Legislative Council of India.

24th December 1859.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 14th December 1859 (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 24th idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT NO. XXV. OF 1859.

An Act to prevent the Over-crowding of Vessels carrying Native Passengers in the Bay of Bengal.

Whereas it is necessary to prevent the over-crowding of Vessels carrying Native Passengers in the Bay of Bengal; It is enacted as follows:—

I. No Vessels shall carry Native Passengers from any Port or place under the Presidency of Fort St. George, or from Chittagong, or from any Port in the Province of Orissa, to any Port or place on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal or in the Straits of Malacca or in Ceylon; or from any Port or place on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal, or in the Straits of Malacca, to any Port or place under the Presidency of Fort St. George, or to Chittagong, or to any Port in the Province of Orissa, in a proportion greater than one passenger to every four tons of the burden of such Vessel, without a licence.

Number of Native Passengers to be carried in unlicensed Vessels.

II. No Vessel shall be licensed to carry Passengers on any such voyage as aforesaid, in a proportion greater than one passenger to every ton of burden, nor unless the Vessel has space on a deck or platform under hatches reserved for the accommodation of the Passengers in the proportion of six superficial feet for every Passenger, with not less than five feet clear between the upper deck and the lower deck or platform; except a Vessel proceeding in ballast from any part of the Coast of the Gulf of Manaar or Palk's Strait to any Port or place in Ceylon, which may be licensed to carry a number of Passengers not exceeding the proportion of two and a half to every ton of her burden, provided that the whole of the space usually allotted for cargo and not occupied by ballast, be kept for the accommodation of the Passengers, and for storing the provisions and water for their use, and that the space left clear for the accommodation of the Passengers on the deck or decks

First exception.

Second exception.

III. The Master or Tindal of any Vessel which shall carry Native Passengers on any such voyage as aforesaid, without a licence, in a proportion exceeding that laid down in Section I., shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for each Passenger in excess of such proportion.

IV. The Master or Tindal of any licensed Vessel which shall carry on any such voyage a greater number of Passengers than is specified in the licence, or in which the accommodation therein required shall not be afforded, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for each Passenger in excess of such number, or for each Passenger who is not provided with accommodation agreeably to the licence.

V. Passengers in a greater number than one Passenger to every four tons of the burden of any Vessel, shall not be shipped from the territories under the Government of Fort St. George, or from the Province of Orissa, for Ceylon, or the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal, or the Straits of Malacca; or from the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal, or the Straits of Malacca, for the said territories or Province or for Chittagong, except from such Ports as shall be from time to time appointed by the local Government by an order published in the Government Gazette, and in the Straits Settlement in such manner as the Governor shall notify; and the Master or Tindal of any Vessel who shall take on board Passengers for such voyage from any other Port or place in a greater proportion to the burden of the Vessel than is above-mentioned, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for each Passenger embarked.

VI. It shall be at the discretion of the Collectors of Sea Customs for the Ports appointed for shipping Native Passengers, or such other persons as the local Government may from time to time appoint for the purpose, to grant licences to Vessels under this Act. Provided that such licences shall not be granted, except for Vessels within the exceptions in Section II., till the Vessels have been surveyed according to such directions as shall be given from time to time by the local Government. The licence shall describe the Vessel, her tonnage, and rig; the number of her boats, anchors, and cables; and what instruments for the purpose of navigation she is supplied with; also the name of the owner and of the Master or Tindal, and the number and composition of the crew; and shall specify the number of Passengers she may carry, and the space to be assigned for their accommodation.

VII. The Master or Tindal of any Vessel licensed to carry Passengers from any Port in the territories under the Government of Fort St. George, or from Chittagong, or from any Port in the Province of Orissa, to any Port or place on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal or the Straits of Malacca; or from any Port on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal or the Straits of Malacca, to any Port or place in the territories under the Government of Fort St. George, or to Chittagong, or to any Port in the Province of Orissa, which shall proceed on such voyage, not being furnished with provisions and water according to such scale as shall be laid down from time to time by an order of the local Government published in the Government Gazette, and in the Straits Settlement in such manner as the Governor shall notify, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for each Passenger in excess of the number fully supplied with provisions and water according to such scale.

