The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 2nd June 1849 :—

ACT No. — OF 1849.

For punishing Breaches of Trust.

For the punishment of Breaches of Trust, It is enacted as follows :—

I. Every person employed in the Public Service of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, and entrusted by reason of such employment, with the receipt, custody or control of any chattel, money, or valuable security, who shall embezzle the same or any part thereof, or in any manner fraudulently apply, use, or dispose of the same or any part thereof for any purpose other than a purpose to which the same is applicable under the trust reposed in him, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same, and shall be liable to be transported out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, for any term not exceeding fourteen years, or to be imprisoned with or without labour, for any term not exceeding three years.

II. All Official Trustees, Assignees and Receivers of money, by virtue of their several offices or appointments, all Justices of the Peace, Coroners, and other persons, receiving by virtue of their offices or appointments any fines, forfeitures, penalties, or other moneys, on behalf of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, all Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Officers, and other persons employed to levy money in execution of the judgment or order of any Court, or in receiving any taxes or other moneys directed to be levied by any regulation of the Governor or Governor in Council of any Presidency or Place, or by any Act of the Governor General of India in Council, and also all subordinate Officers and Servants employed in the office or service of any of the persons herein before enumerated, and entrusted with money in the course of such employment, are declared to be persons employed in the public service within the meaning of this Act; but this special enumeration, of some of the persons included in the general description of persons in the Public Service of Her Majesty or the East India Company, shall not be taken to abridge the meaning of that general description.

III. The Clauses respectively numbered CII, CIII, and CIV. in an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in the East Indies," are repealed, except as to all things done or forborne to be done before the passing of this Act.

IV. Every Member and Officer of a Trading Corporation or Company, and also every Banker, Merchant, Factor, Broker, Attorney or other Agent, whether he be commonly so employed, or be employed as an Agent in that instance only, and whether he act as such Agent gratuitously or otherwise, to whom any chattel, money or valuable security is entrusted for safe custody, or for any special purpose, and whether with or without any authority to sell, negotiate, pledge, or employ the same, but with an authority limited to some defined purpose as to the application of such money, chattel, or valuable security or of any part thereof, or of the proceeds or of any part of the proceeds thereof, who shall fraudulently apply, use or dispose of the same or any part of the proceeds thereof, for any purpose other than a purpose for which the same was entrusted to him, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same, and shall be liable to be transported out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, for any term not exceeding fourteen years, or to be imprisoned with or without labour for any term not exceeding three years.

V. Every Sub-Agent, Clerk, or Servant of any such Trading Corporation or Company, or of any Banker, Merchant, Factor, Broker, or other Agent as aforesaid, who, knowing the purpose for which such chattel, money or valuable security was entrusted to the Corporation, Company, Person or Persons by whom he is employed, shall fraudulently apply, use, or dispose of the same for any purpose other than a purpose for which the same was entrusted to his employer or employers, shall be deemed to have committed the offence herein before mentioned, though he were not himself immediately employed or entrusted with the disposition thereof by the person entitled thereto.

VI. Every person possessed, or having the receipt, custody or control, of any chattel, money, or valuable security in trust for any other person or persons, who shall embezzle the same or any part thereof, or in any manner fraudulently apply, use or dispose of the same, for his own use or benefit, in breach of the trust reposed in him, shall be deemed to have feloniously stolen the same, and shall be liable to be transported out of the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, for any term not exceeding fourteen years, or to be imprisoned with or without labour for any term not exceeding three years.

VII. Every instrument entitling or showing the title of any person to any share or interest in any public stock or fund of any country or state, or in any stock of any Corporation or Company, or for the transfer of any such share or interest, or for the receipt of any dividend or interest on any such share, or entitling or showing the title to any deposit in any Bank, and every Warrant, order, or instrument for the payment of any money on any event certain or contingent, or for the delivery or receipt of any goods or merchandize, on any such event, is a valuable security within the meaning of this Act.

