Whereas it is expedient to make the process of execution on all sides of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts as near as may be the same; and also to extend and amend the provisions for giving effect to the decrees and orders of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts in certain cases, which are contained in Act No. XXV. of 1841: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. No process of contempt shall issue to compel the performance of so much of any judgment, decree, sentence, or order, either decretal or interlocutory, made by any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, as directs any person to pay any money or costs, or to execute any conveyance or other deed or instrument, or to make any transfer or surrender, or to do any act which a constituted attorney of such person, if ordered by the Court to do the same for his principal, would have the means of performing.

II. Where any person is liable to pay any money or costs upon a judgment recovered against him in any of the said Courts, or has made default in the payment of any money or costs, which by any order, decree, or sentence, made in any proceeding by any of the said Courts on any side thereof, he has been ordered to pay, execution may be issued, either against his person by a writ in the nature of the ordinary writ of Capias ad Satisfaciendum, or to levy such money or costs out of his property by a writ of Fieri Facias or Venditioni Exponas, according to the course and practice of the Court, as the same shall be settled by the rules and orders to be made for giving effect to the provisions of this Act. Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to a fine unpaid for a criminal offence, or alter the mode of compelling the payment of such fine.

Proviso.

III. The Sheriff shall pay the money which he may levy under any execution, either to the party named in the writ, in satisfaction of his demand, or into Court, according to the exigency of the writ, which shall be in conformity with the order under which the money is payable.

IV. Whenever any person has been directed by any judgment, decree, sentence, or order of any of the said Courts, to execute any conveyance, deed, or instrument, or to make any transfer or surrender, or to do any act which a constituted attorney of such person, if directed by the Court to do the same for his principal, would have the means of performing, and such person has refused or neglected to obey such direction, or has evaded compliance therewith, either by absenting himself in order to avoid service of the judgment, decree, sentence, or order, wherein such direction is contained, or by any other means, it shall be lawful for the Court by which such direction has been given, whether the person disobeying or evading compliance with such direction is in custody or not, attorney of such person, if directed by the Court to do the same for his principal, would have the means of performing, and such person has refused or neglected to obey such direction, or has evaded compliance therewith, either by absenting himself in order to avoid service of the judgment, decree, sentence, or order, wherein such direction is contained, or by any other means, it shall be lawful for the Court by which such direction has been given, whether the person disobeying or evading compliance with such direction is in custody or not, upon application made to the said Court for that purpose, and upon proof to its satisfaction of such default or evasion as aforesaid, to order or appoint the Registrar, Master, or other Officer of the said Court to execute such conveyance, deed, or instrument, or to make such transfer or surrender, or to do such other act as aforesaid, for and in the name of the person by whom the same ought to have been executed, made, or done; and every conveyance, deed, and instrument which shall have been executed, and every transfer and surrender which shall have been made, and every other act which shall have been done by an Officer of Court under the authority of this Act, shall in all respects have the same force and validity as it would have if it had been duly executed, made, or done by the persons for and in whose name it shall have been so executed, made, or done.

V. If it shall appear to any of the said Courts, upon an application made to it under this Act, that it can safely dispense with the formal execution of any conveyance, deed, or instrument, which the person directed to execute the same has failed to execute, or with the signature of any writing required for the formal performance of any act required to be done, but omitted to be done by the person directed to do the same, it shall be lawful for the said Court, in lieu of ordering its Officer to execute the said conveyance, deed, or instrument, or to sign the said writing, by its order to declare that such conveyance, deed, instrument, or writing shall be as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, without the execution or signature of the person directed to execute or sign the same, as it would have been if he had duly executed or signed the same.