VIII. The Master or Tindal of any Vessel licensed to carry Passengers as aforesaid, who shall wilfully and without satisfactory excuse omit to supply to every Passenger the prescribed allowance of food and water, shall be liable for such omission to a fine which may extend to twenty Rupees for every Passenger who has suffered privation thereby.

IX. The Master or Tindal of any Vessel licensed to carry Passengers from any Port under the Government of Fort St. George to Ceylon, or between Chittagong and any Port or place on the coast of Arracan, who shall proceed on any such voyage without having laid in a supply of water and provisions for the Passengers according to a scale to be fixed by the Collector of Sea Customs for such Port, or such other person as the local Government may from time to time appoint for the purpose, which shall be hung up at the Custom House of the Port, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

X. The Master or Tindal of any Vessel licensed to carry Passengers as hereinbefore provided, shall sign and deliver, in duplicate, to the principal Officer of Customs at the place of embarkation, or such other person as the local Government may, from time to time, appoint for the purpose, a list, according to the form annexed to this Act, of all Passengers to be conveyed in such Vessel; and such Officer, after satisfying himself of the correctness of the same, and that the number of Passengers authorised is not exceeded, shall countersign and return one such list to the Master or Tindal, to be produced to the proper Officer at the Port to which the Vessel is bound; and should any additional Passengers engage to proceed by such Vessel after such list has been so countersigned, the Master or Tindal may insert their names in the original list, obtaining the signature of the controlling Officer as before. The Officer in charge of the Customs may withhold the Port Clearance till this rule is complied with.

XI. If any Vessel, bringing Native Passengers into any Port or place whatsoever on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal or in the Straits of Malacca, from any Foreign European Settlement situate on the line of coast within the limits of the Presidency of Fort St. George, shall have on board a greater number of Passengers than in the proportion prescribed in Section I. of this Act, the Master or Tindal of such Vessel shall be liable to a penalty of twenty Rupees for each Passenger in excess of such proportion, unless the vessel shall have been licensed under Section VI. of this Act, and shall have complied with the stipulations as regards space, water, and provisions laid down in Section II.

XII. The principal Officer in charge of the Customs at the Port of embarkation or of destination, or any person authorised by him, shall be at liberty at all times to enter and inspect any Passenger Vessel, and the fittings, provisions, and stores therein; and whoever impedes such entry or inspection, or refuses to allow of the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

XIII. If any Native Passenger in any Ship shall be landed at any Port or place other than the Port or place at which he may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless such landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the Master shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

XIV. Nothing in this Act contained shall take away or abridge any right of action which may accrue to any Native Passenger, or to any other person, in respect of the breach or non-performance of any contract made with the Master or Owner of the Ship or his Agent.

XV. All offences against this Act shall be punishable in a summary manner by a Magistrate. If the person directed to pay any penalty is the Master or Tindal of a Ship, and the same is not paid at the time and in the manner prescribed by the order of payment, the Magistrate may, in addition to the means prescribed by law for enforcing payment, direct, by warrant, the amount remaining unpaid to be levied by distress and sale of the said Ship, her tackle, furniture, and apparel.

XVI. For the purpose of the adjudication of penalties under this Act, any offence shall be deemed to have been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of the place where the offender is found.

XVII. Any Magistrate imposing any penalties under this Act may, if he thinks fit, direct the whole or any part thereof to be applied in compensating any person for any wrong or damage which he may have sustained by the act or default in respect of which such penalty is imposed, or in or towards payment of the expenses of the proceedings.

XVIII. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include a Magistrate of Police appointed under Act XIII. of 1856, a Joint Magistrate, and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, and a Justice of the Peace.