VIII. Any offender under this Act may be proceeded against on the same charge for any number of distinct acts of embezzlement or fraudulent application, use, or disposition as aforesaid, committed by him within six calendar months, from the first to the last of such acts: and proof of a gross deficiency in the accounts of any such Trustee or Public Servant shall be evidence of the offence charged, until such deficiency is otherwise explained.

IX. If the offence relates to money or to any Bank-note, Bank Post Bill, Banker's Cheque, Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Government Paper, or other like security for the payment of money, it shall be enough in the indictment or charge to allege the embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition of money, without specifying any particular coin or valuable security; and such allegation shall, so far as regards the kind of property, be sustained, if the offender is proved to have embezzled or fraudulently applied, used or disposed of any amount of money or any valuable security, though the particular kind of coin or valuable security of which such amount was composed shall not be proved.

X. It shall not be necessary, in any proceeding against any offender under this Act, to declare the person to whom the property embezzled or fraudulently applied or disposed of belongs, otherwise than hereinafter provided, or to give any other description of it than by stating its general character according to the provisions of this Act; and if the offence be that of embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition, by a person in the public service of the Crown, or of the East India Company, of property entrusted to him by reason of such employment, or part thereof, it shall be enough to state that the defendant was in such service, and that he received the property by reason of such employment, and embezzled the same, or part thereof, or fraudulently applied, used, or disposed of the same, as the case may be; and if the case be one of fraudulent application, use, or disposition by any person not being such public servant, but entrusted as aforesaid, it shall be enough to state that such person was entrusted with the property, (describing its general character, as aforesaid,) and it shall be enough to state shortly the purpose of the trust, and that he fraudulently applied, used, or disposed of the same, contrary to his duty in that behalf.

XI. The Court before which any offender is tried under this Act shall have power upon the trial to make any amendments that may be necessary, by reason of any variance between the statements of the charge and the evidence, either in the description of the property, or of any person, or of any office, appointment, or employment, or of the purpose of the trust, or otherwise, when in the opinion of the Court the person charged cannot have been misled as to his defence by such imperfect or erroneous statement.

XII. Every offender under this Act may be tried and punished by any Court to which he is amenable, either in the place where he is taken into custody, or where he committed the offence.

XIII. The punishment of any offender under this Act shall not be deemed to take away or lessen his liability to make good any loss sustained by Her Majesty, or the East India Company, or any other person or persons by his misbehaviour or breach of trust.

XIV. Every such public servant, and every such trustee, charged with a felonious breach of trust under this Act, who shall be proved to have knowingly made up or furnished false statements or accounts of the sums of money received or paid by him, or entrusted to his care, or of the goods or balance of money in his custody or control, shall be liable to fine in the discretion of the Court, although no actual embezzlement or fraudulent application, use or disposition of trust moneys, chattels, or valuable securities is proved against him, and in addition to such fine may be imprisoned, with or without labour, as the Court shall adjudge, for any term not exceeding two years; but no person convicted of felonious breach of trust, as aforesaid, shall be punished also for making up false accounts in connection with the same breach of trust.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

M., on Tuesday the 17th proximo, from such parties as are desirous of entering into a Contract for the supply of Stores to the Grand Arsenal, and for such other purposes by Contract as may be required from time to time, for the term of two years, commencing from the date of the acceptance of the tender.

2nd. Persons desirous of tendering for the Contract may, on application at this Office from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily, (Sundays excepted,) obtain a List or Statement of the description of Articles, and the rates of the same.

3rd. The Tenders must specify both in words and figures the rate per cent. above or below the prices in the list above adverted to, at which the Tenderers will undertake to furnish the whole of the articles enumerated in the Statement, of unexceptionable quality, and must correspond with the samples which may be seen in this Office, in such number or quantity as may from time to time be demanded, during the existence of the Contract, and that the same will be liable to examination and rejection by a Committee of Officers appointed on the part of Government.