VI. When any person has been directed, by any judgment, decree, sentence, or order of any of the said Courts, to deliver up possession of any immovable property, or of any specific chattel or security, or to deliver to any person or persons, or to deposit in Court or elsewhere any books, papers, writings, or other articles or things, and has refused or neglected to obey such direction, or has evaded compliance therewith, either by absenting himself, to avoid service of the said judgment, decree, sentence, or order, or by any other means, it shall be lawful for the Court by which such direction has been given, whether such person is in custody or not, on proof of such default or evasion as aforesaid, to issue a writ or writs to the Sheriff, directing him either to put the party therein named into possession, or to seize and take such chattel, security, books, papers, writings, or other articles or things, and to deal with the same according to the exigency of the writ, which in all cases shall be conformable to the order, to compel the performance whereof the same is issued. But nothing herein contained shall authorise the Sheriff to disturb the bona fide possession of any person other than the person against whom such order is made.

VII. The 1st and 2nd Sections of Act No. XXV. of 1841, except as to all proceedings which shall have been had or commenced thereunder before this Act comes into operation, are hereby repealed.

VIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any of the said Courts from issuing process of contempt, according to its present course of practice, on its Equity side, against the person of any party who has been ordered to do any act other than the payment of money or costs, or the execution of any conveyance, deed, or other instrument, if obedience to such order cannot otherwise be enforced or against the person of any party who has committed a breach of any injunction; and the Court may issue such process of contempt on any of its sides; and in such cases shall have, and may exercise all powers which it now has touching the commitment, detention, or discharge of any person taken under process of contempt issued on its Equity side.

IX. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Supreme Courts to frame such new or altered writs of execution as they shall deem necessary or expedient for giving effect to the provisions hereinafter contained, and, by the Rules or orders to be made under this Act, to regulate the mode of issuing and executing such writs of execution.

3. No person will be allowed to bid for the contract unless he previously deposits in this Office, in cash, the sum of Rupees one thousand two hundred and thirty-four (1,234), which sum will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on his part to execute the necessary deed of contract when required to do so, on his offer being accepted; in which latter case he must be prepared to give unexceptionable bonded security to the further amount of Rupees four thousand nine hundred and thirty-six (4,936), which, together with the amount previously deposited, will be held as a guarantee for the due fulfilment of his contract.

4. A contractor must comply immediately with all emergent demands, and meet others of less urgency within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him, in failure whereof, or if any supply be condemned by a Committee of Officers as aforesaid, the articles, or such others as may be required in lieu thereof, shall be purchased by this Department, without delay, at his Bills for articles supplied under this contract must be preferred within one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which the contractor will forfeit the full value of the supplies for which bills have not been so preferred, unless it clearly appear, to the satisfaction of the Commissary General, that the delay was unavoidable.

9. The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on the contractors' bills will be recovered from the first bills preferred for payment; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount remitted will be refunded.

10. Any party who, after offering for a contract, fails to furnish the necessary security, as provided for in Clause 7 of this Notice, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions, unless he produces a document from some person or persons of unexceptionable character and sufficient means, guaranteeing the due execution and performance of the contract on his offer being accepted.

2. Verbal offers for the contract will be received at this Office on Saturday the 24th instant, at 1 o'clock precisely, when bidders will be required to bid a per-centage above or below the prices exhibited in the above list at which the supply will be made, on the understanding that the articles supplied are to be of unexceptionable quality, and according to musters which may be seen in this Office, or of the sort usually supplied, and are to be delivered, in the first instance at the Commissariat Stores at the Presidency if required, and afterwards to the indenting departments, in good condition, free of all charges beyond the stipulated price, in such quantities as may from time to time be demanded; and that the same are liable to examination and rejection by the Executive Commissariat Officer, or by the indenting or receiving Officer; or by a Committee of Officers appointed on the part of Government, in the event of the contractor being dissatisfied with the decision of the above Officers, or either of them; it being understood that the decision of such Committee is to be final, and binding on all parties.

3. No person will be allowed to bid for the contract unless he previously deposits in this Office, in cash, the sum of Rupees sixty-eight (68), which sum will be forfeited in the event of delay, evasion, or refusal on his part to execute the necessary deed of contract when required to do so, on his offer being accepted, in which latter case he must be prepared to give unexceptionable bonded security to the further amount of Rupees two hundred and seventy-three (273), which, together with the amount previously deposited, will be held as a guarantee for the due fulfilment of his contract.

