"FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SUMMARY OF CONSTRUCTION OF INCOME TAX ACTS Nos. XXXII. AND XXXIX. OF 1860.

No. 174.

Landowner

Chargeable in current year on rents receivable by him for previous year whether realized or not.

Act XXXII. of 1860. Section XCVII. Rules 4 and 6.

A Landowner should be assessed to the Income Tax for the year 1861-62 upon the amount of rents receivable by him for the previous year (1860-61) notwithstanding that such rents may not have been realized by reason of the insolvency or absconding of the tenants.

Abatement

In respect of such rents when allowable.

Section XCVII. Rule 23.

If the rents for the year 1861-62 be not realized by the landowner he may obtain an abatement and discharge of the Duty on that account under Rule 23 Section XCVII., Act XXXII. of 1860.

Landowner

When and when not chargeable on rents of newly acquired land.

Section XCVII. Rule 4.

By Rule 4 of Section XCVII., a landowner is chargeable only upon the amount of the rents and profits received and receivable by him on account of any land for the previous year. If he acquire the land after the end of the preceding year, and if the rents of that year never were receivable by him, he cannot be assessed until after the expiration of the current year. In some cases the acquisition of land during the current year might carry with it the right to arrears of rent for the previous year. When such is the case the person acquiring the land is assessable upon the amount so receivable by him for the previous year.—(Financial Department Order, No. 14062, dated 26th November 1861.)

The following despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State, published by the Government of India, is republished for general information:—

"No. 845.

The following Despatch, from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State, is published by order of the Governor General in Council:—

'India Office, London, 9th December 1861.

To His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council.

My Lord,—I have to acknowledge paragraphs 2 and 3 of your Public Despatch, No. 42 of 1861, which forward a Memorial from Messrs. Woodrow, Lodge, and other Members of the Education Department, praying that they may be placed upon the same footing as Principals and Head Masters of Colleges and Schools in regard to their being eligible to pensions if incapacitated by age or infirmity after the same length of services as Law Officers and Native Judges.

2. The appointments held by these gentlemen are those of Inspectors, Principals, Professors, and Head Masters, and as Professors are of a grade higher than Head Masters and Inspectors than either Principals or Head Masters, I sanction the grant to the Memorialists of pensions on the same terms and conditions as were authorised for the last named grades in paragraph 4* of the Financial Despatch, dated 20th July 1858, No. 23, subject to the usual limitation applicable to the pensions of the Uncovenanted Service.

* Extract from the Financial Despatch from the late Court of Directors, No. 23 of 1853, dated the 20*th July.*

4. Our attention has again been given to the subject, and we have resolved now to withdraw the restriction as respects this valuable class of Public Servants* and to sanction their being admitted to participate in the privileges of the Pension Rules of 1831. We have also determined, with a view of showing our estimation of the importance of their services, that the Principals and Head Masters of Colleges or Schools shall be ranked in the same class with Law Officers and Native Judges, and in like manner with them be qualified, if incapacitated by age or infirmity, to receive pensions equivalent to one-third of their average monthly salary after fifteen years' service, and to one-half after a service of twenty-two years or upwards. This privilege must be confined to Principals and Head Masters. With regard to all other Educational Servants a service of twenty years will be a necessary qualification for the minimum rate of pension.

* Servants of Government employed in the Education Department.

Vide Clause 3, Rule V. of the Pension Rules of 1831.

I have, &c.,

31*st May* 1861. Superintendent.

Notice

Is hereby given that on the 16th December 1861 a Cotia of about 552 Candies burthen was found deserted, dismasted, water-logged, and with the rudder gone, 24 miles off the Port of Achrey, in the Rutnagherry Collectorate. No papers were found on board. On the stern is the English figure "9," and on a beam inside is carved "Tons, 138." A bundle of Coffee, 2 bales of Tow, some bundles of Red Pepper, and some pieces of Sappan Wood were found on board. The vessel from her build appears to be Arab. She was brought into the Port of Achrey. The vessel and property, at present in the charge of the Police Foujdar of Kunkowlee, Talooka Malwar, will be handed over to the owners on their proving their claim before the said officer, and paying the expenses incurred. If no claim be preferred before the 4th March 1862, the said property will be sold by Public Auction on that day at 10 o'clock.