4th. No Tenders for the Contract in question will be received unless accompanied by a cash deposit of Rupees (4,767) four thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, which will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal to execute the necessary Deed of Contract. Should any tender be accepted, the Tenderer must be prepared to give unexceptionable bonded security to the extent of Rupees (19,071) nineteen thousand and seventy-one, to be held by Government for the due fulfilment of his Contract.

5th. The person or persons whose Tender may be accepted, will be required to sign and seal a Contract, stipulating to the above effect, and that he or they will comply immediately with all emergent demands of less urgency within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him or them, in failure whereof, or if the supply be condemned by a Committee of Officers as aforesaid, the articles or such others as may be required in lieu of them shall be purchased by the Department without reservation, at his or their risk and cost, and in all such cases an advance of Rupees (30) thirty per cent., upon the amount of expenses incurred, or a fine of Rupees (50) fifty, at the option of the Executive Officer, may be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of Contract as often as the same may occur, also the Contract may in all such cases be put an end to on the part of the East India Company.

6th. The contractor must further be prepared, if required, to bring all Stores for inspection to the Commissariat Office previous to their being taken to the Indenting parties, and he himself must be ready to attend in person at the examination of all Stores tendered, whenever called upon to do so.

7th. It is to be distinctly understood, that Bills for the quantities of articles included in the above list supplied, shall be preferred within or before the expiration of one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which the Contractor shall be liable to forfeit the full value or amount of the supplies for which Bills have been so preferred, unless it shall clearly appear that the delay was unavoidable.

8th. The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on the Contractor's Bills, will be recovered from the first Bills presented for payment by the Contractor; but in the event of such retrenchments or any portion thereof being subsequently remitted, the amount so recovered, or such portion thereof as shall be so remitted, will then be refunded to them.

9th. The Tenders will be opened at the time specified, in the presence of the parties concerned, or of such as may be in attendance, and no reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer, nor will any be recorded that are not sent in at the appointed time.

10th. The annual outlay on the above Contract is estimated at Rupees 95,358, or thereabouts. All further particulars will be communicated on the receipt and opening of the Tenders, or on application at this Office.

Verbal offers for the Contract will be received at this office on Monday the 16th proximo until 2 o'clock P. M., when persons will be required to bid a per-centage above or below the prices exhibited in the above-mentioned list, on the understanding that the articles to be supplied under the Contract, are to be of unexceptionable quality, according to musters, which may be seen in this office, and delivered to the Indenting Departments in good condition, free of all further expenses, in such number or quantity as may from time to time be demanded; and that the same will be liable to examination and rejection by a Committee of Officers appointed on the part of Government.

The person or persons whose offer may be accepted, will be required to sign and seal a Contract, stipulating to the above effect, and that he or they will comply immediately with all emergent demands for the articles included in the above-mentioned list, and will meet with other demands of less urgency within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him or them, in failure whereof, or if the supply be condemned by a Committee of Officers, as aforesaid, the Drugs, Country Medicines, &c., or such other articles as may be required in lieu of them, shall be purchased by this Department without reservation, at his or their risk and cost, and in all such cases an advance of Rupees (30) thirty per cent. upon the amount of expenses incurred; or a fine of Rupees (50) fifty, at the option of the Executive Officer, may be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of Contract, as often as the same may occur; also the Contract may in all such cases be put an end to on the part of the East India Company.

No person will be allowed to bid for the Contract in question, unless he previously deposits in this office the sum of Rupees (700) seven hundred, in cash, which will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal to execute the necessary Deed of Contract, should his offer be accepted, in which latter case he must be prepared to give unexceptionable bonded security to the extent of Rupees (2,800) two thousand eight hundred, to be held by Government for the due fulfilment of his Contract.

It is to be distinctly understood, that bills for the quantities of articles included in the above-mentioned list supplied, shall be preferred within or before the expiration of one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which, the Contractor shall be liable to forfeit the full value or amount of the supplies for which bills have not been so preferred, unless it shall clearly appear that the delay was unavoidable.

The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on the Contractor's bills will be recovered from the first bills preferred for payment by the Contractor; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount, or so much of the amount as shall be so remitted, will then be refunded to them.