4. A contractor must comply immediately with all emergent demands, and meet others of less urgency within the periods stated in the requisitions made upon him; in failure whereof, or if any supply be condemned by a Committee of Officers as aforesaid, the articles, or such others as may be required in lieu thereof, shall be purchased by this department, without delay, at his risk and cost, if it be considered expedient to do so; and in all such cases thirty (30) per cent. upon the amount of expenses incurred, or a fine of from Rupees thirty (30) to two hundred (200), at the option of the Executive Commissariat Officer, will be levied as liquidated damages for each and every such breach of contract, it being understood that the simple condemnation of any article by a Committee constitutes a breach of contract, whether the rejected articles be replaced by the contractor or by this department. In every such case, also, it is to be understood that the contract may be cancelled, at the discretion of the Commissary General, and that if the contract be so cancelled, the cash deposit mentioned in Paragraph 3 of this Notice will be forfeited to Government.

contractor to make supplies or obey orders, or any attempt on his part, or that of his agents, to pass off articles of an inferior quality in lieu of those he is bound to supply, or any neglect to deliver them at the time and place ordered, will subject him, in every instance, to be fined to the extent of Rupees twenty-five (25), at the option of the Executive Commissariat Officer, from whose order an appeal may be made to the Commissary General, whose decision is to be final; but in cases when it may be deemed fit to exact any of the penalties provided for in the preceding clause, no further penalty shall be leviable under this clause.

6. It is further to be understood that the contractor, or an accredited agent on his part, approved of by the Executive Commissariat Officer, is to attend at this Office during the usual hours of business, i. e. from 10 A. 8. Bills for articles supplied under this contract must be preferred within one month from the date of the delivery of the articles, in default of which the contractor will forfeit the full value of the supplies for which bills have not been so preferred, unless it clearly appear, to the satisfaction of the Commissary General, that the delay was unavoidable.

9. The amount of retrenchments made by the Military Board on the contractor's bills will be recovered from the first bills preferred for payment; but in the event of such retrenchments, or any portion thereof, being remitted, the amount remitted will be refunded.

10. Any party who, after offering for a contract, fails to furnish the necessary security, as provided for in Clause 7th of this Notice, will be interdicted from bidding on future occasions, unless he produces a document from some person or persons of unexceptionable character and sufficient means, guaranteeing the due execution and performance of the contract on his offer being accepted.

11. The annual outlay on the above contract is estimated at Rupees one thousand three hundred and sixty-eight (1,368).

12. No reason will be assigned for the rejection of any offer.

POSTAL NOTICES.

The BUSINESS of the BOMBAY POST OFFICE having been MADE OVER exclusively to the charge of the Deputy Post Master General, all parties having occasion to write on any matter connected therewith are requested to address that Officer direct, in the first instance.

Bombay, 21st November 1854.

Parties who may desire to send or call at the Post Office for their Overland Letters, are requested to register their Names; otherwise the Letters will be sent out for delivery by the Post Office Peons.

No Bearing Letters will be delivered except on immediate payment of the Postage.

Bombay, 16th December 1854.

The Public are warned against enclosing Bank Notes, Cheques, and other Valuables, in Letters, for transmission by Post. The least that parties can do who make up their minds to risk loss in this way, is to register the Letters at the Post Office, which is effected by payment of a Fee of Four Annas on each Letter, when a Receipt will be granted for it.

Bombay, 19th February 1855.

As many Letters and Communications, which have sole reference to the business of the Bombay Post Office, continue to come to the address of the Post Master General from Mofussil Offices, and others which ought to be addressed to the Deputy Post Master General in charge of the Bombay Post Office, come to the address of the Post Master General, and thereby much delay and inconvenience arise in the transaction of business, it is requested with reference to the Advertisement in Government Gazette, dated the 21st November 1854, notifying that the business of the Bombay Office had been made over to the Deputy, that care be taken in addressing properly all Letters and Communications, either to the Post Master General, or to the Deputy Post Master General, according as the business to which they refer has to be attended to and disposed of by either. It is requested that instructions to this effect be issued to all subordinate Offices.