N.B.—This table is an extract from a more extensive yearly Return that is prepared for statistical purposes, and chiefly for the detection of any removable sources of disease, with a view to improving the healthiness of the Island. As the principal object cannot be fully attained unless the true causes of death be recorded, persons of all stations are requested, in each case of death occurring in their circle, to obtain, in writing, from the Medical Attendants the name of the fatal disease, that it may be delivered to the Policeman at the funeral place. Medical Practitioners particularly, are requested to aid the registration. Blank forms of Death Reports, to keep by them in readiness, are given gratuitously on application at the Office of the Deputy Commissioner of Police.

It is thought that some withhold their assistance through the notion that reports of the single casualties coming now and then under their observation could but little affect the Returns; but it ought rather to be borne in mind, that the accuracy of the Returns depends on the correct reporting of all single cases, for of such only the aggregate is made up.

Amongst these Taxes is the duty on Arts, Trades, and Dealings, commonly called the License Tax.

The Law by which this Tax is imposed was passed on the 16th July 1861.

It is a Tax which falls chiefly upon the various classes of Artizans, Mechanics, and petty Traders.

That these, as well as the wealthier classes, should, in proportion to their means, contribute to the support of the State, is just in itself, and is consonant with the usages of India; and the Governor General in Council has no reason to suppose that this principle is not understood and contentedly acknowledged by all.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

The following Resolution of the Government of India is republished for general information :—

"No. 26.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

Fort William, the 21st February 1862.

READ Reports by the Auditor-General of India and the Civil Pay-Masters of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the N. W. Provinces, and the Punjab on the Cash Balances of India for the months of November and December 1861, and Jannary 1862.

Read also revised Estimates prepared in the Financial Department of the Revenues and Charges and the Cash requirements of India for the year 1861-62.

RESOLUTION.—During three years the Financial condition of India consequent upon the Mutiny, has made it necessary that new Taxes should be imposed upon the Country.

Amongst these Taxes is the duty on Arts, Trades, and Dealings, commonly called the License Tax.

The Law by which this Tax is imposed was passed on the 16th July 1861.

It is a Tax which falls chiefly upon the various classes of Artizans, Mechanics, and petty Traders.

That these, as well as the wealthier classes, should, in proportion to their means, contribute to the support of the State, is just in itself, and is consonant with the usages of India; and the Governor General in Council has no reason to suppose that this principle is not understood and contentedly acknowledged by all.

It is the conviction of the Governor General in Council that the License Tax may be equitably and advantageously adopted as part of the Financial System of India whenever the exigencies of the State shall make it necessary.

But the Governor General in Council desires not to impose Taxes upon any classes without necessity; and the improvement which has now shown itself in the Financial condition of India, enables the Government to dispense with the sum which would have been yielded by the License Tax.

This improvement is demonstrated by the Returns lately received under the new system of Account and Audit and by the steady increase of the Cash Balances.

The Cash Balances of all India amounted, on the 31st of January, to 18,40,00,000 Rupees, which, after allowing for the payment of all sums due for charges in England, will leave a net balance in India of more than fifteen crores.

As during the last year no Loans have been raised; as in that time there have been no extraordinary receipts; as it is certain by the Returns already before the Government that the actual Financial results of the year 1861-62 will be more favorable than was anticipated in the Estimates of April last; as most of the branches of Revenue are healthy, and as further reductions of expenditure are in progress, the Governor General in Council is satisfied that the License Tax is not required to maintain a Financial equilibrium. He has therefore resolved to dispense with it.

The annual sum which the Government will thereby surrender is between fifty and sixty lacs of Rupees.

This sum would be collected from about five millions of payers.

As the collection, although not far advanced, has been begun, the Governor General in Council determines that, in order to avoid unnecessary trouble and vexation, and to prevent all doubt of the intention of the Government, the collection shall be abandoned at once without waiting for the completion of the Budget of the ensuing year.

Accordingly, the Governor General in Council orders that, in anticipation of the Law which will be immediately proposed for the repeal of Act XVIII. of 1861, all proceedings under that Act be stopped, and that any collections which may have been made under it be returned to the payers.