The words "Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Local Government.

tering the Executive Government of that portion of the said territories where the Port or place in question is situate.

XIX. This Act shall commence and take effect from the expiration of Act I. of 1857.

Legislative Council of India.

24th December 1859.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India, on the 24th December 1859, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 28th of February next:—

A Bill to Provide for the Good Order and Discipline of the Battalions of Military Police.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for good order and discipline in the Battalions of Military Police entertained under the Governments of Bengal and of the North-Western Provinces; It is enacted as follows:—

I. For the better regulation of discipline and the maintenance of good order in the Battalions of Military Police, entertained under the Lieutenant Governors of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces, all Native Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates attached to, or serving with those Battalions shall be subject to the provisions to this Act, and on the commission of any of the offences enumerated in the Table annexed to this Act to be tried as hereinafter directed.

Provided that if any Battalion or part thereof, in time of war or when employed against any persons in arms hostile to the Government, shall be placed under the orders of any Officer Commanding the Military Forces of the Government, it shall be competent to this Officer to direct all persons attached to the Battalion of Military Police, to be held amenable to any Articles of War that shall be in force among the Troops under his command so far as the same shall be applicable.

II. The cognizance of the commission of any of the offences enumerated in the Table annexed to this Act which shall be charged against any Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private of a Battalion of Military Police, is vested in the Commanding Officer of each Battalion who, if he find sufficient grounds for a trial, shall try the offender as provided in this Act.

III. All Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates of Police Battalions shall be amenable to the ordinary Courts of Criminal jurisdictions with respect to any offence of which a Magistrate may take cognizance; and it shall be competent to the Commanding Officer of a Police Battalion in any case which he may try under this Act and which is also triable by a Magistrate, instead of trying the offender, to report the circumstances for the information of the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the matter. When in any case a Magistrate is certified that an offence committed by an Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private of a Police Battalion is under trial by a Commanding Officer empowered under this Act to try the same, he shall stay his own proceedings.

IV. When a Commanding Officer finds ground for the trial or investigation of any offence, he may direct the person charged, if an Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer, to be placed under arrest; if a Private to be placed in confinement.

V. The depositions of prosecutors and witnesses and the statements of offenders shall be taken down in the Vernacular language of the parties under examination, but it shall be competent to the Lieutenant Governors of Bengal and of the North-Western Provinces, with respect to any of the offences enumerated in the annexed Table, to direct the Presiding Officer to record the depositions of witnesses by way of running narrative in his own handwriting and in his own language and to dispense with a Vernacular record of the evidence in such cases.

VI. If any person not amenable to this Act when duly summoned to appear as a witness shall not appear; or appearing shall refuse to give his evidence, the default or recusancy, as it may be, may be notified to the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the place where the trial is held under this Act, and the Magistrate shall be competent to deal with the case as if the default or recusancy had occurred in any matter pending before himself.

VII. When a Commanding Officer shall be of opinion that any Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private charged with the commission of any of the offences enumerated in Article I. of the annexed Table is guilty, and that a sentence of two years' imprisonment with or without labour, and in the case of Non-Commissioned Officers or Privates with or without stripes, is inadequate to the offence, he shall commit the prisoner for trial before the Sessions Judge of any District in which the investigation may have been held, and the Sessions Judge shall try the prisoner as in ordinary cases provided. If the Sessions Judge convict the prisoner, he shall pronounce such sentence as he may think fit: but no sentence of death shall be carried into effect without the proceedings being referred for the revision of the Sudder Court, and the Sudder Court shall confirm or mitigate the sentence or acquit the prisoner as it may deem fitting.

VIII. When a Commanding Officer shall acquit the person tried, the order of acquittal shall be final; but it shall be competent to the Inspector of Military Police in Bengal or the Commissioner of Military Police in the North-Western Provinces, under such limitation and control as the Lieutenant-Governors of those Provinces may impose, on a review of the proceedings held by a Commanding Officer in any case, to direct the dismissal of the Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private under trial.