Bombay, 21st February 1855.

The attention of the Public is particularly requested to Clause XVII. of the New Post Office Rules, and likewise to Section XXXVII. of Post Office Act No. XVII. of 1854.

"Clause XVII.—The Delivery Peons are prohibited from going out of their usual course to deliver Letters, Papers, or Parcels, and from delivering them without immediate payment of the exact amount of Postage; and they are not bound to give change. Should they be subject to detention, they are not to deliver the Letters, Papers, or Parcels, but to return them in the evening to the Post Office, for delivery the following day."

No. 204 of 1855.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council has much satisfaction in publishing to the Army the following letter from Brigadier General F. Horn, Commanding 1st Brigade 4th Division of the Army of the Crimea, dated Camp near Sevastopol, 18th November 1854, to the Chairman of the Honorable the Court of Directors :—

" To Major OLIPHANT,

" Chairman to the Honorable Court of Directors, East India Company.

" SIR,

" I trust you will kindly pardon the liberty I take as an utter stranger in thus addressing you, as I feel it would be an act of injustice on my part to allow the departure of Lieutenant Johnson, of the 6th Bombay Native Infantry, and Irregular Cavalry, (who has been for upwards of two months attached to the 20th Regiment by Lord Raglan's order,) without bearing testimony of his gallant behaviour at the recent terrific action of Inkerman, which victory is allowed even to have eclipsed that of the Alma.

" I therefore beg to state, that in the early part of the action of the 5th November, the 20th, then under my Command, had the misfortune to lose ten Officers, including one killed, and the 4th Division, to which it belonged, also lost the General (the Honorable Sir G. Cathcart), and the two Brigadiers, which called me as next in seniority to Command the Division. I cannot therefore speak in terms of sufficient praise of the cool and determined bravery, combined with intelligence, of Mr. Johnson on the occasion. When the Regiment had, as described, lost so many of its members, his presence on the battle-field was singularly useful in cheering and directing the men; and I cannot but see in him the promise of a most efficient and valuable Officer to the Service to which he belongs, and he now leaves the Crimea, and his companions in arms of the 20th Regiment, to the universal regret of the latter, and in consequence of his furlough having nearly expired.

" I have &c.,

(Signed) " FREDERICK HORN, Colonel and Lieutenant Colonel 20th Regt.,

" And Acting Brigadier General 1st Brigade 4th Division.

" Camp near Sevastopol, 18th November 1854."

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 9th March 1855.

No. 42 of 1855.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council, in publishing the following extract from a Despatch from the Honorable the Court of Directors, dated the 10th of January last, directs, in accordance therewith, that the name of Captain Haines be removed from the Indian Navy list, from this date:—

“It remains for us to perform the painful duty which the facts of this lamentable case have made incumbent on us,—that of removing from our employment a servant who has so disgracefully betrayed the trust reposed in him. We have therefore dismissed Captain Stafford Bettesworth Haines from the Service of the East India Company.

“With respect to Lieutenant Cruttenden, as the Articles of War do not admit of his being brought to trial for the offence of signing false certificates, you have contented yourselves with addressing to him a letter similar to that which we addressed to Dr. Vaughan, and have placed him at the disposal of the Commander in Chief of the Indian Navy. As there is no suspicion that Lieutenant Cruttenden had any guilty knowledge, and as we have no reason to doubt the sincerity of his statement that he thought himself justified by the practice of his predecessor, Dr. Malcolmson, in taking the word of Captain Haines for what he was bound to ascertain for himself, we shall not inflict any further punishment on Lieutenant Cruttenden than to direct that he be not employed in any Civil capacity; the same direction is applicable to Dr. Vaughan.

“Dr. Malcolmson, the most culpable of the three, as he commenced the improper practice, having since died, we shall only express our concurrence in the opinion you recorded, of the extremely unsatisfactory character of his explanation.”

Bombay Castle, 12th March 1855.
