or his Agents, in a peaceable manner, may enter at any time on board of any such Vessel, and muster and examine the several Seamen employed therein, and any person, who shall obstruct the said Registrar or his Agents in such duty, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees.

XIII. receipt shall be certified by the Chief or second Officer, or other credible witness, and otherwise shall be of no force or validity.

XV. If any Seaman, to whom any wages are due, die before the wages due have been paid, then the wages shall be paid to the Registrar, and the Registrar shall pay the same to his legal representative, and failing such legal representative, after the expiration of twelve months, from the first of January next ensuing from the day on which he shall have received the said balance into the Treasury of the East India Company, after having given due notice of such unclaimed balance being in his possession, by advertisement in the Gazette, at least twice during such period.

XVI. XVIII. If any Vessel on board of which there shall be any Seaman, who has received an advance under this Act, shall, before going on the voyage for which such advance shall have been paid, be destroyed or injured by fire or other cause so as to prevent her going on her then intended voyage, or if such voyage shall be discomfited at the beginning, the Master, Owner, or Agent of such Vessel may demand from such Seaman, unless he shall pay back the amount so advanced to him, service to the full amount of the advance received by him, on board of any other Vessel; and such Seaman, until he has worked out such advance, shall not be entitled, without the consent of such Master, Owner, or Agent, to take service in any Vessel other than that on which he is so required to serve; and any such Seaman, who on being taken to the Registrar either for the purpose of such transfer or for employment in another Vessel, shall refuse to go on board such Vessel, or to sign such agreements as are required by this Act, on summary conviction of such refusal before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, shall be liable to be imprisoned with hard labor for any term not exceeding six months.

cause such Seaman to be taken into custody, and brought before him; and, upon due proof of such neglect, refusal, or absence, without reasonable excuse, or of desertion, may commit such Seaman to prison, or to the House of Correction, there to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding thirty days; or, if he shall think fit, at the request of the Master, Mate, or Owner, or his Agent, instead of committing such Seaman, may cause him to be taken on board of the said vessel, or to be delivered to the Master, Mate, or Owner, or his Agent, for the purpose of being so taken and going on the voyage; and also may award to the Master, or Owner, or his Agent, such costs incurred in the apprehension of the Seaman, as to such Justice or Magistrate shall seem reasonable, not exceeding in any case the sum of twenty rupees, which shall be chargeable against, and may be deducted from the wages of such Seaman.

XXX. Every Seaman engaged under this Act, who shall desert his vessel, shall forfeit to the Owner all his clothes and effects which he may leave on board, and also all wages and emoluments to which he might otherwise be entitled; provided always, that every desertion be entered in the Log Book at the time, and certified by the signatures of the Master and the Mate, or the Master and one credible witness.

XXXI. If any Seaman shall desert, during the term for which he has engaged to serve, in any place beyond the port where he was engaged, and the Master of the vessel shall engage a substitute at a higher rate of wages than that stipulated in the agreement to be paid to the Seaman so deserting, the Owner, Agent or Master of the vessel shall be entitled to recover from the Deserter, by summary proceeding in the same manner as penalties are by this Act made recoverable, (so far as the same can be applied), any excess of wages or portion thereof, which such Owner, Agent, or Master shall pay to such substitute, beyond the amount which would have been payable to the Deserter, if he had duly performed his service: Provided always, that no Seaman shall be imprisoned longer than three calendar months for non-payment of any such excess of wages.

XXXII. The absence of a Seaman from his vessel for any time within twenty-four hours immediately before the sailing of a vessel from any port, whether before or during any voyage, wilfully or knowingly, without leave, or the wilful absence of a Seaman from his vessel, at or for any time, without leave, and in such manner as to shew an intention to abandon his vessel and not return thereto, shall be deemed desertion.

XXXIII. Every person, who shall wilfully harbour or conceal any Seaman or Apprentice who shall have deserted, knowing or having reason to believe such Seaman or Apprentice to be a deserter, shall for every such Seaman or Apprentice so harboured or concealed, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees.

XXXIV. No debt exceeding in amount three rupees, incurred by any Seaman after he shall have engaged to serve under this Act, shall be recoverable until the service agreed for shall be ended; nor shall any Keeper of a Public House, or of a Lodging House for Seaman be entitled to detain any chest, tools, or other property of any Seaman for any debt alleged to have been contracted by him, and in case of such detention of the chest, tools, or other property of a Seaman, any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at or near the place, upon complaint upon oath, to be made by such Seaman, or by any person on his behalf, may enquire into the matter upon oath, in a summary way; and by warrant under his hand and seal may cause such property to be seized and delivered over to such Seaman; and the person so detaining the same shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred rupees.

XXXV. Any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate within the Territories subject to the East India Company, upon complaint made by any three or more of the Crew of any such vessel shall survey and examine, or cause to be surveyed and examined, the provisions, water, and medicines, put or supplied on board of the vessel for the use and consumption of the Crew; and, if on such survey and examination, it shall be found that such provisions, water, or medicines are of a bad quality or unfit for use, or not such as should be provided, or there shall not appear to be a sufficient quantity thereof, the Surveying Officer shall signify the same in writing to the Master of the vessel; and, if such Master shall not thereupon provide other fit provisions, water, or medicines, instead of any which may be signified by the said Surveying Officer to be of a bad quality or unfit, or if any such Master shall not thereupon procure the needful quantity of provisions, water, and medicines, or shall use any provisions, water, and medicines, which shall have been signified by the Surveying Officer to be of a bad quality, or unfit, he shall in each of such cases be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.

XXXVI. A place of shelter shall be provided below a well caulked and substantial deck for the men engaged under this Act, to the extent of six superficial feet for every two men; and if the place allotted be under the Top-gallant Forecastle, such Forecastle deck be not less than four feet six inches above the one below it.

XXXVII. All penalties, which may be imposed by this Act may be recovered with costs on summary conviction before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace as if they were imposed by a Magistrate under Act II. of 1839.

XXXVIII. All claims for wages or forfeitures due and incurred under the agreements entered into under this Act, may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and the amount, with costs awarded by such Justice or Magistrate, shall be recovered from the party against whom the award is made, in the same manner as fines levied under the provisions of Act II. of 1839.

XXXIX. NOTIFICATION.

FINANCE.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to re-publish the following Notification issued by the Government of India under date the 31st ultimo:—

No. 7.

FORT WILLIAM,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

THE 31ST MARCH, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.

Notice is hereby given, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, supplies on account of the Home Treasury will continue to be raised during the ensuing Official Year 1849 | 50, on the security of Goods to be hypothecated to the East India Company; and that, so far as is at present known, the sum required to be provided in India by the purchase of Bills will be £ 900,000, liable, however, to such modification or extension as may hereafter be demanded by the exigencies of the Public service.

Advances of cash will, accordingly, be made for this purpose by the Governments of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, to the extent of  $\frac{1}{4}$ ths of the value of the Goods hypothecated, and the Bills in re-payment of these advances are to be drawn at six months' sight, at the rate of 1s. 10d. per Company's Rupee, until further notice.

It is also further notified, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain advances from the respective Governments, on the security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the insurance in England, and requiring a declaration binding the parties to repay the premium upon insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of lading and other shipping documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood that the Insurance to be effected will only be to the amount of the advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

In all other respects, the existing terms and conditions of the advances to be made by the respective Governments will remain in force, and be the same as published in the Calcutta Gazette, under date the 1st April 1842.