IX. When a Commanding Officer shall convict a person under trial, he shall pronounce such sentence as he may consider adequate to the offence committed, within the limits of the punishments prescribed in the annexed Table: but whenever the sentence pronounced shall, in the case of Officers, exceed simple imprisonment for or the forfeiture of pay for one month in the whole; or, in the case of Non-Commissioned Officers or Privates shall exceed six months' imprisonment with labour or with fifty stripes—the trial shall be referred for the confirmation of the Inspector or Commissioner as aforesaid; and it shall be competent to the Inspector or the Commissioner in any such case to confirm or mitigate the sentence imposed or to acquit the prisoner.

X. In any case not referred by a Commanding Officer, it shall be competent to the Inspector or Commissioner as aforesaid to call for the proceedings and to confirm or mitigate the sentence pronounced or discharge the prisoner.

XI. No Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private shall be dismissed except with the sanction of the Inspector or the Commissioner of Military Police; and in the case of an Officer except with the sanction of the local Government.

XII. When a Commanding Officer shall sentence a Non-Commissioned Officer to corporal punishment, he shall at the same time order him to be reduced to the ranks, unless the sentence include dismissal.

XIII. When a Commanding Officer shall convict any Non-Commissioned Officer of any of the offences enumerated in the annexed Table, it shall be competent to him to reduce the offender to a lower grade or to the ranks, in lieu of or in addition to the punishment which he may inflict; but whenever the sentence is required to be confirmed by the Inspector or Commissioner aforesaid, the order for the reduction of the prisoner shall be subject to the same confirmation.

XIV. When a Commanding Officer shall convict a Non-Commissioned Officer or a Private of any of the offences enumerated in the annexed Table, he may order the offender to be dismissed in lieu of or in addition to the sentence which he may inflict.

XV. When any Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private shall be dismissed, he shall forfeit all claim to pension.

XVI. When any Officer not being the Commanding Officer of a Battalion, shall be on detached duty in command of a Company or other party of the Battalion, it shall be competent to the Inspector or Commissioner of Military Police with the sanction of the local Government to vest him specially with the powers of a Commanding Officer of a Battalion for the trial of the offences defined in any or all of the following Articles of the annexed Table: that is, Articles 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15.

XVII. Any person sentenced to imprisonment under this Act may be confined in any prison or place that the local Government may think fit to direct.

XVIII. It shall be competent to the Inspector or Commissioner of Police as aforesaid, subject to the approval and direction of the local Governments, to require Officers having authority to try offences under this Act to submit monthly or other returns of the cases under trial, and to prescribe suitable forms for the same.

XIX. If a Battalion of Military Police or a party thereof be detached on duty beyond the limits of the Government to which it belongs, the jurisdiction vested in Commanding Officers of Battalions and in other Officers under Sections II. and XVI. of this Act may be exercised in any place, district, or province in which the said Battalion or party may be employed.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council of India.

17th December 1859.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 17th December 1859, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 21st of February next:—

A Bill to Amend and Extend Act XXII. of 1836 (relating to the levy of a Toll on Boats, Rafts, and Floats, passing through the Circular and Eastern Canals).

Whereas it has been found necessary to open for traffic a new Canal leading from the late Toll House at Dhappa to Ooltadanga, and it is expedient that a Toll should be levied on Boats, Rafts, and Floats passing through the said Canal; It is enacted as follows:—

I. The following line of navigation, from the date of the passing of this Act, shall be subject to the provisions of Section II. Act XXII. of 1836, in like manner as is enacted with respect to the two lines of navigation therein described (that is to say),—

The line of Canal running North from the late Toll House at Dhappa to Ooltadanga where it joins the Circular Canal.

II. This Act shall be construed as part of Act XXII. of 1836, as construed as part of the said Act XXII. of 1836.
